SEC. 103. SUNSET.

All authorities under this division (other than title IV) shall terminate on October 1, 2007.

TITLE II—MILLENNIUM CHALLENGE ASSISTANCE

SEC. 201. FINDINGS; STATEMENT OF POLICY.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) A principal objective of United States foreign assistance programs, as stated in section 101 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, is the “encouragement and sustained support of the people of developing countries in their efforts to acquire the knowledge and resources essential to development and to build the economic, political, and social institutions which will improve the quality of their lives”.

(2) The expanding acceptance of free trade and open markets and the spread of democracy and the rule of law have brought a better way of life to an increasing number of people in the world.
(3) Inequalities between men and women undermine development and poverty-reduction efforts in fundamental ways. A woman’s limited access to resources and restrictions on the exercise of her rights, including the right to participate in social and political processes, disables her from maximizing her contribution to her family’s health, education, and general well-being.

(4) On March 14, 2002, the President noted the successes of development assistance programs: “The advances of free markets and trade and democracy and rule of law have brought prosperity to an ever-widening circle of people in this world. During our lifetime, per capita income in the poorest countries has nearly doubled. Illiteracy has been cut by one-third, giving more children a chance to learn. Infant mortality has been almost halved, giving more children a chance to live.”.

(5) Development is neither an easy process nor a linear one. There are successes and there are failures. Today, too many people are still living in poverty, disease has eroded many of the economic and social gains of previous decades, and many countries have not adopted policies, for a variety of reasons, that would enable them to compete in an open and equitable international economic system.

(6) More countries and more people will be able to participate in and benefit from the opportunities afforded by the global economy if the following conditions for sound and sustainable economic development are met:

(A) Security.—Security is necessary for economic development. Persistent poverty and oppression can lead to hopelessness, despair, and to failed states that become havens for terrorists.

(B) Policies that support broad-based economic growth.—Successful long-term development can only occur through broad-based economic growth that enables the poor to increase their incomes and have access to productive resources and services so that they can lead lives of decency, dignity, and hope.

(C) Democracy and the rule of law.—Democratic development, political pluralism, and respect for internationally recognized human rights are intrinsically linked to economic and social progress. The ability of people to participate in the economic and political processes affecting their lives is essential to sustained growth. The rule of law and a commitment to fight corruption is also critical to the development of a prosperous society.

(D) INVESTMENTS IN PEOPLE.—Economic growth and democracy can be sustained only if both men and women have the basic tools and capabilities that foster the opportunity for participation in the economic, social, and political life of their countries. Successful development of countries requires citizens who are literate, healthy, and prepared and able to work.

(7) Economic assistance programs authorized under part I of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as administered by the United States Agency for International Development and other Federal agencies, are of critical importance in assisting countries to be in a position to maximize the effectiveness of assistance authorized by this title.

(8) It is in the national interest of the United States to help those countries that are implementing the economic and political reforms necessary for development to occur.
(9) On March 14, 2002, the President stated that the “growing divide between wealth and poverty, between opportunity and misery, is both a challenge to our compassion and a source of instability . . . [w]e must confront it . . . [w]e must include every African, every Asian, every Latin American, every Muslim, in an expanding circle of development.”.

(10) The President has pledged that funds requested for the Millennium Challenge Account shall be in addition to, and not a substitute for, existing development and humanitarian programs.

(11) Development assistance alone is not sufficient to stimulate economic growth and development. Assistance has been shown to have a positive impact on growth and development in developing countries with sound policies and institutions. If countries have poor policies and institutions, however, it is highly unlikely that assistance will have a net positive effect.

(12) Economic development, and the achievement of the Millennium Development Goals, must be a shared responsibility between donor and recipient countries.
(b) Statement of Policy Regarding a New Compact for Global Development.—It is, therefore, the policy of the United States to support a new compact for global development that—

(1) increases support by donor countries to those developing countries that are fostering democracy and the rule of law, investing in their people, and promoting economic freedom for all their people;

(2) recognizes, however, that it is the developing countries themselves that are primarily responsible for the achievement of those goals;

(3) seeks to coordinate the disparate development assistance policies of donor countries, and to harmonize the trade and finance policies of donor countries with their respective development assistance programs; and

(4) aims to reduce poverty by significantly increasing the economic growth trajectory of beneficiary countries through investing in the productive potential of the people of such countries.

SEC. 202. AUTHORIZATION OF ASSISTANCE.

(a) Assistance.—The President, acting through the Chief Executive Officer of the Millennium Challenge Corporation, is authorized to provide assistance to eligible countries to support policies and programs that advance the progress of such countries in achieving lasting ecomonic growth and poverty reduction and are in furtherance of the purposes of this title.

(b) Principal Objectives.—Assistance provided under subsection (a) should advance a country’s progress toward promoting the following principal objectives:

(1) Fostering Democratic Societies, Human Rights, and the Rule of Law.—The assistance should promote—

(A) political, social, and economic pluralism;

(B) respect for the rule of law;

(C) anti-corruption initiatives and law enforcement;

(D) development of institutions of democratic governance, including electoral and legislative processes;

(E) transparent and accountable public administration at all levels of government;

(F) a fair, competent, and independent judiciary; and

(G) a free and independent media.

(2) Fostering Investment in Education and Health Infrastructure and Systems.—
The assistance should foster improved educational opportunities and health conditions, particularly for women and children, including through—

(A) support for programs and personnel that promote broad-based primary education, including through the development of academic curricula, by making available textbooks and other educational materials, and through appropriate use of technology;

(B) support for programs to strengthen and build institutions, including primary health care systems, infrastructure, facilities, and personnel that provide quality health care;

(C) support for improved systems for the delivery of healthy water and sanitation services; and

(D) support for programs that reduce child mortality (including those programs that combat HIV/AIDS, malaria, tuberculosis, and other infectious diseases, consistent with sections 104(e), 104A, 104B, and 104C of the Foreign

(3) PROMOTING ECONOMIC FREEDOM, BROAD-BASED ECONOMIC GROWTH, AND FOSTERING FREE MARKET SYSTEMS.—The assistance should foster the institutions and conditions needed to promote free market systems, trade, and investment, including—

(A) the reform and restructuring of banking and financial systems, including by allowing foreign competition in the banking and financial sectors, where appropriate;

(B) the development of transparent and efficient commercial codes and reduction in the regulatory burden on business;

(C) the protection of property rights, including—

(i) private property and intellectual property rights, including through the adoption and effective enforcement of intellectual property treaties or international agreements; and

(ii) the establishment and maintenance of an efficient and integrated legal property system that, among other things, facilitates the ability of the poor, particularly women, to convert physical and intellectual assets into capital, such as utilizing existing practices and customs that allow assets to be documented in a manner that makes the assets widely transferable, leverageable, and fungible, that allows individuals to hold legal title to their property, and that holds owners accountable for transactions involving their property;

(D) support for market-based policies that support increased agricultural production;

(E) a strong commitment to sound monetary and budgetary policies;

(F) the development of small businesses, private cooperatives, credit unions, and trade and labor unions;

(1) Many countries in the developing world lack the academic and public policy advocacy base essen-

(3) Many developing countries, particularly low income countries, lack the institutional capacity to enhance the quality and accuracy of data upon which the eligibility criteria in section 203 relies.

Such countries may also lack the ability to monitor

(4) The Millennium Challenge Account will of nongovernmental organizations (including universities,

low income countries, that are undertaking research, education, and advocacy efforts aimed at promoting democratic societies, human rights, the rule of law, improved educational opportunities and health conditions, particularly for women and children, and economic freedom, including research aimed at improving data related to the eligibility criteria and methodology established by this division with respect to such a country or monitoring and evaluating the impact of assistance provided under this division.

DIVISION B—REAUTHORIZATION AND EXPANSION OF THE PEACE CORPS

TITLE X—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 1001. SHORT TITLE.

This division may be cited as the “Peace Corps Expansion Act of 2003”.

SEC. 1002. DEFINITIONS.

In this division:

(1) Appropriate Congressional Committees.—The term “appropriate congressional committees” means the Committee on International Relations of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate.

(2) Director.—The term “Director” means the Director of the Peace Corps.

(3) Host Country.—The term “host country” means a country whose government has invited the Peace Corps to establish a Peace Corps program within the territory of the country.
(4) Peace Corps volunteer.—The term “Peace Corps volunteer” means a volunteer or a volunteer leader under the Peace Corps Act.

(5) Returned Peace Corps volunteer.—The term “returned Peace Corps volunteer” means a person who has been certified by the Director as having served satisfactorily as a Peace Corps volunteer.

SEC. 1003. FINDINGS.

Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The Peace Corps was established in 1961 to promote world peace and friendship through the service abroad of volunteers who are United States citizens. The spirit of service and commitment to helping others is a fundamental component of democracy.

(2) Since its establishment, more than 168,000 volunteers have served in the Peace Corps in 136 countries throughout the world.

(3) The three goals codified in the Peace Corps Act which have guided the Peace Corps and its volunteers over the years, can work in concert to promote global acceptance of the principles of international peace and nonviolent coexistence among peoples of diverse cultures and systems of government.

(4) The Peace Corps has sought to fulfill three goals—to help people in developing countries meet basic needs, promote understanding abroad of the values and ideals of the United States, and promote an understanding of other peoples by the people of the United States.

(5) After more than 40 years of operation, the Peace Corps remains the world’s premier international service organization dedicated to promoting grassroots development by working with families and communities to improve health care for children, expand agricultural production, teach in schools, fight infectious diseases, protect the environment, and initiate small business opportunities.

(6) The Peace Corps remains committed to sending well trained and well supported Peace Corps volunteers overseas to promote international peace, cross-cultural awareness, and mutual understanding between the United States and other countries.

(7) The Peace Corps is an independent agency, and, therefore, no Peace Corps personnel or volunteers should be used to accomplish any goal other than the goals established by the Peace Corps Act.
(8) The Crisis Corps has been an effective tool in harnessing the skills and talents of returned Peace Corps volunteers and should be expanded, to the maximum extent practicable, to utilize the talent of returned Peace Corps volunteers.

(9) In fiscal year 2003, the Peace Corps is operating with an annual budget of $295,000,000 in 70 countries, with more than 7,000 Peace Corps volunteers.

(10) There is deep misunderstanding and misinformation in many parts of the world, particularly in countries with substantial Muslim populations, with respect to United States values and ideals. A new or expanded Peace Corps presence in such places could foster better understanding between the people of the United States and such countries.

(11) Congress has declared, and the Peace Corps Act provides, that the Peace Corps shall maintain, to the maximum extent practicable and appropriate, a volunteer corps of at least 10,000 individuals.

(12) President George W. Bush has called for the doubling of the number of Peace Corps volunteers in service.
(13) Any expansion of the Peace Corps should not jeopardize the quality of the Peace Corps volunteer experience and, therefore, necessitates, among other things, an appropriate increase in field and headquarters support staff.

(14) In order to ensure that the proposed expansion of the Peace Corps preserves the integrity of the program and the security of volunteers, the integrated Planning and Budget System supported by the Office of Planning and Policy Analysis should continue its focus on strategic planning.

(15) A streamlined, bipartisan Peace Corps National Advisory Council composed of distinguished returned Peace Corps volunteers, former Peace Corps staff, and other individuals with diverse backgrounds and expertise can be a source of ideas and suggestions that may be useful to the Director of the Peace Corps as the Director discharges the duties and responsibilities as head of the agency.

SEC. 201. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

(a) Findings.—The Congress makes the following findings:
(1) The United States possesses strong and deep connections with the peoples of the world separate from its relations with their governments. These connections can be a major asset in the promotion of United States interests and foreign policy.

(2) Misinformation and hostile propaganda in these countries regarding the United States and its foreign policy endanger the interests of the United States. Existing efforts to counter such misinformation and propaganda are inadequate and must be greatly enhanced in both scope and substance.

(3) United States foreign policy has been hampered by an insufficient consideration of the importance of public diplomacy in the formulation and implementation of that policy and by the underuse of modern communication techniques.

(4) The United States should have an operational strategy and a coordinated effort regarding the utilization of its public diplomacy resources.

(5) The development of an operational strategy and a coordinated effort by United States agencies regarding public diplomacy would greatly enhance United States foreign policy.

(6) The Secretary of State has undertaken efforts to ensure that of the new positions established at the Department of State after September 30, 2002, a significant proportion are for public diplomacy.

SEC. 229. ENHANCING REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT AND MAINTAINING THE UNITED STATES COMMITMENT TO REFUGEES.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:
(1) The United States has a longstanding tradition of providing refugee assistance and relief through the Department of State’s migration and refugee assistance account for refugees throughout the world who have been subjected to religious and other forms of persecution.

(2) A strong refugee resettlement and assistance program is a critical component of the United States’ strong commitment to freedom.

(3) The United States refugee admissions program has been in decline for much of the last five years, resulting in a chronic inability of the United States to meet the ceiling on refugee admissions that has been set by the President each year.

(4) Refugee applicants have always undergone rigorous security screenings. The September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks on the United States has rightfully increased the awareness of the need to ensure that all aliens seeking admission to the United States would not endanger the United States.

(5) Private voluntary organizations and non-governmental organizations (NGOs) have and continue to provide valuable information to State Department officials for refugee processing, and along with Embassy personnel, can be utilized to assist in the preliminary screening of refugees so that State Department officials can focus to a greater extent on security.

