A BILL

To amend the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 to provide more effective remedies to victims of discrimination in the payment of wages on the basis of sex, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2   tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3   SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Paycheck Fairness Act”.

5   SEC. 2. ENHANCED ENFORCEMENT OF EQUAL PAY RE-
6                   QUIREMENTS.

7       (a) DEFINITIONS.—Section 3 of the Fair Labor Stand-
8   ards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 203) is amended by adding 9   at the end the following:

10      “(z) ‘Sex’ includes—

11       “(1) a sex stereotype;

12       “(2) pregnancy, childbirth, or a related medical 13    condition;

14       “(3) sexual orientation or gender identity; and 15       “(4) sex characteristics, including intersex traits.

16       “(aa) ‘Sexual orientation’ includes homosexuality, het-17    erosexuality, and bisexuality.

18       “(bb) ‘Gender identity’ means the gender-related iden-19    tity, appearance, mannerisms, or other gender-related char-
20    acteristics of an individual, regardless of the individual’s 21    designated sex at birth.”.

22       (b) BONA FIDE FACTOR DEFENSE AND MODIFICATION
23   OF SAME ESTABLISHMENT REQUIREMENT.—Section
24   6(d)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C.
25   206(d)(1)) is amended—

1                   (1) by striking “No employer having” and inserting “(A) No employer having”;

3                   (2) by striking “any other factor other than sex” and inserting “a bona fide factor other than sex, such 4                   as education, training, or experience”; and 5

6                   (3) by inserting at the end the following:

7                   “(B) The bona fide factor defense described in 8                   subparagraph (A)(iv) shall apply only if the employer 9                   demonstrates that such factor (i) is not based upon or 10                  derived from a sex-based differential in compensation; 11                  (ii) is job-related with respect to the position in ques-12                  tion; (iii) is consistent with business necessity; and 13                  (iv) accounts for the entire differential in compensa-14                  tion at issue. Such defense shall not apply where the 15                  employee demonstrates that an alternative employ-16                  ment practice exists that would serve the same busi-17                  ness purpose without producing such differential and 18                  that the employer has refused to adopt such alter-19                  native practice.

20                  “(C) For purposes of subparagraph (A), employ-21                  ees shall be deemed to work in the same establishment 22                  if the employees work for the same employer at work-23                  places located in the same county or similar political 24                  subdivision of a State. The preceding sentence shall 25                  not be construed as limiting broader applications of 1       the term ‘establishment’ consistent with rules pre-

2       scribed or guidance issued by the Equal Employment 3       Opportunity Commission.”.

4       (c) NONRETALIATION PROVISION.—Section 15 of the 5       Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 215) is 6       amended—

7           (1) in subsection (a)—

8              (A) in paragraph (3), by striking “employee 9       has filed” and all that follows and inserting 10      “employee—

11             “(A) has made a charge or filed any com-
12       plaint or instituted or caused to be instituted 13       any investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action
14       under or related to this Act, including an inves-
15       tigation conducted by the employer, or has testi- 16       fied or is planning to testify or has assisted or 17       participated in any manner in any such inves-
18       tigation, proceeding, hearing or action, or has 19       served or is planning to serve on an industry 20       committee;

21             “(B) has opposed any practice made unlaw- 22       ful by this Act; or

23             “(C) has inquired about, discussed, or dis-
24       closed the wages of the employee or another em- 25       ployee (such as by inquiring or discussing with

1           the employer why the wages of the employee are 2           set at a certain rate or salary);”;

3           (B) in paragraph (5), by striking the period 4           at the end and inserting “; or”; and

5           (C) by adding at the end the following:

6           “(6) to require an employee to sign a contract or 7           waiver that would prohibit the employee from dis-8           closing information about the employee’s wages.”; and

9           (2) by adding at the end the following:

10          “(c) Subsection (a)(3)(C) shall not apply to instances 11       in which an employee who has access to the wage informa-12       tion of other employees as a part of such employee’s essen-13       tial job functions discloses the wages of such other employees 14       to individuals who do not otherwise have access to such in-15       formation, unless such disclosure is in response to a com-16       plaint or charge or in furtherance of an investigation, pro-17       ceeding, hearing, or action under section 6(d), including an 18       investigation conducted by the employer. Nothing in this 19       subsection shall be construed to limit the rights of an em-20       ployee provided under any other provision of law.”.

