GENERAL PROVISIONS—GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

SECTION. 1. The appropriate appropriation or fund available to the General Services Administration shall be credited with the cost of operation, protection, maintenance, upkeep, repair, and improvement, included as part of rentals received from Government corporations pursuant to law (40 U.S.C. 129).

SEC. 2. Funds available to the General Services Administration shall be available for the hire of passenger motor vehicles.

SEC. 3. Not to exceed 2 per centum of funds made available in appropriations for operating expenses and salaries and expenses, during the current fiscal year, may be transferred between such appropriations for mandatory program requirements. Any proposed transfers shall be approved in advance by the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate.

SEC. 4. Funds in the Federal Buildings Fund made available for fiscal year 1994 for Federal Buildings Fund activities may be transferred between such activities only to the extent necessary to meet program requirements. Any proposed transfers shall be approved in advance by the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate.

SEC. 5. For fiscal year 1993 and thereafter, at no later than the end of the fifth fiscal year after the fiscal year for which funds are appropriated or otherwise made available, unobligated balances of operating expenses and salaries and expenses appropriations available to GSA during such fiscal year may be transferred and merged into the "Major equipment acquisitions and development activity" of the Salaries and Expenses, General Management and Administration appropriation account for agency-wide acquisition of capital equipment, automated data processing systems, and for financial management and management information systems needed to implement the Chief Financial Officers Act, Public Law 101-576, and any other laws or regulations. The unobligated balances transferred shall remain available until expended: Provided, That any proposed use of these transferred funds in fiscal year 1993 and thereafter shall only be made after advance approval by the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate.

SEC. 6. (a) The Act entitled "An Act to provide retirement, clerical assistants, and free mailing privileges to former Presidents of the United States, and for other purposes", approved August 25, 1958 (3 U.S.C. 102 note), is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

"SEC. 2. The entitlements of a former President under subsections (b) and (c) of the first section shall be available—

"(1) in the case of an individual who is a former President on the effective date of this section, for 5 years, commencing on such effective date; and

"(2) in the case of an individual who becomes a former President after such effective date, for 4 years and 6 months, commencing at the expiration of the period for which services and facilities are authorized to be provided under section 4 of the Presidential Transition Act of 1963 (3 U.S.C. 102 note)."

(b) Section 3214 of title 39, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking "A former President" and inserting "(a) Subject to subsection (b), a former President"; and

(2) by adding at the end the following new subsection:

"(b) Subsection (a) shall cease to apply—

"(1) 5 years after the effective date of this subsection, in the case of any individual who, on such effective date—

"(A) is a former President (including any individual who might become entitled to the mailing privilege under subsection (a) as the surviving spouse of such a former President); or

“(B) is the surviving spouse of a former President;

and

“(2) 4 years and 6 months after the expiration of the period for which services and facilities are authorized to be provided under section 4 of the Presidential Transition Act of 1963 (3 U.S.C. 102 note), in the case of an individual who becomes a former President after such effective date (including any surviving spouse of such individual, as described in the parenthetical matter in paragraph (1)(A)).”

(c) The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall take effect on October 1, 1993.

SEC. 7. Section 204 of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 is amended by adding a subsection (i) to provide that the Administrator may retain from the proceeds of sales of personal property conducted by the General Services Administration amounts necessary to recover, to the extent practicable, costs incurred by the General Services Administration (or its agent) in conducting such sales. The Administrator shall deposit amounts retained into the General Supply Fund established under section 109(a) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 and may use such portion of amounts so deposited as is necessary to pay (1) direct costs incurred by the General Services Administration in conducting sales of personal property, and (2) indirect costs incurred by the General Services Administration that are reasonably related to those sales. Amounts retained that are not needed to pay the direct and indirect costs incurred shall periodically, but not less than annually, be transferred from the General Supply Fund to the general fund or another appropriate account in the Treasury.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Administrator of General Services is hereby authorized to acquire a site suitable to the General Services Administration of approximately 4 acres of land in the City of Tucson, Arizona for a Federal courthouse; this is to be accomplished through an exchange with the City of Tucson for Federal real property of comparable value in that city under the jurisdiction of the General Services Administration.

SEC. 9. None of the funds appropriated by this Act may be obligated or expended in any way for the purpose of the sale, excessing, surplus, or disposal of lands in the vicinity of Norfolk Lake, Arkansas, administered by the Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army, without the specific approval of the Congress.

SEC. 10. None of the funds appropriated by this Act may be obligated or expended in any way for the purpose of the sale, excessing, surplus, or disposal of lands in the vicinity of Bull Shoals Lake, Arkansas, administered by the Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army, without the specific approval of the Congress.

TITLE V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

THIS ACT

SECTION 501. No part of any appropriation made available in this Act shall be used for the purchase or sale of real estate or for the purpose of establishing new offices inside or outside the District of Columbia: Provided, That this limitation shall not apply to programs which have been approved by the Congress and appropriations made therefor.

SEC. 502. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly so provided herein.

SEC. 503. The expenditure of any appropriation under this Act for any consulting service through procurement contract, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 3109, shall be limited to those contracts where such expenditures are a matter of public record and available for public inspection, except where otherwise provided under existing law, or under existing Executive order issued pursuant to existing law.

SEC. 504. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be available for the procurement of, or for the payment of, the salary of any person engaged in the procurement of any hand or measuring tool(s) not produced in the United States or its possessions except to the extent that the Administrator of General Services or his designee shall determine that a satisfactory quality and sufficient quantity of hand or measuring tools produced in the United States or its possessions cannot be procured as and when needed from sources in the United States and its possessions, or except in accordance with procedures prescribed by section 6-104.4(b) of Armed Services Procurement Regulation dated January 1, 1969, as such regulation existed on June 15, 1970: Provided, That a factor of 75 per centum in lieu of 50 per centum shall be used for evaluating foreign source end products against a domestic source end product. This section shall be applicable to all solicitations for bids opened after its enactment.