(6) Currently there are 15 million refugees worldwide. In order to meet the ceiling set by the Administration, which has been 70,000 in recent years, a broader cross-section could be considered for resettlement in the United States if the Department of State were to expand existing refugee processing priority categories in a reasonable and responsible manner. Expansion of refugee selection should include the expanded use of both the existing category reserved for refugees of special interest to the United States as well as the existing categories reserved for family reunification.

(b) PURPOSE.—It is the purpose of this section to provide the Department of State with tools to enable it to carry out its responsibilities with greater efficiency with respect to the identification and processing of refugee applicants.

(c) ENHANCEMENT OF REFUGEE IDENTIFICATION AND PROCESSING.—

(1) In addition to traditional agencies currently used in the processing of refugees for admission to the United States, where applicable, the Secretary shall develop and utilize partnerships with voluntary resettlement organizations that permit such organizations to assist in the identification and referral of refugees.

(2) In addition to traditional agencies currently used in the processing of refugees for admission to the United States, where applicable, the Secretary shall utilize private voluntary organizations with ties to domestic constituencies in the overseas processing of refugees.

(3) In addition to traditional agencies currently used in the processing of refugees for admission to the United States, where applicable, the Secretary shall establish refugee response teams.

(A) Establishment of Refugee Response Teams.—In order to make the processing of refugees more efficient and effective, enhance the quality of refugee resettlement programs, and to augment the capacity of the United States government to identify, process, assist, and counsel individuals for eventual adjudication by the Department of Homeland Security as refugees, where applicable, the Secretary shall establish and utilize the services of Refugee Response Teams, (in this section referred to as “RRTs”). RRTs shall be coordinated by the Assistant Secretary of State for Population, Refugees, and Migration, or the Assistant Secretary’s designee.

(B) COMPOSITION OF THE RRTS.—RRTs shall be comprised of representatives of non-governmental organizations and private voluntary organizations that have experience in refugee law, policy and programs.

(C) RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE RRTS.—RRTs shall be responsible for—

(i) monitoring refugee situations, with a view toward identifying those refugees whose best durable solution is third country resettlement;

(ii) preparing profiles and documentation for resettlement consideration by the United States Government;

(iii) augmenting or establishing an overseas operation, especially in response to urgent developments requiring quick responses or more staff resources than are available in the existing processing entities;

(iv) assisting with training and technical assistance to existing international organizations and other processing entities;

and

(v) such other responsibilities as may be determined by the Secretary of State.

(D) Responsibilities of the Secretary.—The Secretary shall establish appropriate training seminars for RRT personnel and make use of RRTs in situations where existing mechanisms are unable to identify and process refugees in a timely manner.

(d) Performance Standards.—In consultation with private voluntary organizations and NGOs, the Secretary shall establish performance standards to ensure accountability and effectiveness in the tasks carried out in subsection (c).

(e) Consideration of Various Groups.—To ensure that there is adequate planning across fiscal years and that both the Department of State’s planning and processing operations result in adequate numbers of travel-ready refugees to fulfill the admissions goals set forth in the determinations on refugee admissions required by sections 207(a) and 207(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1157(a) and (b)), the Secretary of State shall work to ensure that—
(1) those refugees in special need, including long-stayers in first countries of asylum, unaccompanied refugee minors, urban refugees, and refugees in women-headed households be given special attention for resettlement processing;

(2) attempts are made to expand processing of those refugees of all nationalities who have close family ties to citizens and residents in the United States, including spouses, unmarried children, or parents of persons lawfully admitted to the United States, regardless of their country of nationality, country of habitual residence, or first country of asylum, as well as grandparents, grandchildren, married sons or daughters, or siblings of United States citizens or other persons lawfully admitted to the United States;

(3) attempts are made to expand the number of refugees considered who are of special concern to the United States; and

(4) expanded access is provided to broader categories of refugees seeking admission to the United States, thus reducing instances of relationship-based misrepresentation by persons who are bona fide refugees but who resort to such misrepresentation merely as a way to be interviewed for refugee status.
(f) REPORT.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State shall submit a report to Congress that includes information concerning the following:

(1) Efforts of the Secretary to utilize NGO’s in refugee identification, utilize private voluntary organizations in processing refugees, establish and utilize RRTs, and an explanation of the rationale for not using such organizations and agencies in situations where the Secretary has made such a determination, as described in subsection (c).

(2) Efforts of the Secretary to implement performance standards and measures as described in subsection (d) and the success of NGO’s and private voluntary organizations in meeting such standards.

(3) Efforts of the Secretary to expand consideration of various groups for refugee processing as described in subsection (e).

(b) Report.—Not later than 60 days after the date of the enactment of this Act and semiannually thereafter through September 30, 2005, the Secretary of State shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees a report on the steps taken by the United States pursuant to subsection (a) and progress in achieving the objectives of subsection (a).
Subtitle B—United States International Leadership

SEC. 431. SHORT TITLE.

This subtitle may be cited as the “United States International Leadership Act of 2003”.

SEC. 432. FINDINGS.

The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) International organizations and other multilateral institutions play a key role in United States foreign policy and serve key United States foreign policy objectives, such as obligating all countries to freeze assets of terrorist groups, preventing the proliferation of chemical, biological, and nuclear weapons, and spearheading the fight to combat the ravages of HIV/AIDS and other infectious diseases.

(2) Decisions at many international organizations, including membership and key positions, remain subject to determinations made by regional groups where democratic states are often in the minority and where there is intensive cooperation among repressive regimes. As a result, the United States has often been blocked in its attempts to take action in these institutions to advance its goals and objectives, including at the United Nations Human Rights Commission (where a representative of Libya was elected as chairman and the United States temporarily lost a seat).

(3) In order to address these shortcomings, the United States must actively work to improve the workings of international organizations and multilateral institutions, particularly by creating a caucus of democratic countries that will advance United States interests. In the Second Ministerial Conference of the Community of Democracies in Seoul, Korea, on November 10–20, 2002, numerous countries recommended working together as a democracy caucus in international organizations such as the United Nations and ensuring that international and regional institutions develop and apply democratic standards for member states.

(4) In addition, the United States has short-changed its ability to influence these organizations by failing to obtain enough support for positions that are congruent to or consistent with United States objectives and has not done enough to build expertise in the United States Government in the area of multilateral diplomacy.

SEC. 433. ESTABLISHMENT OF A DEMOCRACY CAUCUS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The President of the United States, acting through the Secretary of State and the rel-event United States chiefs of mission, shall seek to establish a democracy caucus at the United Nations, the United Nations Human Rights Commission, the United Nations Conference on Disarmament, and at other broad-based international organizations.

(b) Purposes of the Caucus.—A democracy caucus at an international organization should—

(1) forge common positions, including, as appropriate, at the ministerial level, on matters of concern before the organization and work within and across regional lines to promote agreed positions;

(2) work to revise an increasingly outmoded system of regional voting and decision making; and

(3) set up a rotational leadership scheme to provide member states an opportunity, for a set period of time, to serve as the designated president of the caucus, responsible for serving as its voice in each organization.

SEC. 434. ANNUAL DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS ON MULTILATERAL ISSUES.

The Secretary of State, acting through the principal officers responsible for advising the Secretary on international organizations, shall ensure that a high-level delegation from the United States Government, on an annual basis, is sent to consult with key foreign governments in every region in order to promote the United States agenda at key international fora, such as the United Nations General Assembly, United Nations Human Rights Commission, the United Nations Education, Science, and Cultural Organization, and the International Whaling Commission.

SEC. 435. LEADERSHIP AND MEMBERSHIP OF INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS.

(a) UNITED STATES POLICY.—The President, acting through the Secretary of State and the relevant United States chiefs of mission, shall use the voice, vote, and influence of the United States to—

(1) where appropriate, reform the criteria for leadership and, in appropriate cases for membership, at all United Nations bodies and at other international organizations and multilateral institutions to which the United States is a member so as to exclude nations that violate the principles of the specific organization;

(2) make it a policy of the United Nations and other international organizations and multilateral institutions, of which the United States is a member, that a member state may not stand in nomination or be in rotation for a leadership position in such bodies if the member state is subject to sanctions imposed by the United Nations Security Council; and

(3) work to ensure that no member state stand in nomination or be in rotation for a leadership position in such organizations, or for membership of the United Nations Security Council, if the member state is subject to a determination under section 620A of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, section 40 of the Arms Export Control Act, or section 6(j) of the Export Administration Act.

(b) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 15 days after a country subject to to a determination under section 620A of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, section 40 of the Arms Export Control Act, or section 6(j) of the Export Administration Act is selected for a leadership post in an international organization of which the United States is a member or a membership of the United Nations Security Council, the Secretary of State shall submit a report to the appropriate congressional committees on any steps taken pursuant to subsection (a)(3).

SEC. 436. INCREASED TRAINING IN MULTILATERAL DIPLOMACY.

(a) TRAINING PROGRAMS.—Section 708 of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 (22 U.S.C. 4028) is amended by adding after subsection (b) the following new subsection:

“(c) TRAINING IN MULTILATERAL DIPLOMACY.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall establish a series of training courses for officers of the Service, including appropriate chiefs of mission, on ganizations and other multilateral institutions and at broad-based multilateral negotiations of international instruments as part of their training upon entry of the Service; and “(B) officers of the Service, including chiefs of mission, who are assigned to United States missions representing the United States to international organizations and other multilateral institutions or who are assigned in Washington, D.C. to positions that have as their primary responsibility formulation of policy towards such organizations and institutions or towards participation in broad-based multilateral negotiations of international instruments receive specialized training in the areas described in paragraph (1) prior to beginning of service for such assignment or, if receiving such training at that time is not practical, within the first year of beginning such assignment.”.

(b) Training for Civil Service Employees.—
The Secretary shall ensure that employees of the Department of State that are members of the civil service and that are assigned to positions described in section 708(c) of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 (as amended by this subtitle) have training described in such section.

(c) Conforming Amendments.—Section 708 of such Act is further amended—

(1) in subsection (a) by striking “(a) The” and inserting “(a) Training on Human Rights.—
The”; and

(2) in subsection (b) by striking “(b) The” and inserting “(b) Training on Refugee Law and Religious Persecution.—The”.

for United States representation to UNESCO and OECD.

(B) In offices at the Harry S. Truman Building, the Department maintains a significant number of positions in bureaus that are either dedicated, or whose primary responsibility is, to represent the United States to such organizations and institutions or at multilateral negotiations.

(C) Given the large number of positions in the United States and abroad that are dedicated to multilateral diplomacy, the Department of State may be well served in developing persons with specialized skills necessary to become experts in this unique form of diplomacy.

(2) REPORT.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees a report—

(A) evaluating whether a new cone should be established for the Foreign Service that concentrates on members of the Service that serve at international organizations and multilateral institutions or are primarily responsible for par-participation in broad-based multilateral negotiations of international instruments; and

(a) Findings.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) North Korea’s development of nuclear weapons and missile delivery systems poses one of the gravest security threats to the United States in the world.

(2) The Kim Jong Il regime in North Korea has one of the worst human rights records in the world. On April 16, 2003, the United Nations Commission on Human Rights passed a resolution, “expressing its deep concern about reports of systemic, widespread and grave violations of human rights” in North Korea.

(3) In order to ensure its survival, the Kim Jong Il regime makes extensive efforts to control the flow of information in North Korea.
(4) In 2002, a survey found that five of twelve “elite” defectors from North Korea had listened to Radio Free Asia.

(5) Radio Free Asia broadcasts only 4 hours each day into North Korea.

SEC. 507. CONTRACTOR REQUIREMENTS.

(a) Findings.—The Congress finds that the overriding national security aspects of the international programs of the International Broadcasting Bureau require the assurance of uninterrupted logistic support under all circumstances for the programs. Therefore, it is in the best interests of the United States to provide a preference for United States contractors bidding on these projects.

(b) Preference for United States Contractors.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any case where there are two or more qualified bidders on projects of the International Broadcasting Bureau, including design and construction projects and projects with respect to transmitters, antennas, spare parts, and other technical equipment, all the responsive bids of United

(i) its national public radio and television sector,

(ii) its private radio and television sector, to the extent that such procurement or project is, in whole or in part, funded or otherwise under the control of a government agency or authority,
(C) the Secretary of Commerce certifies (in advance of the award of the contract for that project) to the Board of the International Broadcasting Bureau that the foreign bidder is not receiving any direct subsidy from any government, the effect of which would be to disadvantage the competitive position of United States persons who also bid on the project, or

(D) the statutes of a host foreign country prohibit the use of United States contractors on such projects within that country.

(2) An exception under paragraph (1)(D) shall only become effective with respect to a foreign country 30 days after the Secretary of State certifies to the Committee on International Relations and the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Foreign Relations and the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate what specific actions the Secretary has taken to urge the foreign country to permit the use of United States contractors on such projects.

(d) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section:

Subtitle B—Global Internet Freedom

SEC. 521. SHORT TITLE.
This subtitle may be cited as the “Global Internet Freedom Act of 2003”.

SEC. 522. FINDINGS.
The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and freedom of association are fundamental characteristics of a free society. The first amendment to the Constitution of the United States guarantees that “Congress shall make no law . . . abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble.” These constitutional provisions guarantee the rights of Americans to communicate and associate with one another without restriction, including unfettered communication and association via the Internet. Article 19 of the United Nation’s Universal Declaration of Human Rights explicitly guarantees the freedom to “receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers”.

