Statute III.
March 1, 1843.

CHAP. LXIII.—An Act for the relief of William G. Sanders.

Payment for property destroyed.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to pay to William G. Sanders nine hundred dollars, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, being the amount allowed for a store-house, a dwelling-house, and one other house, owned by him, and destroyed the twenty-first of January, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, by order of Captain F. S. Belton, of the second artillery, United States army, he being then commander at Fort Brooke, Florida, to destroy the cover of the enemy in approaching the fort, as well as to prevent the said three buildings being occupied and burned by the hostile Indians in the vicinity of the fort, with a view of setting on fire the block-houses and other defences.

APPROVED, March 1, 1843.

Statute III.
March 1, 1843.

CHAP. LXIV.—An Act for the relief of William Fabre.

Payment for prize money.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury pay to William Fabre, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one hundred and twenty dollars and forty-two cents, being for prize money due to said William Fabre, when a sailor on board the Saratoga, on Lake Champlain.

APPROVED, March 1, 1843.

Statute III.
March 1, 1843.

CHAP. LXV.—An Act for the relief of Robert G. Ford.

Accounts to be settled, &c.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury cause to be audited, settled, and paid, by the proper officers of his department, to Robert G. Ford, the amount of the accounts in his favor, and in favor of Robert Williams, for provender furnished General Nelson's brigade of mounted volunteer militia in the service of the United States in the year one thousand eight hundred thirty-seven, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, under the same rules and on the same terms as if the original accounts and duplicates were produced; provided the claimant give security to the United States, indemnifying them against loss arising from the production of the original papers, should they ever be found, before receiving the money authorized to be paid by this act.

APPROVED, March 1, 1843.

Statute III.
March 1, 1843.

CHAP. LXVI.—An Act for the relief of Mary Williams, widow of Jacob Williams, deceased.

Post, p. 932.

To be placed on pension roll. Act of July 4, 1836, ch. 362.

Be it enacted, &c., That Mary Williams, of East Hartford, in the state of Connecticut, widow of Jacob Williams, a revolutionary soldier, deceased, be placed on the pension roll, under the act of July fourth, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, and that she be paid such annual pension while she remains a widow as her said husband would have been entitled to had he been living on the seventh of June, eighteen hundred and thirty-two.

APPROVED, March 1, 1843.

Statute III.
March 1, 1843.

CHAP. LXVII.—An Act for the relief of George Randall, John C. Haskell, and Elisha H. Holmes.

Payment for removing the bar at Saybrook.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, directed to pay to George Randall, John C. Haskell, and Elisha H. Holmes, or their legal representatives, the sum of three thousand four hundred and seventy-one dollars, and fifty-seven cents, out of any

AUTHENTICATED U.S. GOVERNMENT INFORMATION GPO