SEC. 505. None of the funds made available to the General Services Administration pursuant to section 210(f) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 shall be obligated or expended after the date of enactment of this Act for the procurement by contract of any service which, before such date, was performed by individuals in their capacity as employees of the General Services Administration in any position of guards, elevator operators, messengers, and custodians, at said date, would be terminated as a result of the procurement of such services, except that such funds may be obligated or expended for the procurement by contract of the covered services with sheltered workshops employing the severely handicapped under Public Law 92-28.

SEC. 506. None of the funds made available by this Act for the Department of the Treasury may be used for the purpose of eliminating any existing requirement for sureties on customs bonds.

SEC. 507. None of the funds made available by this Act shall be available for any activity or for paying the salary of any Government employee where funding an activity or paying a salary to a Government employee would result in a decision, determination, rule, regulation, or policy that would prohibit the enforcement of section 307 of the 1930 Tariff Act.

SEC. 508. None of the funds made available by this Act shall be available for the purpose of transferring control over the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center located at Glynco, Georgia, Tucson, Arizona, and Artesia, New Mexico, out of the Treasury Department.

SEC. 509. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be used for publicity or propaganda purposes within the United States not heretofore authorized by the Congress.

SEC. 510. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be available for the payment of the salary of any officer or employee of the United States Postal Service, who—

(1) prohibits or prevents, or attempts or threatens to prohibit or prevent, any officer or employee of the United States Postal Service from having any direct oral or written communication or contact with any Member or committee of Congress in connection with any matter pertaining to the employment of such officer or employee or pertaining to the United States Postal Service in any way, irrespective of whether such communication or contact is at the initiative of such officer or employee or in response to the request or inquiry of such Member or committee; or

(2) removes, suspends from duty without pay, demotes, reduces in rank, seniority, status, pay, or performance of efficiency rating, denies promotion to, relocates, reassigns, transfers, disciplines, or discriminates in regard to any employment right, entitlement, or benefit, or any term or condition of employment of, any officer or employee of the United States Postal Service, or attempts or threatens to commit any of the foregoing actions with respect to such officer or employee, by reason of any communication or contact of such officer or employee with any Member or committee of Congress as described in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

SEC. 511. Funds under this Act shall be available as authorized by sections 4501–4506 of title 5, United States Code, when the achievement involved is certified, or when an award for such achievement is otherwise payable, in accordance with such sections. Such funds may not be used for any purpose with respect to which the preceding sentence relates beyond fiscal year 1994.

SEC. 512. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available to the Department of the Treasury by this or any other Act shall be obligated or expended to contract out positions in, or downgrade the position classifications of, members of the United States Mint Police Force and the Bureau of Engraving and Printing Police Force, or for studying the feasibility of contracting out such positions.

SEC. 513. The Office of Personnel Management may, during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1994, accept donations of supplies, services, and equipment for the Federal Executive Institute, the Federal Quality Institute, and Executive Seminar Centers for the enhancement of the morale and educational experience of attendees.

SEC. 514. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be available for the procurement of, or for the payment of, the salary of any person engaged in the procurement of stainless steel flatware not produced in the United States or its possessions, except to the extent that the Administrator of General Services or his designee shall determine that a satisfactory quality and sufficient quantity of stainless steel flatware produced in the United States or its possessions, cannot be procured as and when needed from sources in the United States or its possessions or except in accordance with procedures provided by section 6–104.4(b) of Armed Services Procurement Regulations, dated January 1, 1969. This section shall be applicable to all solicitations for bids issued after its enactment.

SEC. 515. The United States Secret Service may, during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1994, accept donations of money to off-set costs incurred while protecting former Presidents and spouses of former Presidents when the former President or spouse travels for the purpose of making an appearance or speech for a payment of money or any thing of value.

SEC. 516. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used to withdraw the designation of the Virginia Inland Port at Front Royal, Virginia, as a United States Customs Service port of entry.

SEC. 517A. Such sums as may be necessary for fiscal year 1994 pay raises for programs funded by this Act shall be absorbed within the levels appropriated by this Act.

SEC. 517B. (a) Any adjustment required by section 5303 of title 5, United States Code, to become effective in fiscal year 1994 in the rates of basic pay for the statutory pay systems shall not be made.

(b) For the purpose of this section, the term “statutory pay system” has the meaning given such term by section 5302(1) of title 5, United States Code.

SEC. 518. None of the funds made available to the Postal Service by this Act shall be used to transfer mail processing capabilities from the Las Cruces, New Mexico postal facility, and that every effort will be made by the Postal Service to recognize the rapid rate of population growth in Las Cruces and to automate the Las Cruces, New Mexico postal facility in order that mail processing can be expedited and handled in Las Cruces.

SEC. 519. None of the funds in this Act may be used to reduce the rank or rate of pay of a career appointee in the SES upon reassignment or transfer.

SEC. 520. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be available to pay the salary for any person filling a position, other than a temporary position, formerly held by an employee who has left to enter the Armed Forces of the United States and has satisfactorily completed his period of active military or naval service and has within ninety days after his release from such service or from hospitalization continuing after discharge for a period of not more than one year made application for restoration to his former position and has been certified by the Office of Personnel Management as still qualified to perform the duties of his former position and has not been restored thereto.

SEC. 521. None of the funds made available to the United States Customs Service may be used to collect or impose any land border processing fee at ports of entry along the United States-Mexico border.

SEC. 522. (a) None of the funds appropriated by this Act may, with respect to an individual employed by the Bureau of the Public Debt in the Washington Metropolitan Region on April 10, 1991, be used to separate, reduce the grade or pay of, or carry out any other adverse personnel action against such individual for declining to accept a directed reassignment to a position outside such region, pursuant to a transfer of any such Bureau's operations or functions to Parkersburg, West Virginia.

(b) Subsection (a) shall not apply with respect to any individual who, on or after the date of enactment of this Act, declines an offer of another position in the Department of the Treasury which is of at least equal pay and which is within the Washington Metropolitan Region.

