7 (a) OVERALL TRADE NEGOTIATING OBJECTIVES.—The 8 overall trade negotiating objectives of the United States for 9 agreements subject to the provisions of section 103 are— 10 (1) to obtain more open, equitable, and recip-
11 rocal market access;
12 (2) to obtain the reduction or elimination of bar-
13 riers and distortions that are directly related to trade
14 and investment and that decrease market opportuni-

1 ties for United States exports or otherwise distort
2 United States trade;

3 (3) to further strengthen the system of inter-
4 national trade and investment disciplines and proce-
5 dures, including dispute settlement;

6 (4) to foster economic growth, raise living stand- 7 ards, enhance the competitiveness of the United 8 States, promote full employment in the United States,
9 and enhance the global economy;

10 (5) to ensure that trade and environmental poli- 11 cies are mutually supportive and to seek to protect 12 and preserve the environment and enhance the inter-
13 national means of doing so, while optimizing the use
14 of the world's resources;

15 (6) to promote respect for worker rights and the 16 rights of children consistent with core labor standards
17 of the ILO (as set out in section 111(7)) and an un- 18 derstanding of the relationship between trade and 19 worker rights;

20 (7) to seek provisions in trade agreements under 21 which parties to those agreements ensure that they do
22 not weaken or reduce the protections afforded in do- 23 mestic environmental and labor laws as an encour-
24 agement for trade;

1           (8) to ensure that trade agreements afford small 2 businesses equal access to international markets, equi-
3 table trade benefits, and expanded export market op-
4 portunities, and provide for the reduction or elimi-
5 nation of trade and investment barriers that dis-
6 proportionately impact small businesses;

7           (9) to promote universal ratification and full 8 compliance with ILO Convention No. 182 Concerning 9 the Prohibition and Immediate Action for the Elimini-10 nation of the Worst Forms of Child Labor;

11           (10) to ensure that trade agreements reflect and 12 facilitate the increasingly interrelated, multi-sectoral 13 nature of trade and investment activity;

14           (11) to recognize the growing significance of the 15 Internet as a trading platform in international com-16 merce;

17           (12) to take into account other legitimate United 18 States domestic objectives, including, but not limited 19 to, the protection of legitimate health or safety, essen-20 tial security, and consumer interests and the law and 21 regulations related thereto; and

22           (13) to take into account conditions relating to 23 religious freedom of any party to negotiations for a 24 trade agreement with the United States.

25           (b) PRINCIPAL TRADE NEGOTIATING OBJECTIVES.—

1           (1) TRADE IN GOODS.—The principal negoti-
2 ating objectives of the United States regarding trade 3 in goods are—

4                   (A) to expand competitive market opportu-
5 nities for exports of goods from the United States
6 and to obtain fairer and more open conditions of 7 trade, including through the utilization of global 8 value chains, by reducing or eliminating tariff
9 and nontariff barriers and policies and practices
10 of foreign governments directly related to trade 11 that decrease market opportunities for United 12 States exports or otherwise distort United States 13 trade; and

14                   (B) to obtain reciprocal tariff and nontariff 15 barrier elimination agreements, including with 16 respect to those tariff categories covered in sec-
17 tion 111(b) of the Uruguay Round Agreements
18 Act (19 U.S.C. 3521(b)).

19           (2) TRADE IN SERVICES.—(A) The principal ne-
20 gotiating objective of the United States regarding 21 trade in services is to expand competitive market op-
22 portunities for United States services and to obtain 23 fairer and more open conditions of trade, including 24 through utilization of global value chains, by reducing 25 or eliminating barriers to international trade in serv-

1 ices, such as regulatory and other barriers that deny
2 national treatment and market access or unreason-
3 ably restrict the establishment or operations of service 4 suppliers.

5 (B) Recognizing that expansion of trade in serv-
6 ices generates benefits for all sectors of the economy
7 and facilitates trade, the objective described in sub-
8 paragraph (A) should be pursued through all means, 9 including through a plurilateral agreement with those 10 countries willing and able to undertake high standard 11 services commitments for both existing and new serv- 12 ices.

13 (3) TRADE IN AGRICULTURE.—The principal ne-
14 gotiating objective of the United States with respect to 15 agriculture is to obtain competitive opportunities for 16 United States exports of agricultural commodities in 17 foreign markets substantially equivalent to the com- 18 petitive opportunities afforded foreign exports in 19 United States markets and to achieve fairer and more 20 open conditions of trade in bulk, specialty crop, and 21 value added commodities by—

22 (A) securing more open and equitable mar- 23 ket access through robust rules on sanitary and 24 phytosanitary measures that—

1           (i) encourage the adoption of inter-
2           national standards and require a science-
3           based justification be provided for a sani-
4           tary or phytosanitary measure if the meas-
5           ure is more restrictive than the applicable
6           international standard;

7           (ii) improve regulatory coherence, pro-
8           mote the use of systems-based approaches, 9           and appropriately recognize the equivalence 10          of health and safety protection systems of 11          exporting countries;

12          (iii) require that measures are trans-13          parently developed and implemented, are 14          based on risk assessments that take into ac-15          count relevant international guidelines and 16          scientific data, and are not more restrictive 17          on trade than necessary to meet the in-18          tended purpose; and 19          (iv) improve import check processes, 20          including testing methodologies and proce-

21          dures, and certification requirements, 22          while recognizing that countries may put in 23          place measures to protect human, animal, or 24          plant life or health in a manner consistent with 25          their international obligations, including the

1            WTO Agreement on the Application of Sanitary
2            and Phytosanitary Measures (referred to in sec-
3            tion 101(d)(3) of the Uruguay Round Agree-
4            ments Act (19 U.S.C. 3511(d)(3)));

5            (B) reducing or eliminating, by a date cer-
6            tain, tariffs or other charges that decrease mar-
7            ket opportunities for United States exports—

8            (i) giving priority to those products
9            that are subject to significantly higher tar- 10           iffs or subsidy regimes of major producing 11           countries; and

12           (ii) providing reasonable adjustment
13           periods for United States import sensitive
14           products, in close consultation with Con-
15           gress on such products before initiating tar- 16           iff reduction negotiations;

17           (C) reducing tariffs to levels that are the 18           same as or lower than those in the United States;

19           (D) reducing or eliminating subsidies that 20           decrease market opportunities for United States
21           exports or unfairly distort agriculture markets to 22           the detriment of the United States;

23           (E) allowing the preservation of programs
24           that support family farms and rural commu-
25           nities but do not distort trade;

1           (F) developing disciplines for domestic sup-
2 port programs, so that production that is in ex- 3 cess of domestic food security needs is sold at 4 world prices;

5           (G) eliminating government policies that 6 create price depressing surpluses;

7           (H) eliminating state trading enterprises
8 whenever possible;

9           (I) developing, strengthening, and clarifying
10 rules to eliminate practices that unfairly de-
11 crease United States market access opportunities
12 or distort agricultural markets to the detriment 13 of the United States, and ensuring that such 14 rules are subject to efficient, timely, and effective 15 dispute settlement, including—