(2) All people have the right to communicate freely with others, and to have unrestricted access to news and information, on the Internet.
(3) With nearly 10 percent of the world’s population now online, and more gaining access each day, the Internet stands to become the most powerful engine for democratization and the free exchange of ideas ever invented.

(4) The governments of Burma, Cuba, Laos, North Korea, the People’s Republic of China, Saudi Arabia, Syria, and Vietnam, among others, are taking active measures to keep their citizens from freely accessing the Internet and obtaining international political, religious, and economic news and information.

(5) The Voice of America and Radio Free Asia, as well as hundreds of news sources with an Internet presence, are routinely being jammed by repressive governments.

(6) Since the 1940s, the United States has deployed anti-jamming technologies to make Voice of America and other United States Government sponsored broadcasting available to people in nations with governments that seek to block news and information.

(7) The United States Government has thus far commenced only modest steps to fund and deploy technologies to defeat Internet censorship.
(8) The success of United States policy in support of freedom of speech, press, and association requires continued efforts to defeat totalitarian and authoritarian controls on news and information over the Internet.

SEC. 523. PURPOSES.

The purposes of this subtitle are—

(1) to adopt an effective and robust global Internet freedom policy;

(2) to establish an office within the Broadcasting Board of Governors with the sole mission of countering Internet jamming and blocking by utilizing available anti-jamming technology;

(3) to expedite the development and deployment of technology to protect Internet freedom around the world; and

(4) to bring to bear the pressure of the free world on repressive governments guilty of Internet censorship and the intimidation and persecution of their citizens who use the Internet.

SEC. 524. DEVELOPMENT AND DEPLOYMENT OF TECHNOLOGIES TO DEFEAT INTERNET JAMMING AND CENSORSHIP.

(a) Establishment of Office of Global Internet Freedom.—The Broadcasting Board of Governors shall establish an Office of Global Internet Freedom (hereinafter in this subtitle referred to as the “Office”). The Office shall develop and implement a comprehensive global strategy to combat state-sponsored and state-directed Internet jamming and persecution of those who use the Internet.

(b) Cooperation of Other Federal Departments and Agencies.—Each department and agency of the United States Government shall cooperate fully with, and assist in the implementation of, the strategy developed by the Office and shall make such resources and information available to the Office as is necessary to the achievement of the purposes of this subtitle.

(c) Cooperation with Department of State.—The Office shall assist the Secretary of State in preparing portions of the country reports on human rights practices that address Internet accessibility.

(d) Report to Congress.—Nine months after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Broadcasting Board of Governors shall submit to the Congress a report on the status of foreign government interference with Internet use and of efforts by the United States to counter such interference. The report shall list the countries that pursue policies of Internet censorship, blocking, and other abuses; provide information concerning the government agencies or quasi-governmental organizations that implement Internet censorship; and describe with the greatest particularity practicable the technological means by which such blocking and other abuses are accomplished. In the discretion of the Broadcasting Board of Governors, such report may be submitted in both a classified and nonclassi-fied version. One year after the date of submission of such report, the Office shall submit a second report.

(e) LIMITATION ON AUTHORITY.—Nothing in this subtitle shall be interpreted to authorize any action by the United States to interfere with foreign national censorship in furtherance of legitimate law enforcement aims consistent with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Subtitle C—Reorganization of United States International Broadcasting

(3) Free media is undermined, endangered, or nonexistent in many repressive and transitional societies around the world, including in Eurasia, Africa, and the Middle East.

(4) Free media is suppressed by foreign governments by a variety of means, including state censorship, legal restriction, financial pressure, and physical intimidation.

(10) Support for free media must be an integral part of United States foreign policy, including public diplomacy and United States international broadcasting, and should be coordinated across government agencies and with international, bilateral, and private donor organizations toward achieving the shared goal of developing professional, ethical, diver-

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the fiscal years 2004 and 2005, any report required by law or otherwise requested to be submitted by the Secretary of State or the Department of State to any committee of the Congress shall be submitted also to the Committee on International Relations of the House of Representatives.
SEC. 702. REPORTS CONCERNING THE CAPTURE AND PROSECUITION OF PARAMILITARY AND OTHER TERRORIST LEADERS IN COLOMBIA.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) As reported in the Department of State report Patterns of Global Terrorism 2001, the United Self-Defense Forces of Colombia (also referred to as “AUC” or “paramilitaries”) have been designated as a foreign terrorist organization by the United States primarily because of their increasing reliance on terrorist methods, such as the use of massacres, to purposefully displace segments of the population as retaliation for allegedly supporting the AUC’s rival organizations, the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia (FARC) and the National Liberation Army (ELN) of Colombia. According to the report, the paramilitaries also use terrorist tactics to compete for narcotics-trafficking corridors and prime coca-growing terrain.

(2) The Department of State concluded in the 2001 Country Report on Human Rights Practices that despite increased efforts by the Government of Colombia to combat and capture members of paramilitary groups, security forces sometimes illegally collaborate with paramilitaries forces and often fail... to take action to prevent paramilitary attacks which lead to serious abuses of human rights.

(3) In September 2002, Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch, and the Washington Office on Latin America released a report which argued that the Colombian Government had not made substantial progress toward suspending officers implicated in human rights abuses, conducting effective judicial investigations of such abuses, or breaking the persistent links between some units of the Colombian military and paramilitary groups.

(4) In February 2003, the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights in Colombia reported that some units of the Colombian Security Forces continued to collude openly with illegal paramilitary groups in operations which resulted in violations of human rights.

(5) The Consolidated Appropriations Resolution, 2003 (Public Law 108–7) made available not less than $5,000,000 to support a Colombian Armed Forces unit which is dedicated to apprehending leaders of Colombian paramilitary organizations.

(b) REPORTS TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act, and every 180 days thereafter, the Secretary of State, after consulting with internationally recognized human rights organizations pursuant to the procedures required in section 564(b) of the Consolidated Appropriations Resolution, 2003, shall submit a report, in unclassified form (with a classified annex if necessary), on the specific measures that the Colombian authorities are taking to apprehend effectively and prosecute aggressively leaders of para-military organizations, to the Committee on International Relations of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate.

(c) CONTENTS OF REPORTS.—Each report submitted pursuant to subsection (b) shall—

(1) identify which Colombian Armed Forces units are receiving assistance to apprehend leaders of Colombian paramilitary organizations;

(2) describe the amount and purposes of such assistance;

(3) describe operations by Colombian security forces to apprehend and arrest leaders of Colombian paramilitary organizations;

(4) list the number of detentions, captures, and arrests of leaders of Colombian paramilitary organizations, disaggregating the number according to those detentions, captures, and arrests which were carried out by Colombian security forces identified under paragraph (1);

(5) briefly describe the status of investigations and prosecutions of cases by the Colombian Attorney General’s office involving the arrests of leaders of Colombian paramilitary organizations; and

(6) estimate the number of hours of use by the Colombian military of helicopters provided by the United States under Plan Colombia and successor programs to apprehend the leaders of Colombian paramilitary organizations, as well as leaders of the FARC and ELN, including those individuals who have United States indictments pending against them.

“(5) Since the founding of the Magen David Adom in 1930, the American Red Cross has regarded it as a sister national society forging close working ties between the two societies and has consistently advocated recognition and membership of the Magen David Adom in the International Red cross and Red Crescent Movement.

“(6) The American Red Cross and Magen David Adom signed an important memorandum of understanding in November 2002, outlining areas for strategic collaboration, and the American Red Cross will encourage other societies to establish similar agreements with Magen David Adom.”.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—Section 690(b) of such Act is amended—

(1) in paragraph (3) after the semicolon by

(2) by redesignating paragraph (4) as paragraph (5); and

(3) by inserting after paragraph (3) the fol-

the October 12, 2000, draft additional protocol which would accord international recognition to an additional distinctive emblem; and”.

where she was ordered to paint portraits by the infa-

(2) Congress has previously considered the any progress in furthering this goal, nor has the Secretary reported on the status of any negotiations held with the intent of furthering this goal.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—The Congress—

(1) continues to recognize the moral right of Dina Babbitt to obtain the artwork she created, and recognizes her courage in the face of the evils perpetrated by the Nazi command of the Auschwitz-Birkenau death camp, including the atrocities com-

(2) urges the President of the United States to make all necessary efforts to retrieve the 7 water-for which such vested property or liquidated assets will be so used.”.

SEC. 706. REPORT CONCERNING THE CONFLICT IN UGANDA.

(a) Sense of Congress.—It is the sense of the Congress that the United States should—

(1) exhaust all diplomatic means and pressures, including the creation of a United States role in negotiating humanitarian access to hitherto inaccessible populations which would offer an opportunity to bring the warring parties together to build confidence, to support an immediate peaceful resolution to the 16-year old conflict in Northern Uganda that has—

(A) killed an estimated 23,000 people, including 12,000 civilians,

(B) resulted in the forced abduction, sexual servitude, and armed recruitment of between 16,000 to 26,000 Ugandan children by the Lord’s Resistance Army, a renegade army that has in the past sought refuge in southern Sudan and raided villages in northern Uganda,

(C) displaced over 800,000 Ugandan citizens and Sudanese refugees,

SEC. 710. REPORT ON DEMOCRACY IN THE WESTERN HEMI-SPHERE.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:
(1) Although 34 out of 35 countries in the Western Hemisphere have held elections for civilian leaders of national, regional, and local governments, many of these countries have failed to successfully develop independent democratic institutions, transparent and accountable governance, and effective means of guaranteeing the rule of law, which are key components of a fully functioning democracy.
(2) The rule of law, independent democratic institutions, and transparent, accountable governance are essential for guaranteeing human rights, especially civil, political, and labor rights.

(3) The rule of law, independent democratic institutions, and transparent accountable governance are also necessary for promoting successful economic development and reliable trading and investment mechanisms.

(4) In part because of the lack of these three factors, progress on human rights and economic development has lagged or been uneven in much of the Western Hemisphere, leading some to question the benefits of democracy itself as a path for improving the lives of individuals in the hemisphere.

(5) For democracy to continue in many of these countries, for human rights to improve, and for regional economic integration to be successful, the rule of law, independent democratic institutions, and transparent accountable governance must be strengthened.

(6) As a strong supporter of democracy and human rights and as an advocate of regional economic integration, it is in the interests of the United States to enhance its efforts to promote a deepening of democracy in the Western Hemisphere, particularly through strengthening the rule of law, inde-dependent democratic institutions, and transparent accountable governance.

(b) REPORT.—Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary, in consultation with the heads of other Federal departments and agencies as necessary, shall prepare and submit to the appropriate congressional committees a report on the state of democracy in each country in the Western Hemisphere (other than the United States and Canada). (C) the transparence and accountability in governance; and

(D) the effect on human rights, particularly civil and political rights, caused by the presence (or lack thereof) of any of the factors in subparagraphs (A) through (C); and
(E) the effect on economic development caused by the presence (or lack thereof) of any of the factors in subparagraphs (A) through (C).

(3) A description of efforts to strengthen the rule of law, independent institutions, or transparent governance in the country, whether through local efforts or through efforts funded or implemented by the United States, the Organization of American States (OAS), or others.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The Great Lakes region of Central Africa has a history of colonial based ethnic divisions, political violence, and civil wars which have perpetuated conditions conducive to chronic poverty and turmoil over the past decade. The countries of the Great Lakes region are heavily embroiled in the conflicts within their neighbors borders. At different times, the war in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) has involved more outside countries than any other contemporary war in Africa’s history, (including An-

(2) urge all rebel forces to stop the abduction of children, urge all armed forces to stop the use of child soldiers, and seek the release of all forcibly-held children;

(7) make available sufficient resources to meet the immediate relief needs of the towns and cities in the Great Lakes region supporting large displaced populations, including food, clean water, medicine, shelter, and clothing;
(8) make available increased resources for assistance to released and returned abducted children and child soldiers in the Great Lakes Region and ensure that amnesty is provided when appropriate;

(9) work with other donors and the Governments of Uganda, Burundi, Rwanda, and the Democratic Republic of Congo to increase resources and technical support to both regional and national combatant demobilization entities such as the Uganda Amnesty Commission in Uganda and equivalent entities in Burundi, Rwanda, and the Democratic Republic of Congo for the increased demobilization of rebel combatants;

(10) examine ways in which development assistance (DA) can help those living in protective villages in northern Uganda, eastern Congo, and other demilitarized areas in Rwanda and Burundi to return to and cultivate farmland;

(11) condition military assistance to any nation which acts to destabilize the DRC by violating international agreements regarding sustained troop withdrawals and respect for the territorial integrity of the DRC; and

(12) direct the Secretary of State to appoint a special envoy to the Great Lakes region to oversee cross-cutting security and economic policies in the region.

Subtile B—Other Matters

SEC. 721. SENSE OF CONGRESS RELATING TO EAST TIMOR, JUSTICE, AND REHABILITATION.

