3 (1) for purposes of section 251 of the such Act;

4 and

5 (2) for purposes of paragraph 4(C) of section 3
6 of the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010 as
7 being included in an appropriation Act.

8 SEC. 581. (a) No funds or fees made available to the 9 Secretary of Homeland Security by this Act or any other
10 Act for any fiscal year may be used to implement, admin-
11 ister, enforce, or carry out (including through the issuance 12 of any regulations) any policy relating to the apprehen-
13 sion, detention, or removal of aliens that does not treat
14 any alien convicted of any offense involving domestic vio-
15 lence, sexual abuse, child molestation, or child exploitation
16 as within the categories of aliens subject to the Depart-
17 ment of Homeland Security's highest civil immigration en-
18 forcement priorities.

19 (b) The budgetary effects of this section shall not be 20 entered on either PAYGO scorecard maintained pursuant 21 to section 4(d) of the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 22 2010.

23 (c) Notwithstanding Rule 3 of the Budget
24 Scorekeeping Guidelines set forth in the joint explanatory
25 statement of the committee of conference accompanying

1 Conference Report 105–217 and section 250(c)(8) of the 2 Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 3 1985, the budgetary effects of this section shall not be 4 estimated—

5 (1) for purposes of section 251 of the such Act;
6 and

7 (2) for purposes of paragraph 4(C) of section 3
8 of the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010 as
9 being included in an appropriation Act.

10 SEC. 582. (a) The Congress finds that—

11 (1) under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care
12 Act (Public Law 111–148), many individuals and busi-
13 nesses are required to purchase health insurance coverage
14 for themselves and their employees;

15 (2) individuals who were unlawfully present in the 16 United States who have been granted deferred action
17 under the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals Pro-
18 gram undertaken by the Executive Branch and who then 19 receive work authorization are exempt from these require-
20 ments;

21 (3) many United States employers hiring United 22 States citizens or individuals legally present in the United 23 States are required to either offer those persons affordable
24 health insurance or pay a penalty of approximately $3,000
25 per employee per year; and

1 (4) an employer does not have to provide insurance,
2 or in many instances pay a penalty, if they hire individuals
3 who were not lawfully present but who have been granted
4 deferred action under the Deferred Action for Childhood
5 Arrivals Program and work authorization.

6 (b) It is the sense of the Congress that—

7 (1) this disparate treatment has the unacceptable ef-
8 fect of discouraging the hiring of United States citizens
9 and those in a lawful immigration status in the United 10 States; and

11 (2) the Executive Branch should refrain from pur-
12 suing policies, such as granting deferred action under the 13 Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals Program and work
14 authorization to unlawfully present individuals, that dis-
15 advantage the hiring of United States citizens and those 16 in a lawful immigration status in the United States.

17 SEC. 583. It is the sense of the Congress that the 18 Director of United States Citizenship and Immigration
19 Services (USCIS) should—

20 (1) stop putting the interests of aliens who are 21 unlawfully present in the United States ahead of the 22 interests of aliens who are following proper immigra-
23 tion laws and procedures by adjudicating petitions
24 and applications for immigration benefits submitted
25 by aliens unlawfully present in the United States.

1 When USCIS adjudicators and resources are used to 2 adjudicate petitions and applications for aliens who 3 are unlawfully present, the time it takes to process
4 petitions and applications submitted by other aliens
5 is significantly increased and a backlog is created. In 6 addition, it is unfair to use the fees paid by other
7 aliens to cover the costs of adjudicating petitions
8 and applications for aliens unlawfully present in the 9 United States; and

10 (2) use the funds available under existing law
11 to improve services and increase the efficiency of the 12 immigration benefits application process for aliens
13 abroad or who are lawfully present in the United 14 States.

15 This Act may be cited as the “Department of Home-
16 land Security Appropriations Act, 2015”.

 Passed the House of Representatives January 14, 2015.
