AN ACT

To direct the Librarian of Congress and the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution to carry out a joint project at the Library of Congress and the National Museum of African American History and Culture to collect video and audio recordings of personal histories and testimonials of individuals who participated in the Civil Rights movement, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Civil Rights History
5       Project Act of 2009”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS; PURPOSE.

7       (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds as follows:

8               (1) A fundamental principle of American de-9       mocracy is that individuals should stand up for their 10      rights and beliefs and fight for justice.

11             (2) The actions of those who participated in the 12      Civil Rights movement from the 1950s through the 13      1960s are a shining example of this principle in ac-
14      tion, demonstrated in events as varied as the Mont-
15      gomery Bus Boycott, the sit-ins, the Freedom Rides,
16      the March on Washington, the drive for voting
17      rights in Mississippi, and the March to Selma.

18             (3) While the Civil Rights movement had many 19      visible leaders, including Thurgood Marshall, Dr.
20      Martin Luther King, Jr., and Rosa Parks, there 21      were many others whose impact and experience were 22      just as important to the cause but who are not as 23      well known.

24             (4) The participants in the Civil Rights move-25      ment possess an invaluable resource in their first-

1 hand memories of the movement, and the recording
2 of the retelling of their stories and memories will 3 provide a rich, detailed history of our Nation during 4 an important and tumultuous period.

5 (5) It is in the Nation's interest to undertake 6 a project to collect oral histories of individuals from 7 the Civil Rights movement so future generations will 8 be able to learn of their struggle and sacrifice
9 through primary-source, eyewitness material. A co-
10 ordinated Federal project would also focus attention
11 on the efforts undertaken by various public and pri-
12 vate entities to collect and interpret articles in all 13 formats relating to the Civil Rights movement, and 14 serve as a model for future projects undertaken in 15 museums, libraries, and universities throughout the 16 Nation.

17 (6) The Library of Congress and the Smithso-
18 nian Institution are appropriate repositories to col-
19 lect, preserve, and make available to the public a col-20 lection of these oral histories. The Library and 21 Smithsonian have expertise in the management of 22 documentation projects, and experience in the devel-
23 opment of cultural and educational programs for the 24 public.

1       (b) PURPOSE.—It is the purpose of this Act to create
2 a new federally sponsored, authorized, and funded project
3 that will coordinate at a national level the collection of 4 video and audio recordings of personal histories and 5 testimonials of individuals who participated in the Amer-
6 ican Civil Rights movement that will build upon and com-
7 plement previous and ongoing documentary work on this 8 subject, and to assist and encourage local efforts to pre-
9 serve the memories of such individuals so that Americans
10 of all current and future generations may hear from them
11 directly and better appreciate the sacrifices they made.

12 SEC. 3. ESTABLISHMENT OF JOINT PROJECT AT LIBRARY
13 OF CONGRESS AND NATIONAL MUSEUM OF 14 AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY AND CULTURE
15 TO COLLECT VIDEO AND AUDIO RECORDINGS
