

112TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 29

Calling for Internet freedom in Vietnam.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 7, 2011

Ms. LORETTA SANCHEZ of California (for herself, Ms. ZOE LOFGREN of California, and Mr. ROYCE) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

Calling for Internet freedom in Vietnam.

Whereas the Internet is a tool to exercise freedom of expression and association, both of which are basic human rights;

Whereas the Internet is a medium to share information freely, promote social and economic development, and connect Vietnamese citizens domestically and internationally;

Whereas the Government of Vietnam created the Administration Agency for Radio, Television and Electronics Information in October 2008 and issued Circular 07 in December 2008 to restrict Internet freedom, censor private blogs, and compel information technology companies to cooperate with government efforts to monitor personal information of Internet users;

Whereas the Government of Vietnam has imprisoned bloggers and numerous democracy activists who have distributed their peaceful views over the Internet;

Whereas the Government of Vietnam continues to firewall external Web sites promoting democracy and human rights; and

Whereas these actions violate individuals' right to freedom of speech and expression: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) supports the right of Vietnamese citizens to
3 access Web sites of their choosing and to have the
4 freedom to share and publish information over the
5 Internet;

6 (2) calls on the Government of Vietnam to re-
7 peal Circular 07, Article 88, and similar statutes
8 that restrict the Internet, so as to be in line with the
9 International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights,
10 to which the Socialist Republic of Vietnam is a sig-
11 natory; and

12 (3) calls on the Government of Vietnam to be-
13 come a responsible member state of the international
14 community by respecting individuals' freedom of 15 speech, freedom of press, and freedom of political 16 association.