The Congress—

(1) recalls that the United Nations International Commission of Inquiry concluded in January 2000 that “the Indonesian Army was responsible for the intimidation, terror, killings and other acts of violence’’ during East Timor’s vote for independence in 1999;

(2) reiterates that justice for crimes against humanity and war crimes committed in East Timor during the vote for independence in 1999 is crucial for peace, reconciliation, and the ongoing nation-building process in East Timor and Indonesia;

(3) finds that the ad hoc Human Rights Court on East Timor established by the Indonesian Government in 2001 has inadequately brought to justice the perpetrators of these crimes as eleven of fourteen defendants have been acquitted as a result of poor indictments and the absence of an adequate witness protection program, and four of the five sentences imposed have been less than the minimum allowed under the Indonesian Human Rights Law;

(4) supports the work of the Joint United Nations-East Timor Serious Crimes Unit (SCU), which filed indictments against high-ranking Indonesian officers who were allegedly involved in the crimes, including Gen. Wiranto, Maj. Gen. Kiki Syahnakri, Maj. Gen. Zacky Anwar Makarim, Maj. Gen. Adam Damiri, Col. Suratman, Col. Noer Muis, Col. Yayat Sudrajat and former Governor Abilio Soares, and expresses its strong disappointment that the Indonesian Government has stated its intention to ignore the indictments;

(5) calls on the State Department and the United States Mission to the United Nations to push for a comprehensive United Nations review of the Indonesian ad hoc Human Rights Court on East Timor, including a review of the conduct of trials, the indictment strategy by the prosecutors and its adherence to the international standards, and urges the State Department to consider alternative mechanisms of justice for East Timor, including the establishment of an ad hoc international tribunal; and

(6) urges the Indonesian Government to fully cooperate with the joint United Nations-East Timor Serious Crimes Unit (SCU) and encourages the United States to urge the Indonesian Government to fully cooperate with the SCU.

SEC. 722. SENSE OF CONGRESS CONCERNING HUMAN RIGHTS AND JUSTICE IN INDONESIA.

The Congress—

(1) notes with grave concern that members of the Indonesian security forces, particularly the Army Special Forces (Kopassus) and the Police Mobile Brigade (Brimob), continue to commit many serious human rights violations, including extrajudicial killings, torture, rape, and arbitrary detention, particularly in areas of conflict such as Aceh, Papua, the Moluccas, and Central Sulawesi;

(2) notes with grave concern that the Government of Indonesia largely fails to hold soldiers and police accountable for extrajudicial killings and other serious human rights abuses, both past and present;

(3) condemns the intimidation and harassment of human rights and civil society organizations and activists by members of Indonesian security forces and by military-backed militia groups, particularly in Aceh and Papua;

(4) notes with concern the Indonesian military's resistance to civilian control and oversight, its lack of budgetary transparency, and its continuing emphasis on internal security within Indonesia;

(5) urges the Indonesian government and military to provide full, active, and unfettered cooperation with the investigation of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the United States Department of Justice into the August 31, 2002 attack near Timika, Papua, which killed three people (including two Americans, Rick Spier and Ted Burgon), and injured 12 others, and which appears likely to have been perpetrated at least in part by members of the Indonesian military;

(6) commends the December 2002 signing of the Framework Agreement on Cessation of Hostilities in Aceh, but condemns the recent outbreaks of violence and militia activity that appear calculated to subvert that cease-fire agreement;

(7) notes with grave concern the continued detention of Muhammad Nazar, and the fact that those responsible for the murders of other prominent members of civil society in Aceh, such as Jafar Siddiq Hamzah, Sukardi, Sulaiman Ahmad, Tengku Safwan Idris, Nashiruddin Daud, and Zaini Sulaiman, still have not been apprehended, prosecuted, or punished;

(8) commends the “Zone of Peace” initiative in Papua, which has brought together civic, religious, governmental, and police representatives to discuss productive means of avoiding conflict, but expresses concern at the refusal of the Indonesian military to participate in that effort; and

(9) encourages the Government of Indonesia to expedite the reunification of separated East Timorese children with their families, and to hold legally accountable those individuals and organizations responsible for taking those children and for obstructing reunification efforts.

SEC. 723. AMENDMENT TO THE INTERNATIONAL RELI-GIous FREEDOM ACT OF 1998.

Section 207(a) of the International Religious Freedom Act of 1998 (22 U.S.C. 6435(a)) is amended by in-serting “and for each subsequent fiscal year” after “2003”.

SEC. 724. SENSE OF CONGRESS WITH RESPECT TO HUMAN RIGHTS IN CENTRAL ASIA.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The Central Asian nations of Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan are providing the United States with assistance in the war in Afghanistan, from military basing and overflight rights to the facilitation of humanitarian relief.

(2) In turn, the United States victory over the Taliban in Afghanistan provides important benefits to the Central Asian nations by removing a regime that threatened their security and by significantly weakening the Islamic Movement of Uzbekistan, a terrorist organization that had previously staged armed raids from Afghanistan into the region.
(3) The United States has consistently urged the nations of Central Asia to open their political systems and economies and to respect human rights, both before and since the attacks of September 11,

(4) Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan are members of the United Nations and the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), both of which confer a range of obligations with respect to human rights on their members.

(5) While the United States recognizes marked differences among the social structures and commitments to democratic and economic reform of the Central Asian nations, the United States notes nev-evertheless, according to the State Department Country Reports on Human Rights Practices, that all five governments of such nations, to differing degrees, restrict freedom of speech and association, restrict or ban the activities of human rights organizations and other nongovernmental organizations, harass or prohibit independent media, imprison political opponents, practice arbitrary detention and arrest, and engage in torture and extrajudicial executions.
(6) By continuing to suppress human rights and to deny citizens peaceful, democratic means of expressing their convictions, the nations of Central Asia risk fueling popular support for violent and extremist movements, thus undermining the goals of the war on terrorism.

(7) President George W. Bush has made the defense of human dignity, the rule of law, limits on the power of the state, respect for women and private property, free speech, equal justice, religious tolerance strategic goals of United States foreign policy in the Islamic world, arguing that “a truly strong nation will permit legal avenues of dissent for all groups that pursue their aspirations without violence”.

(8) Congress has expressed its desire to see deeper reform in Central Asia in past resolutions and other legislation, most recently conditioning assistance to Uzbekistan and Kazakhstan on their progress in meeting commitments to the United States on human rights and democracy.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) the governments of Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan should accelerate democratic reforms and fulfill their human rights obligations, including, where appropriate, by—

(A) releasing from prison anyone jailed for peaceful political activism or the nonviolent expression of their political or religious beliefs;

(B) fully investigating any credible allegations of torture and prosecuting those responsible;

(C) permitting the free and unfettered functioning of independent media outlets, independent political parties, and nongovernmental organizations, including by easing registration processes;

(D) permitting the free exercise of religious beliefs and ceasing the persecution of members of religious groups and denominations that do not engage in violence or political change through violence;

(E) holding free, competitive, and fair elections; and

(F) making publicly available documentation of their revenues and punishing those engaged in official corruption;
(2) the President, the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of Defense should—

(A) continue to raise at the highest levels with the governments of the nations of Central Asia specific cases of political and religious persecution, and to urge greater respect for human rights and democratic freedoms at every diplomatic opportunity;

(B) take progress in meeting the goals specified in paragraph (1) into account when determining the scope and nature of United States diplomatic and military relations and assistance with each of such governments;

(C) ensure that the provisions of foreign operations appropriations Acts are fully implemented to ensure that no United States assistance benefits security forces in Central Asia that are implicated in violations of human rights;

(D) press the Government of Turkmenistan to implement the helpful recommendations contained in the 2003 resolution on Turkmenistan of the United Nations Com-mmission on Human Rights and the so-called “Moscow Mechanism” Report of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), respect the right of all prisoners to due process and a fair trial and release democratic activists and their family members from prison;

(E) urge the Government of Russia not to extradite to Turkmenistan members of the political opposition of Turkmenistan;

(F) work with the Government of Kazakhstan to create a political climate free of intimidation and harassment, including releasing political prisoners and permitting the return of political exiles, and to reduce official corruption, including by urging the Government of Kazakhstan to cooperate with the ongoing United States Department of Justice investigation;

(G) support through United States assistance programs individuals, nongovernmental organizations, and media outlets in Central Asia working to build more open societies, to support the victims of human rights abuses, and to expose official corruption; and

(H) press the Government of Uzbekistan to implement fully the recommendations made to the Government of Uzbekistan by the United Nations’ Special Rapporteur on Torture; and
(3) increased levels of United States assistance to the governments of the nations of Central Asia made possible by their cooperation in the war in Afghanistan can be sustained only if there is substantial and continuing progress toward meeting the goals specified in paragraph (1).

SEC. 727. CONCERNING THE SPREAD OF WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:
(1) The proliferation of weapons of mass destruction presents a direct threat to the stability, security, and safety of nations around the globe.

(2) Combatting the spread of such weapons is a responsibility borne by all nations.

(3) United States efforts to stop the further spread of these weapons can be further enhanced by cooperative efforts between the United States and the European Union.

(4) There are many different components in this effort that require a comprehensive approach, immediate attention, and vigorous action, including the “10+10 over 10 Initiative” agreed to by the United States and many members of the European Union.

(5) Stopping the spread of weapons of mass destruction is made more difficult when states willingly participate in, or contribute to, their development or their sale or transfer to other nations.

(6) Stopping the spread of weapons of mass destruction is made more difficult when private companies willingly participate in, or contribute to, their development or their sale or transfer to other nations.
(7) United States security and safety is undermined when companies engage in such commerce.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—The Congress call on the European Union to—

(1) develop an aggressive and robust regulatory system designed to—

(A) investigate allegations of companies contributing to the development of weapons of mass destruction or their sale or transfer to other nations;

(B) isolate and condemn companies found to participate in, or contribute to, the development of such weapons or their sale or transfer to other nations; and

(C) develop a punitive response designed to punish such companies, thereby preventing further actions on their part and discouraging other companies from engaging in such actions;

(2) condemn, by name, states known to be contributing to the development or spread of weapons of mass destruction; and

(3) develop appropriate punitive measures designed to discourage further actions.
SEC. 728. INTERNATIONAL AGRICULTURAL BIO-TECHNOLOGY INFORMATION PROGRAM.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Department of State shall provide to other countries, as appropriate, the scientific evidence on the benefits, safety, and potential uses of agricultural biotechnology.

(b) SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES.—The Secretary of State shall—

(1) chair an interagency task force comprised of representatives of the Department of Commerce, the Department of Agriculture, and the United States Agency for International Development to develop and disseminate accurate written scientific information on the potential benefits of agricultural biotechnology for human and animal nutrition, the envIRONMENT, food and feed production, agricultural sustainability, and bioenergy development;

(2) coordinate the development and dissemination of scientifically-based facts regarding, the safety and regulation of biotechnology-derived food and feed products;

(3) instruct the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) to develop a program to demonstrate the potential benefits of agricultural biotechnology to develop products that can be grown under local soil and climate conditions and better meet the health and nutritional needs of local populations in the developing world; and

(4) ensure that personnel undertaking these activities are knowledgeable of, and disseminate information on, the United States regulatory safeguards that assure food and environmental safety.

SEC. 729. REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT BURDENSHARING.

It is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) the Secretary of State should actively encourage the international community to accept refugees for resettlement on a more equitable basis;

(2) the Secretary of State should raise the issue of refugee resettlement burdensharing at the United Nations and other multilateral and bilateral meetings;

(3) developed countries should be encouraged to increase the percentage of the world’s refugees accepted for resettlement; and

(4) the Secretary of State should encourage developing stable countries in regions with refugee flows to accept for resettlement as many of their neighbors as possible.
SEC. 730. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING MIGRATION ISSUES BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND MEXICO.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds as follows:

(1) During President Bush’s first meeting with President Fox in Guanajuato, Mexico, the Presidents stated in the Joint Communique of February 16, 2001 that “we are instructing our Governments to engage, at the earliest opportunity, in formal high level negotiations aimed at achieving short and long-term agreements that will allow us to constructively address migration and labor issues between our two countries.”.

(2) During President Fox’s official visit to Washington, D.C., the Joint Statement of September 6, 2001, summarized the meeting as follows: “The Presidents reviewed the progress made by our joint working group on migration chaired by Secretaries Powell, CastaZeda, and Creel and Attorney General Ashcroft and noted this represented the most fruitful and frank dialogue we have ever had on a subject so important to both nations. They praised implementation of the border safety initiative, and recognized that migration-related issues are deeply felt by our publics and vital to our prosperity, well-being, and the kind of societies we want to
They renewed their commitment to forging new and realistic approaches to migration to ensure it is safe, orderly, legal and dignified, and agreed on the framework within which this ongoing effort is based. This includes: matching willing workers with willing employers; serving the social and economic needs of both countries; respecting the human dignity of all migrants, regardless of their status; recognizing the contribution migrants make to enriching both societies; shared responsibility for ensuring migration takes place through safe and legal channels. Both stressed their commitment to continue our discussions, instructing the high-level working group to reach mutually satisfactory results on border safety, a temporary worker program and the status of undocumented Mexicans in the United States. They requested that the working group provide them proposals with respect to these issues as soon as possible. The Presidents recognized that this is an extraordinarily challenging area of public policy, and that it is critical to address the issue in a timely manner and with appropriate thoroughness and depth.”

(3) On September 7, 2001, during President Fox’s historic State Visit to Washington, the United States and Mexico issued a joint statement instructing our cabinet-level working group to provide us with specific proposals to forge a new and realistic framework that will ensure a safe, legal, orderly, and dignified migration flow between our countries. We have today agreed that our Cabinet level migration group should continue the work we charged it with in Guanajuato and Washington.

(4) When the Presidents met in Monterrey, Mexico, the Presidents stated in a Joint Statement on March 22, 2002, as follows: “Slightly more than one year ago, in Guanajuato, we talked about migration as one of the major ties that join our societies. We launched then the frankest and most productive dialogue our countries have ever had on this important and challenging subject. Those talks have continued over the past year, and have yielded a clearer assessment of the scope and nature of this issue. This bond between our nations can render countless benefits to our respective economies and families.