21          *(d) ENHANCED PENALTIES.—Section 16(b) of the Fair
22       Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 216(b)) is amend-23       ed—*

24          (1) by inserting after the first sentence the fol-25       lowing: “Any employer who violates section 6(d), or

1       who violates the provisions of section 15(a)(3) in relation to a violation of section 6(d), shall additionally 2       be liable for such compensatory damages, or, where 3       the employee demonstrates that the employer acted 4       with malice or reckless indifference, punitive damages
5       as may be appropriate, except that the United States 6       shall not be liable for punitive damages.”;

7 8           (2) in the sentence beginning “An action to”, by 9       striking “the preceding sentences” and inserting “any 10      of the preceding sentences of this subsection”;

11          (3) in the sentence beginning “No employees 12       shall”, by striking “No employees” and inserting 13       “Except with respect to class actions brought to enforce 14       section 6(d), no employee”;

15           (4) by inserting after the sentence referred to in 16       paragraph (3), the following: “Notwithstanding any 17       other provision of Federal law, any action brought to enforce 18       section 6(d) may be maintained as a class action as provided by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.”; and

21           (5) in the sentence beginning “The court in”— 22           (A) by striking “in such action” and inserting “in any action brought to recover the liability prescribed in any of the preceding sentences of this subsection”; and

1                             (B) by inserting before the period the fol-
2                             lowing: “, including expert fees”.

3                             (e) ACTION BY THE SECRETARY.—Section 16(c) of the 4 Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 216(c)) is 5 amended—

6                             (1) in the first sentence—

7                             (A) by inserting “or, in the case of a viola-8                             tion of section 6(d), additional compensatory or 9                             punitive damages, as described in subsection 10                             (b),” before “and the agreement”; and

11                             (B) by inserting before the period the fol-12                             lowing: “, or such compensatory or punitive 13                             damages, as appropriate”;

14                             (2) in the second sentence, by inserting before the 15                             period the following: “and, in the case of a violation 16                             of section 6(d), additional compensatory or punitive 17                             damages, as described in subsection (b)”; 18                             (3) in the third sentence, by striking “the first 19                             sentence” and inserting “the first or second sentence”; 20                             and 21                             (4) in the sixth sentence—

22                             (A) by striking “commenced in the case” 23                             and inserting “commenced—24                             “(1) in the case”;

1                   (B) by striking the period and inserting “; 2                   or”; and

3                   (C) by adding at the end the following:

4                   “(2) in the case of a class action brought to en-5                   force section 6(d), on the date on which the individual 6                   becomes a party plaintiff to the class action.”.

7                   (f) JOINT ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY.—

8                   (1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding section 1 of 9                   Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1978 (92 Stat. 3781; 5 10                  U.S.C. App.) and any other provision of law, the Sec-11                  retary of Labor, acting through the Office of Federal 12                  Contract Compliance Programs, and the Equal Op-13                  portunity Employment Commission shall jointly 14                  carry out the functions and authorities described in 15                  such section and any other provision of law to enforce 16                  and administer the provisions of section 6(d) of the 17                  Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 206(d))
18                  with respect to Federal contractors, Federal sub-19                  contractors, and federally-assisted construction con-20                  tractors, within the jurisdiction of the Office of Fed-21                  eral Contract Compliance Programs under Executive 22                  Order 11246 (42 U.S.C. 2000e note; relating to equal 23                  employment opportunity) or a successor Executive 24                  Order.

1                   (2) COORDINATION.—The Equal Opportunity
2                   Employment Commission and the Secretary of Labor
3                   shall establish such coordinating mechanisms as nec- 4                   essary to carry out the joint authority under para- 5                   graph (1).

6                   SEC. 3. TRAINING.

7                   The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and 8                   the Secretary of Labor, acting through the Office of Federal 9                   Contract Compliance Programs, subject to the availability 10                  of funds appropriated under section 11, shall provide train- 11                  ing to employees of the Commission and the Office of Fed- 12                  eral Contract Compliance Programs and to affected indi- 13                  viduals and entities on matters involving discrimination 14                  in the payment of wages.

