H. RES. 375

[Report No. 115–163]

Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 10) to create hope and opportunity for investors, consumers, and entrepreneurs by ending bailouts and Too Big to Fail, holding Washington and Wall Street accountable, eliminating red tape to increase access to capital and credit, and repealing the provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act that make America less prosperous, less stable, and less free, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 6, 2017

Mr. BUCK, from the Committee on Rules, reported the following resolution; which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

RESOLUTION

Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 10) to create hope and opportunity for investors, consumers, and entrepreneurs by ending bailouts and Too Big to Fail, holding Washington and Wall Street accountable, eliminating red tape to increase access to capital and credit, and repealing the provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act that make America less prosperous, less stable, and less free, and for other purposes.

1 Resolved, That at any time after adoption of this reso-
2 lution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 2(b) of rule
3 XVIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of 4 the Whole House on the state of the Union for consider-
5 ation of the bill (H.R. 10) to create hope and opportunity
6 for investors, consumers, and entrepreneurs by ending 7 bailouts and Too Big to Fail, holding Washington and 8 Wall Street accountable, eliminating red tape to increase
9 access to capital and credit, and repealing the provisions
10 of the Dodd-Frank Act that make America less pros-
11 perous, less stable, and less free, and for other purposes.
12 The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. All 13 points of order against consideration of the bill are waived.
14 General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not 15 exceed 90 minutes equally divided and controlled by the 16 chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on 17 Financial Services. After general debate the bill shall be 18 considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. In 19 lieu of the amendment in the nature of a substitute rec-
20 ommended by the Committee on Financial Services now 21 printed in the bill, it shall be in order to consider as an 22 original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five-
23 minute rule the amendment in the nature of a substitute
24 printed in part A of the report of the Committee on Rules
25 accompanying this resolution. That amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be considered as read. All points of order against that amendment in the nature of a substitute are waived. No amendment to that amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be in order except those printed in part B of the report of the Committee on Rules. Each such amendment may be offered only in the order printed in the report, may be offered only by a Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. All points of order against such amendments are waived. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. Any Member may demand a separate vote in the House on any amendment adopted in the Committee of the Whole to the bill or to the amendment in the nature of a substitute made in order as original text. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.
