[CHAPTER 467]

AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Skio Takayama Hull.

August 17, 1949
[H. R. 1679]
[Private Law 223]

Mrs. Skio Takayama Hull.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding any provision of law excluding from admission to the United States persons of races ineligible to citizenship, Mrs. Skio Takayama Hull, Japanese wife of Lovejoy Gordon Hull, a citizen of the United States and a veteran of World War I, shall be admitted to the United States for permanent residence upon application hereafter filed and without presenting an immigration visa or other travel documents, if she is otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. Upon the admission of the said Mrs. Skio Takayama Hull to the United States for permanent residence, the Secretary of State shall instruct the proper quota-control officer to deduct one number from the Japanese quota for the first year such quota is available.

Quota deduction.

Approved August 17, 1949.

[CHAPTER 468]

AN ACT

For the relief of Samuel Fadem.

August 17, 1949
[H. R. 1993]
[Private Law 224]

Samuel Fadem.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Attorney General be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of Samuel Fadem, who entered the United States lawfully at the port of New York on September 27, 1946. Upon the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State shall reduce by one the quota for Poland then current.

Quota deduction.

Approved August 17, 1949.

[CHAPTER 469]

AN ACT

For the relief of Charles W. Miles.

August 17, 1949
[H. R. 2344]
[Private Law 225]

Charles W. Miles.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $1,000 to Charles W. Miles, of Union City, Tennessee, in full settlement of all claims against the United States as reimbursement of a fine paid by him upon conviction of contempt of court for which offense he subsequently received a full pardon: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 17, 1949.
