A BILL

To amend the Older Americans Act of 1965 to authorize Federal assistance to State adult protective services programs, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; FINDINGS.

(a) Short Title.—This Act may be cited as the “Elder Protection and Abuse Prevention Act”.

(b) Findings.—Congress finds the following:

(1) In 2009, the Department of Justice estimated that 14.1 percent of non-institutionalized older adults in the United States had experienced some form of elder abuse in the past year.

(2) Only 1 in 23.5 cases of elder abuse is ever reported due to a lack of screening, awareness, and prevention efforts.

(3) The mortality rate of older adults who are victims of abuse is 3 times higher than older adults that are not victims of abuse.

(4) The annual financial loss by victims of elder financial abuse is estimated to be at least $2,900,000,000, and steadily increasing.

SEC. 2. ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES; DEFINITIONS.

Section 102 of the Older Americans Act of 1965 (42
U.S.C. 3002) is amended—

(1) by amending paragraph (1) to read as follows:

“(1) ABUSE.—The term ‘abuse’ means the knowing infliction of physical or psychological harm or the knowing deprivation of goods or services that are necessary to meet essential needs or to avoid physical or psychological harm.”;

(2) by redesignating paragraphs (4) through
(54) as paragraphs (5) through (55);

(3) by inserting after paragraph (3), the following:
“(4) ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES.—The term ‘adult protective services’ means such services provided to adults as the Secretary may specify and includes services such as—

“(A) receiving reports of adult abuse, neglect, or exploitation;

“(B) investigating the reports described in subparagraph (A);

“(C) case planning, monitoring, evaluation, and other case work and services; and

“(D) providing, arranging for, or facilitating the provision of medical, social service, economic, legal, housing, law enforcement, or other protective, emergency, or support services.”;

(4) by amending paragraph (18), as so redesignated, to read as follows:

“(18) ELDER JUSTICE.—The term ‘elder justice’ means—

“(A) from a societal perspective, efforts to—

“(i) prevent, detect, treat, intervene in, and prosecute elder abuse, neglect, and exploitation; and “(ii) protect older individuals with diminished capacity while maximizing their autonomy; and

“(B) from an individual perspective, the recognition of an older individual’s rights, including the right to be free of abuse, neglect, and exploitation.”;

(5) In paragraph (19), as so redesignated, by striking “The term ‘exploitation’ means” and inserting “The terms ‘exploitation’ and ‘financial exploitation’ mean”;

(6) In paragraph (25), as so redesignated—

(A) in subparagraph (B), by striking “and”;

(B) in subparagraph (C), by striking the period at the end and inserting “; and”; and

(C) by adding at the end the following:

“(D) abuse, neglect (including self-neglect), financial exploitation, including factors that are the basis of a referral to adult protective services.”;

(7) In paragraph (29)(C), as so redesignated, by inserting “, including opportunities for work and volunteer service in the community” after “available”;
(8) in paragraph (30), as so redesignated, by striking “information and referral” and inserting “information and referral assistance”; and
(9) in paragraph (37), as so redesignated, by inserting “(including elder abuse and neglect screening)” after “educational services”.

SEC. 3. COORDINATION OF ELDER JUSTICE ACTIVITIES.

(a) USE OF FUNDS.—Section 201 of the Older Americans Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. 3011) is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(g) The Assistant Secretary is authorized to use funds appropriated to carry out this Act to implement activities authorized under part I of subtitle B of title XX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1397k et seq.), including the establishment of the Advisory Board on Elder Abuse, Neglect, and Exploitation and the continuation of the work of the Elder Justice Coordinating Council.”.

(b) ASSURANCE OF APPROPRIATE TRAINING FOR STAFF.—Section 202 of the Older Americans Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. 3012) is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(g) The Assistant Secretary shall—
“(1) ensure, where appropriate, that all programs funded under this Act include appropriate training in prevention and provision of services that address elder justice and exploitation; and “(2) periodically update the need for and benefit of such training related to prevention of abuse, neglect, and exploitation of older adults.”.