(5) Over the past year, important progress has been made to enhance migrant safety and particularly in saving lives by discouraging and reducing illegal crossings in dangerous terrain.
(6) At the conclusion of the Mexico-United States Binational Commission (BNC) meeting in Mexico City in November 2002, Secretary of State Powell’s press conference was summarized by the State Department as follows: The BNC’s migration working group “affirmed our strong commitment to advancing our bilateral migration agenda,” he stressed, adding that “there should be no doubt in anyone’s mind that this is a priority for President Bush, just as it is a priority for [Mexican] President [Vicente] Fox.”

(7) Secretary Powell said no schedule had been established for a migration accord, but he confirmed that the United States and Mexico want to come up with a series of migration initiatives over the course of the next six months to a year.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) that the United States and Mexico should as soon as is practicable conclude negotiations in an attempt to reach a migration accord that is as comprehensive as possible and which addresses the key issues of concern for both nations; and

(2) that as part of any migration agreement between the United States and Mexico, the issues of the extradition of violent criminals and law enforcement cooperation between the two nations be addressed.

SEC. 731. SENSE OF CONGRESS CONCERNING UNITED STATES ASSISTANCE TO PALESTINIAN REFU-GEES.

The Congress—

(1) recognizes the importance of United States humanitarian assistance to Palestinian refugees as an essential component to the peace process in the Middle East;

(2) acknowledges the hardships endured by many innocent Palestinian refugees in the West Bank and Gaza Strip and in other neighboring countries;

(3) notes that the United Nations High Commisson for Refugees (UNHCR) is the international body that seeks to find “lasting solutions” to the plight of refugees throughout the world, with the sole exception of the Palestinians, for whose exclusive benefit a special agency, the United Nations Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA), was established in 1950 and which makes no effort to permanently resettle Palestinian refugees, even those who reside under the jurisdiction of the Palestinian Authority, in order to ensure the perpetuation of the problem of Palestinian refugees;

(4) recognizes that the United States has been the world’s leading donor to UNRWA, having provided over $2,500,000,000 to UNRWA since 1950, including the provision of $110,000,000, in fiscal year 2002, and that such organization has provided important humanitarian assistance to the Palesstinian people;

(5) notes that the United States contribution to UNRWA is nearly 10 times that of the entire Arab world, and calls on Arab states to assume a greater share of the burden for financing UNWRA;

(6) expresses its outrage over credible reports that UNRWA facilities have been used for terrorist training and bases for terrorist operations, with little attempt by the UNRWA to stop or oppose such attacks or alert relevant law enforcement authorities about such terrorist activities;

(7) expresses deep concern over the textbooks and educational materials used in the UNRWA educational system that promote anti-Semitism, denial of the existence and the right to exist of the state of Israel, and exacerbate stereotypes and tensions between the Palestinians and Israelis;
(8) strongly urges the Secretary General of the United Nations to immediately take steps to comprehensively reform the UNRWA so that it actively works to oppose terrorist attacks and actively works to promote reconciliation and understanding between the Israelis and Palestinians;

(9) strongly urges UNRWA to meet the requirements, in letter and spirit, of section 301(c) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, including by comprehensively ensuring that no UNRWA assistance is rendered to anyone who has been involved with terrorism at any time and that all UNRWA beneficiaries be informed at the earliest possible time, and at regular intervals thereafter, that anyone involved with terrorism thereafter will be ineligible for UNRWA benefits;

(10) strongly urges the Secretary of State to make UNRWA reforms a priority at the United Nations by actively campaigning within the United Nations to support such reforms, including comprehensive and independently verifiable audits of UNRWA activities and educational reform that would remove from the curriculum all textbooks and educational materials that promote hatred of Jews and Israel and denial of Israel’s right to exist and replace them.
with teaching materials that promote Israeli-Palestinian reconciliation and mutual understanding; and

(11) notes the General Accounting Office (GAO) audit required by section 580 of the FY 2003 Foreign Operations Appropriations Act (Public Law 108–7), and strongly encourages the GAO to conduct, as part of this audit, an investigation and inspection of all recent United States assistance to UNRWA to ensure that taxpayer funds are being spent effectively and are not directly or indirectly supporting terrorism, anti-Semitic or anti-Jewish teachings, or the glorification or incitement of violence.

SEC. 732. UNITED STATES POLICY ON WORLD BANK GROUP LOANS TO IRAN.

(a) UNITED STATES POLICY.—The Secretary of State (or a designee), in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, shall communicate directly with the governments of countries represented on the decision-making boards and councils of the international financial institutions of the World Bank Group and consistently convey the strong opposition of the United States Government to any further activity in Iran by the international financial institutions of the World Bank Group.
(b) REPORTS.—Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act and one year thereafter, the Secretary of State shall submit a report on the efforts of the Secretary to carry out subsection (a) to the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on International Relations of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate.

(c) WORLD BANK GROUP DEFINED.—As used in this section, the term “World Bank Group” means the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the International Development Association, the International Financial Corporation, and the Multilateral Investment Guaranty Agency.

SEC. 733. SENSE OF CONGRESS RELATING TO SOVIET NU-CLEAR TESTS IN KAZAKHSTAN.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) In 1991, immediately after achieving independence, Kazakhstan closed and sealed the world’s second largest nuclear test site in Semipalatinsk which had been inherited from the former Soviet Union and at which more than 500 nuclear tests had been conducted from 1949 to 1991.

(2) The cumulative power of explosions from those tests, conducted above ground, on the ground, and underground is believed to be equal to the power of 20,000 explosions of the type of bomb dropped on Hiroshima, Japan, in 1945.

(3) More than 1,500,000 people in Kazakhstan suffered because of decades of Soviet nuclear weapons testing in the region.

(4) A horrifying array of disease will continue to destroy the lives of hundreds of thousands and their descendants for many generations to come as a result of these tests.

(5) Since its independence, Kazakhstan has constructed a stable and peaceful state, voluntarily disarmed the world’s fourth largest nuclear arsenal, joined the Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty (START), and became an example of responsible nonproliferation of such weapons.

(6) Kazakhstan is also doing its best to help those who were exposed to the horrific nuclear experiments of the 20th century but it faces daunting challenges.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that the Secretary of State should work to establish a joint working group with the Government of Kazakhstan to assist in assessing the environmental damage and health effects caused by Soviet nuclear testing in Semipalatinsk.
SEC. 734. SENSE OF CONGRESS RELATING TO VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN.

The Congress—

(1) recalls that Article 4 of the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of Violence Against Women (20 December 1993) outlines that states should condemn violence against women and should not invoke any custom, tradition, or religious consideration to avoid their obligations with respect to its elimination;

(2) recalls that Chapter 4, Section 125, of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action, Fourth World Conference on Women (15 September 1995) states that governments condemn violence against women and refrain from invoking any custom, tradition, or religious consideration to avoid their obligations with respect to its elimination as set out in the Declaration on the Elimination of Violence against Women;

(3) recalls that the United States has supported both the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of Violence and the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action; and

(4) reinforces the position of the United States that the United States condemns violence against women and refrains from invoking any custom, tradition, or religious consideration to avoid this nation’s obligations with respect to its elimination as set out in the Declaration on the Elimination of Violence against Women.

SEC. 735. SENSE OF CONGRESS CONCERNING THE TIMELY

ISSUANCE OF VISAS FOR RUSSIAN WEAPONS

SCIENTISTS INVOLVED IN ARMS CONTROL

AND NONPROLIFERATION EXCHANGES WITH

THE UNITED STATES.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The United States visa approval system has

in the past lacked proper oversight, coordination, and supervision. A more systematic, stringent, and rigorous evaluation system for visa approvals is clearly in the best interests of the United States.

(2) Many distinguished scholars, professors, researchers, and foreign associates of United States

national academies have been prevented by visa delays from entering the United States for engagements at major conferences, meetings, and teaching invitations at American universities.

(3) Research collaborators for United States laboratories have also been prevented from entering the United States. Their absence halts projects and compromises United States commitments in long-standing international cooperative agreements aimed at reducing stockpiles of weapons of mass destructtion.

(4) Visa restrictions came within one day of forcing the cancellation of an important meeting in Washington, D.C. of the National Academy of Sciences Committee on United States Russian Cooperation on Nuclear Non-Proliferation.

(5) Russian weapons scientists involved in nuclear non-proliferation cooperative efforts with the United States are critical to American efforts to ensure that nuclear weapons-grade materials remain under control and out of the hands of terrorists.

(6) In a December 2002 statement, the Presidents of the National Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Engineering, and the Institute of Medicine found that a United States approach to visas that welcomes qualified foreign scientists, engineers, health professionals, and students serves national goals in three distinct ways:

(A) It harnesses international cooperation for counterterrorism.

(B) It builds stronger allies through scientific and technical cooperation.
(C) It maintains United States global leadership in science and technology.

(7) The Presidents of the National Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Engineering, and the Institute of Medicine have found that current United States policy toward granting visas, to foreign scientists is harmful to the United States scientific community and to the long-term well-being of the United States. They stated on December 13, 2002, that “To make our nation safer, it is extremely important that our visa policy not only keep out foreigners who intend to do us harm, but also facilitate the acceptance of those who bring us considerable benefit. Recent efforts by our government to constrain the flow of international visitors in the name of national security are having serious unintended consequences for American science, engineering, and medicine. The long-term security of the United States depends on admitting scholars who benefit our nation. In short, the United States scientific, engineering, and health communities cannot hope to maintain their present position of international leadership if they become isolated from the rest of the world. We view this as an urgent matter, one that must be promptly addressed if the United States is to meet both its national security and economic development goals.”.

(8) Currently, consular officials send many visa applications back to the United States for sequential security clearances by several agencies, which may lead to long delays in visa processing. Consular officers are subject to criminal penalties if they grant a visa to a person who subsequently commits a terrorist act in the United States. However, there are currently no incentives for consular officers to facilitate scientific exchanges, which may advance the national interest of the United States.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) to the extent possible and consistent with national security objectives, the United States should expedite the processing of granting visas to Russian weapons scientists, especially those participating in bilateral weapon disarmament talks, negotiations, and exchanges, to enable them to participate in cooperative nonproliferation activities with their counterparts in the United States, and

(2) the Department of State is encouraged to consider streamlining the process of granting visas for such scientists as follows:
(A) Reinstate a procedure of pre-security clearance for scientists and engineers with the proper credentials.

(B) Involve the United States scientific and technical community in determining areas of particular security concern.

SEC. 736. DESIGNATION OF FOREIGN TERRORIST ORGANIZATIONS.

(a) PERIOD OF DESIGNATION.—Section 219(a)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1189(a)(4)) is amended—

(1) in subparagraph (A)—

(3) by adding at the end the following:

The results of such review and the applicable procedures shall not be reviewable in any court.

“(iii) Publication of results of review.—The Secretary shall publish any determination made pursuant to this sub-paragraph in the Federal Register.”.

(b) Aliases.—Section 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1189) is amended—

(1) by redesignating subsections (b) and (c) as subsections (c) and (d), respectively; and

(2) by inserting after subsection (a) the following new subsection (b):

“(b) Amendments to a Designation.—

“(1) In general.—The Secretary may amend a designation under this subsection if the Secretary finds that the organization has changed its name, adopted a new alias, dissolved and then reconstituted itself under a different name or names, or merged with another organization.

“(2) Procedure.—Amendments made to a designation in accordance with paragraph (1) shall be effective upon publication in the Federal Register.
Subparagraphs (B) and (C) of subsection (a)(2) shall apply to an amended designation upon such publication. Paragraphs (2)(A)(i), (4), (5), (6), (7), and (8) of subsection (a) shall also apply to an amended designation.

“(3) Administrative record.—The administrative record shall be corrected to include the amendments as well as any additional relevant information that supports those amendments.

“(4) CLASSIFIED INFORMATION.—The Secretary may consider classified information in amending a designation in accordance with this subsection. Classified information shall not be subject to disclosure for such time as it remains classified, except that such information may be disclosed to a court ex parte and in camera for purposes of judicial review under subsection (c).”.

(c) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—
Section 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1189) is amended—

(1) in subsection (a)—

(A) in paragraph (3)(B), by striking “subsection (b)” and inserting “subsection (c)”;

(B) in paragraph (6)(A)—

(i) in the matter preceding clause (i), by striking “or a redesignation made under paragraph (4)(B)” and inserting “at any time, and shall revoke a designation upon completion of a review conducted pursuant to subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (4)”;
and
(ii) in clause (i), by striking “or redesignation”;

SEC. 737. SENSE OF CONGRESS RELATING TO REGARDING SECURITY FOR TAIWAN.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) For over half a century a close relationship has existed between the United States and Taiwan which has been of enormous economic, cultural, and strategic advantage to both countries.
(2) Taiwan today is a full-fledged democracy with a vibrant economy and a vigorous multi-party political system that respects human rights and the rule of law.

(3) Taiwan is an ally of the United States, as most recently evidenced by Taiwan’s provision of humanitarian and financial assistance to Afghanistan at the request of the United States and its support for Operation Iraqi Freedom.

(4) The security of the 23 million people in Taiwan is threatened by the deployment by the People’s Republic of China of over 400 short-range ballistic missiles targeted at Taiwan, and the purchase by the PRC of advanced weaponry systems, including Su–27 and Su–30 fighter planes, Kilo submarines, and Sovremenny destroyers.