16           (i) unfair or trade distorting activities
17 of state trading enterprises and other ad- 18 ministrative mechanisms, with emphasis on 19 requiring price transparency in the oper- 20 ation of state trading enterprises and such 21 other mechanisms in order to end cross sub-
22 sidization, price discrimination, and price
23 undercutting;

24           (ii) unjustified trade restrictions or 25 commercial requirements, such as labeling,

1           that affect new technologies, including bio-
2           technology;

3                   (iii) unjustified sanitary or 4           phytosanitary restrictions, including re-
5           strictions not based on scientific principles
6           in contravention of obligations in the Uru-
7           guay Round Agreements or bilateral or re-8           gional trade agreements;

9                   (iv) other unjustified technical barriers 10          to trade; and

11                   (v) restrictive rules in the administra-
12          tion of tariff rate quotas;

13                   (J) eliminating practices that adversely af-
14          fect trade in perishable or cyclical products, 15          while improving import relief mechanisms to 16          recognize the unique characteristics of perishable 17          and cyclical agriculture;

18                   (K) ensuring that import relief mechanisms
19          for perishable and cyclical agriculture are as ac-20          cessible and timely to growers in the United 21          States as those mechanisms that are used by 22          other countries;

23                   (L) taking into account whether a party to 24          the negotiations has failed to adhere to the provi-25          sions of already existing trade agreements with

1           the United States or has circumvented obliga-
2           tions under those agreements;

3           (M) taking into account whether a product
4           is subject to market distortions by reason of a 5           failure of a major producing country to adhere 6           to the provisions of already existing trade agree-
7           ments with the United States or by the cir-
8           cumvention by that country of its obligations
9           under those agreements;

10           (N) otherwise ensuring that countries that 11           accede to the World Trade Organization have 12           made meaningful market liberalization commit-
13           ments in agriculture;

14           (O) taking into account the impact that 15           agreements covering agriculture to which the 16           United States is a party have on the United 17           States agricultural industry;

18           (P) maintaining bona fide food assistance 19           programs, market development programs, and 20           export credit programs;

21           (Q) seeking to secure the broadest market
22           access possible in multilateral, regional, and bi- 23           lateral negotiations, recognizing the effect that si- 24           multaneous sets of negotiations may have on

1            United States import sensitive commodities (in- 2            cluding those subject to tariff rate quotas);

3            (R) seeking to develop an international con-
4            sensus on the treatment of seasonal or perishable 5            agricultural products in investigations relating 6            to dumping and safeguards and in any other rel-
7            evant area;

8            (S) seeking to establish the common base
9            year for calculating the Aggregated Measurement
10           of Support (as defined in the Agreement on Agri- 11           culture) as the end of each country's Uruguay 12           Round implementation period, as reported in 13           each country's Uruguay Round market access 14           schedule;

15           (T) ensuring transparency in the adminis-
16           tration of tariff rate quotas through multilateral, 17           plurilateral, and bilateral negotiations; and

18           (U) eliminating and preventing the under-
19           mining of market access for United States prod-
20           ucts through improper use of a country's system
21           for protecting or recognizing geographical indi-
22           cations, including failing to ensure transparency
23           and procedural fairness and protecting generic
24           terms.

1           (4) FOREIGN INVESTMENT.—Recognizing that
2           United States law on the whole provides a high level
3           of protection for investment, consistent with or great- 4           er than the level required by international law, the 5           principal negotiating objectives of the United States
6           regarding foreign investment are to reduce or elimi-
7           nate artificial or trade distorting barriers to foreign 8           investment, while ensuring that foreign investors in 9           the United States are not accorded greater substantive 10          rights with respect to investment protections than 11          United States investors in the United States, and to 12          secure for investors important rights comparable to 13          those that would be available under United States
14          legal principles and practice, by—

15                   (A) reducing or eliminating exceptions to 16                   the principle of national treatment;

17                   (B) freeing the transfer of funds relating to 18                   investments;

19                   (C) reducing or eliminating performance re- 20                   quirements, forced technology transfers, and 21                   other unreasonable barriers to the establishment 22                   and operation of investments;

23                   (D) seeking to establish standards for expro-
24                   priation and compensation for expropriation,

1           consistent with United States legal principles
2           and practice;

3           (E) seeking to establish standards for fair
4           and equitable treatment, consistent with United 5           States legal principles and practice, including 6           the principle of due process;

7           (F) providing meaningful procedures for re-
8           solving investment disputes;

9           (G) seeking to improve mechanisms used to 10          resolve disputes between an investor and a gov-
11          ernment through—

12           (i) mechanisms to eliminate frivolous
13           claims and to deter the filing of frivolous 14           claims;

15           (ii) procedures to ensure the efficient
16           selection of arbitrators and the expeditious
17           disposition of claims;

18           (iii) procedures to enhance opportuni-
19           ties for public input into the formulation of 20           government positions; and

21           (iv) providing for an appellate body or 22           similar mechanism to provide coherence to 23           the interpretations of investment provisions 24           in trade agreements; and

1           (H) ensuring the fullest measure of trans-2           parency in the dispute settlement mechanism, to 3           the extent consistent with the need to protect in-4           formation that is classified or business confiden-
5           tial, by—

6                   (i) ensuring that all requests for dis-
7                   pute settlement are promptly made public;

8                   (ii) ensuring that—

9                           (I) all proceedings, submissions, 10                           findings, and decisions are promptly 11                           made public; and 12                           (II) all hearings are open to the 13                           public; and 14                   (iii) establishing a mechanism for ac-15                   ceptance of amicus curiae submissions from 16                   businesses, unions, and nongovernmental or-17                   ganizations.

18           (5) INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY.—The principal 19           negotiating objectives of the United States regarding 20           trade-related intellectual property are—

21                   (A) to further promote adequate and effec-22                   tive protection of intellectual property rights, in-23                   cluding through—

24                           (i)(I) ensuring accelerated and full im-
25                           plementation of the Agreement on Trade-Re-

1 lated Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights
2 referred to in section 101(d)(15) of the Uru-
3 guay Round Agreements Act (19 U.S.C.
4 3511(d)(15)), particularly with respect to 5 meeting enforcement obligations under that 6 agreement; and

7 (II) ensuring that the provisions of 8 any trade agreement governing intellectual 9 property rights that is entered into by the 10 United States reflect a standard of protec-
11 tion similar to that found in United States 12 law;

13 (ii) providing strong protection for 14 new and emerging technologies and new 15 methods of transmitting and distributing 16 products embodying intellectual property,
17 including in a manner that facilitates le-
18 gitimate digital trade;

19 (iii) preventing or eliminating dis-
20 crimination with respect to matters affect- 21 ing the availability, acquisition, scope,
22 maintenance, use, and enforcement of intel-
23 lectual property rights;

24 (iv) ensuring that standards of protec-
25 tion and enforcement keep pace with techno-

1            logical developments, and in particular en-
2            sureing that rightholders have the legal and

4            their works through the Internet and other
5            global communication media, and to pre- 6            vent the unauthorized use of their works;

7            (v) providing strong enforcement of in-
8            tellectual property rights, including through 9            accessible, expeditious, and effective civil,
10           administrative, and criminal enforcement 11           mechanisms; and

12           (vi) preventing or eliminating govern-
13           ment involvement in the violation of intel- 14           lectual property rights, including cyber theft
15           and piracy;

16           (B) to secure fair, equitable, and non- 17           discriminatory market access opportunities for 18           United States persons that rely upon intellectual 19           property protection; and

20           (C) to respect the Declaration on the TRIPS
21           Agreement and Public Health, adopted by the 22           World Trade Organization at the Fourth Min-
23           isterial Conference at Doha, Qatar on November 24           14, 2001, and to ensure that trade agreements

1        foster innovation and promote access to medi-
2        cines.