15                  SEC. 4. NEGOTIATION SKILLS TRAINING.

16                  (a) PROGRAM AUTHORIZED.—

17                  (1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Labor, after 18                  consultation with the Secretary of Education, is au- 19                  thorized to establish and carry out a grant program.

20                  (2) GRANTS.—In carrying out the program, the 21                  Secretary of Labor may make grants on a competitive 22                  basis to eligible entities to carry out negotiation skills 23                  training programs for the purposes of addressing pay 24                  disparities, including through outreach to women and 25                  girls.

1                   (3) ELIGIBLE ENTITIES.—To be eligible to re-2 ceive a grant under this subsection, an entity shall be 3 a public agency, such as a State, a local government 4 in a metropolitan statistical area (as defined by the 5 Office of Management and Budget), a State edu-6 cational agency, or a local educational agency, a pri-7 vate nonprofit organization, or a community-based 8 organization.

9                   (4) APPLICATION.—To be eligible to receive a 10 grant under this subsection, an entity shall submit an 11 application to the Secretary of Labor at such time, in 12 such manner, and containing such information as the 13 Secretary of Labor may require.

14                   (5) USE OF FUNDS.—An entity that receives a 15 grant under this subsection shall use the funds made 16 available through the grant to carry out an effective 17 negotiation skills training program for the purposes 18 described in paragraph (2).

19                   (b) INCORPORATING TRAINING INTO EXISTING PRO-
20 GRAMS.—The Secretary of Labor and the Secretary of Edu-21 cation shall issue regulations or policy guidance that pro- 22 vides for integrating the negotiation skills training, to the 23 extent practicable, into programs authorized under—

24                   (1) in the case of the Secretary of Education, the 25 Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965

1       (20 U.S.C. 6301 et seq.), the Carl D. Perkins Career
2       and Technical Education Act of 2006 (20 U.S.C.
3       2301 et seq.), the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20
4       U.S.C. 1001 et seq.), and other programs carried out 5       by the Department of Education that the Secretary of 6       Education determines to be appropriate; and 7               (2) in the case of the Secretary of Labor, the 8       Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (29

9       U.S.C. 3101 et seq.), and other programs carried out 10      by the Department of Labor that the Secretary of 11      Labor determines to be appropriate.

12       (c) REPORT.—Not later than 18 months after the date
13      of enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter, the Sec-14      retary of Labor, in consultation with the Secretary of Edu-15      cation, shall prepare and submit to Congress a report de-16      scribing the activities conducted under this section and 17      evaluating the effectiveness of such activities in achieving 18      the purposes of this section.

19      SEC. 5. RESEARCH, EDUCATION, AND OUTREACH.

20       (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 18 months after the 21      date of enactment of this Act, and periodically thereafter, 22      the Secretary of Labor shall conduct studies and provide 23      information to employers, labor organizations, and the gen-24      eral public concerning the means available to eliminate pay 25      disparities between men and women (including women who

1   are Asian American, Black or African-American, Hispanic
2   American or Latino, Native American or Alaska Native,
3   Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, and White Amer- 4   ican), including—

5           (1) conducting and promoting research to de-
6           velop the means to correct expeditiously the conditions 7           leading to the pay disparities, with specific attention 8           paid to women and girls from historically underrep- 9           resented and minority groups;

10          (2) publishing and otherwise making available to 11          employers, labor organizations, professional associa- 12          tions, educational institutions, the media, and the 13          general public the findings resulting from studies and 14          other materials, relating to eliminating the pay dis- 15          parities;

16          (3) sponsoring and assisting State, local, and 17          community informational and educational programs;

18          (4) providing information to employers, labor 19          organizations, professional associations, and other in- 20          terested persons on the means of eliminating the pay 21          disparities; and

22          (5) recognizing and promoting the achievements
23          of employers, labor organizations, and professional 24          associations that have worked to eliminate the pay 25          disparities.

