(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 771(7) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1677(7)) is amended—

(1) by redesignating subparagraphs (E) through (J) as subparagraphs (F) through (K), respectively;

(2) in subparagraph (I), as redesignated by paragraph (1)—

(A) by striking “subparagraph (G)(ii)” and inserting “subparagraph (H)(ii)”; and

(B) by striking “subparagraph (F)” and inserting “subparagraph (G)”; and

(3) by inserting after subparagraph (D) the following:

“(E) SPECIAL RULES FOR SUCCESSIVE INVESTIGATIONS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—

“(I) EVALUATION OF IMPACT ON DOMESTIC INDUSTRY.—In evaluating the impact of imports of the merchan-

1           dise on producers of domestic like
2           products under subparagraph (C)(iii), 3           the Commission shall—

4                   “(aa) consider the condition
5                   of the domestic industry as found 6                   in a recently completed investiga-
7                   tion;

8                   “(bb) consider the effect of 9                   a concurrent investigation or re-10                  cently completed investigation on 11                  trade and the financial perform-12                  ance of the domestic industry, in-13                  cluding whether the imports are 14                  likely to lead to the continuation 15                  or recurrence of material injury 16                  determined by the Commission in 17                  any concurrent investigation or 18                  recently completed investigation;

25                  PROVEMENT ON MATERIAL INJURY

1 DETERMINATION.—For the purposes
2 of this subparagraph, the Commission
3 may not find that there is no material

5 a domestic industry solely based on 6 recent improvements in the industry’s 7 performance, such as an increase in 8 sales, market share, or profitability of 9 domestic producers, that are related 10 to relief granted pursuant to a con-
11 current investigation or recently com-
12 pleted investigation.

13 “(ii) RETROACTIVE APPLICATION OF 14 FINAL DETERMINATION.—In making any 15 finding under section 705(b)(4)(A) or 16 735(b)(4)(A) in a successive investigation,
17 the Commission shall consider that a con-
18 current investigation or recently completed 19 investigation contributes to the likelihood 20 that the remedial effect of the counter-
21 vailing duty order to be issued under sec-22 tion 706 or the antidumping duty order to 23 be issued under section 736 will be seri-

19           COSTS OF PRODUCTION THAT MAY CREATE 20           A PARTICULAR MARKET SITUATION.—Ex-21           amples of circumstances that are likely to 22           distort the costs of production and thus 23           are deemed to create a particular market 24           situation for subject merchandise for purposes of subparagraph (A) include the following circumstances:

“(I) An input into the production of subject merchandise is produced in such amounts that there is more supply than demand in international markets for the input.

“(II) A foreign government, a state-owned enterprise, or any other public body is the predominant producer or supplier of an input into the production of subject merchandise.

“(III) A foreign government intervenes in the market for an input into the production of subject merchandise.

“(IV) A foreign government limits exports of an input into the production of subject merchandise.

“(V) A foreign government imposes export taxes on an input into the production of subject merchandise.

“(VI) A foreign government exempts an importer, producer, or ex-

1           porter of subject merchandise from 2           paying duties or taxes associated with 3           trade remedies established by the for-4           eign government relating to an input 5           into the production of subject mer-
6           chandise.

7                   “(VII) A foreign government re-
8           bates duties or taxes paid by an im-
9           porter, producer, or exporter of sub-
10          ject merchandise associated with trade 11          remedies established by the foreign 12          government related to an input into 13          the production of subject merchan-
14          dise.

15                   “(VIII) A foreign government
16          provides financial assistance or sup-17          port to the producer or exporter of 18          subject merchandise, or to a producer
19          or supplier of an input into the pro-20          duction of subject merchandise.

21                   “(IX) A foreign government
22          takes action that influences the pro-23          duction of subject merchandise or an 24          input into the production of subject

1 merchandise, such as domestic content
2 and technology transfer requirements.

3 “(X) A foreign government does 4 not enforce its property (including in-
5 tellectual property), human rights,
6 labor, or environmental protection
7 laws and policies, or those laws and 8 policies are otherwise shown to be in-
9 effective with respect to either a pro-
10 ducer or exporter of subject merchan-11 dise, or to a producer or supplier of 12 an input into the production of sub-
13 ject merchandise in the subject coun-
14 try.

15 “(XI) A foreign government does 16 not implement property (including in-
17 tellectual property), human rights,
18 labor, or environmental protection
19 laws and policies.

