Whereas many of these Americans are still listed as missing and unaccounted for, and the uncertainty surrounding their fates has caused their families to suffer tragic and continuing hardships;

Whereas, in the Joint Resolution entitled “Joint Resolution designating September 21, 1990, as ‘National POW/MIA Recognition Day’, and recognizing the National League of Families POW/MIA flag”, approved August 10, 1990, the Federal Government officially recognized and designated the National League of Families POW/MIA flag as the symbol of the Nation’s concern and commitment to accounting, as fully as possible, for Americans whom are still prisoners of war, missing in action, or unaccounted for in Southeast Asia; and

Whereas the sacrifices of the Americans whom are still missing in action and unaccounted for from all our Nation’s wars and their families are deserving of national recognition and support for continued priority efforts to determine the fate of those missing Americans: Now, therefore, be it