(5) Taiwan was threatened by missile exercises conducted by the PRC in August 1995 and again in March 1996 when Taiwan was conducting its first free and direct presidential elections.

(6) Section 2(b)(4) of the Taiwan Relations Act (22 U.S.C. 3301(b)(4)) considers any effort to determine the future of Taiwan by other than peaceful means, including by boycotts or embargoes, a threat to the peace and security of the Western Pacific area and of grave concern to the United States.

(7) Section 2(b)(6) of the Taiwan Relations Act (22 U.S.C. 3301(b)(6)) requires the United States to maintain the capacity to resist any resort to force or other forms of coercion that would jeopardize the security, or the social or economic system, of the people on Taiwan.

(8) In his January 17, 2001, confirmation hearing as Secretary of State, General Colin Powell stated that “We will stand by Taiwan and will provide for the defense needs of Taiwan in accordance with the Taiwan Relations Act and the subsequent communiques.”.

(9) President Bush stated on April 24, 2001, that the United States will do whatever it takes to help Taiwan defend itself.

(10) In his testimony before the International Relations Committee of the House of Representatives and the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate in February and March of 2002, Admiral Dennis Blair of the United States Pacific Command testified that “China continued to build and exercise its force of short-range ballistic missiles ranging Taiwan. It still seeks to develop a range of military options to influence and intimidate Taiwan, and has not abandoned the option of using force to resolve Taiwan’s status.”.

(11) The July 2002 U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission report to Congress stated that “China is enhancing its capability to carry out attacks across the Taiwan Strait with its special operations forces, air forces and navy and missiles forces with little notice,” and “the Commission recommends that the U.S. along with its allies should continue to call upon China to renounce the threat of or the use of force against Taiwan.”.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that—

(1) grave concerns exist concerning the deployment by the People’s Republic of China of hundreds of ballistic missiles directed toward Taiwan, which threaten the security and stability in the Taiwan Strait;

(2) the President should direct all appropriate United States officials to raise these concerns with the appropriate officials from the People’s Republic of China, and should seek a public, immediate, and unequivocal renunciation from the leaders of the People’s Republic of China of any threat or use of force against Taiwan;

(3) the President should affirm with the leaders of the People’s Republic of China that there will not be a quid pro quo between the dismantling of missiles aimed at Taiwan by the People’s Republic of China, and arms sales to Taiwan by the United States;

(4) China should dismantle the missiles that threaten Taiwan, otherwise the President should authorize the sale of the Aegis system to Taiwan, which would enable Taiwan to defend itself against the threat of a missile attack by China; and

(5) the future of Taiwan should be determined peacefully and with the express consent of the people of Taiwan.

SEC. 738. SENSE OF CONGRESS IN APPRECIATION OF THE ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES AND REGARDING RESTORING STABILITY AND SECURITY IN IRAQ.

(a) Findings.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The United States, with the support of forces from Great Britain and other countries, historically and courageously liberated Iraq in three weeks.

(2) Conditions on the ground in parts of Iraq continue to pose a grave threat to American troops, thereby complicating efforts to restore law and order and essential public services for Iraqis. Such efforts are further complicated by the absence of effective communications with the Iraqi people.

(3) Ultimately, maintaining law and order in Iraq and preserving its territorial integrity will require the creation of a professionally trained Iraqi police force and a reformed Iraqi military; however, that will take a significant amount of time and in the meantime international armed forces and police must assume these responsibilities.

(4) Approximately 145,000 United States troops are currently deployed in Iraq, meaning that American troops comprise roughly 90 percent of Coalition forces. If, as the Department of Defense has stated, an additional 10,000 international troops join the Coalition effort in Iraq by September, Americans will still comprise roughly 85 percent of Coalition forces.

(5) Maintaining the existing force level in Iraq currently requires $3,900,000,000 each month.
The Department of Defense has stated that it will require one year to train a new Iraqi Army of 12,000 soldiers and three years to train 40,000 soldiers.

The Coalition Provisional Authority has stated that it will require at least one year to recruit and train a police force of 40,000 officers capable of assuming minimal policy functions in Iraq, that it will require five years to recruit and train a full force of 75,000 officers, and that at least 5500 additional international police are needed to train, assist, and jointly patrol with the existing Iraqi police force.

President Bush has noted that “The rise of Iraq, as an example of moderation and democracy and prosperity, is a massive and long-term undertaking,” and it is clear that increasing the number of troops and police from countries other than the United States will reduce risks to American soldiers and the financial cost to the United States.

Secretary Rumsfeld testified that “We certainly want assistance from NATO and from NATO countries” and it is clear that involving the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, as is being done in Afghanistan and has been done in Kosovo and Bosnia, allows the Coalition to maintain a robust military presence while decreasing the exposure and risk to American troops.

(10) Rebuilding Iraq’s neglected infrastructure and economy and administering Iraq—including providing basic services and paying public sector salaries—is likely to require tens of billions of dollars over several years and projected Iraqi oil revenues will be insufficient to meet these costs.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that—

(1) it is in the national security interests of the United States to remain engaged in Iraq in order to ensure a peaceful, stable, unified Iraq with a representative government;

(2) the President should consider requesting formally and expeditiously that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) raise a force for deployment in post-war Iraq similar to what it has done in Afghanistan, Bosnia, and Kosovo and the Congress urges NATO allies and other nations to provide troops and police to Coalition efforts in Iraq; and

(3) the President should consider calling on the United Nations to urge its member states to provide military forces and civilian police to promote sta-
HR 1950 PCS

1 bility and security in Iraq and resources to help re-
2 build and administer Iraq.

SEC. 740. SENSE OF CONGRESS AND REPORT CONCERNING WASTEWATER TREATMENT AND THE INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY AND WATER COMMISSION, UNITED STATES AND MEXICO.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds as follows:

(1) The failure by the International Boundary and Water Commission, United States and Mexico, to complete negotiations on a new Treaty Minute with Mexico, as directed by Congress in Public Law 106–457, has endangered the health of the residents of San Diego County.

(2) The continued flow of Mexican sewage on San Diego, California, beaches has caused extensive and persistent beach closings thereby causing economic hardship to the local economy.

(3) The International Boundary and Water Commission has shown insignificant progress in negotiations with Mexico.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that the United States Section of the International Boundary and Water Commission shall make treaty negotiations with Mexico on the establishment of a public-private partnership to construct and operate a wastewater treatment facility in Mexico as outlined in Public Law 106–457 a priority.
(c) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—The United States Section of the International Boundary and Water Commission, United States and Mexico, shall submit monthly reports to the appropriate congressional committees concerning progress in negotiations on a new Treaty Minute with Mexico.

SEC. 74.1. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING ALLOCATION OF RESOURCES FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE AS THE CENTRAL AUTHORITY FOR THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE HAGUE CONVENTION ON INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTION.

SEC. 742. TRANSFER OF VIETNAM-ERA CESSNA L–19D BIRD DOG AIRCRAFT TO ARMY AVIATION HERITAGE FOUNDATION.

(a) AUTHORITY TO CONVEY.—The Secretary of State may convey, without consideration, to the Army Aviation Heritage Foundation, a nonprofit organization incorporated in the State of Georgia, all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to a Vietnam-era Cessna L–19D Bird Dog aircraft (serial No. 24020, National registration number N32FL)(in this section referred to as the “aircraft”) that is excess to the needs of the Department of State. The conveyance shall be made by means of a conditional deed of gift.

(b) CONDITION OF AIRCRAFT.—The aircraft shall be conveyed in its current “as is” condition. The Secretary is not required to repair or alter the condition of the aircraft before conveying ownership of the aircraft.

(c) CONDITION ON CONVEYANCE.—The Secretary shall include in the instrument of conveyance of the aircraft the following conditions:

(1) The Army Aviation Heritage Foundation
may not convey any ownership interest in, or transfer possession of, the aircraft to any other party without the prior approval of the Secretary.

(2) The Army Aviation Heritage Foundation
shall operate and maintain the aircraft in compliance with all applicable limitations and maintenance requirements imposed by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration.

(d) REVERTER UPON BREACH OF CONDITIONS.—If the Secretary determines at any time that the Army Aviation Heritage Foundation has conveyed an ownership interest in, or transferred possession of, the aircraft to any any repair or alteration of the aircraft, shall revert to the United States, and the United States shall have the right of immediate possession of the aircraft.

(f) ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS.—The Secretary may require such additional terms and conditions in connection with a conveyance under this section as the Secretary considers appropriate to protect the interests of the United States.

(g) CLARIFICATION OF LIABILITY.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon the conveyance of ownership of the aircraft to the Army Aviation Heritage Foundation, the United States shall not be liable for any death, injury, loss, or damage that results from any use of that aircraft by any person other than the United States.

SEC. 743. STATEMENT OF POLICY RELATING TO DEMOCRACY IN IRAN.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) Iran is neither free nor democratic. Men and women are not treated equally in Iran, women are legally deprived of internationally recognized human rights, and religious freedom is not respected under the laws of Iran. Undemocratic institutions, such as the Guardians Council, thwart the decisions of elected leaders.

(2) The April 2003 report of the Department of State states that Iran remained the most active state sponsor of terrorism in 2002.

(3) That report also states that Iran continues to provide funding, safe-haven, training and weapons to known terrorist groups, notably Hizballah, HAMAS, the Palestine Islamic Jihad, and the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine.

(b) POLICY.—It is the policy of the United States that—

(1) currently, there is not a free and fully democratic government in Iran;

(2) the United States supports transparent, full democracy in Iran;

(3) the United States supports the rights of the Iranian people to choose their system of government; and

(4) the United States condemns the brutal treatment, imprisonment and torture of Iranian civilians expressing political dissent.
SEC. 744. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING THE EXTRACTION OF VIOLENT CRIMINALS FROM MEXICO TO THE UNITED STATES.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds as follows:

(1) The Mexican Supreme Court ruled in October 2001 that Mexico will not extradite criminals who face life sentences in the United States.

(2) Due to this ruling, the United States has been unable to prosecute numerous suspects wanted for violent crimes that they committed in the United States if there is a possibility that these criminals will face life imprisonment.

(3) The person or persons responsible for the April 29, 2002, murder of Los Angeles County Sheriff Deputy David March is believed to have fled to Mexico to avoid prosecution for a possible life imprisonment.

(4) The attorneys general from all 50 States have asked United States Attorney General John Ashcroft and Secretary of State Colin Powell to continue to address this extradition issue with their counterparts in Mexico.

(5) The Governments of the United States and Mexico have experienced positive cooperation on numerous matters relevant to their bilateral relationship.
(6) The Mexican Minister of Foreign Affairs has been demonstrating to the Mexican Supreme Court the international ramifications of the Court’s October 2001 ruling.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that the United States Government should encourage the Mexican Government to work closely with the Mexican Supreme Court to persuade the Court to reconsider its October 2001 ruling so that the possibility of life imprisonment will not have an effect on the timely extradition of criminal suspects from Mexico to the United States.

SEC. 1101. ELIGIBILITY PROVISIONS. (a) Ineligibility for Terrorist Related Transactions.—Section 3(c)(1) (22 U.S.C. 2753(c)(1)) is amended—

(1) in each of subparagraphs (A) and (B), by striking “or any predecessor Act,” and inserting “,

any predecessor Act, or licensed or approved under section 38 of this Act, to carry out a transaction with a country, the government of which the Secretary of State has determined is a state sponsor of international terrorism for purposes of section 6(j)(1) of the Export Administration Act of 1979

SEC. 1103. COORDINATION OF LICENSE EXEMPTIONS WITH UNITED STATES LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES.

(a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—In view of the historic difficulties in the enforcement of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2751 et seq.) associated with violations involving exports of defense articles and defense services that have been exempted by regulation from the licensing requirements of section 38 of such Act, it is the sense of Congress that the establishment of new exemptions by regulation should only be undertaken after careful coordination with the appropriate United States law enforcement agencies.

(b) AMENDMENT.—Section 38(b)(2) (22 U.S.C. 2778(b)(2)) is amended by adding at the end the following new sentences: “In promulgating regulations under subsection (a)(1) in accordance with the preceding sentence, any provision in such regulations that permits the export of defense articles or defense services without a license shall include a determination by the Attorney General, in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, that the compilation and maintenance of sufficient documentation relating to the export without a license of the articles or services is ensured, notwithstanding the absence of a license, to facilitate law enforcement efforts to detect, pre-

SEC. 1105. COMPREHENSIVE NATURE OF UNITED STATES ARMS EMBARGOES.

(a) FINDINGS; SENSE OF CONGRESS.—

(1) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

(A) governments to which the United States Government prohibits by law or policy the transfer of implements of war, including material, components, parts, and other defense articles and defense services (as defined in paragraphs (3) and (4) of section 47 of the Arms Export Control Act, respectively) continue to seek to evade these embargoes through increasingly sophisticated illegal acquisitions via the “international gray arms market” and by seeking to exploit weaknesses in the export control system of the United States and its friends and allies; and

(B) the strict and comprehensive application of arms embargoes referred to in subparagraph (A) including those embargoes established by the United Nations Security Council is of fundamental importance to the security and foreign policy interests of the United States.

(2) Sense of Congress.—It is the sense of Congress that the United States Government should continue to provide a leadership role internationally in ensuring the effectiveness of arms embargoes referred to in paragraph (1).

(b) Scope of Embargoes.—Section 38 (22 U.S.C. 2778) is amended by adding at the end the following:

SEC. 1339. REPORT ON MISSILE DEFENSE COOPERATION.