SEC. 523. In consideration of the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA) modifying its requirement for acquisition of General Services Administration (GSA) property at the Suitland Federal Center in Suitland, Maryland, GSA shall transfer to WMATA, at no cost, approximately sixteen (16) acres of GSA property to allow WMATA to construct its proposed Suitland Metrorail Station and related surface facilities. GSA will bear no additional costs, as a result of this transaction. The property to be transferred is located at the northeast quadrant of the intersection of Suitland Parkway at Silver Hill Road and is the southeastern most portion of the Suitland Federal Center Complex. It is bounded by Silver Hill Road on the southeast, Suitland Parkway property owned by the National Park Service on the southwest, the existing stream valley between Suitland Parkway and the historic Suitland House on the northwest and on the northeast a line just south of and parallel to a line from the Suitland House to the existing Federal Office Building along Silver Hill Road at Randall Road.

SEC. 524. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury shall implement the plan announced by the Bureau of the Public Debt on March 19, 1991, to consolidate such Bureau's operations in Parkersburg, West Virginia.

(b) The consolidation referred to in subsection (a) shall be completed by December 31, 1995, in accordance with the plan of the Bureau of the Public Debt.

SEC. 525. (a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including any other law which requires that property of the United States be used for a particular purpose, the Administrator of General Services shall convey the property described in subsection (c) to the State of Maryland.

(b) TERMS.—A conveyance of property under this section shall be—

- (1) by quitclaim deed;
- (2) without monetary consideration; and
- (3) subject to such other terms and conditions as the Administrator determines to be appropriate.

(c) PROPERTY DESCRIBED.—The property referred to in subsection (a) known as the "Chesapeake Bay Study Site" is property located in the State of Maryland, Queen Annes County, which—

(1) is part of the same land which, by quitclaim deed dated August 25, 1970, and recorded among the land records of Queen Annes County, Maryland, at Liber 53, Folio 200, was granted and conveyed by the State of Maryland, Maryland State Roads Commission, to the United States of America; and

(2) contains 55 acres more or less according to a survey prepared by McCrone, Inc., in July 1968 and amended on May 26, 1992.

SEC. 526. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used to provide any non-public information such as mailing or telephone lists to any person or any organization outside of the Federal Government without the approval of the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

SEC. 527. The Administrator of General Services shall promptly review the need of the General Services Administration for the parcel of land which it controls and which is located at 424 Trapelo Road in the City of Waltham, Massachusetts. The Administrator shall promptly determine to be excess property so much of said parcel as is no longer required for the needs of the General Services Administration. Subject to agreement between the Administrator and the Secretary of the Army concerning such portion of the excess property as may be required for the use of the Corps of Engineers, the Administrator shall transfer such portion to the Secretary of the Army without reimbursement. The property not included in such transfer shall be determined to be surplus property and shall be available only for transfer for a public purpose under section 203(k) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (40 U.S.C. 484(k)), except that an expression of interest or an application for a public purpose use under said section other than for educational purposes may not be received after 45 days from the date the Administrator determines the property to be surplus. If no transfer under section 203(k) has been made within one year after the date of such surplus determination, the Administrator may dispose of the property in accordance with all applicable provisions of that Act.

SEC. 528. COMPLIANCE WITH BUY AMERICAN ACT.

No funds appropriated pursuant to this Act may be expended by an entity unless the entity agrees that in expending the assistance the entity will comply with sections 2 through 4 of the Act of March 3, 1933 (41 U.S.C. 10a–10c, popularly known as the “Buy American Act”).

SEC. 529. SENSE OF CONGRESS; REQUIREMENT REGARDING NOTICE.

(a) PURCHASE OF AMERICAN-MADE EQUIPMENT AND PRODUCTS.—In the case of any equipment or products that may be authorized to be purchased with financial assistance provided under this Act, it is the sense of the Congress that entities receiving such assistance should, in expending the assistance, purchase only American-made equipment and products.

(b) NOTICE TO RECIPIENTS OF ASSISTANCE.—In providing financial assistance under this Act, the Secretary of the Treasury shall provide to each recipient of the assistance a notice describing the statement made in subsection (a) by the Congress.

SEC. 530. PROHIBITION OF CONTRACTS.

If it has been finally determined by a court or Federal agency that any person intentionally affixed a label bearing a “Made in America” inscription, or any inscription with the same meaning, to any product sold in or shipped to the United States that is not made in the United States, such person shall be ineligible to receive any contract or subcontract made with funds provided pursuant to this Act, pursuant to the debarment, suspension, and ineligibility procedures described in section 9.400 through 9.409 of title 48, Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 531. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including any law which requires that property of the United States be used for a particular purpose, the Administrator of General Services shall transfer to the Secretary of the Interior jurisdiction over the 1.9592 acres of land, and any related structures, located at the southwest corner of 12th and Indian School Road, N.W., Albuquerque, New Mexico, and described as follows:

A tract of land being within the original Old Indian School Boundary and situated within the east half (E¹/₂), Section 7, T. sec. 10 N., R. 3E, New Mexico Principal Meridian, Bernalillo County, New Mexico, being more particularly described by metes and bounds as follows:

Beginning at the southwest corner of said tract being a point intersecting the easterly right-of-way of 12th Street and the southerly line of the original 1905 Indian School property, being a brass cap marked “R/W 12th St. & Tr. Easement and rights incident thereto for electric lines as set forth in instrument recorded in Docket 883 at Page 213 of the official records of Navajo County, Arizona.

Liabilities and obligations imposed upon said land by reason of its inclusion within the Navajo County Flood Control District.

TITLE VI—GOVERNMENTWIDE GENERAL PROVISIONS

DEPARTMENTS, AGENCIES, AND CORPORATIONS

SECTION 601. Funds appropriated in this or any other Act may be used to pay travel to the United States for the immediate family of employees serving abroad in cases of death or life threatening illness of said employee.

SEC. 602. No department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States receiving appropriated funds under this or any other Act for fiscal year 1994 shall obligate or expend any such funds, unless such department, agency, or instrumentality has in place, and will continue to administer in good faith, a written policy designed to ensure that all of its workplaces are free from the illegal use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances (as defined in the Controlled Substances Act) by the officers and employees of such department, agency, or instrumentality.

SEC. 603. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Act of September 13, 1982 (Public Law 97-258, 31 U.S.C. 1345), any agency, department or instrumentality of the United States which provides or proposes to provide child care services for Federal employees may reimburse any Federal employee or any person employed to provide such services for travel, transportation, and subsistence expenses incurred for training classes, conferences or other meetings in connection with the provision of such services: Provided, That any per diem allowance made pursuant to this section shall not exceed the rate specified in regulations prescribed pursuant to section 5707 of title 5, United States Code.

