5 SEC. 105. INCREASING EFFECTIVENESS OF ANTI-TRAF-
6 FICKING PROGRAMS.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-8 ings:

9 (1) United States assistance programs require 10 enhanced monitoring and evaluation to ensure that 11 United States funds are appropriately spent.

12 (2) Such monitoring and evaluation should 13 measure results—the actual effects of assistance—as 14 well as outcomes—the numerical product of assist-15 ance, such as the number of individuals assisted, 16 systems established, and funds provided through 17 programs.

18 (3) While the results of programs related to 19 trafficking in persons may be difficult to measure 20 because of the criminal and underground nature of 21 trafficking in persons, making efforts to measure 22 such results are critical to learning the extent to 23 which United States assistance programs affect the 24 nature and severity of trafficking and change the 25 fundamental conditions that facilitate trafficking.

1 (b) AMENDMENT.—The Trafficking Victims Protec-2 tion Act of 2000 (22 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.) is amended by 3 inserting after section 107 the following new section:

4 “SEC. 107A. INCREASING EFFECTIVENESS OF ANTI-TRAF-
5 FICKING PROGRAMS.

6 “(a) AWARDING OF GRANTS, COOPERATIVE AGREE-
7 MENTS, AND CONTRACTS.—The head of each department
8 and agency of the United States Government that admin-9 isters funds made available for programs described in this 10 division and the amendments made by this division in the 11 United States and foreign countries shall—

12 “(1) make solicitations of grants, cooperative 13 agreements, and contracts for such programs pub-
14 licly available;

15 “(2) award grants, cooperative agreements, and 16 contracts on a full and open competitive basis, con-17 sistent with existing law; and 18 “(3) ensure that internal department or agency 19 review process for such grants, cooperative agree-20 ments, and contracts is not subject to ad hoc or 21 intermittent review by individuals or organizations

22 outside the United States Government not otherwise 23 provided for in the process described in paragraphs 24 (1) and (2).

25 “(b) EVALUATION OF TRAFFICKING PROGRAMS.—

1           “(1) IN GENERAL.—The President shall estab-2           lish and implement a system to monitor and evaluate 3           the effectiveness and efficiency of assistance pro-

5           and carried out under this division and the amend-6           ments made by this division on a program-by-pro-
7           gram basis in order to maximize the long-term sus-
8           tainable development impact of such assistance.

9           “(2) REQUIREMENTS.—In carrying out para-10          graph (1), the President shall—

11                 “(A) establish performance goals for as-12                 sistance described in paragraph (1) and express 13                 such goals in an objective and quantifiable 14                 form, to the extent practicable;

15                 “(B) ensure that performance indicators
16                 are used for each United States program au-
17                 thorized by this division and the amendments 18                 made by this division to measure and assess the 19                 achievement of the performance goals described 20                 in subparagraph (A); and 21                 “(C) provide a basis for recommendations 22                 for adjustments to assistance described in para-23                 graph (1) to enhance the impact of such assist-24                 ance.

1           “(c) TARGETED USE OF TRAFFICKING PROGRAMS.—
2 The Director of the Office to Monitor and Combat Traf-3 ficking shall undertake efforts to provide assistance to for-4 eign countries and nongovernmental organizations under 5 this division and the amendments made by this division
6 based on the priorities and country assessments contained 7 in the most recent report submitted by the Secretary of 8 State to Congress pursuant to section 110(b) of this Act.

9           “(d) CONSISTENCY WITH OTHER PROGRAMS.—The 10 President shall take steps to ensure that the design, moni-

14 eign Assistance Act of 1961 and other similar United 15 States assistance programs are carried out in a manner 16 that takes into account and are consistent with United 17 States policies and other United States programs relating 18 to combatting trafficking in persons.

