

112TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 3036

To amend the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 and the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 to award grants to prepare individuals for the 21st century workplace and to increase America's global competitiveness, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 22, 2011

Mr. YARMUTH (for himself, Mr. BLUMENAUER, Mr. CARSON of Indiana, Mr. CHANDLER, Mr. DOYLE, Mr. HINCHEY, Ms. MOORE, and Mr. POLIS) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

A BILL

To amend the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 and the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 to award grants to prepare individuals for the 21st century workplace and to increase America's global competitiveness, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Ready-to-Compete 5 Act”.

1 TITLE I—READY TO LEARN:
 2 SCHOOL READINESS AND
 3 SUCCESS

4 SEC. 101. READY-TO-LEARN GRANTS.

5 Subpart 3 of part D of title II of the Elementary
 6 and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 6775)
 7 is amended to read as follows:

8 “Subpart 3— Ready-to-Learn

9 “SEC. 2431. SHORT TITLE.

10 “This subpart may be cited as ‘Ready-to-Learn Act’.

11 “SEC. 2432. READY-TO-LEARN INNOVATIVE MULTIPLAT- 12 FORM EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING AND
 13 SERVICES.

14 “(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary is authorized to 15 award grants to eligible entities to enable such entities—

16 “(1) to provide a coordinated Ready-to-Learn 17 service described in subsection (c); and 18 “(2) to award subgrants or enter into contracts 19 or cooperative agreements with an eligible sub-20 grantee to enable the eligible subgrantee to operate 21 a high-quality Ready-to-Learn program that is a 22 part of the coordinated Ready-to-Learn service.

23 “(b) READY-TO-LEARN PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS.—
 24 Each eligible entity receiving a grant under this subpart 25 shall operate a Ready-to-Learn program that—

1 “(1) develops, produces, and distributes innova-2 tive multiplatform educational programming and 3 services for young children and youth (especially 4 those young children and youth served under part A
5 of title I), and the parents, educators, and caregivers 6 of such children in order to help improve early child-7 hood development and student achievement in the 8 areas of—

9 “(A) reading;

10 “(B) mathematics;

11 “(C) science;

12 “(D) health and wellness;

13 “(E) social and emotional development; or

14 “(F) other academic or developmentally 15 appropriate areas;

16 “(2) facilitates the development of—

17 “(A) innovative multiplatform educational 18 programming and services, directly or through 19 contracts, with producers of innovative multi-20 platform educational programming and services
21 for young children and youth;

22 “(B) rigorous professional development for 23 educators and caregivers that supports effective
24 use of Ready-to-Learn innovative multiplatform
25 educational programming and services or im-

1 proves the effectiveness of teachers in class-
2 rooms serving young children and youth;

3 “(C) support materials and services that 4 accompany such innovative multiplatform edu-
5 cational programming and services and profes-
6 sional development, including outreach services, 7 in order to promote the effective use of such in-8 novative multiplatform educational program-9 ming and services; and

10 “(D) related support resources for parents
11 and caregivers that are designed for nationwide
12 distribution over public television stations’ dig-
13 ital broadcasting channels and other high-tech
14 delivery platforms;

15 “(3) contracts with an entity that owns and op-16 erates a television public broadcast station, as de-
17 fined in section 397(6) of the Communications Act
18 of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 397(6))—

19 “(A) that demonstrates that the station is 20 a member of a strong, local, community-based 21 partnership, in order to deliver effective services
22 which meet the educational needs of the chil-
23 dren in the community served by the broadcast 24 area; and

1 “(B) so that innovative multiplatform edu-
2 cational programming and services developed
3 under this subpart are disseminated and dis-
4 tributed to the widest possible audience appro-
5 priately served by the most appropriate dis-6 tribution technologies; or

7 “(4) develops and disseminates educational or 8 training material, directly related to the television 9 programs assisted under this subpart, that is de-10 signed—

11 “(A) to promote school readiness and suc-
12 cess for all children, especially children served
13 under part A of title I, including English lan-14 guage learners; and

15 “(B) to promote the effective use of related 16 services and related support resources developed 17 under paragraphs (2) and (3), respectively,
18 among parents, caregivers, teachers, Head
19 Start programs, reading and literacy programs
20 funded under the Elementary and Secondary
21 Education Act, family literacy programs, child
22 care providers, early childhood educators, public
23 and school libraries, museums, State edu-24 cational agencies, businesses, institutions of 1 higher education, and after-school, summer,

2 and extended day and year programs.