SEC. 604. Unless otherwise specifically provided, the maximum amount allowable during the current fiscal year in accordance with section 16 of the Act of August 2, 1946 (60 Stat. 810), for the purchase of any passenger motor vehicle (exclusive of buses, ambulances, law enforcement, and undercover surveillance vehicles), is hereby fixed at $7,100 except station wagons for which the maximum shall be $8,100: Provided, That these limits may be exceeded by not to exceed $3,700 for police-type vehicles, and by not to exceed $4,000 for special heavy-duty vehicles: Provided further, That the limits set forth in this section may not be exceeded by more than five percent for electric or hybrid vehicles purchased for demonstration under the provisions of the Electric and Hybrid Vehicle Research, Development, and Demonstration Act of 1976: Provided further, That the limits set forth in this section may be exceeded by the incremental cost of clean alternative fuels vehicles acquired pursuant to Public Law 101-549 over the cost of comparable conventionally fueled vehicles.

SEC. 605. Appropriations of the executive departments and independent establishments for the current fiscal year available for expenses of travel or for the expenses of the activity concerned, are hereby made available for quarters allowances and cost-of-living allowances, in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 5992-24.

SEC. 606. Unless otherwise specified during the current fiscal year no part of any appropriation contained in this or any other Act shall be used to pay the compensation of any officer or employee of the Government of the United States (including any agency the majority of the stock of which is owned by the Government of the United States) whose post of duty is in the continental United States unless such person (1) is a citizen of the United States, (2) is a person in the service of the United States on the date of enactment of this Act who, being eligible for citizenship, has filed a declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States prior to such date and is actually residing in the United States, (3) is a person who owes allegiance to the United States, (4) is an alien from Cuba, Poland, South Vietnam, the countries of the former Soviet Union, or the Baltic countries lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence, or (5) South Vietnamese, Cambodian, and Laotian refugees paroled in the United States after January 1, 1975, or (6) nationals of the People's Republic of China that qualify for adjustment of status pursuant to the Chinese Student Protection Act of 1992: Provided, That for the purpose of this section, an affidavit signed by any such person shall be considered prima facie evidence that the requirements of this section with respect to his or her status have been complied with: Provided further, That any person making a false affidavit shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction, shall be fined no more than $4,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both: Provided further, That the above penal clause shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other provisions of existing law: Provided further, That any payment made to any officer or employee contrary to the provisions of this section shall be recoverable in action by the Federal Government. This section shall not apply to citizens of Ireland, Israel, the Republic of the Philippines or to nationals of those countries allied with the United States in the current defense effort, or to international broadcasters employed by the United States Information Agency, or to temporary employment of translators, or to temporary employment in the field service (not to exceed sixty days) as a result of emergencies.

SEC. 607. Appropriations available to any department or agency during the current fiscal year for necessary expenses, including maintenance or operating expenses, shall also be available for payment to the General Services Administration for charges for space and services and those expenses of renovation and alteration of buildings and facilities which constitute public improvements performed in accordance with the Public Buildings Act of 1959 (73 Stat. 749), the Public Buildings Amendments of 1972 (87 Stat. 216), or other applicable law.

SEC. 608. Funds made available by this or any other Act for administrative expenses in the current fiscal year of the corporations and agencies subject to chapter 91 of title 31, United States Code, shall be available, in addition to objects for which such funds are otherwise available, for rent in the District of Columbia; services in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 3109; and the objects specified under this head, all the provisions of which shall be applicable to the expenditure of such funds unless otherwise specified in the Act by which they are made available: Provided, That in the event any functions budgeted as administrative expenses are subsequently transferred to or paid from other funds, the limitations on administrative expenses shall be correspondingly reduced.

SEC. 609. No part of any appropriation for the current fiscal year contained in this or any other Act shall be paid to any person for the filling of any position for which he or she has been nominated after the Senate has voted not to approve the nomination of said person.

SEC. 610. Pursuant to section 1415 of the Act of July 15, 1952 (66 Stat. 662), foreign credits (including currencies) owed to or owned by the United States may be used by Federal agencies for any purpose for which appropriations are made for the current fiscal year (including the carrying out of Acts requiring or authorizing the use of such credits), only when reimbursement therefor is made to the Treasury from applicable appropriations of the agency concerned: Provided, That such credits received as exchanged allowances or proceeds of sales of personal property may be used in whole or part payment for acquisition of similar items, to the extent and in the manner authorized by law, without reimbursement to the Treasury.

SEC. 611. No part of any appropriation contained in this or any other Act shall be available for interagency financing of boards, commissions, councils, committees, or similar groups (whether or not they are interagency entities) which do not have a prior and specific statutory approval to receive financial support from more than one agency or instrumentality.

SEC. 612. Funds made available by this or any other Act to the "Postal Service Fund" (39 U.S.C. 2003) shall be available for employment of guards for all buildings and areas owned or occupied by the Postal Service and under the charge and control of the Postal Service, and such guards shall have, with respect to such property, the powers of special policemen provided by the first section of the Act of June 1, 1948, as amended (62 Stat. 281; 40 U.S.C. 318), and, as to property owned or occupied by the Postal Service, the Postmaster General may take the same actions as the Administrator of General Services may take under the provisions of sections 2 and 3 of the Act of June 1, 1948, as amended (62 Stat. 281; 40 U.S.C. 318a, 318b), attaching thereto penal consequences under the authority and within the limits provided in section 4 of the Act of June 1, 1948, as amended (62 Stat. 281; 40 U.S.C. 318c).

SEC. 613. None of the funds made available pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be used to implement, administer, or enforce any regulation which has been disapproved pursuant to a resolution of disapproval duly adopted in accordance with the applicable law of the United States.

SEC. 614. No part of any appropriation contained in, or funds made available by, this or any other Act, shall be available for any agency to pay to the Administrator of the General Services Administration a higher rate per square foot for rental of space and services (established pursuant to section 210(j) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended) than the rate per square foot established for the space and services by the General Services Administration for the fiscal year for which appropriations were granted.