1       (b) REPORT ON GENDER PAY GAP IN TEENAGE LABOR

2 FORCE.—

3                     (1) REPORT REQUIRED.—Not later than one 4                     year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the 5                     Secretary of Labor, acting through the Director of the 6                     Women's Bureau and in coordination with the Com-7                     missioner of Labor Statistics, shall—

8                         (A) submit to Congress a report on the gen-9                         der pay gap in the teenage labor force; and

10                         (B) make the report available on a publicly 11                         accessible website of the Department of Labor.

12                     (2) ELEMENTS.—The report under subsection (a) 13                     shall include the following:

14                         (A) An examination of trends and potential 15                         solutions relating to the teenage gender pay gap.

16                         (B) An examination of how the teenage gen-17                         der pay gap potentially translates into greater 18                         wage gaps in the overall labor force.

19                         (C) An examination of overall lifetime earn-20                         ings and losses for informal and formal jobs for 21                         women, including women of color.

22                         (D) An examination of the teenage gender 23                         pay gap, including a comparison of the average 24                         amount earned by males and females, respec-25                         tively, in informal jobs, such as babysitting and

1           other freelance jobs, as well as formal jobs, such 2           as retail, restaurant, and customer service.

3           (E) A comparison of—

4                 (i) the types of tasks typically per- 5                 formed by women from the teenage years
6                 through adulthood within certain informal
7                 jobs, such as babysitting and other freelance 8                 jobs, and formal jobs, such as retail, res- 9                 taurant, and customer service; and

10                 (ii) the types of tasks performed by

7   SEC. 6. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE NATIONAL AWARD FOR 8                   PAY EQUITY IN THE WORKPLACE.

9                   (a) IN GENERAL.—There is established the National 10   Award for Pay Equity in the Workplace, which shall be 11   awarded by the Secretary of Labor in consultation with the 12   Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, on an an-13   nual basis, to an employer to encourage proactive efforts 14   to comply with section 6(d) of the Fair Labor Standards 15   Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 206(d)), as amended by this Act.

16                   (b) CRITERIA FOR QUALIFICATION.—The Secretary of 17   Labor, in consultation with the Equal Employment Oppor-18   tunity Commission, shall—

19                   (1) set criteria for receipt of the award, includ-20   ing a requirement that an employer has made sub-21   stantial effort to eliminate pay disparities between 22   men and women and deserves special recognition as 23   a consequence of such effort; and 24                   (2) establish procedures for the application and 25   presentation of the award.

1       (c) BUSINESS.—In this section, the term “employer” 2 includes—
3           (1)(A) a corporation, including a nonprofit cor-
4 poration;
5           (B) a partnership;
6           (C) a professional association;
7           (D) a labor organization; and 8           (E) a business entity similar to an entity de-9 scribed in any of subparagraphs (A) through (D); 10          (2) an entity carrying out an education referral 11 program, a training program, such as an apprenticeship or management training program, or a similar 12 program; and 13          (3) an entity carrying out a joint program, 14 formed by a combination of any entities described in 15 paragraph (1) or (2).

17 SEC. 7. COLLECTION OF PAY INFORMATION BY THE EQUAL 18 EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION.

19       Section 709 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C.
20 2000e–8) is amended by adding at the end the following: 21           “(f)(1) Not later than 18 months after the date of en-22 actment of this subsection, the Commission shall provide for 23 the collection from employers of compensation data and 24 other employment-related data (including hiring, termi-

1 nation, and promotion data) disaggregated by the sex, race, 2 and national origin of employees.

3 “(2) In carrying out paragraph (1), the Commission
4 shall have as its primary consideration the most effective
5 and efficient means for enhancing the enforcement of Fed-6 eral laws prohibiting pay discrimination. For this purpose, 7 the Commission shall consider factors including the imposi-8 tion of burdens on employers, the frequency of required re-9 ports (including the size of employers required to prepare 10 reports), appropriate protections for maintaining data con-11 fidentiality, and the most effective format to report such 12 data.

13 “(3)(A) For each 12-month reporting period for an em-14 ployer, the compensation data collected under paragraph 15 (1) shall include, for each range of taxable compensation
16 described in subparagraph (B), disaggregated by the cat-
17 egories described in subparagraph (E)—

18 “(i) the number of employees of the employer 19 who earn taxable compensation in an amount that 20 falls within such taxable compensation range; and 21 “(ii) the total number of hours worked by such 22 employees.

