AN ACT

To amend title 35, United States Code, with respect to applications for process patents, and for certain other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

TITLE I—PROCESS PATENT APPLICATIONS

SECTION 101. EXAMINATION OF PROCESS PATENT APPLICATIONS FOR OBVIOUSNESS.

Section 103 of title 35, United States Code, is amended—
(1) by designating the first paragraph as subsection (a);
(2) by designating the second paragraph as subsection (c); and
(3) by inserting after the first paragraph the following:

"(b)(1) Notwithstanding subsection (a), and upon timely election by the applicant for patent to proceed under this subsection, a process using or resulting in a composition of matter that is novel under section 102 and nonobvious under subsection (a) of this section shall be considered nonobvious if—

"(A) claims to the process and the composition of matter are contained in either the same application for patent or in separate applications having the same effective filing date; and

"(B) the composition of matter, and the process at the time it was invented, were owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person.

"(2) A patent issued on a process under paragraph (1)—

"(A) shall also contain the claims to the composition of matter used in or made by that process, or “(B) shall, if such composition of matter is claimed in another patent, be set to expire on the same date as such other patent, notwithstanding section 154.”.

SEC. 102. PRESUMPTION OF VALIDITY; DEFENSES.

Section 282 of title 35, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the second sentence of the first paragraph the following: “Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, if a claim to a composition of matter is held invalid and that claim was the basis of a determination of nonobviousness under section 103(b)(1), the process shall no longer be considered nonobvious solely on the basis of section 103(b)(1).”.

SEC. 103. EFFECTIVE DATE.

The amendments made by section 101 shall apply to any application for patent filed on or after the date of the enactment of this Act and to any application for patent pending on such date of enactment, including (in either case) an application for the reissue of a patent.

(1) in subsection (c)—

(A) in paragraph (1) by adding at the end the following: “The Register is also authorized to specify by regulation classes of material in which registration may be made without deposit of any copy or phonorecord, in cases in which the Register determines that the purposes of examination, registration, and deposit can be adequately served by deposit of descriptive material only, or by a written obligation to deposit copies or phonorecords at a later date.”; and

(B) in paragraph (2) by striking “periodicals, including newspapers” and all that follows through the end of subparagraph (B) and inserting “collective works, including periodicals, published within a 5-year period, on the basis of a single deposit and application and upon payment of any special registration fee imposed under section 708(a)(10), if the application identifies each work separately, including the collective work containing it and its date of first publication.”; and

(2) by adding at the end the following:

“(f) COPYRIGHT OFFICE HEARINGS.—Not later than 1 year after the effective date of this subsection, and at 1-year intervals thereafter, the Register of Copyrights shall hold public hearings to consider proposals to amend the regulations and practices of the Copyright Office with respect to deposit of works in order to eliminate deposits that are unnecessary for copyright examination or the collections of the Library of Congress, and in order to simplify the registration procedures.”.
SEC. 204. APPLICATION FOR COPYRIGHT REGISTRATION.

(a) APPLICATIONS.—Section 409 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking “The application” and inserting “(a) CONTENTS OF APPLICATION.—The application”;

• existence, ownership, or duration of the copyright; and

“(G) at the option of the applicant, names, addresses, and telephone numbers of persons or organizations that potential users of the work should contact concerning permissions or licenses to use the work, and any information with respect to the terms of such permissions or licenses.”.

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section take effect 6 months after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 205. REGISTRATION OF CLAIM AND ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATE.

(a) DETERMINATION OF REGISTRATION.—Section 410 of title 17, United States Code, is amended by striking subsections (a) and (b) and inserting the following:

“(a) DETERMINATION OF REGISTER.—If, after examination, the Register of Copyrights determines, in accordance with the provisions of this title, that there is no reasonable possibility that a court would hold the work for which a deposit is made pursuant to section 408(c) to be copyrightable subject matter, or the Register determines that the claim is invalid for any other reason, the Register shall refuse registration and notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for such refusal. In all other cases, the Register shall register the claim and issue to the applicant a certificate of registration under the seal of the Copyright Office. A certificate of registration issued under this section extends only to those component parts of the work that both are the subject matter of copyright and the copyright owner has the right to claim. The certificate shall contain the information set forth in the application, together with the number and effective date of the registration.

“(b) APPEALS PROCEDURE.—The Register of Copyrights shall establish, and publish in the Federal Register, a formal procedure by which appeals may be taken from refusals under subsection (a) to register claims to copyright. Such procedure shall include a final appeal to the Register.”.

(b) JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS.—Subsection (c) of section 410 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by inserting “EVIDENTIAL WEIGHT OF CERTIFICATE.—” after “(c)”; and

(2) by adding at the end the following: “Any error or omission made in good faith or upon reasonable reliance on counsel shall not affect the validity of the registration. In no case shall an incorrect statement made in an application for copyright registration invalidate the copyright.”.
