AN ACT

To amend title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, and to modify the operation of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, to clarify that a discriminatory compensation decision or other practice that is unlawful under such Acts occurs each time compensation is paid pursuant to the discriminatory compensation decision or other practice, to amend the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 to provide more effective remedies to victims of discrimination in the payment of wages on the basis of sex, and for other purposes.

1        Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3            TITLE I—LILLY LEDBETTER
4            FAIR PAY ACT OF 2009

5 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

6        This title may be cited as the “Lilly Ledbetter Fair 7 Pay Act of 2009”.

8 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

9        Congress finds the following:

10            (1) The Supreme Court in Ledbetter v. Good-
11 year Tire & Rubber Co., 550 U.S. 618 (2007), sig-
12 nificantly impairs statutory protections against dis-
13 crimination in compensation that Congress estab-14 lished and that have been bedrock principles of 15 American law for decades. The Ledbetter decision 16 undermines those statutory protections by unduly re-
17 stricting the time period in which victims of dis-
18 crimination can challenge and recover for discrimi-
19 natory compensation decisions or other practices, 20 contrary to the intent of Congress.

21            (2) The limitation imposed by the Court on the 22 filing of discriminatory compensation claims ignores 23 the reality of wage discrimination and is at odds
24 with the robust application of the civil rights laws
25 that Congress intended.

1           (3) With regard to any charge of discrimination
2           under any law, nothing in this Act is intended to 3           preclude or limit an aggrieved person’s right to in-4           troduce evidence of an unlawful employment practice
5           that has occurred outside the time for filing a 6           charge of discrimination.

7           (4) Nothing in this Act is intended to change
8           current law treatment of when pension distributions 9           are considered paid.

10 SEC. 3. DISCRIMINATION IN COMPENSATION BECAUSE OF 11                           RACE, COLOR, RELIGION, SEX, OR NATIONAL 12                           ORIGIN.

13           Section 706(e) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 14 U.S.C. 2000e–5(e)) is amended by adding at the end the 15 following:

16           “(3)(A) For purposes of this section, an unlawful em-17 ployment practice occurs, with respect to discrimination
18 in compensation in violation of this title, when a discrimi-
19 natory compensation decision or other practice is adopted, 20 when an individual becomes subject to a discriminatory 21 compensation decision or other practice, or when an indi-
22 vidual is affected by application of a discriminatory com-
23 pensation decision or other practice, including each time 24 wages, benefits, or other compensation is paid, resulting 25 in whole or in part from such a decision or other practice.

1       “(B) In addition to any relief authorized by section
 2 1977A of the Revised Statutes (42 U.S.C. 1981a), liability 3 may accrue and an aggrieved person may obtain relief as 4 provided in subsection (g)(1), including recovery of back 5 pay for up to two years preceding the filing of the charge, 6 where the unlawful employment practices that have oc-
 7 curred during the charge filing period are similar or re-8 lated to unlawful employment practices with regard to dis-9 crimination in compensation that occurred outside the 10 time for filing a charge.”.

11 SEC. 4. DISCRIMINATION IN COMPENSATION BECAUSE OF 12 AGE.

13       Section 7(d) of the Age Discrimination in Employ-14 ment Act of 1967 (29 U.S.C. 626(d)) is amended—

15           (1) in the first sentence—

16                   (A) by redesignating paragraphs (1) and 17                   (2) as subparagraphs (A) and (B), respectively; 18                   and

19                   (B) by striking “(d)” and inserting 20                   “(d)(1)”;

21           (2) in the third sentence, by striking “Upon” 22           and inserting the following:

23                   “(2) Upon”; and

24                   (3) by adding at the end the following:

1       “(3) For purposes of this section, an unlawful prac-
2       tice occurs, with respect to discrimination in compensation
3       in violation of this Act, when a discriminatory compensa-
4       tion decision or other practice is adopted, when a person
5       becomes subject to a discriminatory compensation decision 6       or other practice, or when a person is affected by applica-7       tion of a discriminatory compensation decision or other 8       practice, including each time wages, benefits, or other 9       compensation is paid, resulting in whole or in part from 10      such a decision or other practice.”.

11      SEC. 5. APPLICATION TO OTHER LAWS.

12      (a) AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990.—
13      The amendments made by section 3 shall apply to claims
14      of discrimination in compensation brought under title I 15      and section 503 of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 16      1990 (42 U.S.C. 12111 et seq., 12203), pursuant to sec-17      tion 107(a) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 12117(a)), which 18      adopts the powers, remedies, and procedures set forth in 19      section 706 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C.
20      2000e-5).

21      (b) REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973.—The amend-22      ments made by section 3 shall apply to claims of discrimi-23      nation in compensation brought under sections 501 and 24      504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 791, 25      794), pursuant to—

1           (1) sections 501(g) and 504(d) of such Act (29
2 U.S.C. 791(g), 794(d)), respectively, which adopt
3 the standards applied under title I of the Americans
4 with Disabilities Act of 1990 for determining wheth-
5 er a violation has occurred in a complaint alleging 6 employment discrimination; and 7           (2) paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 505(a) of 8 such Act (29 U.S.C. 794a(a)) (as amended by sub-9 section (c)).