3 “(c) COORDINATED READY-TO-LEARN SERVICE.—In 4 awarding subgrants and entering into contracts and coop-
5 erative agreements under this subpart, an eligible entity 6 shall provide a coordinated Ready-to-Learn service that—

7 “(1) shall include—

8 “(A) innovative multiplatform educational 9 programming, determined by the eligible entity
10 to be of sound content and artistic excellence, 11 aligned to—

12 “(i) State academic content and aca-
13 demic achievement standards described 14 under section 1111 and State early learn-15 ing standards, as appropriate;

16 “(ii) rigorous professional develop-
17 ment for educators and caregivers that 18 supports effective use of Ready-to-Learn
19 innovative multiplatform educational pro-
20 gramming and services or improves the ef-
21 fectiveness of teachers in classrooms serv-22 ing young children and youth; and 23 “(iii) related services;

24 “(B) effective, ongoing community out-25 reach programs and ongoing partnerships with

1 local organizations to help ensure that the pro-
2 gramming—

3 “(i) addresses specific community and 4 school needs;

5 “(ii) addresses needs of caregivers and 6 educators;

7 “(iii) reaches children served under 8 part A of title I; and

9 “(iv) engages multiple constituencies
10 of children, parents, caregivers, and edu-
11 cators;

12 “(C) academic and developmental tele-
13 vision programming described in subsection (b) 14 (1) in—

15 “(i) the topics described in subpara-
16 graphs (A) and (E) of subsection (b)(1); 17 and

18 “(ii) not less than 1 other topic de-
19 scribed in subparagraphs (B), (C), (D), 20 and (F) of subsection (b)(1); and 21 “(D) a rigorous evaluation of the impact of 22 the innovative multiplatform educational pro-

23 gramming and services described in subsection 24 (b)(1) on—

1 “(i) school readiness skills of young 2 children in various socioeconomic areas, in-3 cluding rural and urban areas;

4 “(ii) school success of youth in various 5 socioeconomic areas, including rural and 6 urban areas;

7 “(iii) teacher effectiveness; and 8 “(iv) community engagement and 9 awareness; and

10 “(2) may include a comprehensive preschool
11 curriculum based upon the Ready-to-Learn pro-12 grams.

13 “(d) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE, MATERIALS, TRAIN-14 ING, AND CURRICULA.—The eligible entity shall provide 15 eligible subgrantees that receive a subgrant or enter into 16 a contract or cooperative agreement under this subpart
17 with technical assistance, supporting materials, training, 18 and curricula to ensure effective implementation of sub-19 section (c).

20 “(e) RESERVATION OF FUNDING.—The eligible entity
21 shall use not less than 30 percent of the funds received 22 under this subpart to award subgrants to or enter into 23 contracts or cooperative agreements with eligible sub-24 grantees that are public broadcast stations, as defined in

1 section 397(6) of the Communications Act of 1934, to 2 carry out subsection (c)(1)(B) and section 2435(e).

3 “(f) AVAILABILITY OF PROGRAMMING AND RELATED 4 SERVICES.—In awarding a grant under this subpart, the 5 Secretary shall ensure that each eligible entity makes in-
6 novative multiplatform educational programming and 7 services widely available, with support materials available, 8 as appropriate, to young children and youth, parents,
9 caregivers, teachers, reading and literacy programs funded
10 under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, fam-
11 ily literacy programs, child care providers, early childhood
12 educators, public and school libraries, museums, State 13 educational agencies, businesses, institutions of higher 14 education, and afterschool, summer, and extended day and 15 year programs in order to increase the effective use of in-16 novative multiplatform educational programming and 17 services.