19           “(e) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—For 20 each of the fiscal years 2008 through 2011, up to 2 per-21 cent of the amounts made available to carry out this divi-22 sion and the amendments made by this division may be

1 SEC. 236. ENHANCING EFFORTS TO COMBAT THE TRAF-
2 FICKING OF CHILDREN.

3 (a) FINDINGS AND SENSE OF CONGRESS.—

4 (1) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds as follows:

5 (A) The United States Government cur-
6 rently estimates that up to 17,500 individuals
7 are trafficked into the United States each year.
8 Of these, some 50 percent are believed to be 9 under the age of 18. Many of these children are 10 victims of sex trafficking and are forced into 11 prostitution and other exploitative activities in 12 the United States.

13 (B) Despite the large number of children 14 trafficked into the United States every year, the 15 Department of Health and Human Services has 16 identified an average of 20 children per year as 17 trafficking victims through fiscal year 2006.
18 This disparity between estimated and identified 19 victims demonstrates that much more needs to 20 be done in educating individuals who may be 21 coming into contact with trafficked children.

22 (2) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of 23 the Congress that, to the extent consistent with the 24 treaties and other international agreements to which 25 the United States is a party, and to the extent prac-26 ticable, the United States Government should under-

1 take efforts to protect children from severe forms of 2 trafficking and ensure that it does not repatriate 3 children in Federal custody into settings that would 4 threaten their life or safety.

5 (b) COMBATting CHILD TRAFFICKING AT THE BOR-
6 DER AND PORTS OF ENTRY OF THE UNITED STATES.—

7 (1) POLICIES AND PROCEDURES.—In order to 8 enhance the efforts of the United States to prevent 9 trafficking in persons, the Secretary of State, in con-
10 junction with the Secretary of Homeland Security 11 and the Secretary of Health and Human Services, 12 shall develop policies and procedures to ensure that 13 unaccompanied alien children in the United States
14 are safely repatriated to their country of nationality 15 or of last habitual residence.

16 (2) SPECIAL RULES FOR CHILDREN FROM CON-
17 TIGUOUS COUNTRIES.—

18 (A) DETERMINATIONS.—Any unaccom-
19 panied alien child who is a national or habitual 20 resident of a country that is contiguous with 21 the United States shall be treated in accordance 22 with subparagraph (B), if the Secretary of 23 Homeland Security determines, on a case-by-24 case basis, that—

1 (i) such child has not been a victim of 2 a severe form of trafficking in persons, and 3 there is no credible evidence that such 4 child is at risk of being trafficked upon re-5 turn to the child's country of nationality or 6 of last habitual residence;

7 (ii) such child does not have a fear of 8 returning to the child's country of nation-9 ality or of last habitual residence owing to 10 a credible fear of persecution; and 11 (iii) the child is able to make an inde-12 pendent decision to withdraw the child's 13 application for admission to the United 14 States.

15 (B) RETURN.—An immigration officer who 16 finds an unaccompanied alien child described in 17 subparagraph (A) at a land border or port of 18 entry of the United States and determines that 19 such child is inadmissible under the Immigra-20 tion and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101 et 21 seq.) may—

22 (i) permit such child to withdraw the 23 child's application for admission pursuant 24 to section 235(a)(4) of the Immigration

1 and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1225(a)(4));

2 and

3 (ii) return such child to the child's 4 country of nationality or country of last 5 habitual residence.

6 (C) CONTIGUOUS COUNTRY AGREE-
7 MENTS.—The Secretary of State shall negotiate 8 agreements between the United States and 9 countries contiguous to the United States with 10 respect to the repatriation of children. Such 11 agreements shall be designed to protect children 12 from severe forms of trafficking in persons, and 13 shall, at a minimum, provide that—

14 (i) no child shall be returned to the 15 child's country of nationality or of last ha-
16 bitual residence unless returned to appro-
17 priate officials or employees of the accept-18 ing country's government;

19 (ii) no child shall be returned to the
20 child's country of nationality or of last ha-
21 bitual residence outside of reasonable busi-22 ness hours; and

23 (iii) border personnel of the countries
24 that are parties to such agreements are 25 trained in the terms of such agreements.

