19 SINGLE-FAMILY MORTGAGES.—The regulations of the 20 FHFA Board pursuant to subsection (a) shall ensure that 21 a mortgage on single-family housing shall not be consid-

1 (1) the seller retains a participation of not less
2 than 10 percent of the sale price of the single-family
3 residence securing the mortgage, and the aggregate 4 amount any outstanding principal balance (including 5 such participation) shall not exceed 90 percent of 18 shall establish; or

19 (4) the mortgage is financed in part through a 20 shared equity arrangement under which inde-
21 pendent, private sector investors invest, together
22 with the mortgagors, equity funds for such resi-
23 dences in the form of cash (or its equivalent) paid 24 on account of the property and thereby share in the 25 ownership of such residences, except that—

1 (A) the mortgagor shall retain an owner-

8 (c) CONFORMING LOAN LIMITS FOR SINGLE-FAMILY
9 MORTGAGES.—The regulations of the FHFA Board pur-

15 (1) the maximum dollar amount limitation for 16 such fiscal year governing the maximum original 17 principal obligation of mortgages that are purchased
18 by the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation
19 for such size residence, as determined under section

23 residence of the applicable size, but in no case to ex-24 ceed 175 percent of the limitation for such year de-

1 terminated under such section 305(a)(2) for a resi-
2 dence of the applicable size,
3 except that, for mortgages originated in any year, if the 4 limitation for such year on the maximum original principal 5 obligation of a mortgage that may be purchased by the 6 Federal National Mortgage Association or the Federal 7 Home Loan Mortgage Corporation determined under sec-
8 tion 302(b)(2) of the Federal National Mortgage Associa-
9 tion Charter Act (12 U.S.C. 1717(b)(2)) or section
10 305(a)(2) of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corpora-
11 tion Act (12 U.S.C. 1754(a)(2)) respectively, for any size 12 residence for any area is less than such maximum original 13 principal obligation limitation that was in effect for such 14 size residence for such area for 2008 pursuant to section 15 201 of the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008 (Public Law 16 110–185; 122 Stat. 619), notwithstanding any other pro-
17 vision of law or of this Act, the limitation under this sub-18 section on the maximum original principal obligation of 19 a mortgage for such size residence for such area that may 20 be considered a safe and sound mortgage shall be such 21 maximum limitation in effect for such size residence for 22 such area for 2008.

23 (d) DOWNPAYMENT REQUIREMENT.—The regula-
24 tions of the FHFA Board pursuant to subsection (a) shall 25 ensure that, notwithstanding any other provision of this

1 title, a mortgage on single-family housing shall not be con-
2 sidered a safe and sound mortgage unless the mortgagor
3 has paid on account of the property subject to the mort-4 gage, in cash (or its equivalent), an amount equal to not 5 less than 5 percent of the sale price of the property or 6 such larger amount as the FHFA Board may establish 7 to mitigate risks and prevent losses to the Facility.

8 (e) ADJUSTABLE RATE MORTGAGES.—The regula-
9 tions of the FHFA Board pursuant to subsection (a) shall 10 provide that a mortgage on single-family housing having 11 an interest rate that is not fixed at a single annual per-12 centage rate for the entire term of the mortgage shall not 13 be considered a safe and sound mortgage unless such qual-14 ity, type, and class of non-fixed rate mortgages has been 15 approved for purposes of this section by the FHFA Board
16 as consistent with the safety and soundness of the Facility 17 and the mortgage finance system.

18 (f) REPRESENTATION AND WARRANTY REQUIRE-19 MENT.—The regulations of the FHFA Board pursuant to 20 subsection (a) shall provide that a mortgage shall not be 21 considered a safe and sound mortgage unless such mort-
22 gage meets such requirements regarding representations
23 and warranties sufficient to certifying that the mortgage
24 is covered by a policy for title insurance as the FHFA 25 Board shall establish to ensure that title-related risks for

1 the mortgage are borne by State-licensed title insurance 2 companies.

3 (g) UNDERWRITING STANDARDS.—The regulations
4 of the FHFA Board pursuant to subsection (a) shall pro-5 vide that a mortgage shall not be considered a safe and 6 sound mortgage unless such mortgage meets such under-7 writing standards as the FHFA Board shall establish 8 that—

9 (1) promote transparency, uniformity, and con-10 sumer protections; and 11 (2) ensure a mortgagor’s ability to repay the 12 mortgage obligation, including standards for deter-

13 mining mortgagors’ income, assets, liabilities, credit 14 history, and credit risk.

15 (h) PROPERTY VALUATION STANDARDS.—The regu-
16 lations of the FHFA Board pursuant to subsection (a) 17 shall provide that a mortgage shall not be considered a 18 safe and sound mortgage unless such mortgage meets the 19 property valuation and appraisal standards under subpart
20 E of part 226 of title 12, Code of Federal Regulations
21 (Regulation Z).