3        (6) DIGITAL TRADE IN GOODS AND SERVICES
4        AND CROSS-BORDER DATA FLOWS.—The principal ne-
5        gotiating objectives of the United States with respect 6        to digital trade in goods and services, as well as 7        cross-border data flows, are—

8                (A) to ensure that current obligations, rules,
9                disciplines, and commitments under the World
10               Trade Organization and bilateral and regional 11               trade agreements apply to digital trade in goods 12               and services and to cross-border data flows;

13               (B) to ensure that—

14                        (i) electronically delivered goods and 15                        services receive no less favorable treatment 16                        under trade rules and commitments than 17                        like products delivered in physical form; 18                        and

19                        (ii) the classification of such goods and 20                        services ensures the most liberal trade treat- 21                        ment possible, fully encompassing both ex-
22                        isting and new trade;

23                (C) to ensure that governments refrain from 24                implementing trade-related measures that im-
25                pede digital trade in goods and services, restrict

1           cross-border data flows, or require local storage
2           or processing of data;

3           (D) with respect to subparagraphs (A)
4           through (C), where legitimate policy objectives
5           require domestic regulations that affect digital 6           trade in goods and services or cross-border data
7           flows, to obtain commitments that any such reg- 8           ulations are the least restrictive on trade, non- 9           discriminatory, and transparent, and promote 10          an open market environment; and

11          (E) to extend the moratorium of the World
12          Trade Organization on duties on electronic 13          transmissions.

14          (7) REGULATORY PRACTICES.—The principal ne-
15          gotiating objectives of the United States regarding the 16          use of government regulation or other practices to re-
17          duce market access for United States goods, services, 18          and investments are—

19                 (A) to achieve increased transparency and 20                 opportunity for the participation of affected par- 21                 ties in the development of regulations;

22                 (B) to require that proposed regulations be 23                 based on sound science, cost benefit analysis, risk 24                 assessment, or other objective evidence;

1           (C) to establish consultative mechanisms 2           and seek other commitments, as appropriate, to 3           improve regulatory practices and promote in-4           creased regulatory coherence, including 5           through—

6                   (i) transparency in developing guide-
7                   lines, rules, regulations, and laws for gov-8                   ernment procurement and other regulatory 9                   regimes;

10                   (ii) the elimination of redundancies in 11                   testing and certification;

12                   (iii) early consultations on significant 13                   regulations;

14                   (iv) the use of impact assessments;

15                   (v) the periodic review of existing regu-16                   latory measures; and 17                   (vi) the application of good regulatory 18                   practices;

19           (D) to seek greater openness, transparency, 20           and convergence of standards development proc-
21           esses, and enhance cooperation on standards
22           issues globally;

23           (E) to promote regulatory compatibility
24           through harmonization, equivalence, or mutual 25           recognition of different regulations and stand-

1            ards and to encourage the use of international 2            and interoperable standards, as appropriate;

3            (F) to achieve the elimination of govern-
4            ment measures such as price controls and ref- 5            erence pricing which deny full market access for 6            United States products;

7            (G) to ensure that government regulatory 8            reimbursement regimes are transparent, provide 9            procedural fairness, are nondiscriminatory, and 10           provide full market access for United States 11           products; and

12           (H) to ensure that foreign governments—

13           (i) demonstrate that the collection of 14           undisclosed proprietary information is lim-
15           ited to that necessary to satisfy a legitimate 16           and justifiable regulatory interest; and

17           (ii) protect such information against 18           disclosure, except in exceptional cir- 19           cumstances to protect the public, or where 20           such information is effectively protected 21           against unfair competition.

22           (8) STATE-OWNED AND STATE-CONTROLLED EN-
23           TERPRISES.—The principal negotiating objective of 24           the United States regarding competition by state-

1 owned and state-controlled enterprises is to seek com-
2 mitments that—

3 (A) eliminate or prevent trade distortions
4 and unfair competition favoring state-owned and 5 state-controlled enterprises to the extent of their 6 engagement in commercial activity, and

7 (B) ensure that such engagement is based 8 solely on commercial considerations,
9 in particular through disciplines that eliminate or 10 prevent discrimination and market-distorting sub-
11 sidies and that promote transparency.

12 (9) LOCALIZATION BARRIERS TO TRADE.—The 13 principal negotiating objective of the United States
14 with respect to localization barriers is to eliminate 15 and prevent measures that require United States pro-
16 ducers and service providers to locate facilities, intel-
17 lectual property, or other assets in a country as a 18 market access or investment condition, including in- 19 igenous innovation measures.

20 (10) LABOR AND THE ENVIRONMENT.—The prin-
21 icipal negotiating objectives of the United States with 22 respect to labor and the environment are—

23 (A) to ensure that a party to a trade agree-
24 ment with the United States—

1           (i) adopts and maintains measures im-
2           plementing internationally recognized core
3           labor standards (as defined in section 4           111(17)) and its obligations under common 5           multilateral environmental agreements (as 6           defined in section 111(6)),

7           (ii) does not waive or otherwise dero-
8           gate from, or offer to waive or otherwise 9           derogate from—

10                   (I) its statutes or regulations im-
11                   plementing internationally recognized 12                   core labor standards (as defined in sec-13                   tion 111(17)), in a manner affecting 14                   trade or investment between the United 15                   States and that party, where the waiv-
16                   er or derogation would be inconsistent 17                   with one or more such standards, or

18                   (II) its environmental laws in a 19                   manner that weakens or reduces the 20                   protections afforded in those laws and 21                   in a manner affecting trade or invest-22                   ment between the United States and 23                   that party, except as provided in its 24                   law and provided not inconsistent with 25                   its obligations under common multilat-

1            eral environmental agreements (as de- 2            defined in section 111(6)) or other provi-
3            sions of the trade agreement specifi-
4            cally agreed upon, and

5            (iii) does not fail to effectively enforce 6            its environmental or labor laws, through a 7            sustained or recurring course of action or 8            inaction,

9            in a manner affecting trade or investment be- 10           tween the United States and that party after 11           entry into force of a trade agreement between 12           those countries;