SEC. 615. (a)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no part of any of the funds appropriated for the fiscal year ending on September 30, 1994, by this or any other Act, may be used to pay any prevailing rate employee described in section 5342(a)(2)(A) of title 5, United States Code—

(A) during that portion of fiscal year 1994 which precedes the start of the period described in subparagraph (B), in an amount that exceeds the rate payable for the applicable grade and step of the applicable wage schedule in accordance with section 616 of the Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government Appropriations Act, 1993, on the last day of the limitation imposed by such section 616; and

(B) during the period from the date determined under paragraph (2) until the end of fiscal year 1994, in an amount that exceeds the maximum rate allowable under subparagraph (A) by more than the amount determined under paragraph (3).

(2) The period under paragraph (1)(B) shall begin on the first day of the first applicable pay period beginning on or after the later of—

(A) the normal effective date of the applicable wage survey adjustment that is to become effective in fiscal year 1994 (determined as if this section and section 616 of the Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government Appropriations Act, 1993, were not in effect); or

(3)(A) If, during fiscal year 1994, employees under the General Schedule receive locality-based comparability payments under section 5304 of title 5, United States Code, but do not receive a pay adjustment under section 5303 of such title, the applicable amount under this paragraph shall be equal to one-fifth of the difference between the maximum amount allowable under paragraph (1)(A) and the amount that would be payable under subchapter IV of chapter 53 of such title (taking into account the applicable wage survey adjustment referred to in paragraph (2)(A)) were this section and section 616 of the Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government Appropriations Act, 1993, not in effect.

(B) If, during fiscal year 1994, employees under the General Schedule receive a pay adjustment under section 5303 of title 5, United States Code, and locality-based comparability payments under section 5304 of such title, the applicable amount under this paragraph shall be equal to—

(i) the amount determined under subparagraph (A); and

(ii) the amount resulting from an increase of 2.2 percent.

(C) The applicable amount under this paragraph shall be zero if neither subparagraph (A) nor subparagraph (B) applies.

(4) The Office of Personnel Management shall discuss with and consider the views of the Federal Prevailing Rate Advisory Committee in carrying out the Office's responsibilities with respect to this paragraph.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no prevailing rate employee described in subparagraph (B) or (C) of section 5342(a)(2) of title 5, United States Code, and no employee covered by section 5348 of such title, may be paid during the periods for which subsection (a) is in effect at a rate that exceeds the rates that would be payable under subsection (a) were subsection (a) applicable to such employee.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the rates payable to an employee who is covered by this section and who is paid from a schedule that was not in existence on September 30, 1993, shall be determined under regulations prescribed by the Office of Personnel Management.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rates of premium pay for employees subject to this section may not be changed from the rates in effect on September 30, 1993, except to the extent determined by the Office of Personnel Management to be consistent with the purpose of this section.

(e) The provisions of this section shall apply with respect to pay for services performed by any affected employee on or after October 1, 1993.

(f) For the purpose of administering any provision of law (including section 8431 of title 5, United States Code, and any rule or regulation, that provides premium pay, retirement, life insurance, or any other employee benefit) that requires any deduction or contribution, or that imposes any requirement or limitation, on the basis of a rate of salary or basic pay, the rate of salary or basic pay payable after the application of this section shall be treated as the rate of salary or basic pay.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be considered to permit or require the payment to any employee covered by this section at a rate in excess of the rate that would be payable were this section not in effect.

(h) The Office of Personnel Management may prescribe any regulations which may be necessary to carry out this section.

SEC. 616. During the period in which the head of any department or agency, or any other officer or civilian employee of the Government appointed by the President of the United States, holds office, no funds may be obligated or expended in excess of $5,000 to furnish or redecorate the office of such department head, agency head, officer or employee, or to purchase furniture or make improvements for any such office, unless advance notice of such furnishing or redecoration is expressly approved by the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate. For the purposes of this section the word "office" shall include the entire suite of offices assigned to the individual, as well as any other space used primarily by the individual or the use of which is directly controlled by the individual.

SEC. 617. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 112 and 113 of title 3, United States Code, each Executive agency detailing any personnel shall submit a report on an annual basis in each fiscal year to the Senate and House Committees on Appropriations on all employees or members of the armed services detailed to Executive agencies, listing the grade, position, and offices of each person detailed and the agency to which each such person is detailed.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to Federal employees or members of the armed services detailed to or from—

- (1) the Central Intelligence Agency;
- (2) the National Security Agency;
- (3) the Defense Intelligence Agency;
- (4) the offices within the Department of Defense for the collection of specialized national foreign intelligence through reconnaissance programs;
- (5) the Bureau of Intelligence and Research of the Department of State;
- (6) any agency, office, or unit of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Drug Enforcement Administration of the Department of Justice, the Department of the Treasury, the Department of Transportation, and the Department of Energy performing intelligence functions; and
- (7) the Director of Central Intelligence.

(c) The exemptions in part (b) of this section are not intended to apply to information on the use of personnel detailed to or from the intelligence agencies which is currently being supplied to the Senate and House Intelligence and Appropriations Committees by the executive branch through budget justification materials and other reports.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the term “Executive agency” has the same meaning as defined under section 105 of title 5, United States Code (except that the provisions of section 104(2) of title 5, United States Code, shall not apply), and includes the White House Office, the Executive Residence, and any office, council, or organizational unit of the Executive Office of the President.

SEC. 618. No funds appropriated in this or any other Act for fiscal year 1994 may be used to implement or enforce the agreements in Standard Forms 312 and 4355 of the Government or any other nondisclosure policy, form or agreement if such policy, form or agreement does not contain the following provisions:

“These restrictions are consistent with and do not supersede conflict with or otherwise alter the employee obligations, rights or liabilities created by Executive Order 12356; section 7211 of title 5, United States Code (governing disclosures to Congress); section 1034 of title 10, United States Code, as amended by the Military Whistleblower Protection Act (governing disclosure to Congress by members of the military); section 2302(b)(8) of title 5, United States Code, as amended by the Whistleblower Protection Act (governing disclosures of illegality, waste, fraud, abuse or public health or safety threats); the Intelligence Identities Protection Act of 1982 (50 U.S.C. 421 et seq.) (governing disclosures that could expose confidential Government agents), and the statutes which protect against disclosure that may compromise the national security, including sections 641, 793, 794, 798, and 952 of title 18, United States Code, and section 4(b) of the Subversive Activities Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. section 783(b)). The definitions, requirements, obligations, rights, sanctions and liabilities created by said Executive Order and listed statutes are incorporated into this Agreement and are controlling.”

