7 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

8 It is the sense of Congress that—

9 (1) foreign investment provides substantial eco-
 10 nomic benefits to the United States, including the 11 promotion of economic growth, productivity, com-
 12 petitiveness, and job creation, and the majority of

1 foreign investment transactions pose little or no risk
2 to the national security of the United States, espe-
3 cially when those investments are truly passive in 4 nature;

5 (2) maintaining the commitment of the United
6 States to open and fair investment policy also en-
7 courages other countries to reciprocate and helps
8 open new foreign markets for United States busi-
9 nesses and their products;

10 (3) it should continue to be the policy of the
11 United States to enthusiastically welcome and sup-
12 port foreign investment, consistent with the protec-
13 tion of national security;

14 (4) at the same time, the national security land-
15 scape has shifted in recent years, and so have the 16 nature of the investments that pose the greatest po-
17 tential risk to national security, which warrants a 18 modernization of the processes and authorities of the 19 Committee on Foreign Investment in the United 20 States;

21 (5) the Committee on Foreign Investment in 22 the United States plays a critical role in protecting 23 the national security of the United States, and,
24 therefore, it is essential that the member agencies of 25 the Committee are adequately resourced and able to

1 hire appropriately qualified individuals in a timely
 2 manner, and that those individuals' security clear-
 3 ances are processed as a high priority;

4 (6) the President should conduct a more robust
 5 international outreach effort to urge and help allies
 6 and partners of the United States to establish pro-
 7 cesses that parallel the Committee on Foreign Invest-
 8 ment in the United States to screen foreign invest-
 9 ments for national security risks and to facilitate co-
 10 ordination; and

11 (7) the President should lead a collaborative ef-
 12 fort with allies and partners of the United States to 13 develop a new, stronger multilateral export control
 14 regime, aimed to address the unprecedented indus-
 15 trial policies of certain countries of special concern,
 16 including aggressive efforts to acquire United States
 17 technology, and the blending of civil and military 18 programs.

19 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

20 Section 721(a) of the Defense Production Act of

10           “(A) IN GENERAL.—The term ‘country of 10 transactions.

11                   “(ii) EXEMPTION FOR TRANSACTIONS

18                  contributions otherwise described in sub-
19                  paragraph (B)(v) are excluded from the 20                  term ‘covered transaction’ on the basis of 16 upon methods for evaluating compliance with 17 any agreement entered into or condition im-

2 (a) IN GENERAL.—It is the sense of Congress that—

3 (1) foreign investment provides substantial eco-
4 nommic benefits to the United States, including the 5 promotion of economic growth, productivity, competi-
6 tiveness, and job creation, and the majority of foreign 7 investment transactions pose little or no risk to the 8 national security of the United States, especially 9 when those investments are truly passive in nature;

10 (2) maintaining the commitment of the United
11 States to open and fair investment policy also encour-
12 ages other countries to reciprocate and helps open new 13 foreign markets for United States businesses and their 14 products;

15 (3) it should continue to be the policy of the
16 United States to enthusiastically welcome and sup-
17 port foreign investment, consistent with the protection
18 of national security;

19 (4) at the same time, the national security land-
20 scape has shifted in recent years, and so has the na-
21 ture of the investments that pose the greatest potential
22 risk to national security, which warrants a mod-
23 ernization of the processes and authorities of the Com-
24 mittee on Foreign Investment in the United States
25 and of the United States export control system;

1           (5) the Committee on Foreign Investment in the 2           United States plays a critical role in protecting the 3           national security of the United States, and, therefore,
4           it is essential that the member agencies of the Com-
5           mittee are adequately resourced and able to hire ap-
6           propriately qualified individuals in a timely manner,
7           and that those individuals' security clearances are 8           processed as a high priority;

9           (6) the President should conduct a more robust
10          international outreach effort to urge and help allies
11          and partners of the United States to establish proc-
12          esses that parallel the Committee on Foreign Invest-
13          ment in the United States to screen foreign invest-
14          ments for national security risks and to facilitate co-
15          ordination;

16          (7) the President should lead a collaborative ef-

13       when considering national security risks, the Committee on 14       Foreign Investment in the United States may consider—

15               (1) whether a transaction involves a country of 16       special concern that has a demonstrated or declared
17       strategic goal of acquiring a type of critical tech-
18       nology or critical infrastructure that would affect 19       United States technological and industrial leadership 20       in areas related to national security;

8 sitive data of United States citizens to access by a
9 foreign government or foreign person that may exploit 10 that information in a manner that threatens national 11 security; and

13 fect of exacerbating or creating new cybersecurity
14 vulnerabilities in the United States or is likely to re-
15 sult in a foreign government gaining a significant
16 new capability to engage in malicious cyber-enabled 17 activities against the United States, including such 18 activities designed to affect the outcome of any elec-