13           (B) to recognize that—

14           (i) with respect to environment, parties
15           to a trade agreement retain the right to ex-
16           ercise prosecutorial discretion and to make 17           decisions regarding the allocation of enforce-
18           ment resources with respect to other envi-
19           ronmental laws determined to have higher
20           priorities, and a party is effectively enforce-
21           ing its laws if a course of action or inaction 22           reflects a reasonable, bona fide exercise of 23           such discretion, or results from a reason-
24           able, bona fide decision regarding the allo- 25           cation of resources; and

1           (ii) with respect to labor, decisions re-
2           garding the distribution of enforcement re-
3           sources are not a reason for not complying 4           with a party's labor obligations; a party to 5           a trade agreement retains the right to rea-6           sonable exercise of discretion and to make 7           bona fide decisions regarding the allocation
8           of resources between labor enforcement ac-
9           tivities among core labor standards, pro-10          vided the exercise of such discretion and 11          such decisions are not inconsistent with its 12          obligations;

13          (C) to strengthen the capacity of United 14          States trading partners to promote respect for 15          core labor standards (as defined in section 16          111(7));

17          (D) to strengthen the capacity of United 18          States trading partners to protect the environ-19          ment through the promotion of sustainable devel-20          opment;

21          (E) to reduce or eliminate government prac-22          tices or policies that unduly threaten sustainable 23          development;

24          (F) to seek market access, through the elimi-25          nation of tariffs and nontariff barriers, for

1           United States environmental technologies, goods,
2           and services;

3           (G) to ensure that labor, environmental,
4           health, or safety policies and practices of the 5           parties to trade agreements with the United 6           States do not arbitrarily or unjustifiably dis-
7           criminate against United States exports or serve
8           as disguised barriers to trade;

9           (H) to ensure that enforceable labor and en-
10          vironment obligations are subject to the same 11          dispute settlement and remedies as other enforce- 12          able obligations under the agreement; and

13          (I) to ensure that a trade agreement is not 14          construed to empower a party's authorities to 15          undertake labor or environmental law enforce- 16          ment activities in the territory of the United 17          States.

18          (11) CURRENCY.—The principal negotiating ob-
19          jective of the United States with respect to currency 20          practices is that parties to a trade agreement with the 21          United States avoid manipulating exchange rates in 22          order to prevent effective balance of payments adjust- 23          ment or to gain an unfair competitive advantage over 24          other parties to the agreement, such as through coop-

1 erative mechanisms, enforceable rules, reporting, mon-
2 itoring, transparency, or other means, as appropriate.

3 (12) FOREIGN CURRENCY MANIPULATION.—The
4 principal negotiating objective of the United States
5 with respect to unfair currency practices is to seek to 6 establish accountability through enforceable rules,
7 transparency, reporting, monitoring, cooperative
8 mechanisms, or other means to address exchange rate
9 manipulation involving protracted large scale inter- 10 vention in one direction in the exchange markets and 11 a persistently undervalued foreign exchange rate to 12 gain an unfair competitive advantage in trade over 13 other parties to a trade agreement, consistent with ex-
14 isting obligations of the United States as a member
15 of the International Monetary Fund and the World
16 Trade Organization.

17 (13) WTO AND MULTILATERAL TRADE AGREE-
18 MENTS.—Recognizing that the World Trade Organi-
19 zation is the foundation of the global trading system, 20 the principal negotiating objectives of the United 21 States regarding the World Trade Organization, the 22 Uruguay Round Agreements, and other multilateral 23 and plurilateral trade agreements are—

24 (A) to achieve full implementation and ex-
25 tend the coverage of the World Trade Organiza-

1            tion and multilateral and plurilateral agree-
2            ments to products, sectors, and conditions of 3            trade not adequately covered;

4            (B) to expand country participation in and 5            enhancement of the Information Technology
6            Agreement, the Government Procurement Agree- 7            ment, and other plurilateral trade agreements of 8            the World Trade Organization;

9            (C) to expand competitive market opportu-
10           nities for United States exports and to obtain 11           fairer and more open conditions of trade, includ-
12           ing through utilization of global value chains,
13           through the negotiation of new WTO multilateral 14           and plurilateral trade agreements, such as an 15           agreement on trade facilitation;

16           (D) to ensure that regional trade agree-
17           ments to which the United States is not a party
18           fully achieve the high standards of, and comply
19           with, WTO disciplines, including Article XXIV
20           of GATT 1994, Article V and V bis of the Gen- 21           eral Agreement on Trade in Services, and the 22           Enabling Clause, including through meaningful
23           WTO review of such regional trade agreements;

24           (E) to enhance compliance by WTO mem-
25           bers with their obligations as WTO members

1           through active participation in the bodies of the 2           World Trade Organization by the United States
3           and all other WTO members, including in the 4           trade policy review mechanism and the com-
5           mittee system of the World Trade Organization, 6           and by working to increase the effectiveness of 7           such bodies; and

8           (F) to encourage greater cooperation be- 9           tween the World Trade Organization and other 10          international organizations.

11          (14) TRADE INSTITUTION TRANSPARENCY.—The 12          principal negotiating objective of the United States
13          with respect to transparency is to obtain wider and 14          broader application of the principle of transparency
15          in the World Trade Organization, entities established 16          under bilateral and regional trade agreements, and 17          other international trade fora through seeking—

18                 (A) timely public access to information re- 19                 garding trade issues and the activities of such 20                 institutions;

21                 (B) openness by ensuring public access to 22                 appropriate meetings, proceedings, and submis-
23                 sions, including with regard to trade and invest- 24                 ment dispute settlement; and

1           (C) public access to all notifications and 2           supporting documentation submitted by WTO 3           members.

4           (15) ANTI-CORRUPTION.—The principal negoti-5           ating objectives of the United States with respect to 6           the use of money or other things of value to influence 7           acts, decisions, or omissions of foreign governments or 8           officials or to secure any improper advantage in a 9           manner affecting trade are—

10           (A) to obtain high standards and effective 11           domestic enforcement mechanisms applicable to 12           persons from all countries participating in the 13           applicable trade agreement that prohibit such at-14           tempts to influence acts, decisions, or omissions 15           of foreign governments or officials or to secure 16           any such improper advantage;

17           (B) to ensure that such standards level the 18           playing field for United States persons in inter-19           national trade and investment; and 20           (C) to seek commitments to work jointly to 21           encourage and support anti-corruption and anti-22           bribery initiatives in international trade fora, 23           including through the Convention on Combating 24           Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in Inter-

25           national Business Transactions of the Organiza-

1            tion for Economic Cooperation and Development, 2            done at Paris December 17, 1997 (commonly 3            known as the “OECD Anti-Bribery Conven- 4            tion”).

