UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DEMOND CHARLES BRACKETT,

Plaintiff,

v.

KORY HONEA, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 2:23-cv-1935 KJM AC P

ORDER

Plaintiff, a county prisoner proceeding pro se, has filed a motion requesting that he be re-issued an ink pen, which he asserts was confiscated to prevent him from filing further complaints. ECF No. 12. He further asserts that he will not be able to use a pen to fill out court documents until he can get into the jail's law library, which can take months. Id. at 2. This court does not require filings be written in ink, and plaintiff's motion demonstrates that he has access to a writing instrument, even if it is not the pen he seeks to have returned.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that plaintiff's motion to be re-issued an ink pen (ECF No. 12) is DENIED.