(e) INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE SERVICES.—Section 202(a)(21) of the Older Americans Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. 3012(a)(21)) is amended to read as follows:

“(21)(A) establish information and assistance services as priority services for older individuals, and ensure that quality information and assistance services are consistently provided to older individuals;

“(B) ensure that there is full collaboration between all governmental information and assistance systems that serve older individuals, whether specialized, crisis intervention, disaster assistance, or others; and “(C) develop and operate, either directly or through contracts, grants, or cooperative agreements, a National Eldercare Locator Service, providing information and assistance services through a nationwide toll free number to identify community resources for older individuals;”.

(d) INTEGRATION OF TITLES.—Section 701 of the Older Americans Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. 3058) is amended by adding at the end the following: “The Assistant Secretary, to the maximum extent practicable, shall ensure there be full integration of education and public awareness activities under this title with all service programs under title III with special emphasis on the nutrition programs, legal services, information and referral assistance activities, the work of aging and disability resource centers, and the long-term care ombudsman programs, including programs carried out under title VI.”.

SEC. 4. COORDINATION OF NATIONAL ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES RESOURCE CENTER WITH ELDER ABUSE AND EXPLOITATION PREVENTION.

Subsection (e)(2) of section 201 of the Older Americans Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. 3011) is amended in the matter preceding subparagraph (A) by inserting “, and in coordination with State Directors of the Adult Protective Services Programs and State Directors of the Office of Long-Term Care Ombudsman Programs” after “and services”.

SEC. 5. NATIONAL ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES RESOURCE CENTER.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 201 of the Older Americans Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. 3011), as amended by section 3, is further amended by adding at the end the following: “(h)(1) The Assistant Secretary shall, by grant or contract with a national nonprofit entity, establish a National Adult Protective Services Resource Center (referred to in this subsection as the ‘Center’). The purposes of the Center are to improve the capacity of State and local adult protective services programs to respond effectively to abuse, neglect, and exploitation of vulnerable adults, including home care consumers and residents of long-term care facilities, and to coordinate with the Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program to protect home care consumers and residents most effectively.

“(2) The nonprofit entity awarded a grant or contract under this subsection shall have expertise in, and representation by, State and local adult protective services programs.

“(3) The Center shall—

“(A) collect and disseminate information regarding, and increase public awareness of, the role of adult protective services programs in investigating the abuse, neglect (including self-neglect), and exploitation of vulnerable adults, including home care consumers and residents of long-term care facilities, and in intervening to protect the consumers and residents from abuse;

“(B) develop, distribute, and provide training and technical assistance for adult protective services program investigators and supervisors investigating the abuse, neglect (including self-neglect), and ex-exploitation of vulnerable adults, including home care consumers and residents of long-term care facilities, and intervening to protect the consumers and residents from further abuse;

“(C) develop, distribute, and provide training to home care and long-term care professionals and others on recognizing, reporting (including regarding mandatory reporting requirements), and responding to the abuse, neglect (including self-neglect), and financial exploitation of vulnerable adults, including home care consumers and residents of long-term care facilities;

“(D) compile and disseminate reports on research and best practices for adult protective services programs and other programs on effective responses to the abuse, neglect (including self-neglect), and exploitation of vulnerable adults, including home care consumers and residents of long-term care facilities;

“(E) work with the National Ombudsman Resource Center and long-term care ombudsman programs to develop and disseminate training, practice standards, and policies regarding—

“(i) the roles and responsibilities of adult protective services and ombudsman programs;
“(ii) confidentiality and abuse reporting issues and protocols; and “(iii) effective ways to maximize the resources of adult protective services programs for the benefit of home care consumers and residents of long-term care facilities; and “(F) establish a data system to collect information on the abuse, neglect (including self-neglect), and exploitation of home care consumers and residents of long-term care facilities and to measure the effectiveness of the activities carried out by the Center.
“(4) Not later than 18 months after the date of enactment of the Elder Protection and Abuse Prevention Act, the Director shall—
“(A) collect and analyze, from leading national and State experts, the best practices related to screening for elder abuse;
“(B) publish a report that describes recommendations regarding such best practices and disseminate such report to all grantees under programs established under this Act and described under this section; and “(C) submit to Congress such report and a description of the dissemination activities under subparagraph (B).

“(5) In this subsection, the term ‘home care consumer’ means a person who receives services in the person’s home or community to promote independence and reduce the necessity for residence in a long-term care facility, which may include home care services provided through this Act, the Medicare program under title XVIII of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395 et seq.), the Medicaid program under title XIX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396 et seq.), or another public or private funding source.”.
