23 disclosure notification is transmitted to the last 24 known address of such individual” and inserting “a

1 reasonable attempt to notify the individual is made 2 promptly after the disclosure”; and

3 (6) by striking paragraph (9) and inserting the 4 following:

5 “(9)(A) to either House of Congress;

6 “(B) to the extent of matter within its jurisdic-7 tion, any committee or subcommittee thereof, any 8 joint committee of Congress or subcommittee of any 9 such joint committee; or

10 “(C) to the office of a Member of Congress
11 when that office is requesting records about a spe-
12 cific individual on behalf of that individual in re-13 sponse to a written request for assistance by that in-14 dividual;”.

15 (c) ACCOUNTING OF CERTAIN DISCLOSURES.—Sec-
16 tion 552a(c) of title 5, United States Code, is amended 17 by inserting “whether in an electronic or other format”
18 after “system of records under its control”.

19 (d) AGENCY REQUIREMENTS.—Section 552a of title
20 5, United States Code, is amended by striking subsection
21 (e) and inserting the following:

22 “(e) AGENCY REQUIREMENTS.—

23 “(1) AUTHORIZED PURPOSE.—No agency shall 24 use a record except for an authorized purpose and

1 as maintained in a system of records under this sec-
2 tion.

3 “(2) REQUIREMENTS.—Each agency shall—

4 “(A) maintain in its records only such in-5 formation about an individual as is relevant and 6 necessary to accomplish any specified purpose 7 of the agency required to be accomplished by 8 statute or by executive order of the President, 9 and only retain such information as long as is 10 necessary to fulfill that purpose or as otherwise 11 required by law;

12 “(B) collect information to the greatest ex-13 tent practicable directly from the subject indi-
14 vidual when the information may result in ad-
15 verse determinations about an individual’s
16 rights, benefits, and privileges;

17 “(C) inform each individual whom it asks 18 to supply information creating a record, at the 19 time the information is requested—

20 “(i) the authority (whether granted by 21 statute or by executive order of the Presi-22 dent) which authorizes the solicitation of 23 the information and whether disclosure of 24 such information is voluntary or required
25 to receive a right, benefit, or privilege;

1 “(ii) the principal purpose or purposes
2 for which the information is intended to be 3 used;

4 “(iii) the routine uses which may be 5 made of the information, as published
6 under subparagraph (D)(iv);

7 “(iv) any effects on that individual of 8 not providing all or any part of the re-
9 quested information;

10 “(v) the procedures and contact infor-
11 mation for accessing or correcting such in-12 formation; and

13 “(vi) a reference to learning how such 14 information will be used or disclosed, in-15 cluding the simplest access to the current 16 system of records notice;

17 “(D) subject to the provisions of subpara-
18 graph (K), publish in the Federal Register, 19 make broadly accessible to the public through a 20 centralized website maintained by the Office of 21 Management and Budget, and link to such cen-
22 tralized website from each agency’s website, 23 upon establishment or revision a notice of the 24 existence and character of the system of 25 records, which notice shall include—

1 “(i) the name and location of the sys-
2 tem;

3 “(ii) the categories of individuals on 4 whom records are maintained in the sys-
5 tem;

6 “(iii) the categories of records main-
7 tained in the system;

8 “(iv) any purpose for which the infor-
9 mation is intended to be used, including 10 each routine use;

11 “(v) the legal authority for any pur-
12 pose for which the information is utilized 13 granted by statute, executive order, or 14 other authorization;

15 “(vi) the policies and practices of the 16 agency regarding storage, retrievability, ac-17 cess controls, retention, and disposal of the 18 records;

19 “(vii) the title and business address of 20 the agency official who is responsible for 21 the system of records;

22 “(viii) the agency procedures whereby
23 an individual can be notified at his request
24 if the system of records contains a record
25 pertaining to him, how he can gain access

1 to such a record, or contest its content; 2 and

3 “(ix) the sources of records in the sys-
4 tem;

5 “(E) to the greatest extent practicable, en-
6 sure that all records, including records from a 7 third party source, which are used by the agen-
8 cy in making any determination about an indi-
9 vidual are of such accuracy, relevance, timeli-
10 ness, and completeness as is reasonably nec-11 essary to assure fairness to the individual in the 12 determination, and upon request of the indi-
13 vidual, provide documentation of the same;

14 “(F) prior to disseminating any record 15 about an individual to any person other than an 16 agency, unless the dissemination is made pursu-17 ant to subsection (b)(2) of this section, make 18 reasonable efforts to assure that such records 19 are accurate, complete, timely, and relevant for 20 agency purposes;

21 “(G) maintain no record describing how 22 any individual exercises rights guaranteed by 23 the First Amendment unless expressly author-24 ized by statute or by the individual about whom 25 the record is maintained or unless pertinent to,

1 and within the scope of, an authorized law en-
2 forcement activity;

3 “(H) make reasonable efforts to notify an 4 individual as promptly as practicable after the 5 agency receives compulsory legal process for 6 any record on the individual, unless that notifi-
7 cation is prohibited by law or court order;