5            (16) DISPUTE SETTLEMENT AND ENFORCE- 6            MENT.—The principal negotiating objectives of the 7            United States with respect to dispute settlement and 8            enforcement of trade agreements are—

9                    (A) to seek provisions in trade agreements
10                   providing for resolution of disputes between gov- 11                   ernments under those trade agreements in an ef-
12                   fective, timely, transparent, equitable, and rea- 13                   soned manner, requiring determinations based 14                   on facts and the principles of the agreements, 15                   with the goal of increasing compliance with the 16                   agreements;

17                   (B) to seek to strengthen the capacity of the 18                   Trade Policy Review Mechanism of the World
19                   Trade Organization to review compliance with 20                   commitments;

21                   (C) to seek adherence by panels convened
22                   under the Dispute Settlement Understanding 23                   and by the Appellate Body to—

24                            (i) the mandate of those panels and the 25                            Appellate Body to apply the WTO Agree-

1            ment as written, without adding to or di-
2            minishing rights and obligations under the
3            Agreement; and

4            (ii) the standard of review applicable
5            under the Uruguay Round Agreement in- 6            volved in the dispute, including greater def-
7            erence, where appropriate, to the fact find- 8            ing and technical expertise of national in- 9            vestigating authorities;

10           (D) to seek provisions encouraging the early 11           identification and settlement of disputes through 12           consultation;

13           (E) to seek provisions to encourage the pro-
14           vision of trade-expanding compensation if a 15           party to a dispute under the agreement does not 16           come into compliance with its obligations under 17           the agreement;

18           (F) to seek provisions to impose a penalty
19           upon a party to a dispute under the agreement 20           that—

21           (i) encourages compliance with the ob-
22           ligations of the agreement;

23           (ii) is appropriate to the parties, na-
24           ture, subject matter, and scope of the viola- 25           tion; and

1                   (iii) has the aim of not adversely af-2                   fecting parties or interests not party to the 3                   dispute while maintaining the effectiveness 4                   of the enforcement mechanism; and

5                   (G) to seek provisions that treat United 6                   States principal negotiating objectives equally 7                   with respect to—

8                   (i) the ability to resort to dispute set-9                   tlement under the applicable agreement;

10                  (ii) the availability of equivalent dis-11                  pute settlement procedures; and 12                  (iii) the availability of equivalent rem-13                  edies.

14                  (17) TRADE REMEDY LAWS.—The principal ne-
15                  gotiating objectives of the United States with respect 16                  to trade remedy laws are—

17                  (A) to preserve the ability of the United 18                  States to enforce rigorously its trade laws, in-19                  cluding the antidumping, countervailing duty, 20                  and safeguard laws, and avoid agreements that 21                  lessen the effectiveness of domestic and inter-22                  national disciplines on unfair trade, especially 23                  dumping and subsidies, or that lessen the effec-24                  tiveness of domestic and international safeguard
25                  provisions, in order to ensure that United States

1           workers, agricultural producers, and firms can 2           compete fully on fair terms and enjoy the bene-
3           fits of reciprocal trade concessions; and

4           (B) to address and remedy market distor-
5           tions that lead to dumping and subsidization,
6           including overcapacity, cartelization, and mar-
7           ket access barriers.

8           (18) BORDER TAXES.—The principal negotiating
9           objective of the United States regarding border taxes
10           is to obtain a revision of the rules of the World Trade
11           Organization with respect to the treatment of border
12           adjustments for internal taxes to redress the dis-
13           advantage to countries relying primarily on direct 14           taxes for revenue rather than indirect taxes.

15           (19) TEXTILE NEGOTIATIONS.—The principal
16           negotiating objectives of the United States with re- 17           spect to trade in textiles and apparel articles are to 18           obtain competitive opportunities for United States ex-
19           ports of textiles and apparel in foreign markets sub- 20           stantially equivalent to the competitive opportunities 21           afforded foreign exports in United States markets and 22           to achieve fairer and more open conditions of trade 23           in textiles and apparel.

24           (20) COMMERCIAL PARTNERSHIPS.—

1           (A) IN GENERAL.—With respect to an agree- 2 ment that is proposed to be entered into with the 3 Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership
4 countries and to which section 103(b) will apply,
5 the principal negotiating objectives of the United 6 States regarding commercial partnerships are 7 the following:

8           (i) To discourage actions by potential
9 trading partners that directly or indirectly
10 prejudice or otherwise discourage commer-
11 cial activity solely between the United 12 States and Israel.

13           (ii) To discourage politically motivated
14 actions to boycott, divest from, or sanction
15 Israel and to seek the elimination of politi-
16 cally motivated nontariff barriers on Israeli 17 goods, services, or other commerce imposed
18 on the State of Israel.

19           (iii) To seek the elimination of state-
20 sponsored unsanctioned foreign boycotts
21 against Israel or compliance with the Arab 22 League Boycott of Israel by prospective
23 trading partners.

24           (B) DEFINITION.—In this paragraph, the 25 term “actions to boycott, divest from, or sanction

1           Israel” means actions by states, non-member
2           states of the United Nations, international orga-
3           nizations, or affiliated agencies of international 4           organizations that are politically motivated and 5           are intended to penalize or otherwise limit com-6           mercial relations specifically with Israel or per-7           sons doing business in Israel or in Israeli-con-8           trolled territories.

9           (21) GOOD GOVERNANCE, TRANSPARENCY, THE 10          EFFECTIVE OPERATION OF LEGAL REGIMES, AND THE 11          RULE OF LAW OF TRADING PARTNERS.—The principal
12          negotiating objectives of the United States with re-
13          spect to ensuring implementation of trade commit-
14          ments and obligations by strengthening good govern-
15          ance, transparency, the effective operation of legal re- 16          gimes and the rule of law of trading partners of the 17          United States is through capacity building and other 18          appropriate means, which are important parts of the 5                    striction, or effect,

6            and that the purposes, policies, priorities, and objec-
7            tives of this title will be promoted thereby, the Presi- 8            dent may enter into a trade agreement described in 9            subparagraph (B) during the period described in sub- 10           paragraph (C).

11                    (B) The President may enter into a trade agree-
12                    ment under subparagraph (A) with foreign countries 13                    providing for—

14                            (i) the reduction or elimination of a duty, 15                            restriction, barrier, or other distortion described 16                            in subparagraph (A); or

17                            (ii) the prohibition of, or limitation on the 18                            imposition of, such barrier or other distortion.

19                    (C) The President may enter into a trade agree- 20                    ment under this paragraph before—

21                            (i) July 1, 2018; or

22                            (ii) July 1, 2021, if trade authorities proce- 23                            dures are extended under subsection (c).

24            Substantial modifications to, or substantial addi- 25            tional provisions of, a trade agreement entered into

1 after July 1, 2018, or July 1, 2021, if trade authori-
2 ties procedures are extended under subsection (c),
3 shall not be eligible for approval under this title.

4 (2) CONDITIONS.—A trade agreement may be en-
5 tered into under this subsection only if such agree-
6 ment makes progress in meeting the applicable objec-
7 tives described in subsections (a) and (b) of section
8 102 and the President satisfies the conditions set forth 9 in sections 104 and 105.

10 (3) BILLS QUALIFYING FOR TRADE AUTHORITIES
11 PROCEDURES.—(A) The provisions of section 151 of 12 the Trade Act of 1974 (in this title referred to as 13 “trade authorities procedures”) apply to a bill of ei-14 ther House of Congress which contains provisions de- 15 scribed in subparagraph (B) to the same extent as 16 such section 151 applies to implementing bills under 17 that section. A bill to which this paragraph applies 18 shall hereafter in this title be referred to as an “im- 19 plementing bill”.