1           (3) RULE FOR OTHER CHILDREN.—The custody
2 of unaccompanied alien children not described in 3 paragraph (2)(A) who are apprehended at the bor-
4 der of the United States or at a United States port 5 of entry shall be treated in accordance with sub-6 section (c).

7           (4) SCREENING.—Within 48 hours of the ap-8 prehension of a child who is believed to be described 9 in paragraph (2)(A), but in any event prior to re-
10 turning such child to the child’s country of nation-11 ality or of last habitual residence, the child shall be 12 screened to determine whether the child meets the 13 criteria listed in paragraph (2)(A). If the child does 14 not meet such criteria, or if no determination can be 15 made within 48 hours of apprehension, the child 16 shall immediately be transferred to the Secretary of 17 Health and Human Services and treated in accord-18 ance with subsection (c).

19           (5) ENSURING THE SAFE REPATRIATION OF 20 CHILDREN.—

21           (A) REPATRIATION PILOT PROGRAM.—To 22 protect children from trafficking and exploi-

3 SEC. 403. FINDINGS.

4 Congress makes the following findings:

5 (1) According to the September 7, 2005, report 6 to the General Assembly of the United Nations by 7 the Special Representative of the Secretary-General
8 for Children and Armed Conflict, “In the last dec-9 ade, two million children have been killed in situa-
10 tions of armed conflict, while six million children 11 have been permanently disabled or injured. Over 12 250,000 children continue to be exploited as child 13 soldiers and tens of thousands of girls are being sub-14 jected to rape and other forms of sexual violence.”.

15 (2) According to the Center for Emerging
16 Threats and Opportunities (CETO), Marine Corps
17 Warfighting Laboratory, “The Child Soldier Phe-18 nomenon has become a post-Cold War epidemic that 19 has proliferated to every continent with the excep-20 tion of Antarctica and Australia.”.

21 (3) Many of the children currently serving in 22 armed forces or paramilitaries were forcibly con-23 scripted through kidnapping or coercion, a form of 24 human trafficking, while others joined military units

1 due to economic necessity, to avenge the loss of a 2 family member, or for their own personal safety.

3 (4) Some military and militia commanders force
4 child soldiers to commit gruesome acts of ritual 5 killings or torture, including acts of violence against 6 other children.

7 (5) Many female child soldiers face the addi-8 tional psychological and physical horrors of rape and 9 sexual abuse, enslavement for sexual purposes by mi-10 litia commanders, and severe social stigma should 11 they return home.

12 (6) Some military and militia commanders tar-13 get children for recruitment because of their psycho-
14 logical immaturity and vulnerability to manipulation
15 and indoctrination. Children are often separated 16 from their families in order to foster dependence on 17 military units and leaders. Consequently, many of 18 these children suffer from deep trauma and are in 19 need of psychological counseling and rehabilitation.

20 (7) Child soldiers are exposed to hazardous con-
21 ditions and are at risk of physical injury and dis-
22 ability, psychological trauma, sexually transmitted 23 diseases, respiratory and skin infections, and often 24 death.

1           (8) On May 25, 2000, the United Nations 2           adopted and opened for signature, ratification, and 3           accession the Optional Protocol to the Convention on 4           the Rights of the Child on the Involvement of Chil-
5           dren in Armed Conflict.

6           (9) On June 18, 2002, the Senate unanimously 7           approved the resolution advising and consenting to 8           the ratification of the Optional Protocol.

9           (10) On December 23, 2002, the United States
10          presented the ratified Optional Protocol to the 11          United Nations.

12          (11) More than 110 governments worldwide
13          have ratified the Optional Protocol, establishing a 14          clear international norm concerning the use of chil-15          dren in combat.

