

116TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 8491

To designate the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) as a transnational organized crime group.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 1, 2020

Mr. PERRY (for himself, Mr. BURCHETT, and Mr. DESJARLAIS) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To designate the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) as a transnational organized crime group.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Designating the Chi-
5 nese Communist Party as a Transnational Organized 6 Crime Group Act”.

7 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

8 The Congress finds the following:

9 (1) The 90,000,000 members of the Chinese 10 Communist Party (referred in this Act as the

1 “CCP”) are the sole ruling political party of the 2 People’s Republic of China (PRC) under the direc-
3 tion of General Secretary Xi Jinping.

4 (2) On June 30, 2020, in direct violation of the 5 Sino-British Joint Declaration, the PRC passed a 6 draconian national security law for Hong Kong that 7 gives the ruling CCP sweeping new powers over the 8 semi-autonomous city of Hong Kong.

9 (3) The national security law allows mainland
10 Chinese officials to operate in Hong Kong and gives 11 Beijing the power to subjugate the people of Hong 12 Kong to the dictums of the CCP.

13 (4) The physical wellbeing of foreign nationals
14 is at risk under the CCP’s new National Security
15 Law.

16 (5) In response to the CCP-led human rights
17 violations of unjust abuse and detention perpetrated
18 against the Uyghurs, Secretary of State Mike
19 Pompeo announced on July 9, 2020, that the Trump 20 administration would bar the entry of the following 21 three prominent CCP officials into the United 22 States—

23 (A) Chen Quanguo, the Communist Par-
24 ty’s Secretary of the Xinjiang Uyghur Autono-

1 mous Region (XUAR) in Northwest China and 2 a member of the Politburo;

3 (B) Zhu Hailun, Party Secretary of the 4 Xinjiang Political and Legal Committee
5 (XPLC); and

6 (C) Wang Mingshan, Party Secretary of 7 the Xinjiang Public Security Bureau (XPSB).

8 (6) On July 13, 2020, the Chinese Foreign 9 Ministry imposed sanctions against four United 10 States officials, including Senator Ted Cruz of 11 Texas, Senator Marco Rubio of Florida, Representa-
12 tive Chris Smith of New Jersey, and the Honorable 13 Sam Brownback, United States Ambassador for 14 International Religious Freedom, in retaliation to 15 Mr. Pompeo's July 9th announcement.

16 (7) On September 22, 2020, the House of Rep-
17 resentatives passed H.R. 6210, the Uyghur Forced 18 Labor Prevention Act, in a wide, bi-partisan man-19 ner.

20 (8) Despite China's promise to confirm all
21 forms of fentanyl as a class of drugs effective May 22 1, 2019, the PRC remained the primary source of 23 fentanyl trafficked into the United States last year,
24 according to a 2020 DEA Intelligence Report.

1 (9) Fentanyl is 50 to 100 times more potent
2 than morphine and killed 18,335 Americans in 3 2018.

4 (10) Chinese scientists and authorities knew
5 about the coronavirus as early as December 2019, 6 but were ordered by Chinese government officials on 7 January 3, 2020, to transfer samples to state insti-
8 tutions or destroy them.

9 (11) The CCP refused to allow the World
10 Health Organization to visit their country and re-
11 fused repeated offers of assistance from the U.S.
12 Centers for Disease Control throughout the month
13 of January 2020.

14 (12) The Chinese government did not concede 15 clear evidence of human-to-human transmission of 16 the coronavirus until January 19, 2020.

17 (13) China chose to lock down the city of 18 Wuhan on January 23, 2020, but not before
19 5,000,000 people had already left the city.

20 (14) Chinese doctors who attempted to provide 21 transparency regarding the consequences of the 22 SARS-CoV-2 virus were arbitrarily arrested, and 23 several remain unaccounted for.

24 (15) The Chinese government imposed travel
25 bans on its own people but told other nations, in-

1 cluding neighboring ones, that similar restrictions
2 were unnecessary.

3 (16) There have been more than 200,000
4 deaths from COVID–19 in the United States and 5 approximately 980,000 deaths, globally.

6 (17) The Director of the Federal Bureau of In-7 vestigation Christopher Wray recently described “the 8 greatest long-term threat to our Nation’s informa-
9 tion and intellectual property, and to our economic 10 vitality, is the counterintelligence and economic espi-
11 onage threat from China.”.

12 (18) Director Wray unequivocally identified the 13 source of this economic espionage, malignant foreign 14 influence, and menacing threat: “when I speak of 15 the threat from China, I mean the Government of 16 China and the Chinese Communist Party.”.

17 (19) According to the updated 2017 report
18 issued by the Commission on the Theft of American 19 Intellectual Property, the PRC is responsible for co-
20 ordinating a massive campaign in intellectual prop-21 erty theft, stealing anywhere between 22 $250,000,000,000 and $600,000,000,000 annually
23 from the United States.

1 (20) The IP Commission’s estimate does not in-
2 clude the “full cost of patent infringement—an area
3 sorely in need of greater research”.

4 (21) The United States Trade Representative
5 has confirmed the findings of the 2017 IP Commis-
6 sion’s report.

7 (22) The IP Commission found that forced 8 technology transfer accounts for anywhere from 9 $180,000,000,000 to $540,000,000,000 per year in 10 lost value for the United States economy; of that 11 value, the IP Commission also found that China ac-
12 counts for the most of that theft.

13 (23) According to Director Wray, the level of 14 the CCP criminality is so widespread and volumi-
15 nous that “the FBI is opening a new China-related 16 counterintelligence case about every 10 hours and of 17 the nearly 5,000 active FBI counterintelligence cases
18 currently underway across the country, almost half 19 are related to China.”.

20 (24) The nonprofit investigative body, China 21 Tribunal, detailed in their March 2020 report that 22 the CCP’s campaign of forced organ harvesting 23 against innocent victims could constitute one of the 24 world’s “worst atrocities committed” in modern 25 times.

(25) The 2019 report issued by the Congressional-Executive Commission on China described the failure of the CCP to protect the human rights of its citizens: “[The 2019 report] found that the human rights situation has worsened and the rule of law continues to deteriorate, as the Chinese Government and Party increasingly used regulations and laws to assert social and political control. . . The abuse of criminal law and police power to target rights advocates, religious believers, and ethnic minority groups also continues unabated, and reporting on such abuses became increasingly restricted.”.

18 (a) TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME GROUP.—
19 On the date of the enactment of this Act, the Attorney 20 General shall designate the Chinese Communist Party as
