IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 30, 2012

Mr. Frank of Massachusetts (for himself, Mr. Waxman, and Mr. Peterson) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services, and in addition to the Committee on Agriculture, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

______________________________

A BILL

To prohibit individuals from insuring against possible losses from having to repay illegally-received compensation or from having to pay civil penalties, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
4 This Act may be cited as the “Executive Compensation-
5 Clawback Full Enforcement Act’.”
SEC. 2. NO AVOIDANCE OF PERSONAL LIABILITY.

(a) IN GENERAL.—An officer, director, employee, or other institution-affiliated party of a depository institution, depository institution holding company, or nonbank financial company who is required by a Federal financial regulatory law that provides for personal liability, or any rule or order promulgated by a Federal financial regulatory agency thereunder, to repay previously earned compensation or pay a civil money penalty—

(1) shall be personally liable for the amounts so owed; and

(2) may not, directly or indirectly, insure or hedge against, or otherwise transfer the risks associated with, personal liability for the amounts so owed.

(b) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Subsection (a) shall not preclude a person from—

(1) being provided funds necessary to defend against a previously earned compensation recovery or civil money penalty described under subsection (a)—

(A) from the relevant depository institution, depository institution holding company, or nonbank financial company;

(B) under an insurance policy; or

(C) pursuant to court order; or
(2) obtaining insurance that protects such person from being held personally liable for—

(A) penalties, judgments, or other amounts assessed against a depository institution, depository institution holding company, or nonbank financial company at the company level; or

(B) unintentional outcomes associated with the ordinary exercise of trade or business judgment, unless the effects of such judgment result in personal liability under a Federal financial regulatory law that provides for personal liability.

(e) APPLICATION TO FOREIGN NONBANK FINANCIAL COMPANIES.—Subsection (a) shall only apply to an officer, director, employee, or other institution-affiliated party of a foreign nonbank financial company to the extent that such officer, director, employee, or other institution-affiliated party is based in the United States.

(d) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this Act:

(1) COMPENSATION.—The term “compensation” means anything of value, regardless of the form in which provided, that is given by a depository institution, depository institution holding company, or nonbank financial company to an officer, director, employee, or other institution-affiliated party in return for that individual’s service to such entity.
