A BILL

To amend the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to provide assistance to children who are orphaned or unaccompanied as a result of the tsunamis that occurred on December 26, 2004, in the Indian Ocean.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Tsunami Orphans and 5       Unaccompanied Children Act of 2005”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS; DECLARATION OF POLICY.

7       (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

1           (1) Over 160,000 people were killed in the In-
2           dian Ocean region as a result of the earthquake and 3           tsunamis that occurred on December 26, 2004.

4           (2) Experts estimate that a higher than ex-
5           pected number of those killed were children.

6           (3) According to the United Nations, 3 to 5
7           million people were affected by the disaster. Approxi-
8           mately 1.5 million of those individuals affected are 9           children.

10          (4) Experts estimate that the total number of 11          children affected in the tsunamis could reach up to 12          50 percent. Experts estimate that a significant num-13          ber of children have been separated from their par-
14          ents or orphaned.

15          (5) Orphaned and unaccompanied children are 16          particularly vulnerable to disease, hunger, and ex-
17          ploitation.

18          (6) In the chaotic environment following a dis-
19          aster when protection mechanisms may not be in 20          place, unaccompanied children are more vulnerable
21          to traffickers and forcible recruitment into militias.

22          (7) After a disaster, under-resourced govern-
23          ments, communities, and villages may not be able to 24          independently provide sufficient care and services for 25          orphans and unaccompanied children.

1           (8) Unaccompanied children and orphans need
2           immediate care and security in the short-term, as 3           well as a long-term investment in their education,
4           health, and protection.

5           (9) Congress recognizes that a number of orga-
6           nizations including UNICEF, Save the Children,
7           World Vision, and the International Committee of 8           the Red Cross are leading the effort to reunify chil-
9           dren with their families, provide protection against 10          traffickers, and provide food, shelter, education,
11          counseling, and many other vital services.

12          (b) DECLARATION OF POLICY.—It shall be the policy
13          of the United States to take prompt and appropriate ac-
14          tions to assist children who are orphaned or currently un-15          accompanied as a result of the tsunamis that occurred on 16          December 26, 2004, in the Indian Ocean as an important 17          expression of humanitarian concern and the traditions of 18          the United States and, in particular, to assist such or-19          phans and unaccompanied children by—

20                 (1) providing assistance for the purpose of iden-21                 tifying and reunifying unaccompanied children with 22                 their families;

23                 (2) providing assistance for the immediate care
24                 of unaccompanied children and orphans, including

1 health care, food, shelter, education, psychological 2 counseling, and protection from traffickers; and

3 (3) providing for the long-term needs of chil-
4 dren not reunified with immediate or extended fam-
5 ily members, including long-term placement con-
6 sistent with international standards and local cus-
7 toms and structures and also providing support for 8 education, healthcare, food, job-training, and psycho-
9 logical counseling.
