112TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION H.R.890

To allow for the enforcement of State disclosure laws and access to courts for covered Holocaust-era insurance policy claims.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

March 2, 2011

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN (for herself and Mr. DEUTCH) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

- To allow for the enforcement of State disclosure laws and access to courts for covered Holocaust-era insurance policy claims.
 - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
 - 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

- 4 This Act may be cited as the "Holocaust Insurance
- 5 Accountability Act of 2011".

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) The Holocaust, an event in which millions 2 of people endured enormous suffering through tor-3 ture and other violence, including the murder of 4 6,000,000 Jews and millions of others, the destruc-5 tion of families and communities, and the theft of 6 their assets, was one of the most heinous crimes in 7 human history.

8 (2) Before and during World War II, millions
9 of people purchased insurance policies to safeguard
10 family assets, plan for retirement, provide for a 11 dowry, or save for their children's education.

(3) When Holocaust survivors and heirs and beneficiaries of Holocaust victims presented claims to insurance companies after World War II, many were rejected because they did not have death certificates or physical possession of policy documents that had been confiscated by the Nazis or lost in the devastation of the Holocaust.

(4) In many instances, insurance company records and records in government archives are the only proof of the existence of insurance policies belonging to Holocaust victims.

(5) Holocaust survivors and heirs and bene-ficiaries of Holocaust victims have been attempting for decades to persuade insurance companies to set tle unpaid insurance claims.

3 (6) In 1998, the International Commission on 4 Holocaust Era Insurance Claims (in this section referred to as "ICHEIC") was established by the Na-5 6 tional Association of Insurance Commissioners in co-7 operation with several European insurance compa-8 nies, European regulators, the Government of Israel, 9 and nongovernmental organizations with the promise 10 that it would expeditiously address the issue of un-11 paid insurance policies issued to Holocaust victims.

(7) On July 17, 2000, the United States and Germany signed an executive agreement in support of the German Foundation "Remembrance, Responsibility, and the Future", which designated ICHEIC to resolve all Holocaust-era insurance policies issued by German companies and their subsidiaries.

(8) On January 17, 2001, the United States and Austria signed an executive agreement, which designated ICHEIC to resolve all Holocaust-era insurance policies issued by Austrian companies and their subsidiaries.

(9) The ICHEIC process ended in 2007 and companies holding Holocaust-era insurance policies continue to withhold names of owners and bene-

1	ficiaries of thousands of insurance policies sold to
2	Jewish customers prior to World War II.
3	(10) Experts estimate that only a small fraction
4	of the policies estimated to have been sold to Jews
5	living in Europe at the beginning of World War II
6	have been paid through ICHEIC.
7	(11) In American Insurance Association, Inc.,
8	v. Garamendi, the United States Supreme Court
9	held that under the supremacy clause of the Con-
10	stitution of the United States, executive agreements
11	and executive foreign policy calling for insurance
12	claims against German and Austrian companies to
13	be handled within ICHEIC preempted State laws
14	authorizing State insurance commissioners to sub-
15	poena company records and require publication of 16	the names of Holocaust era policy holders.
17	(12) In the Garamendi case, the Supreme
18	Court stated that Congress, which has the power to
19	regulate international commerce and prescribe Fed-
20	eral court jurisdiction, had not addressed disclosure
21	and restitution of insurance policies of Holocaust
22	victims.
23	(13) Subsequent court decisions have dismissed

(13) Subsequent court decisions have dismissed
Holocaust-era insurance claims brought against an Italian insurance company, even though there is no executive agreement between the United States and Italy.

3 (14) Congress supports the rights of Holocaust 4 survivors and the heirs and beneficiaries of Holo-5 caust victims to obtain information from insurers 6 and to bring legal actions in courts, wherever juris-7 diction requirements are met, to recover unpaid 8 funds from entities that participated in the theft of 9 family insurance assets or the affiliates of such entities. 10

(15) Congress intends for this Act to establish a Federal private right of action to allow Holocaust survivors and heirs and beneficiaries of victims to recover under their covered Holocaust-era insurance policies, and to allow for State causes of action and disclosure requirement laws regarding Holocaust-era insurance policies to be valid and not preempted.

18 (16) This Act expresses the intent of Congress 19 to deem valid State laws protecting the rights of 20 Holocaust survivors and the heirs and beneficiaries 21 of Holocaust victims to obtain information from in-22 surers and to bring actions in courts of proper juris-23 diction to recover unpaid funds from entities that 24 participated in the theft of family insurance assets 25 or the affiliates of such entities.

(17) Insurance payments should be expedited to the victims of the most heinous crime of the 20th century to ensure that justice is served.