18 “SEC. 2433. COORDINATION OF ACTIVITIES.

19 “In carrying out this subpart, an eligible entity 20 shall—

21 “(1) consult with the Secretary and the Sec-
22 retary of Health and Human Services—

23 “(A) to maximize the use of high-quality
24 innovative multiplatform educational program-
25 ming and services by young children and youth,

1 and to make such programming widely available
2 to federally funded programs serving such chil-3 dren; and

4 “(B) to coordinate activities assisted under 5 this subpart with Federal programs that have a 6 major professional development component for 7 educators of young children and youth, includ-
8 ing programs under the Head Start Act, 21st
9 Century Community Learning Centers, title I,
10 and the Child Care and Development Block 11 Grant Act of 1990; and 12 “(2) ensure that all materials acquired or pro-13 duced by any eligible subgrantee are determined to 14 be of sufficient age-appropriate aesthetic appeal and 15 educational effectiveness to warrant national dis-

16 tribution and support in order to maximize the im-
17 pact of televised materials and the use of digital con-18 tent.

19 “SEC. 2434. APPLICATION.

20 “To be eligible to receive a grant under this subpart,
21 an eligible entity shall submit to the Secretary an applica-22 tion at such time, in such manner, and containing such 23 information as the Secretary may reasonably require.

1 “SEC. 2435. REPORTS AND EVALUATIONS.

2 “(a) ANNUAL REPORT TO THE SECRETARY.—In car-3 rying out this subpart, an eligible entity shall prepare and 4 submit to the Secretary an annual report that contains 5 such information as the Secretary may require. At a min-
6 imum, the report shall describe the activities undertaken 7 with funds received under the grant awarded to the eligible 8 entity under this subpart, including each of the following:

9 “(1) PROGRAMMING AND RELATED SERVICES;
10 TARGET POPULATION.—The innovative multiplat-
11 form educational programming and services devel-12 oped, directly or indirectly, by the eligible entity, and 13 the target population served by the programming
14 and services.

15 “(2) SUPPORT OR TRAINING AND PROFES-
16 SIONAL DEVELOPMENT MATERIALS.—The support or 17 training and professional development materials de-
18 veloped to accompany the innovative multiplatform 19 educational programming and services, and the 20 method by which the materials were distributed to 21 consumers and users of the innovative multiplatform 22 educational programming and services.

23 “(3) MEANS OF DISTRIBUTION.—The means by 24 which innovative multiplatform educational program-25 ming and services developed under this subpart were 26 distributed, including the technologies that were

1 used to make the innovative multiplatform edu-2 cational programming and services available, and the 3 geographic distribution achieved through such tech-4 nologies.

5 “(4) INITIATIVES.—The initiatives undertaken
6 by the eligible entity to develop public-private part-
7 nerships to secure non-Federal support for the devel-8 opment, distribution, and broadcast of innovative 9 multiplatform educational programming and serv-
10 ices.

11 “(5) IMPACT.—The impact of the innovative 12 multiplatform educational programming and services 13 on teaching and learning, including the impact on 14 improving school readiness skills, reading skills, 15 mathematics skills, science skills, and skills in other 16 developmentally appropriate content areas.

17 “(b) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—The Secretary shall 18 prepare and submit to the relevant committees of Con-19 gress an annual report that includes the following:

20 “(1) ACTIVITY SUMMARY.—A summary of the 21 activities assisted under section 2432.

22 “(2) EDUCATION, TRAINING, AND PROFES-
23 SIONAL DEVELOPMENT MATERIALS.—A description
24 of the education, training, and professional develop-25 ment materials described in section 2432(b)(2)(B)

1 that are made available under this subpart, the man-
2 ner in which outreach was conducted to inform par-3 ents and child care providers of the availability of 4 such materials, and the manner in which such mate-
5 rials were distributed in accordance with section 6 2432.

