the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of thirty dollars, for a rifle gun lost by him in the year eighteen hundred and twelve, in marching between Vincennes and Tippecanoe, in the militia service of the United States.

Approved, February 17, 1836.

---

Statute I.
Feb. 17, 1836.

Chap. XXV.—An Act for the relief of John Saunders and Perley Putnam.

Payment of superintendents of public buildings.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to pay unto John Saunders and Perley Putnam four hundred and ninety dollars and twenty-seven cents, in full satisfaction of their services as superintendents of the public buildings in Salem, Massachusetts, it being at the rate of two and a half per centum on the amount expended, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Approved, February 17, 1836.

---

Statute I.
Feb. 17, 1836.

Chap. XXVI.—An Act for the relief of Benjamin Franklin Stickney.

His accounts as Indian agent to be settled and paid.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of War be, and he hereby is, authorized and required to settle the accounts of Benjamin Franklin Stickney, late agent of Indian affairs at Fort Wayne, for all services of a military nature or character which shall appear to have been performed by the said Benjamin Franklin Stickney for the United States, between the twenty-second day of March, in the year eighteen hundred and twelve, and the tenth day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and fifteen, and to allow him such compensation for the same as has heretofore been allowed to other agents of Indian affairs for similar services, and that the amount found to be due the said Benjamin Franklin Stickney, be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, That no allowance shall be made under the provisions of this act, to the said Benjamin Franklin Stickney, for the performance of any of the ordinary duties of an agent of Indian affairs.

Proviso.

Approved, February 17, 1836.

---

Statute I.
Feb. 17, 1836.

Chap. XXVII.—An Act for the relief of John McDonell.

Payment for forage, fuel, &c., necessarily taken.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury pay to John McDonell, assignee of a claim of Pierre Le Blanc, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of three hundred and eighty dollars and twenty-five cents, for forage, fuel, provisions, and other articles, necessarily taken and used by a corps of mounted Kentucky volunteers, under the command of Col. R. M. Johnson, the property of said Pierre Le Blanc, and which were taken by order of said Johnson, at the river Ecorces, on his march into Canada, in the fall of the year eighteen hundred and thirteen.

Approved, February 17, 1836.

---

Statute I.
Feb. 17, 1836.

Chap. XXVIII.—An Act for the relief of Jacob B. Gilbert.

Payment for a house destroyed.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury pay to Jacob B. Gilbert, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of six hundred dollars, being the value of a house destroyed by the enemy during the late war, on the Niagara frontier, which belonged to the said Jacob B. Gilbert, and at the time of its destruction, was used as a place of military deposit.

Approved, February 17, 1836.

AUTHENTICATED U.S. GOVERNMENT INFORMATION GPO