22 (i) PRICE LIMITATIONS.—The Facility shall ensure 23 that prices to be paid by the Facility for residential mort-24 gages purchased shall be based on market prices for the 25 particular class of mortgages involved.

1 (j) SELLER APPROVAL.—The Facility may purchase
2 residential mortgages meeting the requirements of this 3 title only from sellers who have been approved by the Fa-
4 cility as meeting such standards for approval as the Facil-
5 ity Board shall establish, which shall include standards
6 governing the following:

7 (1) Care and due diligence in complying with 8 the underwriting standards established pursuant to 9 subsection (g).

10 (2) Minimum capital to ensure the ability to 11 perform under standard representations and warran-12 ties.

13 (3) Contractual obligations.

14 (4) Representations and warranties pursuant to 15 subsection (f).

16 (5) Indemnification for losses.

17 (6) Delivery of documents.

18 (7) Ownership, establishment, maintenance, re-
19 taining, examination, and storage of mortgage 20 records and information.

21 (8) Fidelity bond and errors and omissions cov-22 erage.

23 (9) Capitalization, net worth, and liquidity.

24 (10) Lending practices.

1 (k) SERVICING OF MORTGAGES.—This Act may not 2 be construed to prohibit, or to authorize the Facility
3 Board or the FHFA Board to prohibit, any approved sell-4 er who sells a mortgage to the Facility from servicing such 5 mortgage.

6 SEC. 103. REDUCTION OF MARKET SHARE.

7 (a) LIMITATIONS.—The FHFA Board shall, by regu-
8 lation, seek to ensure that the market share of the Facil-
9 ity, as defined by the FHFA Board, does not exceed ap-10 proximately 50 percent of mortgage originations in the 11 United States.

12 (b) STANDARDS AND REQUIREMENTS.—The FHFA
13 Board shall establish such standards and requirements re-
14 garding the maximum volume of purchases by the Facility.
15 In establishing such standards, the FHFA Board shall 16 seek to avoid excessive disruption to stability of the resi-
17 dential mortgage market.

18 (c) SAFETY VALVE.—Notwithstanding any other pro-19 vision of this section, the FHFA Board may provide, in 20 a timely manner, for the temporary suspension or adjust-
21 ment of the limits under this section on the market share 22 of the Facility, but only if the FHFA Board determines 23 that the private market has significantly reduced partici-24 pation in the residential mortgage markets, taking into 25 consideration the yield spread between private label mort-

1 gage-backed securities and mortgage-backed securities
2 issued by the Facility and such other indicia as the FHFA
3 Board considers appropriate.

4 (d) CORRECTION PLAN.—If at any time the FHFA
5 Board determines that the market share of the Facility 6 exceeds the maximum market share permitted under this 7 section, the FHFA Board shall require the Facility to es-8 tablish and implement a plan that—

9 (1) reduces such market share so that it com-
10 plies with the subsection (a)(1);

11 (2) impacts all geographic regions of the coun-
12 try similarly;

13 (3) restricts or prohibits the business of the Fa-
14 cility in mortgages that are used to prepay an exist-
15 ing loan secured by the same property as such mort-16 gage; and

17 (4) increases guarantee fees under section 105
18 or reinsurance fees under section 106(a), or both.

19 Such a plan shall seek to impact all lenders as equally 20 as possible, taking into account each lender's history re-21 garding its share of activity in selling mortgages to the 22 Facility.

23 SEC. 104. CAPITAL STANDARDS.

24 (a) IN GENERAL.—The FHFA Board shall, by regu-25 lation, establish risk-based capital requirements for the

1 Facility to ensure that the Facility operates in a safe and 2 sound manner, maintaining sufficient capital and reserves
3 to support the risks that arise in operations and manage-
4 ment of the Facility.

5 (b) FACTORS.—The capital requirements for the Fa-6 cility shall—

7 (1) be based on the risks specifically involved in 8 the purchase and securitization of safe and sound 9 mortgages, as such term is defined pursuant to sec-10 tion 103(a); and

11 (2) be based on actuarial loss rate history of 12 mortgages having similar characteristics.

13 SEC. 105. GUARANTEE FEES.

14 (a) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Facility shall charge a 15 guarantee fee under this section in connection with any 16 purchase of residential mortgages from approved sellers
17 and in connection with any guarantee issued by the Facil-
18 ity of timely payment of principal and interest on mort-
19 gage-backed securities, notes, and other obligations issued 20 by the Facility.

21 (b) AMOUNT.—Any guarantee fee under this section 22 shall be in an amount that the Facility Board determines 23 appropriate and reasonable, based on likelihood of loss for 24 the particular type of product, to provide for operation of 25 the Facility in accordance with this Act, except that such

1 fees may be increased to facilitate compliance with the 2 market share limitations under section 103 or for such 3 other purpose as the FHFA Board may approve. The 4 FHFA Board may establish a minimum amount for the 5 guarantee fee.