SEC. 619. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no executive branch agency shall purchase, construct, and/or lease any additional facilities, except within or contiguous to existing locations, to be used for the purpose of conducting Federal law enforcement training without the advance approval of the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

SEC. 620. (a) None of the funds appropriated by this or any other Act may be expended by any Federal agency to procure any product or service that is subject to the provisions of Public Law 89–306 and that will be available under the procurement by the Administrator of General Services known as “FTS2000” unless—

(1) such product or service is procured by the Administrator of General Services as part of the procurement known as “FTS2000”; or

(2) that agency establishes to the satisfaction of the Administrator of General Services that—

(A) the agency’s requirements for such procurement are unique and cannot be satisfied by property and service procured by the Administrator of General Services as part of the procurement known as “FTS2000”; and

(B) the agency procurement, pursuant to such delegation, would be cost-effective and would not adversely affect the cost-effectiveness of the FTS2000 procurement.

(b) After July 31, 1994, subsection (a) shall apply only if the Administrator of General Services has reported that the FTS2000 procurement is producing prices that allow the Government to satisfy its requirements for such procurement in the most cost-effective manner.

SEC. 620A. Subsections (c) and (d) of section 3726 of title 31, United States Code, are amended to read as follows:

“(c) Expenses of transportation audit postpayment contracts and contract administration, and the expenses of all other transportation audit and audit-related functions conferred upon the Administrator of General Services, shall be financed from overpayments collected from carriers on transportation bills paid by the Government and other similar type refunds, not to exceed collections. Payment to any contractor for audit services shall not exceed 50 percent of the overpayment identified by contract audit.

“(d) At least annually, and as determined by the Administrator, after making adequate provision for expense of refunds to carriers, transportation audit postpayment contracts, contract administration, and other expenses authorized in subsection (c), overpayments collected by the General Services Administration shall be transferred to miscellaneous receipts of the Treasury. A report of receipts, disbursements, and transfers (to miscellaneous receipts) pursuant to this section shall be made annually in connection with the budget estimates to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget and to the Congress.”

SEC. 621. (a) No amount of any grant made by a Federal agency shall be used to finance the acquisition of goods or services (including construction services) unless the recipient of the grant agrees, as a condition for the receipt of such grant, to—

(1) specify in any announcement of the awarding of the contract for the procurement of the goods and services involved (including construction services) the amount of Federal funds that will be used to finance the acquisition; and

(2) express the amount announced pursuant to paragraph (1) as a percentage of the total costs of the planned acquisition.

(b) The requirements of subsection (a) shall not apply to a procurement for goods or services (including construction services) that has an aggregate value of less than $500,000.

SEC. 622. Notwithstanding section 1346 of title 31, United States Code, or section 611 of this Act, funds made available for fiscal year 1994 by this or any other Act shall be available for the interagency funding of national security and emergency preparedness telecommunications initiatives which benefit multiple Federal departments, agencies, or entities, as provided by Executive Order Numbered 12472 (April 3, 1984).

SEC. 623. Notwithstanding any provisions of this or any other Act, during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1994, any department, division, bureau, or office may use funds appropriated by this or any other Act to install telephone lines, necessary equipment, and to pay monthly charges, in any private residence or private apartment of an employee who has been authorized to work at home in accordance with guidelines issued by the Office of Personnel Management: Provided, That the head of the department, division, bureau, or office certifies that adequate safeguards against private misuse exist, and that the service is necessary for direct support of the agency's mission.

SEC. 624. (a) None of the funds appropriated by this or any other Act may be obligated or expended by any Federal department, agency, or other instrumentality for the salaries or expenses of any employee appointed to a position of a confidential or policy-determining character excepted from the competitive service pursuant to section 3302 of title 5, United States Code, without a certification to the Office of Personnel Management from the head of the Federal department, agency, or other instrumentality employing the Schedule C appointee that the Schedule C position was not created solely or primarily in order to detail the employee to the White House.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to Federal employees or members of the armed services detailed to or from—

- (1) the Central Intelligence Agency;
- (2) the National Security Agency;
- (3) the Defense Intelligence Agency;
- (4) the offices within the Department of Defense for the collection of specialized national foreign intelligence through reconnaissance programs;
- (5) the Bureau of Intelligence and Research of the Department of State;
- (6) any agency, office, or unit of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Drug Enforcement Administration of the Department of Justice, the Department of the Treasury, and the Department of Energy performing intelligence functions; and
- (7) the Director of Central Intelligence.

SEC. 625. None of the funds appropriated by this or any other Act may be used to relocate the Department of Justice Immigration Judges from offices located in Phoenix, Arizona to new quarters in Florence, Arizona without the prior approval of the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

SEC. 626. None of the funds made available in this Act for "Allowances and Office Staff for Former Presidents" may be used for partisan political activities.

SEC. 627. Section 635 of the Public Law 102-393 is amended in paragraph (c)(2) by striking "1993" and inserting "1994".

SEC. 628. Section 404 of the Federal Employees Pay Comparability Act of 1990 is amended by striking "Washington, DC-MD-VA Metropolitan Statistical Area" and inserting in its place, "Washington-Baltimore DC-MD-VA-WV Consolidated Metropolitan Statistical Area".

SEC. 629. No department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States receiving appropriated funds under this or any other Act for fiscal year 1994 shall obligate or expend any such funds, unless such department, agency or instrumentality has in place by July 1, 1994, and will continue to administer in good faith, a written policy designed to ensure that all of its workplaces are free from discrimination and sexual harassment and that all of its workplaces are not in violation of title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

REPEAL OF AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS FOR MAIL SENT AT REDUCED RATES OF POSTAGE

SEC. 703. (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 2401(c) is amended—

(1) in the first sentence—

(A) by striking “if sections” through “had not been enacted” and inserting “if sections 3217 and 3403 through 3406 had not been enacted”; and

(B) by striking “such sections and Acts.” and inserting “such sections.”; and

(2) in the second sentence—

(A) by striking “(i)”; and

(B) by striking “volume;” through “schedules.” and inserting “volume.”.

