A BILL

To establish the Congressional Commission on Civic Service to study methods of improving and promoting volunteerism and national service, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Congressional Commis-
5 sion on Civic Service Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) The social fabric of the United States is 9 stronger if individuals in the United States are com-

1       mitted to protecting and serving our Nation by uti-
2       lizing national service and volunteerism to overcome
3       our civic challenges.

4           (2) A more engaged civic society will strengthen
5       the Nation by bringing together people from diverse 6       backgrounds and experiences to work on solutions to 7       some of our Nation’s major challenges.

8           (3) Despite declines in civic health in the past 9       30 years, national service and volunteerism among 10      the Nation’s youth are increasing, and existing na-
11      tional service and volunteer programs greatly en-
12      hance opportunities for youth to engage in civic ac-
13      tivity.

14          (4) In addition to the benefits received by non-15      profit organizations and society as a whole, volun-
16      teering and national service provide a variety of per-17      sonal benefits and satisfaction and can lead to new 18      paths of civic engagement, responsibility, and up-
19      ward mobility.

20   SEC. 3. ESTABLISHMENT.

21       There is established in the legislative branch a com-
22      mission to be known as the “Congressional Commission
23      on Civic Service” (in this Act referred to as the “Commis-24      sion”).

1 SEC. 4. DUTIES.

2 (a) GENERAL PURPOSE.—The purpose of the Com-
3 mission is to gather and analyze information in order to 4 make recommendations to Congress to—

5 (1) improve the ability of individuals in the 6 United States to serve others and, by doing so, to 7 enhance our Nation and the global community;

8 (2) train leaders in public service organizations
9 to better utilize individuals committed to national 10 service and volunteerism as they manage human and 11 fiscal resources;

12 (3) identify and offer solutions to the barriers
13 that make it difficult for some individuals in the 14 United States to volunteer or perform national serv-15 ice; and

16 (4) build on the foundation of service and vol-
17 unteer opportunities that are currently available.

18 (b) SPECIFIC TOPICS.—In carrying out its general
19 purpose under subsection (a), the Commission shall ad-
20 dress and analyze the following specific topics:

22 rent Federal, State, and local volunteer programs
23 and opportunities for service among individuals in 24 the United States.

1           (2) The issues that deter volunteerism and na-
2           tional service, particularly among young people, and 3           how the identified issues can be overcome.

4           (3) Whether there is an appropriate role for 5           Federal, State, and local governments in overcoming
6           the issues that deter volunteerism and national serv-
7           ice and, if appropriate, how to expand the relation-8           ships and partnerships between different levels of 9           government in promoting volunteerism and national 10          service.

11          (4) Whether existing databases are effective in 12          matching community needs to would-be volunteers
13          and service providers.

14          (5) The effect on the Nation, on those who 15          serve, and on the families of those who serve, if all 16          individuals in the United States were expected to 17          perform national service or were required to perform
18          a certain amount of national service.

19          (6) Whether a workable, fair, and reasonable
20          mandatory service requirement for all able young 21          people could be developed, and how such a require-22          ment could be implemented in a manner that would 23          strengthen the social fabric of the Nation and over-
24          come civic challenges by bringing together people

1 from diverse economic, ethnic, and educational back-
2 grounds.

3 (7) The need for a public service academy, a 4-4 year institution that offers a federally funded under-
5 graduate education with a focus on training future
6 public sector leaders.

7 (8) The means to develop awareness of national 8 service and volunteer opportunities at a young age
9 by creating, expanding, and promoting service op-
10 tions for primary and secondary school students and 11 by raising awareness of existing incentives.

12 (9) The effectiveness of establishing a training
13 program on college campuses to recruit and educate 14 college students for national service.

15 (10) The effect on United States diplomacy and 16 foreign policy interests of expanding service opportu-
17 nities abroad, such as the Peace Corps, and the de-
18 gree of need and capacity abroad for an expansion.

19 (11) The constraints that service providers,
20 nonprofit organizations, and State and local agencies
21 face in utilizing federally funded volunteer programs,
22 and how these constraints can be overcome.

23 (12) Whether current Federal volunteer pro-
24 grams are suited to address the special skills and 25 needs of senior volunteers, and if not, how these pro-

1       grams can be improved such that the Federal gov-
2       ernment can effectively promote service among the 3       “baby boomer” generation.