20 “(XII) A business relationship 21 between one or more producers of 22 subject merchandise and suppliers of 23 inputs to the production of subject 24 merchandise is such that prices of the 25 inputs are not determined in accord-

1           ance with general market principles, 2           such as through a strategic alliance or 3           noncompetitive arrangement.

4           “(ii) DISTORTIONS CAUSED BY PAR-
5           TICULAR MARKET SITUATIONS NEED NOT 6           BE QUANTIFIED.—If the administering au-
7           thority determines the existence of a par-
8           ticular market situation under subpara-
9           graph (A) but cannot measure the distor-10          tions caused by that particular market sit-11          uation on prices or costs in the exporting 12          country, the administering authority is not 13          required to quantify those distortions and 14          may use any available information and 15          methodology to address those distortions in 16          its analysis and calculations.

17          “(iii) PARTICULAR MARKET SITUA-
18          TIONS MAY EXIST IN MULTIPLE COUN-
19          TRIES.—

20                 “(I) IN GENERAL.—The same
21                 market situation, or a similar market 22                 situation, that distorts the costs of 23                 production of the subject merchandise
24                 can exist in multiple countries or mar-
25                 kets and still be considered particular

1 if the administering authority deter-
2 mines that a market situation exists 3 that distorts costs of production for 4 certain products or parties in the sub-5 ject country.

6 “(II) NO LIMITATION.—There is 7 no limitation to the number of prod-
8 ucts or parties that may be impacted
9 by a particular market situation.

10 “(C) OTHER FACTORS.—In finding that a 11 particular market situation exists, or in using 12 another calculation methodology under this 13 paragraph, the administering authority is not 14 required to consider—

15 “(i) the costs or prices that would 16 otherwise exist in the ordinary course of 17 trade in the absence of the particular mar-
18 ket situation or any of its contributing cir-
19 cumstances;

20 “(ii) whether there is any difference
21 between the particular market situation or 22 any of its contributing circumstances in 23 the exporting country as opposed to any 24 other country; or

1 “(iii) the length of time that the par-
 2 ticular market situation or any of its con-
 3 tributing circumstances has existed.”.

4 SEC. 205. SPECIAL RULES FOR CALCULATION OF COST OF 5 PRODUCTION AND CONSTRUCTED VALUE TO 6 ADDRESS DISTORTED COSTS.

7 Section 773(f)(3) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19
 8 U.S.C. 1677b(f)(3)) is amended—

9 (1) by striking “If, in the case” and inserting
 10 the following:

11 “(A) MAJOR INPUTS FROM AFFILIATED 12 PERSONS.—If, in the case”; and 13 (2) by adding at the end the following:

14 “(B) MAJOR INPUTS FROM CERTAIN UNAF-
 15 FILIATED PERSONS.—

16 “(i) IN GENERAL.—In the case of a
 17 transaction between the exporter or pro-
 18 ducer of the merchandise and any unaffili-
 19 ated person described in clause (ii) involv-20 ing a major input to the merchandise, the 21 administering authority may value such 22 major input based on the information
 23 available regarding what the amount would 24 have been if the transaction had occurred 25 between the exporter or producer of the

1 merchandise and an unaffiliated person
2 that is not described in clause (ii) if that 3 amount is greater than the amount re-4 flected in the records of the exporter or 5 producer of the merchandise.

6 “(ii) UNAFFILIATED PERSONS DE-
7 SCRIBED.—An unaffiliated person de-8 scribed in this clause is—

9 “(I) any person in a nonmarket
10 economy country;

11 “(II) any producer, exporter, or 12 supplier of the input described in
13 clause (i) found by the administering
14 authority, or by any investigating au-
15 thority of a third country, to be re-16 ceiving a countervailable subsidy per-17 taining to an identical or comparable 18 input in the subject country if there is 19 no countervailing duty imposed on the 20 input pursuant to a measure in effect
21 in the exporting country based upon a
22 finding by the investigating authority
23 of the exporting country that the pro-
24 ducer or supplier of the input de-

1           scribed in clause (i) received a
2           countervailable subsidy;

3                   “(III) any producer, exporter, or 4           supplier of the input described in
5           clause (i) found by the administering
6           authority, or by any investigating au-
7           thority of a third country to be selling 8           an identical or comparable input for 9           less than fair market value in the sub-10          ject country if there is no anti-11          dumping duty imposed on the input 12          pursuant to a measure in effect in the 13          exporting country based upon a find-14          ing by the investigating authority of 15          the exporting country that the pro-
16          ducer or supplier sold the input de-17          scribed in clause (i) for less than fair 18          market value into the subject country;

19                   “(IV) a government or public 20          body within the territory of the ex-
21          porting country or any other country; 22          or

23                   “(V) a group of governments or 24          public bodies, or a combination there-
25          of, that collectively account for a

1 meaningful share of the production of 2 the input described in clause (i).

