(3) The International Joint Commission last filed an Annual Report for 2008 which, although it described past Commission projects and activities in general terms, contained no detail regarding the cost of its particular activities or the specific allocation of Commission resources.

(5) The Great Lakes Fishery Commission, the largest recipient of United States assistance to international fisheries commissions, last filed an Annual Report for 2006, which was six pages long and contained three lines of financial data.

(5) the President should report to Congress annually on specific steps being taken by the United States to encourage Arab League states to normalize their relations with Israel and to bring about the termination of the Arab League boycott of Israel, including those steps being taken to encourage allies and trading partners of the United States to enact laws prohibiting businesses from complying with the boycott and penalizing businesses that do comply.

SEC. 807. LIMITATION ON ASSISTANCE TO THE FORMER YUGOSLAV REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) Greece has demonstrated an enormous good will gesture in agreeing that “Macedonia” may be included in the future name of the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia (FYROM) as long as that term is combined with a geographic qualifier that makes it clear that there are no territorial ambitions on the part of the FYROM with regard to the historical boundaries of the Greek province of Macedonia.

(2) The FYROM continues to utilize materials that violate provisions of the United Nations-brokered Interim Agreement between the FYROM and Greece regarding incendiary rallies, rhetoric, or propaganda, and United Nations-led negotiations between the FYROM and Greece have so far failed to achieve the longstanding goals of the United States and the United Nations to find a mutually acceptable, new official name for the FYROM.

strictions on religious freedom and implement nec-Essary legal and political reforms to protect religious freedom.

SEC. 810. STATE SPONSORSHIP OF TERRORISM BY ERITREA.

It is the sense of Congress that—

(2) Eritrea’s ongoing and well-documented support for armed insurgents in Somalia, including al Shabaab, poses a significant threat to the national security interests of the United States and East African countries; and

(3) the Secretary of State should designate Eritrea as a state sponsor of terrorism pursuant to section 6(j) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, section 40 of the Arms Export Control Act, and section 620A of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961.

(1) The United States was a witness to the 2005 Comprehensive Peace Agreement (CPA), which marked the end of more than two decades of civil war between North and South Sudan that resulted in the deaths of more than 2,000,000 people.

(2) The CPA provided the framework for a historic referendum to determine the future status of South Sudan held between January 9, 2011, and January 15, 2011.

(3) On February 7, 2011, the Southern Sudan Referendum Commission announced that the people of South Sudan voted in favor of succession from the Republic of the Sudan by a margin of 98.8 percent in a credible and transparent vote.

(4) The mandate for the United Nations Mission in Sudan (UNMIS), which was established by United Nations Security Council Resolution 1590 on...
March 24, 2005, and was instrumental in supporting the implementation of the CPA, expired on July 9, 2011, with the completion of the CPA Interim Period.

(6) Several outstanding issues relating to CPA implementation and potential points of conflict remain unresolved between North and South Sudan, including the final status of the contested area of Abyei, ongoing violence in Southern Kordofan and Blue Nile, disputed border areas, citizenship rights and nationality, division of oil resources and profits, currency, international debt and assets, the liberation of slaves from South Sudan still held in Sudan, and other matters.

(7) Lasting peace and stability for the region cannot be realized until all outstanding elements of the CPA are dealt with in a fair and peaceful manner and a comprehensive peace is secured in Darfur.

(b) Sense of Congress.—It is the sense of Congress that—
(1) the independence of the Republic of South Sudan represents an historic opportunity for peace in the region and the people of South Sudan should be commended for freely and peacefully expressing their desire for independence through a credible and transparent referendum;

(2) the people and leaders of South Sudan should be commended for their efforts to reach this historic milestone;

(3) all parties should continue to work to resolve outstanding matters relating to implementation of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement for Sudan, including the final status of Abyei, disputed border areas, the completion of popular consultations and security arrangements in Southern Kordofan and Blue Nile, citizenship and nationality, division of oil resources and profits, currency, international debt and assets, the liberation of slaves from South Sudan still held in Sudan, and other matters in order to ensure a smooth transition to two states and to mitigate points of conflict;

(4) all parties should fully implement their June 20, 2011, agreement on temporary arrangements for the contested Abyei area and swiftly es-establish a cessation of hostilities in Southern Kordofan;

(5) the deployment of up to 4,200 Ethiopian peacekeepers to Abyei and the new United Nations Mission in South Sudan (UNMISS) are expected to help provide security and stability in the region;

(6) peace, rule of law, security, and good governance should be promoted throughout Sudan and South Sudan, particularly efforts to—

(A) advance security and stability in both countries, especially in critical areas such as Darfur, Blue Nile, and Southern Kordofan and in Abyei;

(B) promote respect for the human and civil rights of all, including southerners living in Sudan and northerners living in South Sudan;

(C) encourage the development of multi-party democracy, vibrant democratic institutions, and freedom of speech and association;

(D) prevent extremists groups from exploiting the territories of Sudan and South Sudan and encourage full cooperation with the United States on counterterrorism priorities; and
(E) encourage a productive relationship between Sudan and South Sudan that recognizes the mutual need for cooperation and an open flow of people and goods across borders and to refrain from the use of proxy forces to foment conflict; and

(7) the Darfur peace process should remain a priority in United States relations with Sudan, particularly with regard to efforts to secure a just and lasting peace in Darfur, humanitarian access to vulnerable populations, and freedom of movement for the African Union-United Nations Mission in Darfur (UNAMID).
