(including bargaining representatives), respect-audit at least 5 percent of the employers who file applications under subparagraph (G) in a given year to determine compliance with this subsection.

“(ii) If the Secretary finds, after notice and an opportunity for a hearing, a substantial failure to meet any of the conditions of this paragraph, a misrepresentation of a material fact in an application under paragraph (1) for a nonimmigrant under section 101(a)(15)(L), or a violation of clause (iii) or (iv)—

“(I) the Secretary shall, in addition to any other remedy authorized by law, impose such administrative remedies (including civil monetary penalties in an amount not to exceed $10,000 per violation) as the Secretary determines to be appropriate; and “(II) the Secretary may not approve applications with respect to that employer under paragraph (1) for a nonimmigrant under section 101(a)(15)(L) during a period of at least 1 year but not more than 5 years for aliens to be employed by the employer.

related to any such violation, or coopera-“(vi) The Secretary is authorized to take other such actions, including issuing subpoenas and seeking appropriate injunctive relief and specific performance of contractual obligations, as may be necessary to assure employer compliance with the terms and conditions under this paragraph. The rights and remedies provided to nonimmigrants under section 101(a)(15)(L) by this paragraph are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other contractual or statutory rights and remedies of such nonimmigrants, and are not intended to alter or affect such rights and remedies.

“(vii)(I) Except as provided in subclauses (II) and (III), a person or entity is considered to have complied with the requirements of this paragraph, notwithstanding a technical or procedural failure to meet such requirements, if there was a good faith attempt to comply with the requirements.

“(II) Subclause (I) shall not apply if—

“(aa) the Secretary of Homeland Security (or another enforcement