3 “(iii) APPLICATION.—Subclauses (I),
 4 (II), and (III) of clause (ii) shall not apply 5 to inputs described in clause (i) that are 6 produced in the exporting country.”.

7 TITLE III—PREVENTING 8 CIRCUMVENTION

9 SEC. 301. MODIFICATION OF REQUIREMENTS IN CIR- 10 CUMVENTION INQUIRIES.

11 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 781 of the Tariff Act of 12 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1677j) is amended by striking subsection 13 (f) and inserting the following:

14 “(f) PROCEDURES FOR CONDUCTING CIRCUMVEN-
 15 TION INQUIRIES.—

16 “(1) INITIATION BY ADMINISTERING AUTHOR-
 17 ITY.—A circumvention inquiry shall be initiated 18 whenever the administering authority determines, 19 from information available to it, that a formal in-20 quiry is warranted into the question of whether the 21 elements necessary for a determination under this 22 section exist.

23 “(2) INITIATION BY INQUIRY REQUEST.—

24 “(A) IN GENERAL.—A circumvention in-25 quiry shall be initiated whenever an interested

1 party files an inquiry request that alleges the 2 elements necessary for a determination under 3 this section, accompanied by information rea-
4 sonably available to the requestor supporting 5 those allegations.

6 “(B) RULES.—The administering author-
7 ity shall specify requirements for the contents
8 and service of an inquiry request under sub-9 paragraph (A).

10 “(C) ACCEPTANCE OF COMMUNICA-
11 TIONS.—The administering authority shall not 12 accept any unsolicited oral or written commu-
13 nication from any person other than the inter-14 ested party filing an inquiry request before the 15 administering authority decides whether to ini-
16 tiate an inquiry, except for communications re-17 garding the status of the consideration of the 18 inquiry request.

19 “(3) ACTION WITH RESPECT TO INQUIRY RE-
20 QUEST.—

21 “(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subpara-
22 graph (B), not later than 45 days after the fil-23 ing of an inquiry request under paragraph 24 (2)(A), the administering authority shall—

25 “(i) initiate a circumvention inquiry;

1 “(ii) dismiss the inquiry request as in-
2 adequate and notify the requestor in writ-3 ing of the reasons for the dismissal; or

4 “(iii) notify all interested parties that 5 the inquiry request will be addressed
6 through a determination under section 7 781A as to whether a particular type of 8 merchandise is within the class or kind of 9 merchandise described in an existing find-10 ing of dumping or an antidumping or 11 countervailing duty order.

12 “(B) EXTENSION.—The administering au-
13 thority may extend the deadline under subpara-14 graph (A) by a period not to exceed 15 days if 15 an interested party has placed information on 16 the record in response to the request for a cir-
17 cumvention inquiry.

18 “(4) DETERMINATIONS.—

19 “(A) PRELIMINARY DETERMINATIONS.—

20 “(i) IN GENERAL.—Except as pro-
21 vided in clause (ii), not later than 150
22 days after the date on which the admin-
23 istering authority initiates a circumvention 24 inquiry under paragraph (1) or (3)(A), the 25 administering authority shall make a pre-

1 liminary determination, based on the infor-
2 mation available to it at the time of the de-3 termination, of whether there is a reason-4 able basis to believe or suspect that the 5 merchandise subject to the inquiry is cir-
6 cumventing an existing finding of dumping
7 or an antidumping or countervailing duty
8 order.

9 “(ii) EXTENSION.—The administering
10 authority may extend the deadline under
11 clause (i) by a period not to exceed 60
12 days.

13 “(B) FINAL DETERMINATIONS.—

14 “(i) IN GENERAL.—Except as pro-
15 vided in clause (ii), not later than 150
16 days after issuing a preliminary determina-
17 tion under subparagraph (A) with respect
18 to a circumvention inquiry, the admin-
19 istering authority shall make a final deter-
20 mination of whether the merchandise sub-
21 ject to the inquiry is circumventing an ex-22 isting finding of dumping or an anti-23 dumping or countervailing duty order.

24 “(ii) EXTENSION.—The administering
25 authority may extend the deadline under

1 clause (i) by a period not to exceed 65
2 days.