8 “(I) establish rules of conduct for persons
9 involved in the design, development, operation, 10 or maintenance of any system of records, or in 11 maintaining any record, and instruct each such 12 person with respect to such rules and the re-13 quirements of this section, including any other 14 rules and procedures adopted pursuant to this 15 section and the penalties for noncompliance;

16 “(J) establish appropriate administrative, 17 technical, and physical safeguards to insure the 18 security and confidentiality of records and to 19 protect against any anticipated threats or haz-
20 ards to their security or integrity which could 21 result in substantial harm, embarrassment, in-22 convenience, or unfairness to any individual on 23 whom information is maintained;

1 “(K) in regards to the establishment or re-
2 vision of a system of records under subpara-
3 graph (D)—

4 “(i) at least 30 days prior to creation
5 or modification of a system of records,
6 publish the entire text of the proposed sys-
7 tem of records notice in the Federal Reg-
8 ister and on the centralized website estab-
9 lished under subparagraph (D);

10 “(ii) provide an opportunity for inter-
11 ested persons to submit written or elec-12 tronic data, views, or arguments to the 13 agency regarding the proposed system of 14 records notice;

15 “(iii) within 180 days after publica-
16 tion of a proposed system of records no-
17 tice, publish on the centralized website es-
18 tablished under subparagraph (D), a re-
19 sponse to the comments received, along 20 with notice of whether the system of 21 records notice as published has taken ef-22 fect; and

23 “(iv) provide a link to the centralized
24 website from the website of the agency,

1 unless the Director of the Office of Manage-
2 ment and Budget, through the Federal Chief
3 Privacy Officer grants an exception, and that 4 exception is published promptly in the Federal 5 Register and on the centralized website estab-
6 lished under subparagraph (D), including a link 7 from the agency’s website;

8 “(L) if such agency is a recipient agency 9 or a source agency in a matching program with 10 a non-Federal agency, with respect to any es-
11 tablishment or revision of a matching program, 12 at least 30 days prior to conducting such pro-13 gram, publish in the Federal Register notice of 14 such establishment or revision;

15 “(M) shall—

16 “(i) maintain an inventory on the 17 number and scope of the systems of 18 records of that agency in a manner that 19 clearly and fairly describes activities of the 20 agency to individuals; and 21 “(ii) ensure that the inventory—

22 “(I) is annually updated and 23 published in the Federal Register, on 24 the website established under sub-

1 paragraph (D), and on the agency’s 2 website; and

3 “(II) does not contain any infor-4 mation that would be exempted from 5 disclosure under this section or sec-6 tion 522 of this title; and

7 “(N) make reasonable efforts to limit dis-
8 closure from a system of records to minimum 9 information necessary to accomplish the pur-
10 pose of the disclosure.”.

23 of collecting, transmitting, or providing access to 24 personally identifiable information concerning more 25 than 5,000 individuals who are not the customers or 26 employees of that person or entity (or an affiliated

1 entity) primarily for the purposes of providing such 2 information to non-affiliated third parties on an 3 interstate basis.

4 “§ 3563. Authority and functions of the Director

5 “(a) In fulfilling the responsibility to administer the 6 functions assigned under subchapter I, the Director of the 7 Office of Management and Budget shall comply with this 8 subchapter with respect to the specific matters covered by 9 this subchapter.

10 “(b) The Director shall oversee agency privacy pro-11 tection policies and practices, including by—

12 “(1) developing and overseeing the implementa-
13 tion of policies, principles, standards, and guidelines
14 on privacy protection;

15 “(2) providing direction and overseeing privacy, 16 confidentiality, security, disclosure, and sharing of 17 information;

18 “(3) overseeing agency compliance with laws re-19 lating to privacy protection, including the require-
20 ments of this subchapter, section 552a of title 5
21 (commonly referred to as the Privacy Act), and sec-
22 tion 208 of the E-Government Act of 2002;

23 “(4) coordinating privacy protection policies
24 and procedures with related information resources
25 management policies and procedures, including

1 through ensuring that privacy protection consider-
 2 ations are taken into account in managing the col-
 3 lection of information and the control of paperwork 4 as provided under subchapter I; and

5 “(5) appointing a Federal Chief Privacy Officer
 6 under section 3564.

7 “§ 3564. Specific responsibilities of the Federal Chief
 8 Privacy Officer

9 “(a) FEDERAL CHIEF PRIVACY OFFICER.—

10 “(1) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

11 “(A) the term ‘Senior Executive Service
 12 position’ has the meaning given under section 13 3132(a)(2) of title 5; and 14 “(B) the term ‘noncareer appointee’ has 15 the meaning given under section 3132(a)(7) of 16 title 5.

17 “(2) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is established
 18 the position of the Federal Chief Privacy Officer 19 within the Office of Management and Budget. The 20 position shall be a Senior Executive Service position.
 21 The Director shall appoint a noncareer appointee to 22 the position. The primary responsibilities of the posi-
 23 tion shall be the responsibilities under subsection 24 (b).