20 (B) The provisions referred to in subparagraph 21 (A) are—

22 (i) a provision approving a trade agreement
23 entered into under this subsection and approving 24 the statement of administrative action, if any,

1           proposed to implement such trade agreement;
2           and

3                   (ii) if changes in existing laws or new stat- 4                   utory authority are required to implement such 5                   trade agreement or agreements, only such provi-
6                   sions as are strictly necessary or appropriate to 7                   implement such trade agreement or agreements, 8                   either repealing or amending existing laws or 9                   providing new statutory authority.

10           (c) EXTENSION DISAPPROVAL PROCESS FOR CONGRES-
11           SIONAL TRADE AUTHORITIES PROCEDURES.—

12                   (1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in section 13                   106(b)—

14                           (A) the trade authorities procedures apply 15                           to implementing bills submitted with respect to 16                           trade agreements entered into under subsection 17                           (b) before July 1, 2018; and

18                           (B) the trade authorities procedures shall be 19                           extended to implementing bills submitted with 20                           respect to trade agreements entered into under 21                           subsection (b) after June 30, 2018, and before 22                           July 1, 2021, if (and only if)—

23                                   (i) the President requests such exten- 24                                   sion under paragraph (2); and

1                   (ii) neither House of Congress adopts 2                   an extension disapproval resolution under 3                   paragraph (5) before July 1, 2018.

4                   (2) REPORT TO CONGRESS BY THE PRESI-
5                   DENT.—If the President is of the opinion that the 6                   trade authorities procedures should be extended to im-
7                   plementing bills described in paragraph (1)(B), the 8                   President shall submit to Congress, not later than 9                   April 1, 2018, a written report that contains a re- 10                  quest for such extension, together with—

11                  (A) a description of all trade agreements
12                  that have been negotiated under subsection (b) 13                  and the anticipated schedule for submitting such 14                  agreements to Congress for approval;

15                  (B) a description of the progress that has 16                  been made in negotiations to achieve the pur-
17                  poses, policies, priorities, and objectives of this 18                  title, and a statement that such progress justifies 19                  the continuation of negotiations; and

20                  (C) a statement of the reasons why the ex-
21                  ension is needed to complete the negotiations.

22                  (3) OTHER REPORTS TO CONGRESS.—

23                  (A) REPORT BY THE ADVISORY COM-
24                  MITTEE.—The President shall promptly inform 25                  the Advisory Committee for Trade Policy and

1        Negotiations established under section 135 of the 2        Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2155) of the deci-
3        sion of the President to submit a report to Con-
4        gress under paragraph (2). The Advisory Com-
5        mittee shall submit to Congress as soon as prac-
6        ticable, but not later than June 1, 2018, a writ- 7        ten report that contains—

8                (i) its views regarding the progress 9                that has been made in negotiations to 10               achieve the purposes, policies, priorities, 11               and objectives of this title; and

12               (ii) a statement of its views, and the 13               reasons therefor, regarding whether the ex-
14               ension requested under paragraph (2)
15               should be approved or disapproved.

16               (B) REPORT BY INTERNATIONAL TRADE
17        COMMISSION.—The President shall promptly in-
18        form the United States International Trade
19        Commission of the decision of the President to 20        submit a report to Congress under paragraph 21        (2). The International Trade Commission shall 22        submit to Congress as soon as practicable, but 23        not later than June 1, 2018, a written report
24        that contains a review and analysis of the eco-
25        nomic impact on the United States of all trade

1           agreements implemented between the date of the 2           enactment of this Act and the date on which the 3           President decides to seek an extension requested 4           under paragraph (2).

5           (4) STATUS OF REPORTS.—The reports sub-
6           mitted to Congress under paragraphs (2) and (3), or 7           any portion of such reports, may be classified to the 8           extent the President determines appropriate.

9           (5) EXTENSION DISAPPROVAL RESOLUTIONS.— 10          (A) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term “exten-
11          sion disapproval resolution” means a resolution of ei-
12          ther House of Congress, the sole matter after the re- 13          solving clause of which is as follows: “That the 14          _____ disapproves the request of the President for 15          the extension, under section 103(c)(1)(B)(i) of the Bi- 16          partisan Congressional Trade Priorities and Account-
17          ability Act of 2015, of the trade authorities procedures
18          under that Act to any implementing bill submitted 19          with respect to any trade agreement entered into 20          under section 103(b) of that Act after June 30, 21          2018.”, with the blank space being filled with the 22          name of the resolving House of Congress.

23          (B) Extension disapproval resolutions—
24                  (i) may be introduced in either House of 25          Congress by any member of such House; and

1           (ii) shall be referred, in the House of Rep-2           resentatives, to the Committee on Ways and 3           Means and, in addition, to the Committee on 4           Rules.

5           (C) The provisions of subsections (d) and (e) of 6           section 152 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2192)
7           (relating to the floor consideration of certain resolu-8           tions in the House and Senate) apply to extension 9           disapproval resolutions.

10          (D) It is not in order for—

11           (i) the House of Representatives to consider 12           any extension disapproval resolution not re-
13           ported by the Committee on Ways and Means 14           and, in addition, by the Committee on Rules;

15           (ii) the Senate to consider any extension
16           disapproval resolution not reported by the Com-17           mittee on Finance; or

18           (iii) either House of Congress to consider an 19           extension disapproval resolution after June 30, 20           2018.

21          (d) COMMENCEMENT OF NEGOTIATIONS.—In order to 22          contribute to the continued economic expansion of the 23          United States, the President shall commence negotiations 24          covering tariff and nontariff barriers affecting any indus-25          try, product, or service sector, and expand existing sectoral

1 agreements to countries that are not parties to those agree-
2 ments, in cases where the President determines that such 3 negotiations are feasible and timely and would benefit the 4 United States. Such sectors include agriculture, commercial
5 services, intellectual property rights, industrial and capital
6 goods, government procurement, information technology 7 products, environmental technology and services, medical 8 equipment and services, civil aircraft, and infrastructure
9 products. In so doing, the President shall take into account 10 all of the negotiating objectives set forth in section 102.

