9 interests and shared values.

10 (2) Today, the people and Governments of the 11 United States and of Israel are facing a dynamic 12 and rapidly changing security environment in the 13 Middle East and North Africa, necessitating deeper 14 cooperation on a range of defense, security, and in-

16 (3) From Gaza, Hamas continues to deny
17 Israel’s right to exist and persists in firing rockets
18 indiscriminately at population centers in Israel.

19 (4) Hezbollah—with support from Iran—con-
20 tinues to stockpile rockets and may be seeking to ex-
21 ploit the tragic and volatile security situation within 22 Syria.

23 (5) The Government of Iran continues to pose
24 a grave threat to the region and the world at large 25 with its reckless pursuit of nuclear weapons.

1 (6) Given these challenges, it is imperative that
2 the United States continues to deepen cooperation
3 with allies like Israel in pursuit of shared policy ob-
4 jectives.

5 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

13 and ensure its implementation to the fullest extent;

14 (3) to reaffirm the importance of the 2007
15 United States-Israel Memorandum of Understanding 16 on United States assistance to Israel and the semi-17 annual Strategic Dialogue between the United 18 States and Israel;

19 (4) to pursue every opportunity to deepen co-
20 operation with Israel on a range of critical issues in-21 cluding defense, homeland security, energy, and cy-
22 bersecurity;

23 (5) to continue to provide Israel with robust se-24 curity assistance, including for the procurement of 25 the Iron Dome Missile Defense System; and

1 (6) to support the Government of Israel in its 2 ongoing efforts to reach a negotiated political settle-
3 ment with the Palestinian people that results in two 4 states living side-by-side in peace and security.
