IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 29, 1997

Mrs. FOWLER (for herself, Mr. COX of California, Mr. GIBBONS, Mr. GILMAN, Mr. HUNTER, Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas, Mr. MCINTOSH, Mr. ROHRABACHER, Mr. ROYCE, Mr. SHADEGG, Mr. SMITH of New Jersey, Mr. SOLOMON, and Mr. SPENCE) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To condemn those officials of the Chinese Communist Party, the Government of the People's Republic of China, and other persons who are involved in the enforcement of forced abortions by preventing such persons from entering or remaining in the United States.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Forced Abortion Con-
5 demnation Act".

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 The Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) Forced abortion was rightly denounced as a
4 crime against humanity by the Nuremberg War
5 Crimes Tribunal.

6 (2) For over 15 years there have been frequent
7 and credible reports of forced abortion and forced 8 sterilization in connection with the population con-
9 trol policies of the People's Republic of China. These 10 reports indicate the following:

11 (A) Although it is the stated position of 12 the politburo of the Chinese Communist Party
13 that forced abortion and forced sterilization
14 have no role in the population control program,
15 in fact the Communist Chinese Government en-
16 courages both forced abortion and forced steri-
17 lization through a combination of strictly en-
18 forced birth quotas and immunity for local pop-
19 ulation control officials who engage in coercion.
20 Officials acknowledge that there have been in-
21 stances of forced abortions and sterilization,
22 and no evidence has been made available to
23 suggest that the perpetrators have been pun-
24 ished.

25 (B) People's Republic of China population
26 control officials, in cooperation with employers

1 and works unit officials, routinely monitor wom-
2 en's menstrual cycles and subject women who 3 conceive without government authorization to 4 extreme psychological pressure, to harsh eco-
5 nomic sanctions, including unpayable fines and 6 loss of employment, and often to physical force.

7 (C) Official sanctions for giving birth to 8 unauthorized children include fines in amounts
9 several times larger than the per capita annual 10 incomes of residents of the People's Republic of 11 China. In Fujian, for example, the average fine
12 is estimated to be twice a family's gross annual 13 income. Families which cannot pay the fine may 14 be subject to confiscation and destruction of 15 their homes and personal property.

16 (D) Especially harsh punishments have
17 been inflicted on those whose resistance is moti-
18 vated by religion. For example, according to a
19 1995 Amnesty International report, the Catho-
20 lic inhabitants of 2 villages in Hebei Province
21 were subjected to population control under the 22 slogan "better to have more graves than one
23 more child". Enforcement measures included
24 torture, sexual abuse, and the detention of re-
25 sistors' relatives as hostages.

1 (E) Forced abortions in Communist China
2 often have taken place in the very late stages
3 of pregnancy.

4 (F) Since 1994 forced abortion and steri-
5 lization have been used in Communist China 6 not only to regulate the number of children, but 7 also to eliminate those who are regarded as de-
8 fective in accordance with the official eugenic
9 policy known as the “Natal and Health Care
10 Law”.

11 SEC. 3. DENIAL OF ENTRY INTO THE UNITED STATES OF 12 PERSONS IN THE PEOPLE’S REPUBLIC OF 13 CHINA ENGAGED IN ENFORCEMENT OF 14 FORCED ABORTION POLICY.

15 The Secretary of State may not issue any visa to,
16 and the Attorney General may not admit to the United 17 States, any national of the People’s Republic of China, in-
18 cluding any official of the Communist Party or the Gov-
19 ernment of the People’s Republic of China and its re-
20 gional, local, and village authorities who the Secretary
21 finds, based on credible information, has been involved in 22 the establishment or enforcement of population control
23 policies resulting in a woman being forced to undergo an 24 abortion against her free choice, or resulting in a man or

- 1 woman being forced to undergo sterilization against his
- 2 or her free choice.
