Private Law 929 CHAPTER 1134

August 31, 1954
[H. R. 6332]

AN ACT

For the relief of James Philip Coyle.

James P. Coyle.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, for purposes of computing increases in pay for length of service, James Philip Coyle, chief water tender, United States Navy, retired, shall be credited, in addition to any other service to which he may be entitled, with service for the period August 9, 1919, to and including September 21, 1922. Credit for this additional service shall be effective as of July 20, 1938. Current applicable appropriations shall be available for the payment of any claims resulting from the enactment of this Act.

Approved August 31, 1954.

Private Law 930 CHAPTER 1135

August 31, 1954
[H. R. 6562]

AN ACT

For the relief of Captain C. R. MacLean.

Capt. C. R. MacLean.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Captain C. R. MacLean, United States Coast Guard, the sum of $486. Such sum represents the tuition paid by Captain C. R. MacLean for the education of his children in the public schools of the Canal Zone although the United States paid the tuition for the education of children of members of the Army, Navy, and Air Force stationed in the Canal Zone. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
