To temporarily prevent emerging growth companies from losing their status during the COVID–19 pandemic, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 16, 2020

Mr. STEIL (for himself, Mr. STIVERS, and Mr. HILL of Arkansas) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

A BILL

To temporarily prevent emerging growth companies from losing their status during the COVID–19 pandemic, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Coronavirus EGC Extension Act”.

SEC. 2. EXTENSION OF EMERGING GROWTH COMPANY DES-IGNATION.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Any issuer that was an emerging growth company during the entire period beginning on March 13, 2020, and ending on the date of enactment of this Act shall be deemed an emerging growth company until the later of—

(1) one year after the date of enactment of this Act;

(2) the end of the incident period for the emergency declared by the President under section 501(b) of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5191(b)) with respect to the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID–19); and

(3) the date that the issuer would cease being an emerging growth company absent the application of this section.

(b) Definitions.—In this section, the terms “emerging growth company” and “issuer” have the meaning given those terms, respectively, under section 3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78c).
