H. R. 6108

AN ACT

To provide for partnerships among State and local governments, regional entities, and the private sector to preserve, conserve, and enhance the visitor experience at nationally significant battlefields of the American Revolution, War of 1812, and Civil War, and for other purposes.

1 “(2) According to the Report on the Nation’s 2 Civil War Battlefields, prepared by the National 3 Park Service and updated in 2010, of the 383 Civil 4 War battlefields identified as national preservation
5 priorities—

6 “(A) only at 31 battlefields is more than 7 half of the surviving landscape permanently
8 protected;

9 “(B) at 227 battlefields, less than half of 10 the surviving landscape is permanently pro-
11 tected;

12 “(C) 65 battlefields have no protection at 13 all; and

14 “(D) 113 battlefields have been severely
15 hampered by development since the Civil War
16 or are on the verge of being overwhelmed.

17 “(3) According to the 2007 Report to Congress
18 on the Historic Preservation of Revolutionary War
19 and War of 1812 Sites in the United States, pre-
20 pared by the National Park Service, of the 243 prin-
21 cipal Revolutionary War and War of 1812 battle-
22 fields identified as national preservation priorities—

23 “(A) almost 70 percent lie within urban 24 areas as denoted in the 2000 U.S. Census;

1 “(B) 141 are lost or extremely fragmented,
2 with residential and commercial development
3 being the chief threats;

4 “(C) 100 other battlefields retain signifi-
5 cant features and lands from the period of bat-
6 tle, although on average these battlefields retain 7 only 37 percent of the original historic scene;

8 “(D) of these 100 surviving but diminished
9 battle landscapes, 82 are partially owned and 10 protected by public and nonprofit stewards, al-
11 though the extent of that protection varies from 12 site to site;

13 “(E) 18 are without any legal protection;

14 “(F) the condition of two battlefields is un-
15 known, with additional research and survey
16 being required to determine their exact location
17 and condition; and

18 “(G) the paucity of existing battlefield
19 landscapes necessitates preservation and main-
20 tenance of what precious little remains today.

21 “(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

22 “(1) to act quickly and proactively to preserve 23 and protect nationally significant battlefields of the 24 American Revolution, War of 1812, and Civil War

1 through conservation easements and fee-simple pur-
2 chases of those battlefields from willing sellers; and

3 “(2) to create partnerships among State and 4 local governments, regional entities, and the private 5 sector to preserve, conserve, and enhance the visitor 6 experience at nationally significant battlefields of the 7 American Revolution, War of 1812, and Civil War.”.
