

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. J. RES. 119

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to set limits on Federal campaign contributions and spending, prohibit corporate spending in the political process, require Congress to develop a system of public campaign financing for all Federal candidates who qualify for the ballot, and allow the States to set reasonable limits on campaign contributions and spending in State and local elections, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 10, 2025

Mr. MCGOVERN submitted the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to set limits on Federal campaign contributions and spending, prohibit corporate spending in the political process, require Congress to develop a system of public campaign financing for all Federal candidates who qualify for the ballot, and allow the States to set reasonable limits on campaign contributions and spending in State and local elections, and for other purposes.

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two- 3 thirds of each House concurring therein), That the fol-

7 “SECTION 1. To advance democratic self-government
8 and political equality, and to protect the integrity of gov-9 ernment and the electoral process, the right of citizens of 10 the United States to vote in elections in which campaign
11 contributions and spending are subject to enforceable lim-
12 its as set forth in this article, shall not be abridged by 13 the United States.

1 amounts set forth in this section, but only to the extent
2 required by changes in the value of money.

3 “SECTION 3. No corporation or other entity created 4 by law shall contribute or spend any amount for the pur-
5 pose of influencing any election for the office of Represent-6 ative, Senator, the President, or the Vice President; but 7 a political party or candidate’s campaign may spend the 8 amounts prescribed by law.

9 “SECTION 4. Not later than sixty days after the rati-
10 fication of this article, Congress shall enact legislation as 11 follows:

12 “To limit the amounts that candidates, their cam-
13 paigns for the offices of Representative, Senator, Presi-
14 dent, or Vice President, and political parties may spend 15 on such candidacies.

16 “To provide public funding for all candidates who 17 qualify for any primary, general, or special election ballot
18 for Representative, Senator, President, or Vice President 19 in any State or in the District constituting the seat of 20 Government of the United States, equaling at least eighty 21 percent of the amount that may be spent; but for can-22 didates for President or Vice President, Congress shall 23 prescribe by law the manner in which such amount shall 24 be apportioned based on the States or District wherein 25 such person qualifies.

1 “To require disposition to the Treasury of any 2 unspent campaign funds after each election, without com-
3 pensation.

4 “To enforce, with civil and criminal penalties, the 5 limits and prohibitions in this article.

6 “SECTION 5. After one year from the ratification of 7 this article, no Senator or Representative shall receive any 8 compensation or other emoluments from the United States
9 during or for any period of time in office in either House
10 during which the legislation required by section 4 shall not 11 have been in effect.

12 “SECTION 6. The judicial power of the United States
13 shall extend to all suits by citizens of the United States
14 arising under this article, including suits brought directly 15 under this article to enforce its provisions.

16 “SECTION 7. The States shall have power to imple-
17 ment and enforce reasonable regulations on the raising
18 and spending of money by candidates and others to influ-19 ence State or local elections, including but not limited to 20 the limits and prohibitions in this article.

21 “SECTION 8. This article shall not be construed to 22 grant Congress or the States the power to abridge the 23 freedom of the press.”.