7 “(c) EVALUATION OF OUTREACH ACTIVITIES.—In 8 carrying out this subpart, an eligible entity shall require 9 each eligible subgrantee that receives a subgrant or enters 10 into a contract or cooperative agreement under this sub-11 part to provide evaluation data that include descriptions 12 of the impact of outreach activities carried out under this 13 subpart, including—

14 “(1) the manner in which outreach was con-
15 ducted to inform parents, educators, and child care 16 providers of the availability of the innovative multi-17 platform educational programming and services pro-
18 duced under this subpart, including specific strate-
19 gies used to reach a wide audience;

20 “(2) the extent to which the outreach programs 21 included multiple outreach efforts with the same or-22 ganizations or groups and resulted in lasting rela-23 tionships with those organizations or groups and the 24 members of those organizations or groups; and

1 “(3) the effectiveness of the outreach programs
2 and services conducted and the number of children, 3 families, educators, and child care providers that 4 had access to and utilized the innovative multiplat-
5 form educational programming and services provided
6 under this subpart to improve school readiness skills 7 and school success.

8 “(d) EVALUATION OF IMPACT ON SCHOOL READI-9 NESS AND SUCCESS.—The Secretary shall evaluate the 10 impact of the outreach content and services provided 11 under this subpart on improving school readiness skills
12 and school success nationwide, particularly with respect
13 to young children and youth in the most disadvantaged 14 communities.

15 “SEC. 2436. ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS.

16 “An eligible subgrantee that receives a subgrant or 17 enters into a contract or cooperative agreement under this 18 subpart may use not more than 5 percent of the amount 19 received under the subgrant, contract, or cooperative 20 agreement, respectively, for the normal and customary ex-
21 penses of administering the grant, contract, or cooperative 22 agreement, respectively.

23 “SEC. 2437. CONTINUATION OF AWARDS.

24 “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an eligi-
25 ble subgrantee that received a subgrant or enters into a

1 contract or cooperative agreement under this subpart (as 2 this subpart existed on the day before the date of enact-3 ment of the Ready-to-Learn Act) shall continue to receive 4 funds in accordance with the terms of the subgrant, con-5 tract, or cooperative agreement, respectively, until the 6 date on which the subgrant, contract, or cooperative 7 agreement, respectively, terminates under such terms.

8 “SEC. 2438. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

9 “(a) IN GENERAL.—There are authorized to be ap-10 propriated to carry out this subpart $50,000,000 for fiscal 11 year 2012 and such sums as may be necessary for each 12 of the 5 succeeding fiscal years.

13 “(b) RESERVATION.—In any fiscal year in which the 14 amount appropriated is greater than $30,000,000, the 15 Secretary shall reserve 50 percent of such excess for inno-
16 vative multiplatform educational programming and serv-
17 ices for youth.

18 “SEC. 2439. DEFINITIONS.

7 TITLE II—READY-TO-EARN
8 GRANTS

9 SEC. 201. READY-TO-EARN GRANTS.

10 Chapter 4 of subtitle A of title II of the Workforce 11 Investment Act of 1998 (29 U.S.C. 9251 et seq.) is 12 amended by adding at the end the following:

13 “SEC. 244. TELEVISION BROADCAST WORKFORCE TRAINING
14 GRANT PROGRAM.

15 “(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary is authorized to 16 award grants, on a competitive basis, to an entity that 17 owns and operates a television public broadcast station, 18 as defined in section 397(6) of the Communications Act
19 of 1934, or a partnership of such entities, for the purpose 20 of developing, disseminating, and providing online and on-21 air education and training services for adults, including 22 adult education, adult literacy, GED preparation, work-
23 force training, and related outreach services that are pri-24 orities for the community.

