

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 1389

To amend the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act to include an act of unregulated custody transfer in the definition of child abuse and neglect, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 27, 2019

Mr. LANGEVIN (for himself and Mr. BACON) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor

A BILL

To amend the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act to include an act of unregulated custody transfer in the definition of child abuse and neglect, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Safe Home Act of 5 2019”.

6 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7 It is the sense of Congress that:

1 (1) Adopted children may be most at risk of ex-
2 periencing an unregulated custody transfer because
3 the challenges associated with adoptions, including
4 the child’s mental health needs and the difficulties
5 many families face in acquiring support services,
6 may lead families to seek out unregulated custody
7 transfers.

8 (2) Many adopted children experience trauma,
9 and the disruption and placement in another home
10 by unregulated custody transfer creates additional
11 trauma and instability for the child.

12 (3) Children who experience an unregulated
13 custody transfer may be placed with families who
14 have not completed required child welfare or crimi-
15 nal background checks or clearances.

16 (4) Social services agencies and courts are often
17 unaware of the placement of children through un-
18 regulated custody transfer and therefore do not con-
19 duct assessments on the child’s safety and well-being
20 in such placements.

21 (5) Such lack of placement oversight places a
22 child at risk for future abuse and increases the like-
23 lihood that the child may experience—

24 (A) physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or 25 neglect;

1 (B) contact with unsafe adults or youth;
2 and

3 (C) exposure to unsafe or isolated environ-
4 ments.

5 (6) The caregivers with whom a child is placed
6 through unregulated custody transfer often have no
7 legal responsibility with respect to such child, plac-
8 ing the child at risk for additional unregulated cus-
9 tody transfers.

10 (7) Such caregivers also may not have complete
11 records, including birth, medical, or immigration
12 records.

13 (8) A child adopted through intercountry adop-
14 tion may be at risk of not acquiring United States
15 citizenship if an unregulated custody transfer occurs
16 before the adoptive parents complete all necessary
17 steps to finalize the adoption of such child.

18 (9) Engaging in, or offering to engage in, un-
19 regulated custody transfer is a form of child abuse.

20 SEC. 3. TREATMENT OF UNREGULATED CUSTODY TRANS-
21 FER.

22 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 3 of the Child Abuse Pre-23 vention and Treatment Act (42 U.S.C. 5101 note) is

17 is not—

20 aunt, legal guardian, or other adult rel-
21 ative;

22 “(ii) a friend of the family who is an
23 adult and with whom the child is familiar;
24 or

1 “(iii) a member of the federally recog-
2 nized Indian tribe of which the child is also
