20 and implementation of policy to ensure the avail-
21 ability of museum, library, and information services
22 adequate to meet the essential information, edu-
23 cation, research, economic, cultural, and civic needs
24 of the people of the United States.

1 “(2) DUTIES.—In carrying out the responsi-
2 bility described in paragraph (1), the Director 3 shall—

4 “(A) advise the President, Congress, and 5 other Federal agencies and offices on museum,
6 library, and information services in order to en-
7 sure the creation, preservation, organization,
8 and dissemination of knowledge;

9 “(B) engage Federal, State, and local gov-
10 ernmental agencies and private entities in as-11 sessing the museum, library, and information
12 services needs of the people of the United 13 States, and coordinate the development of 14 plans, policies, and activities to meet such needs
15 effectively;

16 “(C) carry out programs of research and 17 development, data collection, and financial as-18 sistance to extend and improve the museum, li-19 brary, and information services of the people of 20 the United States; and

22 formation services are fully integrated into the 23 information and education infrastructures of 24 the United States.”;

1 (2) by redesignating subsections (f) and (g) as 2 subsections (h) and (i), respectively; and

3 (3) by striking subsection (e) and inserting the 4 following:

5 “(e) INTERAGENCY AGREEMENTS.—The Director
6 may—

7 “(1) enter into interagency agreements to pro-
8 mote or assist with the museum, library, and infor-
9 mation services-related activities of other Federal 10 agencies, on either a reimbursable or non-reimburs-11 able basis; and

12 “(2) use funds appropriated under this Act for 13 the costs of such activities.

14 “(f) COORDINATION.—The Director shall ensure co-
15 ordination of the policies and activities of the Institute 16 with the policies and activities of other agencies and of-17 fices of the Federal Government having interest in and 18 responsibilities for the improvement of museums and li-19 braries and information services. Where appropriate, the 20 Director shall ensure that such policies and activities are 21 coordinated with—

22 “(1) activities under section 1251 of the Ele-23 mentary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20
