To award a Congressional Gold Medal to the group of heroic participants in the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising who led an armed resistance against Nazi occupiers and fought to preserve and protect the Jewish culture.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 30, 2022

Mr. KEATING (for himself, Mr. SMITH of New Jersey, and Ms. KAPTUR) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

A BILL

To award a Congressional Gold Medal to the group of heroic participants in the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising who led an armed resistance against Nazi occupiers and fought to preserve and protect the Jewish culture.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Heroes of the Warsaw
5 Ghetto Congressional Gold Medal Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) The Jewish people have long formed an in-
2 tegral part of the culture and history of Europe and 3 of Poland.

4 (2) Europeans Jews contribute to the rich di-
5 versity of society and culture across Europe.

6 (3) For centuries, prior to World War II, Po-
7 land represented a center of Jewish life in Europe
8 and was home to millions of Jews.

9 (4) Prior to World War II, 350,000 Jews lived
10 in Warsaw, representing about 30 percent of the 11 city's population.

12 (5) Following the Nazi takeover of Poland, the 13 Germans established the Warsaw ghetto in October 14 1940, and unlawfully confined Jewish civilians to the 15 ghetto in November 1940, with the population of the 16 ghetto reaching a height of 400,000 Jews.

17 (6) Life in the Warsaw ghetto was marked by 18 widespread starvation, disease, physical violence, and 19 deplorable conditions unsuitable for life, leading to 20 the deaths of 83,000 Jews between 1940 and mid-21 1942.

22 (7) In less than two months in 1942, German
23 units deported about 265,000 Jews from Warsaw to 24 the Treblinka death camp and killed an additional 25 35,000 Jews inside the ghetto.

1 (8) In early 1943, German and SS units in-
2 tended to deport the remaining Jewish population of 3 the ghetto to forced labor camps, but many Jews re-
4 sisted deportation.

5 (9) The Warsaw Ghetto Uprising began on 6 April 19, 1943, when SS and police forces appeared 7 outside the walls of the Warsaw ghetto with the in-
8 tent of liquidating the ghetto and deporting its re-
9 maining inhabitants.

10 (10) Aided in part by arms from the Polish un-
11 derground and relying on clandestinely organized
12 Jewish self-defense groups, the ghetto heroically re-
13 sisted German forces, mounting an organized armed 14 resistance against SS and police units and fighting
15 against impossible odds.

16 (11) Jews in the ghetto continued to fend off
17 their German occupiers for almost one month, fight-
18 ing to the last.

19 (12) After weeks of resistance, the Germans
20 systematically destroyed the ghetto, burning build-
21 ings and razing city blocks in an attempt to erase
22 the memory and existence of the Jewish people.

23 (13) By May 16, 1943, German forces had sup-
24 pressed the uprising and deported the ghetto's sur-

1 viving inhabitants to concentration camps and killing
2 centers.

3 (14) The heroes of the Warsaw ghetto who 4 bravely defended themselves in the face of unimaginable
5 crimes set an example for other occupied cities
6 and for other Jewish communities.

7 (15) In total, over 3,000,000 Polish Jews were 8 murdered by the Nazis during the Holocaust, with 9 only about 380,000 Polish Jews still alive in Poland,
10 the Soviet Union, or in concentration camps by the 11 end of the war.

12 (16) Genocide involves the erasure and elimination 13 of the memory and culture of a people, and 14 therefore the United States must work to preserve
15 the historical record of Jewish people around the 16 world, many of whom now live in the United States.

17 (17) Current and future generations benefit
18 from the preservation and memorialization of their 19 history and culture.

20 (18) Millions of Jewish people whose ancestors
21 came from Poland now live in the United States,
22 Israel, and around the world.

23 (19) Preservation of the history and culture of 24 Jewish people in Poland is essential to learning the

1 lessons of history and ensuring the prosperity of the 2 Jewish people for future generations.

3 (20) Museums are an important contributor to 4 the historical preservation of human memory, pro-
5 viding cultural, education and civic centers where 6 people can learn about the life and record of individ-
7 uals or groups of people from the past.

8 (21) Museums dedicated to the historical mem-
9 ory of Jewish people or the struggle for survival of 10 the Jewish people during the Holocaust play a crit-
11 ical role in preserving the memory of Jewish people.

12 (22) The construction of further museums, in-
13 cluding the Warsaw Ghetto Museum, would be a
14 welcoming place for all visitors who want to better
15 understand the fate of Jews incarcerated in the 16 Warsaw ghetto.

17 (23) The POLIN Museum of the History of the 18 Polish Jews is a central location for Jewish people 19 around the world to learn about the life, history, and 20 culture of their ancestors.

21 (24) The POLIN Museum is an important edu-
22 cational hub for all people to learn about the rich
23 history of Jewish people who were targeted and he-24 roically fought back against the Nazis in their at-
25 tempt to erase the memory of Jewish life in Europe.

1 (25) The POLIN Museum in Warsaw should be
2 celebrated for the important role it plays in the pres-
3 ervation of the memory of Jewish life as it docu-
4 ments the long history of Jewish life in Poland and 5 Europe both before and after the war, and sits on 6 the site of the former Warsaw ghetto where so many 7 heroic Jews fought against the erasure of the mem-
8 ory of the Jewish people.