(b) APPLICABILITY.—The amendments made by subsection (a) shall apply with respect to appropriations for fiscal years beginning after September 30, 1993.

ESTABLISHING REDUCED RATES OF POSTAGE

SEC. 704. (a) RATES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 3626(a) is amended to read as follows:

“(a)(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, rates of postage for a class of mail or kind of mailer under former section 4358, 4452(b), 4452(c), 4454(b), or 4454(c) of this title shall be established in accordance with the applicable provisions of this chapter.

“(2) For the purpose of this subsection—

“(A) the term ‘costs attributable’, as used with respect to a class of mail or kind of mailer, means the direct and indirect postal costs attributable to such class of mail or kind of mailer (excluding any other costs of the Postal Service);

“(B) the term ‘regular-rate category’ means any class of mail or kind of mailer, other than a class or kind referred to in paragraph (3)(A) or section 2401(c); and

“(C) the term ‘institutional-costs contribution’, as used with respect to a class of mail or kind of mailer, means that portion of the estimated revenues to the Postal Service from such class of mail or kind of mailer which remains after subtracting an amount equal to the estimated costs attributable to such class of mail or kind of mailer.

“(3)(A) Except as provided in paragraph (4) or (5), rates of postage for a class of mail or kind of mailer under former section 4358, 4452(b), 4452(c), 4554(b), or 4554(c) of this title shall be established in a manner such that the estimated revenues to be received by the Postal Service from such class of mail or kind of mailer shall be equal to the sum of—

“(i) the estimated costs attributable to such class of mail or kind of mailer; and

“(ii) the product derived by multiplying the estimated costs referred to in clause (i) by the applicable percentage under subparagraph (B).

“(B) The applicable percentage for any class of mail or kind of mailer referred to in subparagraph (A) shall be the product derived by multiplying—

“(i) the percentage which, for the most closely corresponding regular-rate category, the institutional-costs contribution for such category represents relative to the estimated costs attributable to such category of mail, times

“(ii)(I) one-twelfth, for fiscal year 1994;

“(II) one-sixth, for fiscal year 1995;

“(III) one-fourth, for fiscal year 1996;

“(IV) one-third, for fiscal year 1997;

“(V) five-twelfths, for fiscal year 1998; and

“(VI) one-half, for any fiscal year after fiscal year 1998.

“(C) Temporary special authority to permit the timely implementation of the preceding provisions of this paragraph is provided under section 3642.

“(D) For purposes of establishing rates of postage under this subchapter for any of the classes of mail or kinds of mailers referred to in subparagraph (A), subclauses (I) through (V) of subparagraph (B)(ii) shall be deemed amended by striking the fraction specified in each such subclause and inserting ‘one-half’.

“(4) The rates for the advertising portion of any mail matter under former section 4358(d) or 4358(e) of this title shall be equal to the rates for the advertising portion of the most closely corresponding regular-rate category of mail, except that if the advertising portion does not exceed 10 percent of the issue of the publication involved, the advertising portion shall be subject to the same rates as apply to the nonadvertising portion.

“(5) The rates for any advertising under former section 4358(f) of this title shall be equal to 75 percent of the rates for advertising contained in the most closely corresponding regular-rate category of mail.”

(2) SPECIAL AUTHORITY.—Subchapter III of chapter 36 is amended by adding at the end the following:

“§ 3642. Special authority relating to reduced-rate categories of mail

“(a) In order to permit the timely implementation of section 3626(a)(3), the Postal Service may establish temporary rates of postage for any class of mail or kind of mailer referred to in section 3626(a)(3)(A).

“(b) Any exercise of authority under this section shall be in conformance with the requirements of section 3626(a), subject to the following:

“(1) All attributable costs and institutional-costs contributions assumed shall be the same as those which were assumed for purposes of the then most recent proceedings under subchapter II pursuant to which rates of postage for the class of mail or kind of mailer involved were last adjusted.

“(2) Any temporary rate established under this section shall take effect upon such date as the Postal Service may determine, except that—

“(A) such a rate may take effect only after 10 days’ notice in the Federal Register; and “(B) no such rate may take effect after September 30, 1998.

“(3) A temporary rate under this section may remain in effect no longer than the last day of the fiscal year in which it first takes effect.

“(4) Authority under this section may not be exercised in a manner that would result in more than 1 change taking effect under this section, during the same fiscal year, in the rates of postage for a particular class of mail or kind of mailer, except as provided in paragraph (5).

“(5) Nothing in paragraph (4) shall prevent an adjustment under this section in rates for a class of mail or kind of mailer with respect to which any rates took effect under this section earlier in the same fiscal year if—

“(A) the rates established for such class of mail or kind of mailer by the earlier adjustment are superseded by new rates established under subchapter II; and

“(B) authority under this paragraph has not previously been exercised with respect to such class of mail or kind of mailer based on the new rates referred to in subparagraph (A).

“(c) The Postal Service may prescribe any regulations which may be necessary to carry out this section, including provisions governing the coordination of adjustments under this section with any other adjustments under this title.

“(d) Notwithstanding any provision of section 3626(a)(3)(B) or subsection (a) of this section, any temporary rates established under this section for non-letter-shaped mail under former section 4452(b) or 4452(c) of this title shall not be lower than the rates in effect for such mail on September 30, 1993.”

(3) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

(A) SECTION 3626.—Section 3626(i) is repealed.

(B) SECTION 3627.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—Section 3627 is amended—

(I) by striking “sent at a free or reduced rate under section 3217, 3403–3406, 3626, or 3629 of this title,” and inserting “sent free of postage under section 3217 or 3403–3406”; and

H. R. 2403—45

(II) in the section heading by striking “AND REDUCED”.

(ii) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents for chapter 36 is amended—

(I) by striking the item relating to section 3627 and inserting the following:

“3627. Adjusting free rates.”;

and

(II) by inserting after the item relating to section 3641 the following:

“3642. Special authority relating to reduced-rate categories of mail.”.