10 (c) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

11           (1) REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973.—Section
12 505(a) of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C.
13 794a(a)) is amended—

14           (A) in paragraph (1), by inserting after 15 “(42 U.S.C. 2000e–5 (f) through (k))” the fol-16 lowing: “(and the application of section
17 706(e)(3) (42 U.S.C. 2000e–5(e)(3)) to claims 18 of discrimination in compensation)”; and

19           (B) in paragraph (2), by inserting after 20 “1964” the following: “(42 U.S.C. 2000d et 21 seq.) (and in subsection (e)(3) of section 706 of 22 such Act (42 U.S.C. 2000e–5), applied to 23 claims of discrimination in compensation)”.

1 SEC. 202. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) Women have entered the workforce in 4 record numbers over the past 50 years.

5 (2) Despite the enactment of the Equal Pay Act
6 in 1963, many women continue to earn significantly 7 lower pay than men for equal work. These pay dis-8 parities exist in both the private and governmental 9 sectors. In many instances, the pay disparities can 10 only be due to continued intentional discrimination 11 or the lingering effects of past discrimination.

12 (3) The existence of such pay disparities—

13 (A) depresses the wages of working fami-
14 lies who rely on the wages of all members of the 15 family to make ends meet;

16 (B) undermines women's retirement secu-17 rity, which is often based on earnings while in 18 the workforce;

19 (C) prevents the optimum utilization of 20 available labor resources;

21 (D) has been spread and perpetuated,
22 through commerce and the channels and instru-23 mentalities of commerce, among the workers of 24 the several States;

25 (E) burdens commerce and the free flow of 26 goods in commerce;

1 (F) constitutes an unfair method of com-
2 petition in commerce;

3 (G) leads to labor disputes burdening and 4 obstructing commerce and the free flow of 5 goods in commerce;

6 (H) interferes with the orderly and fair 7 marketing of goods in commerce; and

8 (I) in many instances, may deprive workers
9 of equal protection on the basis of sex in viola-10 tion of the 5th and 14th amendments.

11 (4)(A) Artificial barriers to the elimination of 12 discrimination in the payment of wages on the basis
13 of sex continue to exist decades after the enactment 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C.
15 201 et seq.) and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 16 U.S.C. 2000a et seq.).

17 (B) These barriers have resulted, in significant 18 part, because the Equal Pay Act has not worked as 19 Congress originally intended. Improvements and 20 modifications to the law are necessary to ensure that 21 the Act provides effective protection to those subject 22 to pay discrimination on the basis of their sex.

23 (C) Elimination of such barriers would have 24 positive effects, including—

1 (i) providing a solution to problems in the 2 economy created by unfair pay disparities;

3 (ii) substantially reducing the number of 4 working women earning unfairly low wages, 5 thereby reducing the dependence on public as-6 sistance;

7 (iii) promoting stable families by enabling 8 all family members to earn a fair rate of pay;

9 (iv) remedying the effects of past discrimi-10 nation on the basis of sex and ensuring that in 11 the future workers are afforded equal protection 12 on the basis of sex; and

13 (v) ensuring equal protection pursuant to 14 Congress' power to enforce the 5th and 14th 15 amendments.

16 (5) The Department of Labor and the Equal
17 Employment Opportunity Commission have impor-
18 tant and unique responsibilities to help ensure that 19 women receive equal pay for equal work.

20 (6) The Department of Labor is responsible 21 for—

22 (A) collecting and making publicly avail-
23 able information about women's pay;

24 (B) ensuring that companies receiving
25 Federal contracts comply with anti-discrimina-

1           tion affirmative action requirements of Execu-
2           tive Order No. 11246 (relating to equal employ-3           ment opportunity);

4           (C) disseminating information about wom-
5           en's rights in the workplace;

6           (D) helping women who have been victims 7           of pay discrimination obtain a remedy; and 8           (E) being proactive in investigating and 9           prosecuting equal pay violations, especially sys-

10          temic violations, and in enforcing all of its man-11          dates.

12          (7) The Equal Employment Opportunity Com-13          mission is the primary enforcement agency for 14          claims made under the Equal Pay Act, and issues
15          regulations and guidance on appropriate interpreta-16          tions of the law.

17          (8) With a stronger commitment by the Depart-
18          ment of Labor and the Equal Employment Oppor-
19          tunity Commission to their responsibilities, increased 20          information as a result of the amendments made by 21          this Act to the Equal Pay Act of 1963, wage data, 22          and more effective remedies, women will be better 23          able to recognize and enforce their rights.

24          (9) Certain employers have already made great 25          strides in eradicating unfair pay disparities in the

1 workplace and their achievements should be recog-
2 nized.

