volutionary pension roll of the United States, and to pay him a pension, at the rate of sixty dollars per annum, from the fourth day of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, during his natural life.

Approved, March 19, 1842.

Statute II.
March 19, 1842.

Chap. XIII.—An Act for the relief of Margaret Barnes, widow of Elijah Barnes.

To be placed on pension roll. Act of July 4, 1836, ch. 362.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of War cause the name of Margaret Barnes, widow of Elijah Barnes, a soldier of the revolution, to be entered on the pension roll, in conformity to the act of Congress of July fourth, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, and pay her at the rate of twenty dollars per annum, commencing on the fourth day of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, as is required in other cases by the provisions of the aforesaid act.

Approved, March 19, 1842.

Statute II.
March 19, 1842.

Chap. XIV.—An Act for the relief of Joseph Bassett.

To be placed on pension list. Act of July 4, 1836, ch. 362.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, directed to place the name of Joseph Bassett on the pension list, under the act of July fourth, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, at the rate of eighty dollars per annum, and to pay him at that rate from the fourth day of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, during his natural life.

Approved, March 19, 1842.

Statute II.
March 19, 1842.

Chap. XV.—An Act granting a pension to William Rand.

To be placed on pension list.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to place the name of William Rand, of Deerfield, in the state of New Hampshire, on the list of revolutionary pensioners, and to pay him a pension at the rate of twenty dollars per annum during his natural life, to commence on the fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one.

Approved, March 19, 1842.

Statute II.
April 14, 1842.

Chap. XVI.—An Act for the relief of James Smith, of Arkansas.

Authorized to enter certain land, in lieu of land sold him by mistake.

Be it enacted, &c., That James Smith, of the state of Arkansas, be, and he is hereby, authorized to enter without payment, in lieu of one fractional quarter and two half quarters of land, which the register and receiver of the land office at Little Rock sold to him through mistake, and upon which he made valuable improvements, but which lands were subsequently sold and patented by the United States to James Brown, three hundred and twenty acres of the unappropriated and unimproved lands of the United States in the Helena land district, in the state of Arkansas.

Approved, April 14, 1842.

Statute II.
April 14, 1842.

Chap. XVII.—An Act for the relief of James H. Relfe.

His account for certain expenses to be settled.

Be it enacted, &c., That the proper accounting officers of the Treasury Department be, and they are hereby, directed to audit and settle the account of James H. Relfe, United States marshal for the district of Missouri, for the expenses incurred by him in the execution of the order of the twentieth of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, from the War Department, by which the marshal of said district was directed to remove certain intruders from the military reservation at Fort Leavenworth, Missouri; and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed

AUTHENTICATED U.S. GOVERNMENT INFORMATION GPO