6 dustries continue to represent a major source of cre-
7 ativity and innovation, business start-ups, skilled job
8 creation, exports, economic growth, and competitive-
9 ness;

10 (3) counterfeiting and infringement results in 11 billions of dollars in lost revenue for United States 12 companies each year and even greater losses to the 13 United States economy in terms of reduced job
14 growth, exports, and competitiveness;

15 (4) the growing number of willful violations of 16 existing Federal criminal laws involving counter-
17 feiting and infringement by actors in the United

19 and entities is a serious threat to the long-term vi-
20 tality of the United States economy and the future
21 competitiveness of United States industry;

22 (5) terrorists and organized crime utilize piracy,
23 counterfeiting, and infringement to fund some of 7 shall give priority to cases with a nexus to terrorism

8 and organized crime; and

12 Attorney General should give priority to cases—

13 (A) involving the willful theft of intellectual 14 property for purposes of commercial advantage
15 or private financial gain;

16 (B) where the theft of intellectual property
17 is central to the sustainability and viability of 18 the commercial activity of the enterprise (or 19 subsidiary) involved in the violation;

20 (C) where the counterfeited or infringing
21 goods or services enables the enterprise to un-
22 fairly compete against the legitimate rights
23 holder; or

1 (D) where there is actual knowledge of the 2 theft of intellectual property by the directors or 3 officers of the enterprise.

Passed the Senate September 26 (legislative day,
