AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

shall hereafter be held and considered to have been honorably discharged from the military service of the United States as a second lieutenant of the Seventy-fourth Regiment United States Colored Infantry on the thirtieth day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-four: Provided, That no pension shall accrue prior to the passage of this Act.

Proviso. No prior pension, etc.

Approved, February 13, 1913.

February 14, 1913. [H. R. 15181.]

[Private, No. 132.]

CHAP. 56.—An Act For the relief of Harry S. Wade.

Harry S. Wade. Payment to, for injuries.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Harry S. Wade the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, in full compensation for injuries received by him on May sixteenth, nineteen hundred and eleven, while in the performance of his duties as an employee of the United States Government, being a machine driller engaged in drilling holes for blasting in connection with the construction of the Celilo Canal, Columbia River improvement, at Big Eddy, Wasco County, Oregon.

Approved, February 14, 1913.

February 14, 1913. [H. R. 18425.]

[Private, No. 133.]

CHAP. 57.—An Act For the relief of Simon Nager.

Simon Nager. Military record corrected.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of American in Congress assembled, That in the administration of the pension laws and the laws governing the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, or any branch thereof, Simon Nager, who was a member of Company A, First Regiment United States Infantry, shall hereafter be held and considered to have been discharged honorably from the military service of the United States as of said organization on the first day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-four: Provided, That no pension or other emolument shall accrue or become payable prior to the passage of this Act.

Proviso. No prior pension.

Approved, February 14, 1913.

February 18, 1913. [H. R. 24121.]

[Private, No. 134.]

CHAP. 58.—An Act To pay certain employees of the Government for injuries received while in the discharge of their duties, and other claims.

Appropriations for paying claims for personal injuries to Government employees.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That twenty-two thousand two hundred and thirty-one dollars and thirty-eight cents be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay certain employees of the United States Government for personal injuries received while in the discharge of their duties, without any fault on their part; the same being in full, the receipt of the same to be taken in each case as full and final release and discharge of the respective claims, namely:

Alice M. Burrows.

To pay one thousand dollars to Alice M. Burrows, widow of Leslie Burrows, late rural mail carrier on route numbered two, Coal Run, Ohio, who lost his life in discharge of his duty.

Lars P. Peterson.

To pay five thousand dollars to Lars P. Peterson, for injuries received in the discharge of his duties on the Illinois and Mississippi Canal, said injuries having rendered him permanently and totally helpless.