1 “(b) ELIGIBLE ENTITIES.—To be eligible to receive 2 a grant under this section, an entity shall—

3 “(1) own or operate a local television public 4 broadcast station, as defined in section 397(6) of the 5 Communications Act of 1934, that is able to dem-
6 onstrate a capacity for the development and dis-
7 tribution of high-quality educational digital content
8 and services in the areas of adult education, adult 9 literacy, GED preparation, workforce training, and 10 related outreach services;

11 “(2) partner with an eligible agency as defined 12 in section 203(4) or a State Board as described in 13 section 111 or institutions of higher education in 14 order to implement a high-quality program in ac-15 cordance with this section; and 16 “(3) conduct a needs assessment of the pro-17 posed community to be served through online and 18 on-air education and training services.

19 “(c) APPLICATION.—To be eligible to receive a grant 20 under this section, an eligible entity, or partnership of eli-
21 gible entities, shall submit an application to the Secretary.
22 Each application shall—

23 “(1) describe the innovative, high-quality train-
24 ing, tools, products, and educational digital content
25 and services that will be developed and used to im-

1 prove the quality and delivery of adult education,
2 adult literacy, GED preparation, workforce training,
3 and related outreach services;

4 “(2) describe the partnership and the roles of 5 the partners in implementing a high-quality program
6 in accordance with this section;

7 “(3) describe how the eligible entity or entities
8 will address the needs of adults who are non-English 9 speakers;

10 “(4) describe how the comprehensive program 11 described in this section will meet the needs of that 12 community and include partnerships with commu-
13 nity-based organizations that serve adults in need of 14 such services;

15 “(5) describe the research-based practices and 16 advanced technologies that the program funded
17 under this section will use to carry out the purposes 18 of this section;

19 “(6) describe the rigorous evaluation the eligible 20 entity or entities will use to support continuous im-21 provement of the program and services, including 22 the report described under subsection (g); and 23 “(7) contain such additional assurances as the 24 Secretary may reasonably require.

1 “(d) REQUIRED USES OF FUNDS.—Grant funds pro-2 vided under this section shall be used for—

3 “(1) the development, training and use of inno-4 vative, high-quality tools, products, and educational 5 digital content and services for—

6 “(A) adult education, adult literacy, GED
7 preparation, workforce training, and related 8 outreach services;

9 “(B) professional development; and 11 “(2) professional development and training of 12 staff;

13 “(3) evaluation as described in subsection (g);

14 “(4) outreach activities to engage adult learners
15 and community organizations;

16 “(5) English language education and services 17 for non-English speakers; and 18 “(6) other activities as needed to meet the pur-19 poses of this section.

20 “(e) DURATION.—A grant under this section shall be 21 awarded for a period of 5 years.

22 “(f) ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS.—An entity that re-23 ceives a grant under this section may not use more than 24 5 percent of the amount received under the grant for ad-
25 ministrative costs.

1 “(g) REPORTS AND EVALUATION.—An entity receiv-
2 ing a grant under this section shall prepare and submit 3 to the Secretary an annual report that contains such infor-4 mation as the Secretary may require. At a minimum, such 5 report shall describe the program activities undertaken 6 with funds received under the grant, including—

7 “(1) the success in engaging families and the 8 number of such families;

9 “(2) the impact of professional development
10 and training for staff on the acquisition of training 11 and job skills;

12 “(3) the effectiveness of the specific, innovative,
13 high-quality training, tools, products, and edu-14 cational digital content and services developed and 15 used to improve the quality and delivery of adult
16 education, adult literacy, GED preparation, work-17 force training, and related outreach services; and 18 “(4) the impact of the program on adult lit-

19 eracy and English language skills, workforce skills, 20 job placements, and GED passage rates.

21 “(h) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There
22 are authorized to be appropriated to carry out this section 23 $10,000,000 for fiscal year 2012 and such sums as may 24 be necessary for each of the 5 succeeding fiscal years.

25 “(i) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

1 “(1) the term ‘GED’ means General Edu-
2 cational Development as recognized by the American 3 Council on Education; and

4 “(2) the term ‘institution of higher education’ 5 has the meaning given such term in section 101 of 6 the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C.
7 1001).”.

8 SEC. 202. CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.
