

117TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 6579

To enable an employer or employees to establish an employee involvement organization to represent the interests of employees, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 3, 2022

Mr. BANKS (for himself, Mr. ALLEN, Mr. JACKSON, Mr. GARCIA of California, Mr. COLE, Ms. TENNEY, Mr. DONALDS, Mr. NORMAN, Mr. ROUZER, Mrs. MILLER of Illinois, Mr. AUSTIN SCOTT of Georgia, Mr. MANN, and Mr. BABIN) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor

A BILL

To enable an employer or employees to establish an employee involvement organization to represent the interests of employees, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Teamwork for Employ-5 ees and Managers Act of 2022”.

1 SEC. 2. EMPLOYER EXCEPTION.

2 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 8 of the National Labor 3 Relations Act (29 U.S.C. 158) is amended by adding at 4 the end the following:

5 “(h) It shall not constitute or be evidence of an unfair
6 labor practice under subsection (a) for an employer to es-7 tablish, assist, maintain, or participate in an employee in-8 volvement organization, as defined in section 3 of the 9 Teamwork for Employees and Managers Act of 2022: Pro- 10 vided, That this subsection shall not apply in a case in 11 which a labor organization is the representative of the em-12 ployees of the employer in accordance with section 9(a).”.

13 (b) EXCEPTION FROM LABOR ORGANIZATION DEFINI-
14 TION.—Section 2(5) of the National Labor Relations 15 Act (29 U.S.C. 152(5)) is amended by inserting “, except 16 that the term shall not include an employee involvement 17 organization as defined in section 3 of the Teamwork for 18 Employees and Managers Act of 2022” before the period 19 at the end.

20 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

21 In this Act:

22 (1) EMPLOYEE.—The term “employee” has the 23 meaning given such term in section 2 of the Na-
24 tional Labor Relations Act (29 U.S.C. 152).

25 (2) EMPLOYEE INVOLVEMENT ORGANIZA-
26 TION.—The term “employee involvement organization” means an organization or entity established by the mutual consent of an employer and any number of employees of the employer—

(A) which may be initiated by the employer, the employees, or both;

(B) which may be dissolved—

(i) except as described in clause (ii), at any time, and without regard to cause, by the employer, the employees, or both; or

(ii) in the case of an employee involvement organization for a large employer and employees of the large employer, only in accordance with section 4(b)(2);

(C) in which employees and supervisors participate to address matters of mutual interest, including issues of quality of work, productivity, efficiency, compensation, benefits (including related to education and training), recruitment and retention, grievances, child care, safety and health, and accommodation of the religious beliefs and practices of employees; and

(D) that does not have, claim, or seek authority to—

(i) be the exclusive collective bargaining representative of the employees

1 participating in such organization or enti-
2 ty;

3 (ii) negotiate or enter into a collective 4 bargaining agreement with the employer on 5 behalf of such employees;

6 (iii) amend any collective bargaining 7 agreement between the employer and any 8 labor organization; or

9 (iv) preclude such employees from 10 designating or selecting a labor organiza-
11 tion as the representative of such employ-
12 ees, as provided in section 9(a) of the Na-
13 tional Labor Relations Act (29 U.S.C.
14 159(a)).

15 (3) EMPLOYER.—The term “employer” has the 16 meaning given such term in section 2 of the Na-
17 tional Labor Relations Act (29 U.S.C. 152).

18 (4) LARGE EMPLOYER.—The term “large em-19 ployer” means an employer that—

20 (A) had more than $1,000,000,000 in an-21 nual gross revenues for the most recently com-22 pleted fiscal year prior to the date of certifi-23 cation under section 4(b)(1); and 24 (B) employs more than 3,000 employees on 25 such date.

1 (5) WORKFORCE COMMITTEE.—The term
2 “workforce committee” means a committee of the 3 board of directors of an employer that—

4 (A) oversees the policies of the employer on 5 quality of work, productivity, efficiency, com-6 pensation, benefits (including related to edu-7 cation and training), recruitment and retention, 8 grievances, child care, safety and health, and 9 accommodation of the religious beliefs and prac-10 tices of employees;

11 (B) has a substantially equivalent source
12 of authority with respect to authorizing provi-13 sions in the article of incorporation or bylaws of 14 the employer as the compensation committee of 15 the board of directors or an equivalent com-16 mittee of the board of directors; and 17 (C) may be the compensation committee of 18 the board of directors or an equivalent com-

19 mittee of the board of directors, if such com-20 mittee meets the requirements of this para-21 graph.