23 “(B) Subject to adjustment under subparagraph (C), 24 the taxable compensation ranges described in this subpara-25 graph are as follows:

- 1           “(i) Not more than $19,239.
- 2           “(ii) Not less than $19,240 and not more than
- 3           $24,439.
- 4           “(iii) Not less than $24,440 and not more than
- 5           $30,679.
- 6           “(iv) Not less than $30,680 and not more than
- 7           $38,999.
- 8           “(v) Not less than $39,000 and not more than
- 9           $49,919.
- 10          “(vi) Not less than $49,920 and not more than
- 11          $62,919.
- 12          “(vii) Not less than $62,920 and not more than
- 13          $80,079.
- 14          “(viii) Not less than $80,080 and not more than
- 15          $101,919.
- 16          “(ix) Not less than $101,920 and not more than
- 17          $128,959.
- 18          “(x) Not less than $128,960 and not more than
- 19          $163,799.
- 20          “(xi) Not less than $163,800 and not more than
- 21          $207,999.
- 22          “(xii) Not less than $208,000.
- 23          “(C) The Commission may adjust the taxable com-
- 24          pensation ranges under subparagraph (B)—

1           “(i) if the Commission determines that such ad-
2       justment is necessary to enhance enforcement of Fed-3       eral laws prohibiting pay discrimination; or

4           “(ii) for inflation, in consultation with the Bu-5       reau of Labor Statistics.

6           “(D) In collecting data described in subparagraph 7       (A)(ii), the Commission shall provide that, with respect to 8       an employee who the employer is not required to com-
9       pensate for overtime employment under section 7 of the Fair 10      Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 207), an employer 11      may report—

12           “(i) in the case of a full-time employee, that such 13       employee works 40 hours per week, and in the case of 14       a part-time employee, that such employee works 20 15       hours per week; or

16           “(ii) the actual number of hours worked by such 17       employee.

18           “(E) The categories described in this subparagraph
19       shall be determined by the Commission and shall include—

20           “(i) race;

21           “(ii) national origin;

22           “(iii) sex; and 23           “(iv) job categories, including the job categories 24       described in the instructions for the Equal Employ-25       ment Opportunity Employer Information Report

1       EEO–1, as in effect on the date of the enactment of 2       this subsection.

3       “(F) The Commission shall use the compensation data 4       collected under paragraph (1)—

5           “(i) to enhance—

6              “(I) the investigation of charges filed under 7       section 706 or section 6(d) of the Fair Labor 8       Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 206(d)); and 9              “(II) the allocation of resources to inves- 10       tigate such charges; and

11           “(ii) for any other purpose that the Commission 12       determines appropriate.

13       “(G) The Commission shall annually make publicly 14       available aggregate compensation data collected under 15       paragraph (1) for the categories described in subparagraph 16       (E), disaggregated by industry, occupation, and core based 17       statistical area (as defined by the Office of Management and 18       Budget).

19       “(4) The compensation data under paragraph (1) shall 20       be collected from each employer that—

21           “(A) is a private employer that has 100 or more 22       employees, including such an employer that is a con-
23       tractor with the Federal Government, or a subcon- 24       tractor at any tier thereof; or

25           “(B) the Commission determines appropriate.”.

3                 (a) BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS DATA COLLEC-
4 TION.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics shall con-
5 tinue to collect data on women workers in the Current Em-
6 ployment Statistics survey.

7                 (b) OFFICE OF FEDERAL CONTRACT COMPLIANCE
8 PROGRAMS INITIATIVES.—The Director of the Office of Fed-
9 eral Contract Compliance Programs shall collect compensa- 10 tion data and other employment-related data (including, 11 hiring, termination, and promotion data) by demographics 12 and designate not less than half of all nonconstruction con- 13 tractors each year to prepare and file such data, and shall 14 review and utilize the responses to such data to identify 15 contractors for further evaluation and for other enforcement 16 purposes as appropriate.