Not later than December 31, 2003, and December 31, 2004, the Secretary of State shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees a report on cooperative efforts that have been undertaken by the United States with foreign governments to foster the development and deployment of defenses against missile attack. Such report shall include a detailed description of such efforts on a country-by-country basis, and may be submitted in classified and unclassified form, as appropriate.

SEC. 1340. IRAN’S PROGRAM TO DEVELOP A NUCLEAR EXPLOSIVE DEVICE.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) Iran, as a party to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, has legally forsworn developing or acquiring nuclear weapons.

(2) Iran has for more than a decade pursued a program aimed at the development of a nuclear explosive device.

(3) Director of Central Intelligence George Tenet has repeatedly warned of Iran’s clandestine efforts to acquire weapons of mass destruction, stating as recently as February 11, 2003, in testimony before Congress that “Iran is continuing to pursue development of a nuclear fuel cycle for civilian and nuclear weapons purposes . . . [and further that] Tehran may be able to indigenously produce enough fissile material for a nuclear weapon” within this decade.

(4) On March 17, 2003, Dr. el Baradei, Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), called on Iran to agree to a more intrusive monitoring regime at its nuclear sites and demanded that Iran, which is a signatory to the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty, agree to an “additional protocol” under the IAEA’s nuclear inspection rights, which would enable more intrusive monitoring.

(5) In early 2003 Iran announced plans to mine its own natural uranium and admitted constructing two nuclear facilities, one a gas centrifuge uranium enrichment facility and the other a heavy water production plant.

(6) A uranium enrichment facility would give Iran the capability to indigenously produce nuclear-weapons grade uranium. Further, heavy water is used in reactors that not only produce weapons-grade plutonium, but also tritium, a key ingredient in boosted-fission weapons.

(7) At the same time, Iran has been developing long-range missiles that could deliver nuclear explosive devices. Director of Central Intelligence Tenet has warned that Iran could flight test an intercontinental ballistic missile later this decade.

(8) Iran has received considerable assistance in its nuclear program and in its missile development program from the Russian Federation, the People’s Republic of China, and North Korea.

(9) Congress has long been seized with finding ways to deter or delay Iran’s acquisition or development of such deadly weapons, including through the enactment of the Iran-Iraq Arms Non-Proliferation Act of 1992, the Iran Libya Sanctions Act of 1996, the Iran Non-Proliferation Act of 2000, and the Iran Nuclear Proliferation Prevention Act of 2002.

(10) Successive Administrations have similarly sought to deter or delay Iran’s acquisition or development of such weapons by such measures as elevating Iran’s proliferation behavior in bilateral relations with the Russian Federation and the People’s Republic of China, sanctioning entities of the Russian Federation providing technology or expertise to Iran’s nuclear and missile programs, and urging multilateral export control regimes to deny sensitive technology to proliferators like Iran.

(11) President Bush included Iran as one of the countries that comprise the “axis of evil” in his January 2002 State of the Union Address because of its efforts to develop weapons of mass destruction and its support of international terrorism. Iran has been the principle supporter and supplier to Hizballah in southern Lebanon, Hamas, and Islamic Jihad. Further, the leaders of Iran have publicly called for the destruction of the State of Israel.

(12) A nuclear-armed Iran would pose a grave threat to the national security of the United States and to our allies in the region.

(b) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—Congress—

(1) finds that Iran’s support of terrorism and its efforts to develop nuclear weapons are a grave threat to the national security of the United States and its allies and to the United States Armed Forces;

(2) declares that the United States and our friends and allies must make maximum efforts to prevent Iran from developing or acquiring nuclear weapons and the missiles to deliver them;
(3) urges the President to use all appropriate means to prevent Iran from gaining such capabilities;

(4) urges the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) to employ the full range of its inspection authorities to ensure that Iran’s nuclear program is used for peaceful purposes only;

(5) encourages Iran to sign and ratify the new nuclear safeguards protocol, the “Model Additional Protocol (INFCIRC/540-Corr)” to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, which would demonstrate Iran’s commitment to sharing information about its nuclear program with the IAEA and the international community and to full disclosure and transparency about its nuclear program; and

(6) urges the United States resident representative to the IAEA to work with the Board of Governors of the IAEA on guidelines for early identification of noncompliance with the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty.

TITLE XIV—MISSILE THREAT REDUCTION ACT OF 2003

SEC. 1401. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as the “Missile Threat Reduction Act of 2003”.

HR 1950 PCS
Subtitle A—Strengthening International Missile Nonproliferation Law

SEC. 1411. FINDINGS.

Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The spread of offensive ballistic missiles suitable for launching nuclear, chemical, and biological warheads is accelerating across the globe.

(2) According to the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, more than 25 countries possess missiles with ranges in excess of 300 kilometers and capable of delivering a nuclear warhead.

(3)(A) Many of the countries now possessing such missiles, and engaging in the sale and transfer of such missiles and their production technology to other countries, are directly hostile to the United States, its interests, and its allies.

(B) Of particular concern in this regard is North Korea, which regularly sells ballistic missiles and technology to countries in regions of instability and concern to the United States.

(4) The Central Intelligence Agency has stated in its most recent report on the foreign ballistic missile threat the following:
“Emerging ballistic missile states continue to increase the range, reliability, and accuracy of the missile systems in their inventories—posing ever greater risks to U.S. forces, interests, and allies throughout the world. A decade ago, U.S. and allied forces abroad faced threats from SRBM’s [Short Range Ballistic Missiles]—primarily the Scud and its variants. Today, countries have deployed or are on the verge of deploying MRBM’s [Medium Range Ballistic Missiles], placing greater numbers of targets at risk.

“Proliferation of ballistic missile-related technologies, materials, and expertise—especially by Russian, Chinese, and North Korean entities—has enabled emerging missile states to accelerate the development timelines for their existing programs, acquire turnkey systems to gain previously non-existent capabilities—in the case of the Chinese sale of the M–11 SRBM to Pakistan—and lay the groundwork for the expansion of domestic infrastructures to potentially accommodate even more capable and longer range future systems.”
(5) The same CIA report also noted the following: “North Korea has assumed the role as the missile and manufacturing technology source for many programs. North Korean willingness to sell complete systems and components has enabled other states to acquire longer range capabilities earlier than otherwise would have been possible—notably the sale of the No Dong MRBM to Pakistan. The North also has helped countries to acquire technologies to serve as the basis for domestic development efforts—as with Iran’s reverse-engineering of the No Dong in the Shahab-3 program. Meanwhile, Iran is expanding its efforts to sell missile technology.”

(6) Since 1987, 33 countries have committed to abide by a voluntary set of guidelines known as the Missile Technology Control Regime (MTCR), whereby adherents agreed to refrain from the transfer to nonadherents of certain categories of whole missiles, their constituent parts, and the facilities to manufacture them, especially “Category I” missiles, which at a range of 300 kilometers or more and a payload capacity of 500 kilograms or more are especially suited for delivering nuclear weapons.
(7) In October 2002, 93 countries committed to observe a nonbinding code of conduct derived from, but less restrictive than, the nonbinding MTCR. While this is a welcome achievement, it does not provide a legal obligation on its adherents to refrain from the trade in missiles or missile technology.

(8) On December 10, 2002, the White House released its “National Strategy to Combat Weapons of Mass Destruction”, wherein it is stated that strengthening international nonproliferation controls on weapons of mass destruction (WMD) and upon the missiles that can deliver them is the second of three principal pillars of the National Strategy. The National Strategy also states that “effective interdiction is a critical part of the U.S. strategy to combat WMD and their delivery means”.

(9) On December 11, 2002, the United States took control of an unflagged freighter that was attempting clandestinely to ship, from North Korea to Yemen, SCUD missiles of a type that would be generally prohibited from transfer as Category I missiles.

(10) Neither North Korea nor Yemen is an adherent to the MTCR guidelines, which in any case are not legally binding, and there is no binding international legal instrument that would prohibit shipments of the missiles referred to in paragraph (9).

(11) At Yemen’s request, the United States released the shipment of North Korean Scud missiles to Yemen.

(12) Also on December 11, 2002, the White House press spokesman stated that existing international law regarding halting the spread of missile proliferation could be strengthened. The new National Strategy to Combat Weapons of Mass Destruction also commits the United States to support those regimes that are currently in force, and to work to improve the effectiveness of, and compliance with, those regimes, and identifies the MTCR as a regime that the United States will seek to strengthen.

(13) Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld, testifying on February 12, 2003, before the Committee on Armed Services of the Senate, stated the following: “...[I]t’s pretty clear that the proliferation regimes that exist in the world worked pretty well before, [but] they’re not working very well right now.... [U]nless the world wakes up and says this is a dangerous thing and creates a set of regimes that will in fact get cooperation to stop those weapons, we’re going to be facing a very serious situation in the next five years.”.

(14) The MTCR has made an invaluable contribution to restraint in the international trade of offensive ballistic missiles. Strengthening international controls on ballistic missiles, however, will require a dramatic expansion of adherents that rigorously abide by the MTCR’s guidelines, and a binding legal basis for the United Nations and countries devoted to nonproliferation to prevent, and when necessary act to prevent, further proliferation of offensive ballistic missiles around the world.

(15) Therefore, it should be the policy of the United States to promote the creation of new international mechanisms that would, in all future circumstances, allow the peace-loving and law-abiding nations of the world the authority to interdict and prevent the transfer of such missiles.

SEC. 1412. POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES.

It shall be the policy of the United States to seek a binding international instrument or instruments to restrict the trade in offensive ballistic missiles with ranges of 300 kilometers or more that have a payload capacity of 500 kilograms or more. Such a binding international instrument may take the form of a multilateral treaty, a United Nations Security Council resolution, or other instrument of international law, and should provide for enforcement measures including interdiction, seizure, and impoundment of illicit shipments of offensive ballistic missiles and related technology, equipment, and components.

SEC. 1413. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

It is the sense of the Congress that the United States should immediately introduce a resolution in the United Nations Security Council to prohibit all members of the United Nations from purchasing, receiving, assisting or allowing the transfer of, and to authorize the subsequent interdiction, seizure, and impoundment of, any missile, missile-related equipment, means of producing missiles, or missile-related technology from North Korea.

Subtitle B—Strengthening United States Missile Nonproliferation Law

TITLE XVI—ISRAELI-PALESTINIAN PEACE ENHANCEMENT ACT OF 2003

SEC. 1601. SHORT TITLE.
This title may be cited as the “Israeli-Palestinian Peace Enhancement Act of 2003”.

SEC. 1602. FINDINGS.
Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The security of the State of Israel is a major and enduring national security interest of the United States.

(2) A lasting peace in the Middle East region can only take root in an atmosphere free of violence and terrorism.

(3) The Palestinian people have been ill-served by leaders who, by resorting to violence and terrorism to pursue their political objectives, have brought economic and personal hardship to their people and brought a halt to efforts seeking a negotiated settlement of the conflict.
(4) The United States has an interest in a Middle East in which two states, Israel and Palestine, will live side by side in peace and security.

(5) In his speech of June 24, 2002, and in other statements, President George W. Bush outlined a comprehensive vision of the possibilities of peace in the Middle East region following a change in Palestinian leadership.

(6) A stable and peaceful Palestinian state is necessary to achieve the security that Israel longs for, and Israel should take concrete steps to support the emergence of a viable, credible Palestinian state.

(7) The Palestinian state must be a reformed, peaceful, and democratic state that abandons forever the use of terror.

(8) On April 29, 2003, the Palestinian Legislative Council confirmed in office, by a vote of 51 yeas, 18 nays, and 3 abstentions, the Palestinian Authority’s first prime minister, Mahmoud Abbas (Abu Mazen), and his cabinet.

(9) In his remarks prior to the vote of the Palestinian Legislative Council, Mr. Abbas declared: “The government will concentrate on the question of security . . . The unauthorized possession of weapons, with its direct threat to the security of the population, is a major concern that will be relentlessly addressed . . . There will be no other decision-making authority except for the Palestinian Authority.”.

(10) In those remarks, Mr. Abbas further stated: “We denounce terrorism by any party and in all its forms both because of our religious and moral traditions and because we are convinced that such methods do not lend support to a just cause like ours but rather destroy it.”.

(11) Israel has repeatedly indicated its willingness to make painful concessions to achieve peace once there is a partner for peace on the Palestinian side.

SEC. 1603. PURPOSES.

The purposes of this title are—

(1) to express the sense of Congress with respect to United States recognition of a Palestinian state; and

(2) to demonstrate United States willingness to provide substantial economic and humanitarian assistance, and to support large-scale multilateral assistance, after the Palestinians have achieved the reforms outlined by President Bush and have achieved peace with the State of Israel.
SEC. 1604. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

It is the sense of Congress that—

(1) peace between Israel and the Palestinians cannot be negotiated until the Palestinian system of government has been transformed along the lines outlined in President Bush’s June 24, 2002, speech;

(2) substantial United States and international economic assistance will be needed after the Palestinians have achieved the reforms described in section 620K(c)(2) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (as added by section 1706 of this Act) and have made a lasting and secure peace with Israel;

(3) the Palestinian people merit commendation on the confirmation of the Palestinian Authority’s first prime minister, Mahmoud Abbas (Abu Mazen), and his cabinet;

(4) the new Palestinian administration urgently should take the necessary security-related steps to allow for implementation of a performance-based road map to resolve the Israeli-Palestinian conflict;

(5) the United States Administration should work vigorously toward the goal of two states living side-by-side in peace within secure and internationally-recognized boundaries free from threats or acts of force; and
(6) the United States has a vital national security interest in a permanent, comprehensive, and just resolution of the Arab-Israeli conflict, and particularly the Palestinian-Israeli conflict, based on the terms of United Nations Security Council Resolutions 242 and 338.

