AN ACT

To prohibit the National Labor Relations Board from ordering any employer to close, relocate, or transfer employment under any circumstance.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

2. SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

3. This Act may be cited as the “Protecting Jobs From Government Interference Act”.

4. SEC. 2. AUTHORITY OF THE NLRB.

5. Section 10(e) of the National Labor Relations Act (29 U.S.C. 160) is amended by inserting before the period at the end the following: “: Provided further, That the Board shall have no power to order an employer (or seek an order against an employer) to restore or reinstate any work, product, production line, or equipment, to rescind any relocation, transfer, subcontracting, outsourcing, or other change regarding the location, entity, or employer who shall be engaged in production or other business operations, or to require any employer to make an initial or additional investment at a particular plant, facility, or location”.

SEC. 3. RETROACTIVITY.

The amendment made by section 2 shall apply to any complaint for which a final adjudication by the National Labor Relations Board has not been made by the date of enactment of this Act.

Passed the House of Representatives September 15, 2011.

Attest: KAREN L. HAAS, Clerk.
To prohibit the National Labor Relations Board from ordering any employer to close, relocate, or transfer employment under any circumstance.