17                 (c) DEPARTMENT OF LABOR DISTRIBUTION OF WAGE
18 DISCRIMINATION INFORMATION.—The Secretary of Labor
19 shall make readily available (in print, on the Department 20 of Labor website, and through any other forum that the De- 21 partment may use to distribute compensation discrimina- 22 tion information), accurate information on compensation 23 discrimination, including statistics, explanations of em- 24 ployee rights, historical analyses of such discrimination, in- 25 structions for employers on compliance, and any other in-

1 formation that will assist the public in understanding and 2 addressing such discrimination.

3 SEC. 9. PROHIBITIONS RELATING TO PROSPECTIVE EM-
4 PLOYEES' SALARY AND BENEFIT HISTORY.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Fair Labor Standards Act of 6 1938 (29 U.S.C. 201 et seq.) is amended by inserting after 7 section 7 the following new section:

8 “SEC. 8. REQUIREMENTS AND PROHIBITIONS RELATING TO 9 WAGE, SALARY, AND BENEFIT HISTORY.

10 “(a) IN GENERAL.—It shall be an unlawful practice 11 for an employer to—

12 “(1) rely on the wage history of a prospective 13 employee in considering the prospective employee for 14 employment, including requiring that a prospective 15 employee’s prior wages satisfy minimum or max-16 imum criteria as a condition of being considered for 17 employment;

18 “(2) rely on the wage history of a prospective
19 employee in determining the wages for such prospec-20 tive employee, except that an employer may rely on 21 wage history if it is voluntarily provided by a pro-22 spective employee, after the employer makes an offer 23 of employment with an offer of compensation to the 24 prospective employee, to support a wage higher than 25 the wage offered by the employer;

1           “(3) seek from a prospective employee or any 2        current or former employer the wage history of the 3        prospective employee, except that an employer may 4        seek to confirm prior wage information only after an 5        offer of employment with compensation has been 6        made to the prospective employee and the prospective 7        employee responds to the offer by providing prior 8        wage information to support a wage higher than that 9        offered by the employer; or 10           “(4) discharge or in any other manner retaliate 11        against any employee or prospective employee because 12        the employee or prospective employee—

13           “(A) opposed any act or practice made un-14        lawful by this section; or 15           “(B) took an action for which discrimina-16        tion is forbidden under section 15(a)(3).

17           “(b) DEFINITION.—In this section, the term ‘wage his-18        tory’ means the wages paid to the prospective employee by 19        the prospective employee’s current employer or previous em-20        ployer.”.

21           (b) PENALTIES.—Section 16 of such Act (29 U.S.C.
22 216) is amended by adding at the end the following new 23 subsection:

24           “(f)(1) Any person who violates the provisions of sec-25 tion 8 shall—

1           “(A) be subject to a civil penalty of $5,000 for 2        a first offense, increased by an additional $1,000 for 3        each subsequent offense, not to exceed $10,000; and 4           “(B) be liable to each employee or prospective 5        employee who was the subject of the violation for spe-6        cial damages not to exceed $10,000 plus attorneys’ 7        fees, and shall be subject to such injunctive relief as 8        may be appropriate.

9           “(2) An action to recover the liability described in 10      paragraph (1)(B) may be maintained against any em-
11      ployer (including a public agency) in any Federal or State 12      court of competent jurisdiction by any one or more employ-13      ees or prospective employees for and on behalf of—

14           “(A) the employees or prospective employees; and 15           “(B) other employees or prospective employees 16      similarly situated.”.

17 SEC. 10. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

18           (a) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There are 19      authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be nec-20      essary to carry out this Act.

21           (b) PROHIBITION ON EARMARKS.—None of the funds 22      appropriated pursuant to subsection (a) for purposes of the 23      grant program in section 5 of this Act may be used for 24      a congressional earmark as defined in clause 9(e) of rule 25      XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

1     SEC. 11. SMALL BUSINESS ASSISTANCE.

2         (a) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This Act and the amendments
3     made by this Act shall take effect on the date that is 6
4     months after the date of enactment of this Act.

5         (b) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE MATERIALS.—The Sec-
6     retary of Labor and the Commissioner of the Equal Em-
7     ployment Opportunity Commission shall jointly develop 8     technical assistance material to assist small enterprises in