16          (12) On December 2, 1999, the United States
17          ratified International Labour Convention 182, the 18          Convention concerning the Prohibition and Imme-
19          diate Action for the Elimination of the Worst Forms
20          of Child Labour, which includes the use of child sol-21          diers among the worst forms of child labor.

22          (13) On October 7, 2005, the Senate gave its 23          advice and consent to the ratification of the Protocol 24          to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Per-25          sons, Especially Women and Children,

1 Supplementing the United Nations Convention
2 Against Transnational Organized Crime.

3 (14) It is in the national security interest of the 4 United States to reduce the chances that members 5 of the United States Armed Forces will be forced to 6 encounter children in combat situations.

7 (15) Section 502B(a)(3) of the Foreign Assist-8 ance Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2304(a)(3)) provides 9 that “the President is directed to formulate and con-10 duct international security assistance programs of 11 the United States in a manner which will promote 12 and advance human rights and avoid identification 13 of the United States, through such programs, with 14 governments which deny to their people internation-15 ally recognized human rights and fundamental free-16 doms, in violation of international law or in con-
17 travention of the policy of the United States as ex-18 pressed in this section or otherwise”.

19 SEC. 404. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

20 It is the sense of Congress that—

21 (1) the United States Government should con-22 demn the conscription, forced recruitment or use of 23 children by governments, paramilitaries, or other or-24 ganizations in hostilities;

1           (2) the United States Government should sup-
2           port and, where practicable, lead efforts to establish 3           and uphold international standards designed to end 4           this abuse of human rights;

5           (3) the United States Government should ex-
6           pand ongoing services to rehabilitate recovered child 7           soldiers and to reintegrate them back into their com-8           munities by—

9                   (A) offering ongoing psychological services 10                  to help victims recover from their trauma and 11                  relearn how to deal with others in nonviolent 12                  ways such that they are no longer a danger to 13                  their community, taking into consideration the 14                  needs of girl soldiers, who may be at risk of ex-15                  clusion from disarmament, demobilization, and 16                  reintegration programs;

17                   (B) facilitating reconciliation with their 18                  communities through negotiations with tradi-
19                  tional leaders and elders to enable recovered
20                  abductees to resume normal lives in their com-21                  munities; and

22                   (C) providing educational and vocational 23                  assistance;

24           (4) the United States should work with the 25           international community, including, where appro-

1        appropriate, third country governments, nongovernmental
2        organizations, faith-based organizations, United Na-3        tions agencies, local governments, labor unions, and 4        private enterprise—

5                (A) on efforts to bring to justice rebel or-6                ganizations that kidnap children for use as 7                child soldiers, including the Lord’s Resistance
8                Army (LRA) in Uganda, Fuerzas Armadas
9                Revolucionarias de Colombia (FARC), and Lib-10              eration Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE) in Sri 11              Lanka, including, where feasible, by arresting 12              the leaders of such groups; and 13              (B) on efforts to recover those children 14              who have been abducted and to assist them in 15              their rehabilitation and reintegration into com-

16              munities;

17              (5) the Secretary of State, the Secretary of 18              Labor, and the Secretary of Defense should coordi-
19              nate programs to achieve the goals specified in para-20              graph (3), and in countries where the use of child 21              soldiers is an issue, whether or not it is supported 22              or sanctioned by the governments of such countries, 23              United States diplomatic missions should include in 24              their mission program plans a strategy to achieve 25              the goals specified in such paragraph;

1           (6) United States diplomatic missions in coun-
2 tries in which governments use or tolerate child sol-
3 diers should develop, as part of annual program 4 planning, strategies to promote efforts to end this 5 abuse of human rights, identifying and integrating 6 global best practices, as available, into such strate-7 gies to avoid duplication of effort; and

8           (7) in allocating or recommending the allocation
9 of funds or recommending candidates for programs
10 and grants funded by the United States Govern-11 ment, United States diplomatic missions should give 12 serious consideration to those programs and can-13 didates deemed to promote the end to this abuse of 14 human rights.
