- 7 curs in the United States, the Secretary of Homeland Se-
- 8 curity, the Attorney General, the Director of the Federal
- 9 Bureau of Investigation, and, as appropriate, the head of
- 10 the National Counterterrorism Center, shall submit to the
- 11 appropriate congressional committees, by not later than
- 12 one year after the completion of the investigation con-
- 13 cerning such act by the primary Government agency con-
- 14 ducting such investigation, an unclassified report (which
- 15 may be accompanied by a classified annex) concerning
- 16 such act.
- 17 (b) CONTENT OF REPORTS.—A report under this sec-
- 18 tion shall—
- (1) include a statement of the facts of the act
- of terrorism referred to in subsection (a), as known
- at the time of the report;
- 22 (2) identify any gaps in homeland or national
- security that could be addressed to prevent future
- acts of terrorism; and
- 25 (3) include any recommendations for additional
- measures that could be taken to improve homeland

or national security, including recommendations relating to potential changes in law enforcement practices or changes in law, with particular attention to changes that could help prevent future acts of terrorism.

(c) Exception.—

- (1) In General.—If the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Attorney General, the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or, as appropriate, the head of the National Counterterrorism Center determines any information described in subsection (b) required to be reported in accordance with subsection (a) could jeopardize an ongoing investigation or prosecution, the Secretary, Attorney General, Director, or head, as the case may be—
 - (A) may withhold from reporting such information; and
 - (B) shall notify the appropriate congressional committees of such determination.
- (2) SAVING PROVISION.—Withholding of information pursuant to a determination under paragraph (1) shall not affect in any manner the responsibility to submit a report required under subsection (a) containing other information described in subsection (b) not subject to such determination.
