AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

improvements of Indian allottees as the Secretary of the Interior shall find to be justly due from and hitherto unpaid by such company; and each of said rights of way is hereby expressly declared to be subject to the condition that so much thereof as shall not have been occupied by a completed railway at the expiration of five years from and after the date of the approval thereof under this Act by the Secretary of the Interior shall ipso facto revert to the United States without any act of reentry or judicial or legislative declaration of forfeiture.

Reversion for non-user.

Approved, June 4, 1912.

June 4, 1912.
[H. J. Res. 323.]
[Pub. Res., No. 34.]

[No. 23.] Joint Resolution Authorizing Charles F. Riddell, cashier in the office of the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, to sign all checks, requisitions, and papers in the place of U. S. Jackson, Sergeant at Arms, to obtain money appropriated for the salaries and mileage of Members of the House of Representatives during the temporary disability of the said U. S. Jackson.

House of Representatives.
Charles F. Riddell may sign checks, etc., during disability of Sergeant at Arms.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Charles F. Riddell, cashier in the office of the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to sign all necessary checks, requisitions, and papers in the place of U. S. Jackson, Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, to secure the money appropriated for the salaries and mileage of the Members of the House of Representatives during the temporary disability of the said U. S. Jackson, Sergeant at Arms; and the Treasurer of the United States is hereby authorized to pay the said money to the said Riddell, cashier, in conformity to the provisions of this resolution, upon the approval, by the Secretary of the Treasury, of a bond in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, of the said Riddell, payable to the United States of America.

Bond required.
Post, p. 637.

Approved, June 4, 1912.

June 7, 1912.
[S. J. Res. 72.]
[Pub. Res., No. 35.]

[No. 24.] Joint Resolution Making provision for the Fifth International Congress of Chambers of Commerce and Commercial and Industrial Associations.

Congress of Chambers of Commerce, etc.
President to invite foreign nations to Fifth International.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and requested to extend to the Governments of the commercial nations of the world an invitation to be represented officially at the Fifth International Congress of Chambers of Commerce and Commercial and Industrial Associations, to be held in Boston, Massachusetts, September twenty-fourth to twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred and twelve.

Cooperation of foreign business organizations requested.

That the Secretary of State is hereby requested to ask the Governments of the commercial nations of the world to notify the leading business organizations of their respective countries of this action by the Congress of the United States of America and suggest their cooperation.

Approved, June 7, 1912.

June 10, 1912.
[S. J. Res. 97.]
[Pub. Res., No. 36.]

[No. 25.] Joint Resolution Authorizing the Fifteenth International Congress on Hygiene and Demography to occupy temporary structures erected by the American Red Cross and to erect temporary structures in Potomac Park, Washington, District of Columbia.

American Red Cross.
Temporary structures in Potomac Park built by, may remain for Congress on Hygiene, etc.
Ante, p. 36.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the American Red Cross is hereby given permission to allow the temporary structure erected by it in Potomac Park, under the provisions of the joint resolution approved May eleventh, nineteen hundred and eleven, to remain in position for a sufficient length of time to be used for exhibition pur-