11 SEC. 104. CONGRESSIONAL OVERSIGHT, CONSULTATIONS,
12 AND ACCESS TO INFORMATION.

13 (a) CONSULTATIONS WITH MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.—

14 (1) CONSULTATIONS DURING NEGOTIATIONS.—In 15 the course of negotiations conducted under this title, 16 the United States Trade Representative shall—

17 (A) meet upon request with any Member of 18 Congress regarding negotiating objectives, the 19 status of negotiations in progress, and the nature
20 of any changes in the laws of the United States
21 or the administration of those laws that may be 22 recommended to Congress to carry out any trade 23 agreement or any requirement of, amendment to,
24 or recommendation under, that agreement;

1           (B) upon request of any Member of Con-
2           gress, provide access to pertinent documents re-
3           lating to the negotiations, including classified 4           materials;

5           (C) consult closely and on a timely basis 6           with, and keep fully apprised of the negotiations,
7           the Committee on Ways and Means of the House
8           of Representatives and the Committee on Fi-
9           nance of the Senate;

10          (D) consult closely and on a timely basis
11          with, and keep fully apprised of the negotiations, 12          the House Advisory Group on Negotiations and 13          the Senate Advisory Group on Negotiations con-14          vened under subsection (c) and all committees of 15          the House of Representatives and the Senate
16          with jurisdiction over laws that could be affected 17          by a trade agreement resulting from the negotia-18          tions; and

19          (E) with regard to any negotiations and 20          agreement relating to agricultural trade, also 21          consult closely and on a timely basis (including 22          immediately before initialing an agreement)
23          with, and keep fully apprised of the negotiations, 24          the Committee on Agriculture of the House of

1            Representatives and the Committee on Agri-
2            culture, Nutrition, and Forestry of the Senate.

3            (2) CONSULTATIONS PRIOR TO ENTRY INTO 4            FORCE.—Prior to exchanging notes providing for the 5            entry into force of a trade agreement, the United 6            States Trade Representative shall consult closely and 7            on a timely basis with Members of Congress and com-
8            mittees as specified in paragraph (1), and keep them 9            fully apprised of the measures a trading partner has 10           taken to comply with those provisions of the agree- 11           ment that are to take effect on the date that the agree- 12           ment enters into force.

13           (3) ENHANCED COORDINATION WITH CON-
14           GRESS.—

15           (A) WRITTEN GUIDELINES.—The United
16           States Trade Representative, in consultation 17           with the chairmen and the ranking members of 18           the Committee on Ways and Means of the House
19           of Representatives and the Committee on Fi-
20           nance of the Senate, respectively—

21           (i) shall, not later than 120 days after 22           the date of the enactment of this Act, de-
23           velop written guidelines on enhanced coordi-
24           nation with Congress, including coordina-
25           tion with designated congressional advisers

1           under subsection (b), regarding negotiations 2           conducted under this title; and

3           (ii) may make such revisions to the 4           guidelines as may be necessary from time to 5           time.

6           (B) CONTENT OF GUIDELINES.—The guide-
7           lines developed under subparagraph (A) shall en-
8           hance coordination with Congress through proce-9           dures to ensure—

10           (i) timely briefings upon request of 11           any Member of Congress regarding negoti-12           ating objectives, the status of negotiations in 13           progress conducted under this title, and the 14           nature of any changes in the laws of the 15           United States or the administration of those 16           laws that may be recommended to Congress
17           to carry out any trade agreement or any re-18           quirement of, amendment to, or rec-19           ommendation under, that agreement; and 20           (ii) the sharing of detailed and timely 21           information with Members of Congress, and 22           their staff with proper security clearances

23           as appropriate, regarding those negotiations
24           and pertinent documents related to those ne-25           gotiations (including classified informa-

1           tion), and with committee staff with proper 2           security clearances as would be appropriate 3           in the light of the responsibilities of that 4           committee over the trade agreements pro-
5           grams affected by those negotiations.

6           (C) DISSEMINATION.—The United States
7           Trade Representative shall disseminate the 8           guidelines developed under subparagraph (A) to 24                   of the House;

1                   (II) shall be referred to the Committee
2                   on Ways and Means and, in addition, to 3                   the Committee on Rules; and

4                   (III) may not be amended by either 5                   Committee.

6                   (iv) Resolutions in the Senate—

7                   (I) may be introduced by any Member 8                   of the Senate;

9                   (II) shall be referred to the Committee
10                  on Finance; and 11                  (III) may not be amended.

12                  (v) It is not in order for the House of Rep-13                  resentatives to consider any resolution that is 14                  not reported by the Committee on Ways and 15                  Means and, in addition, by the Committee on 16                  Rules.

17                  (vi) It is not in order for the Senate to con-18                  sider any resolution that is not reported by the 19                  Committee on Finance.

20                  (vii) The provisions of subsections (d) and 21                  (e) of section 152 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 22                  U.S.C. 2192) (relating to floor consideration of 23                  certain resolutions in the House and Senate) 24                  shall apply to resolutions.

23              106(a)(1)(E).

24              (2) EMPLOYMENT IMPACT REVIEWS AND RE- 25       PORTS.—The President shall—

1           (A) review the impact of future trade agree-
2           ments on United States employment, including 3           labor markets, modeled after Executive Order
4           13141 (64 Fed. Reg. 63169) to the extent appro-5           priate in establishing procedures and criteria;
6           and

7           (B) submit a report on such reviews to the 8           Committee on Ways and Means of the House of 9           Representatives and the Committee on Finance
10          of the Senate at the time the President submits 11          to Congress a copy of the final legal text of an 12          agreement pursuant to section 106(a)(1)(E).

13          (3) REPORT ON LABOR RIGHTS.—The President 14          shall submit to the Committee on Ways and Means of 15          the House of Representatives and the Committee on 16          Finance of the Senate, on a timeframe determined in 17          accordance with section 104(c)(3)(B)(v)—

18               (A) a meaningful labor rights report of the 19               country, or countries, with respect to which the 20               President is negotiating; and

21               (B) a description of any provisions that 22               would require changes to the labor laws and 23               labor practices of the United States.

1           (4) PUBLIC AVAILABILITY.—The President shall

25          (f) OTHER REPORTS.—

1           (1) REPORT ON PENALTIES.—Not later than one
2           year after the imposition by the United States of a 3           penalty or remedy permitted by a trade agreement to 4           which this title applies, the President shall submit to 5           the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of 6           Representatives and the Committee on Finance of the 7           Senate a report on the effectiveness of the penalty or 8           remedy applied under United States law in enforcing 9           United States rights under the trade agreement, 10          which shall address whether the penalty or remedy 11          was effective in changing the behavior of the targeted 12          party and whether the penalty or remedy had any 13          adverse impact on parties or interests not party to 14          the dispute.

15          (2) REPORT ON IMPACT OF TRADE PROMOTION
16          AUTHORITY.—Not later than one year after the date
17          of the enactment of this Act, and not later than 5
18          years thereafter, the United States International 19          Trade Commission shall submit to the Committee on 20          Ways and Means of the House of Representatives and 21          the Committee on Finance of the Senate a report on 22          the economic impact on the United States of all trade
23          agreements with respect to which Congress has en-24          acted an implementing bill under trade authorities
25          procedures since January 1, 1984.

1           (3) ENFORCEMENT CONSULTATIONS AND RE-
2 PORTS.—(A) The United States Trade Representative

8                   agreement; and

9                   (ii) a copy of the final legal text of the 10                  agreement;

11           (E) after entering into the agreement, the 12           President submits to Congress, on a day on 13           which both Houses of Congress are in session, a 14           copy of the final legal text of the agreement, to- 15           gether with—

16                   (i) a draft of an implementing bill de- 17                   scribed in section 103(b)(3);

18                   (ii) a statement of any administrative 19                   action proposed to implement the trade
20                   agreement; and

21                   (iii) the supporting information de-
22                   scribed in paragraph (2)(A);

23           (F) the implementing bill is enacted into 24           law; and

1           (G) the President, not later than 30 days
2 before the date on which the agreement enters 3 into force with respect to a party to the agree-4 ment, submits written notice to Congress that the 5 President has determined that the party has 6 taken measures necessary to comply with those 7 provisions of the agreement that are to take effect 8 on the date on which the agreement enters into 9 force.

