[CHAPTER 434]

AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. A. B. Tanner.

October 13, 1941
[S. 1228]
[Private Law 166]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mrs. A. B. Tanner, of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, the sum of $5,000. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims against the United States for damages sustained by the said Mrs. A. B. Tanner on account of the death of her husband, A. B. Tanner, who was struck by a bullet fired by a sentry, Private Olen R. Ekes, at Camp Shelby, Mississippi, on October 8, 1940, when the driver of the automobile in which the said A. B. Tanner was riding, L. B. Tanner, his son, failed to execute properly an order given by the sentry: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Mrs. A. B. Tanner.