1 SEC. 4. REQUIREMENTS FOR EMPLOYEE INVOLVEMENT OR- 2 GANIZATIONS AT LARGE EMPLOYERS.

3 (a) IN GENERAL.—This section shall apply to each 4 employee involvement organization for a large employer
5 and employees of the large employer.

6 (b) ESTABLISHMENT OF AN EMPLOYEE INVOLVE-7 MENT ORGANIZATION FOR LARGE EMPLOYERS.—

8 (1) CERTIFICATION.—A large employer shall 9 certify each employee involvement organization for 10 the large employer on the date of formation of such 11 employee involvement organization.

12 (2) PROCEDURES.—

13 (A) IN GENERAL.—An employee involve-
14 ment organization established under paragraph 15 (1) shall have reasonable procedures regard-16 ing—

17 (i) how an employee may join or leave
18 such employee involvement organization;
19 and

20 (ii) dissolution of the employee in-21 volvement organization.

22 (B) DISSOLUTION FOR CAUSE.—

23 (i) IN GENERAL.—In the case of an 24 employee involvement organization that 25 has been certified under paragraph (1) for 26 not less than 5 consecutive years, a large

1 employer may only dissolve such employee
2 involvement organization with cause.

3 (ii) CAUSE.—For purposes of clause
4 (i), the term “cause” means a reasonable 5 business purpose for dissolution, as deter-6 mined by—

7 (I) the independent business 8 judgment of the board of directors of 9 the business of the large employer; or 10 (II) if the business of a large em-
11 ployer does not have a board of direc-12 tors, the substantial equivalent of the 13 board of directors.

14 (3) COOLING-OFF PERIOD.—Unless otherwise 15 specified in the certification under paragraph (1), an 16 employee involvement organization may not be estab-17 lished at a large employer prior to 2 years after—

18 (A) in the case of a large employer for 19 which a valid election was held under section
20 9(c)(1) of the National Labor Relations Act (29 21 U.S.C. 159(c)(1)) in which a majority of the 22 employees voting in such election voted against 23 representation, the date of such election; or

24 (B) in the case of a large employer for 25 which a valid election was held under section

1 9(e) of such Act and a majority of the employ-
2 ees voting in such election voted in favor of re-
3 scission of the authority of a labor organization 4 to make an agreement described in section 5 8(a)(3) of such Act (29 U.S.C. 158(a)(3)), the 6 date of such election.

7 (c) EMPLOYEE REPRESENTATIVE OF AN EMPLOYEE
8 INVOLVEMENT ORGANIZATION.—

9 (1) IN GENERAL.—Employees participating in 10 an employee involvement organization established 11 under subsection (b)(1) may, subject to the require-12 ments in paragraph (2), elect through reasonable 13 means an employee representative of the employee
14 involvement organization.

15 (2) ELECTION PROCESS.—

16 (A) REQUIREMENTS.—An election of an 17 employee representative of an employee involve-
18 ment organization for the large employer—

19 (i) shall be through a secret ballot of 20 the employees participating in the em-21 ployee involvement organization who are 22 employed by the large employer on the 23 date of such election and who are United 24 States citizens or reside primarily in the 25 United States; and

(ii) may not be funded through funding sources external to the employee involvement organization, including any labor organization, nonprofit, or business other than the employer.

(B) DEFAULT RULES REGARDING ELECTION PROCESS.—Unless otherwise specified in the certification under subsection (b)(1) by the large employer of such employee involvement organization, an election of an employee representative of an employee involvement organization for the large employer—

(i) may be funded through employer-provided funding; and

(ii) shall occur within the same time period and with the same regularity as the election of the board of directors of the large employer.

(3) ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Each individual elected to be a representative of an employee involvement organization for a large employer shall be an employee who—

(i) is eligible to vote under paragraph (2)(A)(i); and

1 (ii) except in a case in which the large
2 employer has operated for less than the 5
3 calendar years immediately preceding the 4 date of the election, has been employed by 5 the large employer for not less than the 5
6 calendar years immediately preceding the 7 date of the election.