(b) AUTHORIZATION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 2401 is amended—

(A) by striking subsections (d) through (f);

(B) by redesignating subsections (g) through (i) as subsections (e) through (g), respectively;

(C) in subsection (f) (as so redesignated by subparagraph (B)) by striking the second sentence;

(D) in subsection (g) (as so redesignated by subparagraph (B)) by striking “subsections (b) and (d) of this section” and inserting “subsection (b)”; and

(E) by inserting after subsection (c) the following:

“(d) As reimbursement to the Postal Service for losses which it incurred as a result of insufficient amounts appropriated under section 2401(c) for fiscal years 1991 through 1993, and to compensate for the additional revenues it is estimated the Postal Service would have received under the provisions of section 3626(a), for the period beginning on October 1, 1993, and ending on September 30, 1998, if the fraction specified in subclause (VI) of section 3626(a)(3)(B)(ii) were applied with respect to such period (instead of the respective fractions specified in subclauses (I) through (V) thereof), there are authorized to be appropriated to the Postal Service $29,000,000 for each of fiscal years 1994 through 2035.”.

(2) RATEMAKING LIMITATIONS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), rates of postage may not be established, under subchapter II of chapter 36 of title 39, United States Code, in a manner designed to allow the United States Postal Service to receive through revenues any portion of the additional revenues (referred to in section 2401(d) of such title, as amended by paragraph (1)(E)) for which amounts are authorized to be appropriated under such section 2401(d).

(B) EXCEPTION.—If Congress fails to appropriate an amount authorized under section 2401(d) of title 39, United States Code (as amended by paragraph (1)(E)), rates for the various classes of mail may be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of subchapter II of chapter 36 of such title (excluding section 3627 thereof) such that the resulting increase in revenues will equal the amount that Congress so failed to appropriate.

(c) APPLICABILITY.—

(1) RATES.—The amendments made by subsection (a) shall apply with respect to rates for mail sent after September 30, 1993.

(2) AUTHORIZATION.—The amendments made by subsection (b) shall apply with respect to appropriations for fiscal years beginning after September 30, 1993.

ELIGIBILITY OF CERTAIN MAILINGS FOR REDUCED RATES OF POSTAGE

SEC. 705. (a) ADVERTISING.—Section 3626(j)(1) is amended—

(1) in subparagraph (B) by striking “or” after the semicolon;

(2) in subparagraph (C) by striking the period and inserting “; or”; and

(3) by adding at the end the following:

“(D) any product or service (other than any to which subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) relates), if—

“(i) the sale of such product or the providing of such service is not substantially related (aside from the need, on the part of the organization promoting such product or service, for income or funds or the use it makes of the profits derived) to the exercise or performance by the organization of one or more of the purposes constituting the basis for the organization’s authorization to mail at such rates; or

“(ii) the mail matter involved is part of a cooperative mailing (as defined under regulations of the Postal Service) with any person or organization not authorized to mail at the rates for mail under former section 4452(b) or 4452(c) of this title;

except that—

“(I) any determination under clause (i) that a product or service is not substantially related to a particular purpose shall be made under regulations which shall be prescribed by the Postal Service and which shall be consistent with standards established by the Internal Revenue Service and the courts with respect to subsections (a) and (c) of section 513 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; and

“(II) clause (i) shall not apply if the product involved is a periodical publication described in subsection (m)(2) (including a subscription to receive any such publication).”.

(b) PRODUCTS.—Section 3626 is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(m)(1) In the administration of this section, the rates for mail under former section 4452(b) or 4452(c) of this title shall not apply to mail consisting of products, unless such products—

“(A) were received by the organization as gifts or contributions; or

“(B) are low cost articles (as defined by section 513(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986).

“(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply with respect to a periodical publication of a qualified nonprofit organization.”.

(c) CERTIFICATION; VERIFICATION.—Section 3626(j)(3) is amended—

(1) by striking “(3)” and inserting “(3)(A)”; and

(2) by adding at the end the following:

“(B) The Postal Service shall establish procedures to carry out this paragraph, including procedures for mailer certification of compliance with the conditions specified in paragraph (1)(D) or subsection (m), as applicable, and verification of such compliance.”.

H. R. 2403—47

(d) APPLICABILITY.—The amendments made by this section shall apply with respect to mail sent, and the rates for mail sent, after December 31, 1993.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO RATES FOR BOOKS AND CERTAIN OTHER MATERIALS

SEC. 706. (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 3683(b) is amended to read as follows:

“(b) The rates of postage under former section 4554(b)(1) of this title shall not be effective except with respect to mailings which—

“(1) constitute materials specified in former section 4554(b)(2) of this title; and

“(2) are sent between—

“(A) an institution, organization, or association listed in subparagraph (A) or (B) of such former section 4554(b)(1) and any other such institution, organization, or association;

“(B) an institution, organization, or association referred to in subparagraph (A) and any individual (other than an individual having a financial interest in the sale, promotion, or distribution of the materials involved);

TITLE VIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 801. Notwithstanding the provisions of this or any other Act, the Administration may establish the National Partnership Council with interagency assistance from the Office of Personnel Management, the Office of Management and Budget, and the Federal Labor Relations Authority, subject to authorization.

SEC. 802. Not to exceed 50 per centum of unobligated balances remaining available at the end of fiscal year 1994 from appropriations made available for salaries and expenses made for one fiscal year in this Act, shall remain available through September 30, 1995 for each such account for such purposes and in such amounts as approved in advance by the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations: Provided, That not to exceed 2 per centum of the funds so carried over may be used to pay cash awards to employees, as authorized by law, and not to exceed 3 per centum of the funds may be used for employee training programs.

SEC. 803. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) laboratory project authorized by Public Law 100–202, may be sited on the “new” campus in the Atlanta, Georgia area authorized by Public Law 102–393.

SEC. 804. Part of the site to be utilized for the new United States Courthouse in Montgomery, Alabama, is owned and occupied by Troy State University which is under a consent decree with the Department of Justice that severely limits its geographic location. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Administrator of General Services is authorized to pay replacement costs for the site and improvements to be acquired.