1 “(3) QUALIFICATIONS.—The individual ap-2 pointed to be the Federal Chief Privacy Officer shall 3 possess demonstrated expertise in privacy protection
4 policy and Government information.

5 “(b) RESPONSIBILITIES.—The Federal Chief Privacy
6 Officer shall—

7 “(1) carry out the responsibilities of the Direc-
8 tor under this subchapter;

9 “(2) provide overall direction, consistent with 10 the Office of Management and Budget guidance, 11 section 552a of title 5 (commonly referred to as the 12 Privacy Act), and section 208 of the E-Government 13 Act of 2002, of privacy policy governing the Federal 14 Government’s collection, use, sharing, disclosure,
15 transfer, storage, security, and disposition of person-
16 ally identifiable information;

17 “(3) to the extent that the Federal Chief Pri-
18 vacy Officer considers appropriate, establish proce-
19 dures to review and approve privacy documentation
20 before public dissemination;

21 “(4) serve as the principal advisor for Federal 22 privacy policy matters to the Executive Office of the 23 President, including the President, the Director, the 24 National Security Council, the Homeland Security

1 Council, and the Office of Science and Technology
2 Policy;

3 “(5) coordinate with the Privacy and Civil Lib-
4 erties Oversight Board established under section
5 1061 of the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Pre-6 vention Act of 2004 (5 U.S.C. 601 note); and 7 “(6) every 2 years submit a report to Congress

8 on the protection of privacy by the United States
9 Government, including the status of implementation 10 of requirements under this subchapter and other pri-
11 vacy related laws and policies.

12 “§ 3565. Privacy breach requirements

13 “The Director shall establish and oversee policies and 14 procedures for agencies to follow in the event of a breach 15 of information security involving the disclosure of person-16 ally identifiable information and for which harm to an in-17 dividual could reasonably be expected to result, includ-
18 ing—

19 “(1) a requirement for timely notice to be pro-20 vided to those individuals whose personally identifi-21 able information could be compromised as a result of 22 such breach, except no notice shall be required if the 23 breach does not create a reasonable risk of identity 24 theft, fraud, or other unlawful conduct regarding 25 such individual;

1 “(2) guidance on determining how timely notice
2 is to be provided;

3 “(3) guidance regarding whether additional ac-
4 tions are necessary and appropriate, including data
5 breach analysis, fraud resolution services, identity
6 theft insurance, and credit protection or monitoring 7 services; and

8 “(4) requirements for timely reporting by the 9 agencies of such breaches to the director and the 10 Federal information security incident center referred 11 to in section 3546.

12 “§ 3566. Agency responsibilities

13 “(a) IN GENERAL.—In addition to requirements
14 under section 1062 of the National Security Intelligence
15 Reform Act of 2004, and in fulfilling the responsibilities 16 under section 3506(g), the head of each agency shall en-
17 sure compliance with laws relating to privacy protection, 18 including the requirements of this subchapter, section
19 552a of title 5 (commonly referred to as the Privacy Act), 20 and section 208 of the E-Government Act of 2002.

21 “(b) CHIEF PRIVACY OFFICERS.—In the case of an 22 agency that has not designated a Chief Privacy Officer
23 under section 522 of the Transportation, Treasury, Inde-
24 pendent Agencies and General Government Appropria-

1 tions Act, 2005 (42 U.S.C. 2000ee-2), the head of each 2 agency shall—

3 “(1) designate a senior official to be the chief 4 privacy officer of that agency; and 5 “(2) provide to the chief privacy officer such in-6 formation as the officer considers necessary.

7 “(c) RESPONSIBILITIES OF AGENCY CHIEF PRIVACY
8 OFFICER.—Each chief privacy officer shall have primary 9 responsibility for assuring the adequacy of privacy protec-
10 tions for personally identifiable information collected, 11 used, or disclosed by the agency, including—

12 “(1) ensuring that the use of technologies sus-13 tain, and do not erode, privacy protections relating 14 to the use, collection, and disclosure of personal in-15 formation, including through the conduct of privacy 16 impact assessments as provided by section 208 of 17 the E-Government Act of 2002;

18 “(2) ensuring that personal information is han-
19 dled in full compliance with fair information prac-20 tices under section 552a of title 5 (commonly re-21 ferred to as the Privacy Act) and other applicable
22 laws and policies;

23 “(3) evaluating legislative and regulatory pro-24 posals involving collection, use, and disclosure of 25 personally identifiable information;

1 “(4) coordinating with the chief information of-
2 ficer to ensure that privacy is adequately addressed
3 in the agency information security program, estab-
4 lished under section 3544;

5 “(5) coordinating with other senior officials to 6 ensure programs, policies, and procedures involving 7 civil rights, civil liberties, and privacy considerations
8 addressed in an integrated and comprehensive man-9 ner; and

10 “(6) reporting periodically to the head of the 11 agency on agency privacy protection activities.

12 “§ 3567. Chief Privacy Officers Council