8 (B) INELIGIBILITY; TERM LIMITS.—An
9 employee representative of an employee involve-
10 ment organization elected under this subsection 11 shall not—

12 (i) be employed by the employer at the 13 time of such election as a supervisor; or

14 (ii) at any time during the 5 calendar 15 years immediately preceding the date of 16 such election, be employed by the employer 17 in a position related to human resources.

18 (4) REPRESENTATION BY EMPLOYEE REP-
19 RESENTATIVE ON BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF LARGE
20 EMPLOYER.—

21 (A) BOARD REPRESENTATION.—Subject to 22 the limitation under subparagraph (B) and, as 23 relevant, the procedure under subparagraph
24 (C), an employee representative of an employee

1 involvement organization elected under this sub-2 section shall—

3 (i) be a nonvoting member of either or 4 both of—

5 (I) the board of directors of the 6 employer; or

7 (II) a workforce committee of the 8 board of directors of the employer;

9 (ii) be permitted to attend any regular 10 meeting of such board or committee, as ap-11 plicable; and

12 (iii) receive equal access to informa-
13 tion relevant to the purposes of the em-14 ployee involvement organization as any 15 other member of the board or committee, 16 as applicable.

17 (B) LIMITATIONS.—Unless otherwise spec-
18 ified in the certification under subsection (b)(1) 19 by the large employer of such employee involve-20 ment organization, an employer may exclude an 21 employee representative from attending any 22 meeting of any committee of the board of direc-23 tors of the business of such employer (or the 24 substantial equivalent of any such committee)

1 called for purposes unrelated to the purposes of 2 such employee involvement organization.

3 (C) SPECIAL PROCEDURE FOR AN EM-4 PLOYER WITH MORE THAN 1 EMPLOYEE IN-5 VOLVEMENT ORGANIZATION.—In a case in 6 which 2 or more employee representatives in 7 total are elected for a large employer under 8 paragraph (1), the employer and each employee 9 involvement organization that elects such an 10 employee representative shall, by reasonable 11 procedures which provide for the input of each 12 such employee involvement organization, ensure 13 that only 1 employee representative for the em-14 ployer at any time exercises the powers de-15 scribed in subparagraph (A).

16 SEC. 5. SAFE HARBOR FOR VIOLATION OF RULES DUE TO 17 THE FAULT OF AN EMPLOYEE.

18 Section 8 of the National Labor Relations Act (29 19 U.S.C. 158), as amended by section 2, is further amended 20 by adding at the end the following:

21 “(i) It shall not constitute or be evidence of an unfair
22 labor practice under subsection (a) for an employer to es-
23 tablish, assist, maintain, or participate in an organization 24 which purports to be an employee involvement organiza-
25 tion, as defined in section 3 of the Teamwork for Employees and Managers Act of 2022, but which fails to comply with the requirements of such Act due to the fault of an employee: Provided, That this subsection shall not apply in a case in which a labor organization is the representative of the employees of the employer in accordance with section 9(a).”.

SEC. 6. LIMITATIONS.

(a) LABOR ORGANIZATION RIGHTS.—This Act shall not prevent or affect the rights provided to labor organizations under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act (29 U.S.C. 159).

(b) EMPLOYEE RIGHTS.—This Act shall not affect the rights and responsibilities of employees under the National Labor Relations Act (29 U.S.C. 151 et seq.), except with respect to the amendments made to section 2(5) and section 8 of the National Labor Relations Act (29 U.S.C. 152(5); 29 U.S.C. 158) by sections 2 and 5 of this Act.

SEC. 7. ENFORCEMENT BY THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD.

Section 6 of the National Labor Relations Act (29 U.S.C. 156) is amended—

- (1) by striking “The Board” and inserting “(a) The Board”; and
- (2) by adding at the end the following:

1 “(b) The Board shall not have any authority for en-
2 forcement, or adjudication, under this Act or the Team-
3 work for Employees and Managers Act of 2022 with re-4 spect to an employee involvement organization, as defined 5 in section 3 of such Act.”.