10       (2) SUPPORTING INFORMATION.—

11           (A) IN GENERAL.—The supporting informa-
12 tion required under paragraph (1)(E)(iii) con-13 sists of—

14           (i) an explanation as to how the im-
15 plementing bill and proposed administra-
16 tive action will change or affect existing 17 law; and

18           (ii) a statement—

19           (I) asserting that the agreement 20 makes progress in achieving the appli-21 cable purposes, policies, priorities, and 22 objectives of this title; and 23           (II) setting forth the reasons of the 24 President regarding—

1                   (aa) how and to what extent 2                   the agreement makes progress in 3                   achieving the applicable purposes, 4                   policies, and objectives referred to 5                   in subclause (I);

6                   (bb) whether and how the 7                   agreement changes provisions of 8                   an agreement previously nego-
9                   tiated;

10                   (cc) how the agreement serves
11                   the interests of United States com- 12                   merce; and

13                   (dd) how the implementing 14                   bill meets the standards set forth 15                   in section 103(b)(3).

16                   (B) PUBLIC AVAILABILITY.—The President
17                   shall make the supporting information described 18                   in subparagraph (A) available to the public.

19                   (3) RECIPROCAL BENEFITS.—In order to ensure 20                   that a foreign country that is not a party to a trade 21                   agreement entered into under section 103(b) does not 22                   receive benefits under the agreement unless the coun- 23                   try is also subject to the obligations under the agree- 24                   ment, the implementing bill submitted with respect to 25                   the agreement shall provide that the benefits and obli-

1 gations under the agreement apply only to the parties
2 to the agreement, if such application is consistent 3 with the terms of the agreement. The implementing 4 bill may also provide that the benefits and obligations
5 under the agreement do not apply uniformly to all
6 parties to the agreement, if such application is con-
7 sistent with the terms of the agreement.

8 (4) DISCLOSURE OF COMMITMENTS.—Any agree-
9 ment or other understanding with a foreign govern-
10 ment or governments (whether oral or in writing)
11 that—

12 (A) relates to a trade agreement with re-

2           description of the trade agreement or agreements
3           with respect to which the President is considered 4           to have failed or refused to notify or consult.

5           (ii) For purposes of clause (i) and para-6           graphs (3)(C) and (4)(C), the President has 7           “failed or refused to notify or consult in accord-
8           ance with the Bipartisan Congressional Trade 9           Priorities and Accountability Act of 2015” on 10          negotiations with respect to a trade agreement or 11          trade agreements if—

12               (I) the President has failed or refused 13               to consult (as the case may be) in accord-14               ance with sections 104 and 105 and this 15               section with respect to the negotiations, 16               agreement, or agreements;

17               (II) guidelines under section 104 have 18               not been developed or met with respect to 19               the negotiations, agreement, or agreements;

20               (III) the President has not met with 21               the House Advisory Group on Negotiations
22               or the Senate Advisory Group on Negotia-
23               tions pursuant to a request made under sec-24               tion 104(c)(4) with respect to the negotia-
25               tions, agreement, or agreements; or

1                   (IV) the agreement or agreements fail
2                   to make progress in achieving the purposes,

1 SEC. 206. SUNSET PROVISIONS.

2       (a) APPLICATION OF PRIOR LAW.—Subject to sub-3 section (b), beginning on July 1, 2021, the provisions of 4 chapters 2, 3, 5, and 6 of title II of the Trade Act of 1974
5 (19 U.S.C. 2271 et seq.), as in effect on January 1, 2014, 6 shall be in effect and apply, except that in applying and 7 administering such chapters—

8           (1) paragraph (1) of section 231(c) of that Act
9 shall be applied and administered as if subpara-10 graphs (A), (B), and (C) of that paragraph were not 11 in effect;

12           (2) section 233 of that Act shall be applied and 13 administered—

14           (A) in subsection (a)—

15                   (i) in paragraph (2), by substituting 16 “104-week period” for “104-week period” 17 and all that follows through “130-week pe-18 riod)”; and

19                   (ii) in paragraph (3)—

20                           (I) in the matter preceding sub-21 paragraph (A), by substituting “65” 22 for “52”; and

23                           (II) by substituting “78-week pe-24 riod” for “52-week period” each place 25 it appears; and

1                   (B) by applying and administering sub-
2                   section (g) as if it read as follows:

3           “(g) PAYMENT OF TRADE READJUSTMENT ALLOW- 4 ANCES TO COMPLETE TRAINING.—Notwithstanding any 5 other provision of this section, in order to assist an ad- 6 versely affected worker to complete training approved for 7 the worker under section 236 that leads to the completion
8 of a degree or industry-recognized credential, payments
9 may be made as trade readjustment allowances for not more
10 than 13 weeks within such period of eligibility as the Sec-
11 retary may prescribe to account for a break in training 12 or for justifiable cause that follows the last week for which 13 the worker is otherwise entitled to a trade readjustment al- 14 lowance under this chapter if—

15                   “(1) payment of the trade readjustment allow- 16 ance for not more than 13 weeks is necessary for the 17 worker to complete the training;

18                   “(2) the worker participates in training in each 19 such week; and

20                   “(3) the worker—

21                           “(A) has substantially met the performance 22 benchmarks established as part of the training 23 approved for the worker;

1           “(B) is expected to continue to make 2           progress toward the completion of the training;
3           and

4           “(C) will complete the training during that 5           period of eligibility.”;

6           (3) section 245(a) of that Act shall be applied
7           and administered by substituting “June 30, 2022” for 8           “December 31, 2007”;

9           (4) section 246(b)(1) of that Act shall be applied
10          and administered by substituting “June 30, 2022” for 11          “the date that is 5 years” and all that follows through 12          “State”;

13          (5) section 256(b) of that Act shall be applied
14          and administered by substituting “the 1-year period
15          beginning on July 1, 2021” for “each of fiscal years
16          2003 through 2007, and $4,000,000 for the 3-month
17          period beginning on October 1, 2007”;

18          (6) section 298(a) of that Act shall be applied
19          and administered by substituting “the 1-year period 20          beginning on July 1, 2021” for “each of the fiscal 21          years” and all that follows through “October 1, 22          2007”; and

23          (7) section 285 of that Act shall be applied and 24          administered—

1           (A) in subsection (a), by substituting “June 2           30, 2022” for “December 31, 2007” each place it 3           appears; and

4           (B) by applying and administering sub-
5           section (b) as if it read as follows:

6       “(b) OTHER ASSISTANCE.—

7           “(1) ASSISTANCE FOR FIRMS.—

8           “(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in