4 (18) This Act will enable Holocaust survivors
5 and heirs and beneficiaries of Holocaust victims to 6 obtain compensation commensurate with the real 7 monetary value of their losses.

8 (19) Under the circumstances faced by Holo-9 caust victims and their families, courts should be 10 open to Holocaust survivors and heirs and bene-11 ficiaries of Holocaust victims for a reasonable num-12 ber of years after the enactment of this Act, without 13 regard to any other statutes of limitation.

14 SEC. 3. PRIVATE RIGHT OF ACTION.

15 (a) CIVIL ACTIONS TO RECOVER UNDER COVERED POLICIES.—Any person who purchased a covered policy, 16 17 or a beneficiary or heir of such person, may bring a civil 18 action, in the appropriate United States district court, 19 against the insurer for the covered policy or a related com-20 pany of the insurer, to recover proceeds due under the cov-21 ered policy or otherwise to enforce any rights under the 22 covered policy.

(b) NATIONWIDE SERVICE OF PROCESS.—For a civil action brought under subsection (a), process may be served in the judicial district where the case is brought

6

or any other judicial district of the United States where the defendant may be found, resides, has an agent, or transacts business.

4 (c) REMEDIES.—A court shall award to a prevailing 5 beneficiary in a civil action brought under subsection (a)—

6 (1) the amount of the proceeds due under the7 covered policy;

8 (2) prejudgment interest on the amount de-9 scribed in clause (i) from the date the amount was 10 due until the date of judgment, calculated at a rate 11 of 6 percent per year, compounded annually; and

(3) any other appropriate relief necessary to en-force rights under the covered policy.

14 SEC. 4. VALIDITY OF STATE LAWS.

(a) VALIDITY OF LAWS CREATING CAUSE OF ACTION.—Any State law creating a cause of action against any insurer or related company based on a claim arising out of or related to a covered policy shall not be invalid or preempted by reason of any executive foreign policy described in subsection (d)(1) or any executive agreement described in subsection (d)(2).

(b) VALIDITY OF LAWS REQUIRING DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION.—Any State law that is enacted on or after March 1, 1998, and that requires an insurer doing business in that State, including any related company, to disclose information regarding any covered policy shall be deemed to be in effect on the date of the enactment of such law and shall not be invalid or preempted by reason of any executive foreign policy described in paragraph (1) of subsection (d) or any executive agreement described in paragraph (2) of subsection (d).

7 (c) EXECUTIVE AGREEMENTS AND EXECUTIVE FOR-8 EIGN POLICY COVERED.—

9 (1) EXECUTIVE FOREIGN POLICY.—An execu-10 tive foreign policy described in this paragraph is a 11 foreign policy of the executive branch of the Federal 12 Government established before, on, or after the date 13 of enactment of this Act.

14 (2) EXECUTIVE AGREEMENTS.—An executive 15 agreement described in this paragraph is an execu16 tive agreement between the United States and a for17 eign government entered into before, on, or after the 18 date of enactment of this Act.

(d) STATEMENTS OF INTEREST.—No funds may be used by the Department of State, or any other department or agency of the United States, for the purpose of issuing a statement of interest seeking to encourage a court in the United States to dismiss any claim or action brought to recover compensation arising out of or related to a covered policy.

1 SEC. 5. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.

A court may not dismiss a claim or action that is brought under section 3, or under subsection (a) or (b) of section 4, within 10 years after the date of the enactment of this Act on the ground that the claim or action is barred under any statute of limitations or the doctrine of laches.

8 SEC. 6. APPLICABILITY.

9 (a) IN GENERAL.—This Act shall apply to any claim 10 or action that is brought, before, on, or after the date of 11 the enactment of this Act, under section 3, or under a 12 State law described in subsection (a) or (b) of section 4, 13 including—

14 (1) any claim or action dismissed, before the 15 date of the enactment of this Act, on the ground of 16 executive preemption; and

(2) any claim or action that is deemed released as a result of the settlement of a class action that was entered into before the date of the enactment of this Act, if the claimant did not receive any payment pursuant to the settlement.

(b) CLAIMS OR ACTIONS NOT PRECLUDED ON CERTAIN GROUNDS.—With respect to any claim or action brought under section 3, or under a State law described in subsection (a) or (b) of section 4, it shall not be a defense that the claim or action is or was precluded, barred, waived, discharged, or otherwise invalid under the doctrine of res judicata, collateral estoppel or any similar doctrine.

3 SEC. 7. DEFINITIONS.

4 In this Act:

5 (1) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMIT-6 TEES.—The term "appropriate congressional com-7 mittees" means the Committee on Foreign Affairs in 8 the House of Representatives, the Committee on 9 Foreign Relations in the Senate, and the Commit-10 tees on the Judiciary of the House of Representa-11 tives and the Senate.
