

113TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 1096

To provide funds to State courts for the provision of legal representation to parents and legal guardians with respect to child welfare cases.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 12, 2013

Ms. MOORE introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

A BILL

To provide funds to State courts for the provision of legal representation to parents and legal guardians with respect to child welfare cases.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Enhancing the Quality
5 of Parental Legal Representation Act of 2013”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) In the Strengthening Abuse and Neglect
9 Courts Act of 2000, the Congress found that “under 10 both Federal and State law, the courts play a crucial

1 and essential role in the Nation’s child welfare sys-
2 tem and in ensuring safety, stability, and perma-
3 nence for abused and neglected children under the 4 supervision of that system”.

5 (2) Child outcomes are improved and courts
6 function more effectively when all parties have qual-
7 ity legal representation. Analysis of data from pro-
8 grams in New York and Michigan revealed that 9 more than 50 percent of children avoided unneces-
10 sary foster care placement when all parties received
11 high quality representation. According to the Amer-
12 ican Bar Association, a pilot program in the State
13 of Washington to improve representation for parents 14 resulted in “a 53.3 percent increase in the rate of 15 reunification”.

16 (3) In New York, children placed in foster care
17 whose parents receive high quality legal representa-
18 tion spent on average 4.5 months in placement com-
19 pared to a statewide average of 2½ years and re-
20 entry rates of 1 percent compared to 15 percent
21 statewide.

22 (4) According to the American Bar Association, 23 the cost per family for high quality legal services in 24 New York was approximately $6,000 over the life of 25 a case as compared to anywhere from $29,000 to

1 $66,000 for 1 year of foster care for a child in New 2 York City in 2010.

3 (5) Training and standards of representation
4 are necessary to ensure qualified representation. Ac-
5 cording to the American Bar Association Center on 6 Children and the Law, parental representation is 7 “often substandard, resulting in the failure of due
8 process in these cases. As a result, numerous chil-9 dren are needlessly separated from their parents for 10 extended periods of time and in many cases families
11 are permanently severed through termination of pa-
12 rental rights orders” and most States have no stand-13 ard training requirements for attorneys representing 14 parents in their State.
