RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Senate that America's World War II veterans and their families are deserving of this Nation's respect and appreciation on the Fiftieth Anniversary of V-E Day.

Whereas on May 7, 1945, in Reims, France, the German High command signed the document of surrender, surrendering all air, land and sea forces unconditionally to the Allies;

Whereas President Harry S Truman proclaimed May 8, 1945, to be V-E Day;

Whereas May 8, 1995, is the Fiftieth Anniversary of that proclamation;

Whereas, the courage and sacrifice of the American fighting men and women who served with distinction to save the world from tyranny and aggression should always be remembered: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the United States Senate joins with
 2 a grateful Nation in expressing our respect and apprecia-
 3 tion to the men and women who served in World War II,
 4 and their families. Further, we remember and pay tribute
 5 to those Americans who made the ultimate sacrifice and
 6 gave their life for their country.
