the Treasury, shall be lodged in the treasury department, conditioned to pay to the United States each and every sum of money the United States shall be obliged to pay to the persons named in the list of suspended items, as aforesaid, or to their legal representatives.

Approved, May 24, 1828.

Statute I. May 26, 1828.

Chap. CXLIX.—An Act for the relief of James Fraser.

Payment to him for work done for government.

Be it enacted, &c., That there be paid to James Fraser, of the District of Columbia, the sum of thirty-three dollars and twenty-five cents, being the balance due him for twenty-one days' work done and performed for the Government, in the city of Washington, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Approved, May 26, 1828.

Statute I. May 26, 1828.

Chap. CL.—An Act for the relief of Philip Slaughter.

Account to be settled, and allowance made.

Be it enacted, &c., That the proper accounting officers of the treasury be, and they are hereby, required to settle and adjust the account of Philip Slaughter, and to allow him five years' full pay for his services as a captain in the revolutionary war, (without interest;) which five years' full pay is the commutation of his half pay for life; to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, That the acceptance by said Slaughter, of the grant herein made, shall be in lieu of any claim he may have under the provisions of a bill passed at this session of Congress, entitled "An act for the relief of the surviving officers and soldiers of the revolution."

Proviso. 1830, ch. 206.

Act of May 15, 1828, ch. 53.

Approved, May 26, 1828.

Statute I. May 26, 1828.

Chap. CLI.—An Act for the relief of John T. Ross.

Payment of drawback on certain merchandise.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to John T. Ross, of Newburyport, in Massachusetts, the amount of drawback on three trunks of Madras handkerchiefs, exported by him in November, eighteen hundred and twenty-two, on board the brig William, at Boston, for the West Indies, which he would have been entitled to receive, had he executed the bond, and taken the oath, within the time prescribed by law: Provided, That all other provisions of the laws concerning the exportation of merchandise, with the benefit of drawback, shall have been complied with.

Proviso.

Approved, May 26, 1828.

Statute I. May 26, 1828.

Chap. CLII.—An Act for the relief of Robert Huston.

Payment to him for provisions furnished in 1812.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury pay to Robert Huston, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two hundred and sixty-three dollars and ninety-two cents, for provisions and forage furnished the detatchment of militia under the command of Major-General Samuel Hopkins, in the fall of the year one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

Approved, May 26, 1828.

Statute I. May 26, 1828.

Chap. CLIII.—An Act for the relief of Seth Knowles.

Allowance of debentures on rum shipped for Hamburg.

Be it enacted, &c., That the collector of the port of Boston and Charlestown be, and he is hereby, authorized to allow to Seth Knowles the debentures upon one hundred hogsheads of rum, shipped on board the Florida, for Hamburg, in the year one thousand eight hundred and

AUTHENTICATED U.S. GOVERNMENT INFORMATION GPO