SEC. 1605. RECOGNITION OF A PALESTINIAN STATE.

It is the sense of Congress that a Palestinian state should not be recognized by the United States until the President determines that—

(1) a new leadership of a Palestinian governing entity, not compromised by terrorism, has been elected and taken office; and

(2) the newly-elected Palestinian governing entity—

(A) has demonstrated a firm and tangible commitment to peaceful coexistence with the State of Israel and to ending anti-Israel incitement, including the cessation of all officially sanctioned or funded anti-Israel incitement;

(B) has taken appropriate measures to counter terrorism and terrorist financing in the West Bank and Gaza, including the dismantling of terrorist infrastructures and the confiscation of unlawful weaponry;
(C) has established a new Palestinian security entity that is fully cooperating with the appropriate Israeli security organizations;

(D) has achieved exclusive authority and responsibility for governing the national affairs of a Palestinian state, has taken effective steps to ensure democracy, the rule of law, and an independent judiciary, and has adopted other reforms ensuring transparent and accountable governance; and

(E) has taken effective steps to ensure that its education system promotes the acceptance of Israel’s existence and of peace with Israel and actively discourages anti-Israel incitement.

TITLE XVII—ACCESS FOR AFGHAN WOMEN

SEC. 1701. SHORT TITLE.
This title may be cited as the “Access for Afghan Women Act of 2003”.

SEC. 1702. FINDINGS.
Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Despite the removal of the Taliban from power, women in Afghanistan continue to experience brutal and frequent violation of their human rights, generally outside of Kabul where warlords are reexerting control.

(2) Strong and continued support from the United States and the international community can ensure that the advances made by Afghan women since the fall of the Taliban will continue and grow, rather than recede.

(3) While the United States and the international community continue to make substantial contributions to emergency humanitarian and relief operations in Afghanistan, the establishment of a stable, peaceful, prosperous, and democratic Afghanistan with a broad-based, multi-ethnic, gender-sensitive, and fully representative government requires a significant increase in long-term investments in development and reconstruction assistance.

(4) The maternal mortality rate in Afghanistan is among the highest in the world, with recent reports estimating that every 30 minutes an Afghan woman dies of pregnancy related causes, or approximately 15,000 women every year. The estimated maternal mortality rate of 1,600 deaths per 100,000 live births can be significantly reduced through access to primary health care services, including safe birthing supplies, emergency obstetric care, prenatal and postnatal care, contraception, and prevention and treatment for the effects of sexual coercion and rape.

(5) Women comprise 75 percent or more of the refugees and internally displaced in camps, urban areas, and villages in Afghanistan.

(6) 85 percent of Afghanistan’s population lives in rural areas. The women in rural areas perform vital roles in food production, processing, and preparation. Successful reconstruction and development assistance must target rural women as part of any agricultural interventions.

(7) Within Afghanistan and outside of Afghanistan, local women’s organizations are delivering critical services and have the knowledge and experience to assist the United States in delivering effective relief aid.

(8) The Afghan Ministry for Women’s Affairs is an important ministry that is essential for re-establishing women’s human rights, ensuring that women are included in all development efforts, and delivering critical legal, health, education, and economic services to women throughout Afghanistan’s 30 provinces.

(9) Afghan women are taking the initiative to reach across the conflict divide and foster peace.
Women’s perspectives and experiences in seeking solutions to conflicts are necessary to ensure lasting peace.

(10) The inadequate security situation in Afghanistan disproportionately impacts women and girls as the lack of rule of law results in the frequent assault, kidnapping, and sexual abuse of Afghan women and girls throughout Afghanistan.

(11) Despite significant improvements in healthcare and education infrastructure for women and girls in Afghanistan, the lack of security and rule of law throughout most of Afghanistan effecvitably denies access to these facilities and the critical services they provide.

SEC. 1703. ESTABLISHMENT OF AFGHAN WOMEN'S FUND.

(a) Establishment.—The Administrator of the United States Agency for International Development shall establish a fund for the purpose of assisting women and girls in Afghanistan in the areas of political and human rights, health care, education, training, security, and shelter.

(b) Activities Supported.—The fund established under subsection (a) shall support the activities described in section 103(a)(7) of the Afghanistan Freedom Support Act of 2002 and the following activities:

(1) Direct financial and programmatic assistance to the Ministry of Women’s Affairs in Afghanistan (hereafter in this section referred to as the “Ministry”) to promote the strengthening of the Ministry as the Government of Afghanistan continues its transition to a long-term government structure and to enable the Ministry to fulfill its mandate. The Ministry may use such assistance to support activities such as the following:

(A) Multiyear women-centered economic development programs, including programs to... assist widows, female heads of household, women in rural areas, and disabled women.

(B) Collaboration with the Ministry of Health to construct culturally appropriate health infrastructure and delivery of high-quality comprehensive health care programs, including primary, maternal, child, reproductive, and mental health care.

(C) Programs to prevent trafficking in persons, assist victims, and apprehend and prosecute traffickers in persons.

(2) Direct financial assistance to the National Human Rights Commission of Afghanistan.

(3) Construction of women’s educational facilities in Afghanistan.

(e) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out this section not less than $22,500,000 for each of the fiscal years 2003, 2004, and 2005 and such sums as are necessary for each subsequent fiscal year.

SEC. 1704. ASSISTANCE TO AFGHANISTAN.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, not less than 15 percent of the aggregate amount of economic and humanitarian assistance authorized to be appropriated under section 1703(e) to be made available to Afghanistan for each of the fiscal years 2003, 2004, and 2005 shall be made available for assistance directly to Afghan-led local nongovernmental organizations, including Afghan women-led organizations, with demonstrated experience in delivering services to Afghan women and children to support their programmatic activities and organizational development. In recognition of the appreciating capacity of Afghan-led local nongovernmental organizations, including Afghan women-led organizations, an appropriate percentage of the aggregate amount of economic and humanitarian assistance authorized to be made available to Afghanistan for fiscal year 2006 and each subsequent fiscal year shall be made available for assistance directly to Afghan-led local nongovernmental organizations, including Afghan women-led organizations.

(e) RELIEF, RESETTLEMENT, AND REPATRIATION OF REFUGEES AND INTERNALLY DISPLACED PERSONS.—With respect to the relief, resettlement, and repatriation of refugees and internally displaced persons in Afghanistan, the applicable requirements are the following:

(3) Take all necessary steps to ensure that women and children in refugee camps are protected from sexual exploitation.

(4) Take all necessary steps to ensure refugees and internally displaced persons that seek to return to their place of origin can do so voluntarily, safely, and with the full protection of their rights. United States-sponsored efforts shall not coerce refugees or respecting human rights, particularly the rights of women and girls, dedicated to the liberty, literacy, and enrichment of its citizens, and serving as a model for other countries;

(2) basic security in the major cities and along key transportation routes is critical to the reconstruction and development of Afghanistan, including fostering implementation of the Bonn Agreement, achieving progress towards a democratic and tolerant government, and encouraging international pri-ivate investment;

(3) Afghanistan and its people remain under serious threat from terrorism, insurgency, widespread crime, banditry, intimidation, rape, and suppression of minorities and women, and other grave violations of human rights continue to occur, especially in areas that do not have a routine presence of international security personnel;

(4) lethal clashes continue between the private armies of warlords, attacks against Afghan civilians and officials and United States and international organization personnel are on the rise, and threats against civilians and whole villages not to cooperate with Americans or the central government are now routine;

(5) the growth, production, and trafficking of Afghan opium and its derivatives pose a serious threat to international peace and security and efforts toward reconstruction in Afghanistan;

(6) recruitment and training of the Afghan National Army and the Afghan National Police are seriously behind schedule and will not be at full strength for several years, leaving the central government and Afghan citizens vulnerable to the depredations of terrorists, insurgents, and the private armies of warlords;

(7) although the 4,500 soldiers of the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) have provided much-needed security for the citizens of Kabul, it is not within their mandate or power to promote security to other areas, and human rights abuses are continuing in areas in and around Kabul where ISAF is not present;

(8) vastly disproportionate numbers of refugees returning from neighboring countries have gone to Kabul because of the security provided by ISAF and the insecurity of their home areas, overwhelming
Kabul and far exceeding its capacity for shelter, food, and employment;

(9) NATO has recently decided to take over responsibility for a limited ISAF, a welcome development that will not, unfortunately, provide any additional security in Kabul or elsewhere;

(10) the United States has stated on numerous occasions that it does not oppose the expansion of ISAF, but that heretofore other countries have not expressed a willingness to participate in an expanded force;

(11) the United States has not itself demonstrated a commitment to expansion of ISAF or a similar international security or peacekeeping force, a commitment to leadership that other nations may more likely follow;

(12) the Secretary of Defense has announced that the combat phase of the war in Afghanistan has ended, and that the United States will be focusing its efforts on a reconstruction phase utilizing lightly-armed, platoon-sized Provincial Reconstruction Teams to provide security for reconstruction efforts, rather than an expanded international peacekeeping or patrolling security force;
(13) the Provincial Reconstruction Teams may prove inadequate to provide a significant level of security to their regions, and are not tasked to secure the major transportation routes which are critical to the economic revival of Afghanistan;

(14) United States and foreign nongovernmental aid workers and Afghan civilian aid workers are at great risk of being robbed, beaten, and killed in areas of Afghanistan that are not being patrolled by United States forces or Afghan central government forces;

(15) such acts of theft, intimidation, and murder against foreign aid and Afghan civilian workers are occurring with increasing frequency, and are often deliberately committed by Taliban and other insurgent and rebel forces with the intention of creating sufficient terror to undermine and arrest any efforts to rebuild Afghanistan into a peaceful, democratic, and prosperous nation that prohibits terrorism and tyranny;

(16) the report of the Inspector General of the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) confirms that USAID workers are virtual captives in their compounds, able to venture out into the countryside for brief periods and only under heavy armed escort, conditions which are counterproductive to their mission of assisting the people of Afghanistan;

(17) the Taliban and al-Qaeda may believe they only have to create enough terror and uncertainty in the country to undermine the creation of strong representative institutions, and wait until the United States leaves to again create chaos, exploit tribal rivalries, and plunge Afghanistan back into chaos;

(18) failure to secure a peaceful and democratic Afghanistan will diminish the credibility of efforts by the United States and the international community to promote peace and democracy elsewhere in the Muslim world; and

(19) unless general security can be provided in the major population areas, strategic highways, and border crossings and chokepoints, the goals for which the war in Afghanistan was fought may be lost and the efforts and lives spent in the attempt to liberate and rebuild Afghanistan may be wasted.

(b) Security Policy.—

(1) Security along highways.—The President shall take immediate steps to ensure that there is adequate security along the length of highways connecting major Afghan urban centers in order to terminate and deter acts of banditry, illegal checkpoints, human rights abuses, terrorism, and intimidation against Afghan and foreign civilians and military personnel.

(2) DISARMAMENT, ETC. OF AFGHAN MILITIAS.—The President shall take immediate steps to support directly the disarmament, demobilization, and reintegration of Afghan militias and irregulars that are not formally part of the Afghan National Army or under the direct control of the central government in Afghanistan.

(c) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that the President should take steps to implement section 206(d) of the Afghanistan Freedom Support Act of 2002 (Public Law 107–327) to expand significantly the International Security Assistance Force, or take such other steps as may be necessary, such as increasing the number and force levels of United States Provincial Reconstruction Teams, so as to—

(1) increase the area in which security is provided and undertake vital tasks related to promoting security, such as disarming warlords militias and irregulars;

(2) deter criminal activity, including rape, robbery, and intimidation of civilians; and
(3) safeguard highways in order to allow governmental and nongovernmental assistance and reconstruction personnel to move more freely in the countryside to provide humanitarian relief and re-build Afghanistan.

SEC. 1816. ASSISTANCE TO TAMIL NADU.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Several United States businesses invested more than $800,000,000 in capital in the Indian State of Tamil Nadu to build and operate state-of-the-art electric generation facilities to serve local customers.

(2) For nearly 2 years since these power plants went into service, the Tamil Nadu Electricity Board has violated the principle of contract sanctity by consistently refusing to pay the contractually-required price for the electricity produced by these companies.

(3) The Tamil Nadu Electricity Board now owes these United States companies in excess of $150,000,000 in arrearages despite repeated assurances by the Government of Tamil Nadu that the situation would be resolved.

(4) All of the projects are in a technical state of default on the principal of their loans and none of the United States companies is making a return on their equity.

(b) RESTRICTION.—No funds authorized by this Act (including any amendments made by this Act) or authorized under any other provision of law may be used to directly or indirectly support any programs, projects, or activities (other than humanitarian, health, or rule of law programs, projects, or activities) located in or designed to benefit the State of Tamil Nadu, India.

(d) COSTS OF TRANSFERS ON GRANT BASIS.—Any expense incurred by the United States in connection with a transfer authorized to be made on a grant basis under section 516 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2321j) pursuant to the authority provided by subsection (a) shall be charged to the recipient (notwithstanding section 516(e)(1) of such Act).

the Government of Viet Nam to meet the require-