3 SEC. 203. ENHANCED ENFORCEMENT OF EQUAL PAY RE-
4 QUIREMENTS.

5 (a) BONA-FIDE FACTOR DEFENSE AND MODIFICA-
6 TION OF SAME ESTABLISHMENT REQUIREMENT.—Section
7 6(d)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 8 U.S.C. 206(d)(1)) is amended—

9 (1) by striking “No employer having” and in-10 sserting “(A) No employer having”;

11 (2) by striking “any other factor other than 12 sex” and inserting “a bona fide factor other than 13 sex, such as education, training, or experience”; and 14 (3) by inserting at the end the following:

15 “(B) The bona fide factor defense described in sub-16 paragraph (A)(iv) shall apply only if the employer dem-17 onstrates that such factor: (i) is not based upon or derived 18 from a sex-based differential in compensation; (ii) is job-
19 related with respect to the position in question; and (iii) 20 is consistent with business necessity. Such defense shall 21 not apply where the employee demonstrates that an alter-22 native employment practice exists that would serve the 23 same business purpose without producing such differential 24 and that the employer has refused to adopt such alter-25 native practice.

1       “(C) For purposes of subparagraph (A), employees 2 shall be deemed to work in the same establishment if the 3 employees work for the same employer at workplaces lo-
4 cated in the same county or similar political subdivision
5 of a State. The preceding sentence shall not be construed 6 as limiting broader applications of the term ‘establish-7 ment’ consistent with rules prescribed or guidance issued 8 by the Equal Opportunity Employment Commission.”.

9       (b) NONRETALIATION PROVISION.—Section 15 of the 10 Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 215(a)(3))
11 is amended—

12           (1) in subsection (a)(3), by striking “employee 13 has filed” and all that follows and inserting “em-
14 ployee—

15                   “(A) has made a charge or filed any com-16 plaint or instituted or caused to be instituted 17 any investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action
18 under or related to this Act, including an inves-
19 tigation conducted by the employer, or has tes-20 tified or is planning to testify or has assisted or 21 participated in any manner in any such inves-22 tigation, proceeding, hearing or action, or has 23 served or is planning to serve on an industry 24 Committee; or

1           “(B) has inquired about, discussed or dis-
2           closed the wages of the employee or another 3           employee.”; and

4           (2) by adding at the end the following:

5           “(c) Subsection (a)(3)(B) shall not apply to instances 6           in which an employee who has access to the wage informa-7           tion of other employees as a part of such employee’s essen-8           tial job functions discloses the wages of such other employ-9           ees to individuals who do not otherwise have access to such 10          information, unless such disclosure is in response to a 11          complaint or charge or in furtherance of an investigation, 12          proceeding, hearing, or action under section 6(d), includ-
13          ing an investigation conducted by the employer. Nothing 14          in this subsection shall be construed to limit the rights 15          of an employee provided under any other provision of 16          law.”.

17          (c) ENHANCED PENALTIES.—Section 16(b) of the 18          Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 216(b)) is 19          amended—

20                 (1) by inserting after the first sentence the fol-
21                 lowing: “Any employer who violates section 6(d) 22                 shall additionally be liable for such compensatory 23                 damages, or, where the employee demonstrates that 24                 the employer acted with malice or reckless indiffer-25                 ence, punitive damages as may be appropriate, ex-

1       cept that the United States shall not be liable for 2       punitive damages.”;

3           (2) in the sentence beginning “An action to”, 4       by striking “either of the preceding sentences” and 5       inserting “any of the preceding sentences of this 6       subsection”;

7           (3) in the sentence beginning “No employees
8       shall”, by striking “No employees” and inserting

10      force section 6(d), no employee”;

11          (4) by inserting after the sentence referred to 12      in paragraph (3), the following: “Notwithstanding 13      any other provision of Federal law, any action
14      brought to enforce section 6(d) may be maintained
15      as a class action as provided by the Federal Rules 16      of Civil Procedure.”; and 17          (5) in the sentence beginning “The court in”—

18            (A) by striking “in such action” and in-19      serting “in any action brought to recover the li-20      ability prescribed in any of the preceding sen-21      tences of this subsection”; and

22            (B) by inserting before the period the fol-
23      lowing: “, including expert fees”.

1 (d) ACTION BY SECRETARY.—Section 16(c) of the 2 Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 216(c)) is 3 amended—

4 (1) in the first sentence—

5 (A) by inserting “or, in the case of a viola-6 tion of section 6(d), additional compensatory or 10 lowing: “, or such compensatory or punitive 11 damages, as appropriate”;

12 (2) in the second sentence, by inserting before 13 the period the following: “and, in the case of a viola-14 tion of section 6(d), additional compensatory or pu-

3           vidual becomes a party plaintiff to the class action.”.

4 SEC. 204. TRAINING.

5           The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
6 and the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, 7 subject to the availability of funds appropriated under sec-
8 tion 210, shall provide training to Commission employees 9 and affected individuals and entities on matters involving 10 discrimination in the payment of wages.