3 “(C) OTHER CLASS OR KIND DETERMINA-
4 TIONS.—If an inquiry request under paragraph 5 (2)(A) is addressed through a class or kind de-
6 termination under section 781A, the admin-
7 istering authority shall make such determina-8 tion not later than 335 days after the filing of 9 the inquiry request.

10 “(5) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in
11 this section shall be construed to prevent the admin-
12 istering authority from simultaneously initiating a 13 circumvention inquiry under paragraph (1) or (3)(A)
14 and issuing a preliminary determination under para-15 graph (4)(A).”.

16 (b) SUSPENSION OF LIQUIDATION AND COLLECTION
17 OF DEPOSITS OF ENTRIES SUBJECT TO CIRCUMVENTION
18 INQUIRY.—Section 781 of the Tariff Act of 1930 is fur-

20 “(g) SUSPENSION OF LIQUIDATION AND COLLECTION
21 OF DEPOSITS OF ENTRIES SUBJECT TO CIRCUMVENTION
22 INQUIRY.—

23 “(1) INITIATION.—If the administering author-
24 ity initiates a circumvention inquiry under para-
25 graph (1) or (3)(A) of subsection (f), for each unliq-

1       uniquidated entry of merchandise subject to the cir-2       cumvention inquiry that was already subject to the 3       suspension of liquidation, the administering author-
4       ity shall order—

5               “(A) the continued suspension of liquida-
6               tion of such entry; and 7               “(B) the continued posting of a cash de-8               posit, at the prevailing all-others or country-9               wide rate, for each such entry.

10              “(2) PRELIMINARY DETERMINATION.—If the 11       administering authority issues a preliminary affirm-
12       ative determination under paragraph (4)(A) of sub-13       section (f) with respect to a circumvention inquiry
14       initiated under paragraph (1) or (3)(A) of that sub-15       section, the administering authority shall order—

16              “(A) the continued suspension of liquida-
17              tion for each unliquidated entry of merchandise
18              subject to the circumvention inquiry that was 19              already subject to the suspension of liquidation;

20              “(B) the suspension of liquidation for each 21              unliquidated entry of merchandise subject to 22              the circumvention inquiry not yet suspended 23              that is entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, 24              for consumption on or after the date of publica-

1           tion of the notice of initiation of the circumven-
2           tion inquiry;

3           “(C) the suspension of liquidation for each
4           entry of merchandise subject to the circumven-
5           tion inquiry not yet suspended that is entered, 6           or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption 7           before the date of publication of the notice of 8           initiation of the circumvention inquiry if the ad-
9           ministering authority determines, under the cir-
10          cumstances, that suspension under this sub-11          paragraph is warranted; and

12          “(D) the posting, or continued posting, of 13          a cash deposit in an amount equal to the anti-
14          dumping duty or countervailing duty applicable
15          for each entry of merchandise described in sub-
16          paragraph (A), (B), or (C).

17          “(3) FINAL DETERMINATION.—If the admin-
18          istering authority issues a final affirmative deter-
19          mination under paragraph (4)(B) of subsection (f)
20          with respect to a circumvention inquiry initiated
21          under paragraph (1) or (3)(A) of that subsection, 22          the administering authority shall order—

23                 “(A) the continued suspension of liquida-
24                 tion for each unliquidated entry of merchandise

1 subject to the circumvention inquiry that was
2 already subject to the suspension of liquidation;

3 “(B) the suspension of liquidation of each
4 entry of merchandise subject to the circumven-
5 tion inquiry that is entered, or withdrawn from 6 warehouse, for consumption on or after the date 7 of publication of the notice of initiation of the 8 circumvention inquiry;

9 “(C) the suspension of liquidation of each
10 entry of merchandise subject to the circumven-
11 tion inquiry that is entered, or withdrawn from 12 warehouse, for consumption before the date of 13 publication of the notice of initiation of cir-
14 cumvention inquiry if the administering author-15 ity determines, under the circumstances, that 16 suspension under this subparagraph is war-17 ranted; and

18 “(D) the posting, or continued posting, of 19 a cash deposit in an amount equal to the anti-
20 dumping duty or countervailing duty applicable
21 for each entry of merchandise described in sub-
22 paragraph (A), (B), or (C).

23 “(4) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in
24 this section shall be construed to prevent the admin-
25 istering authority from applying the requirements

2 tion under section 781A.

3 “(h) APPLICATION OF CIRCUMVENTION DETERMINA-
4 TION.—

5 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The administering author-
6 ity shall consider the appropriate remedy to address 7 circumvention and prevent evasion of an order or 8 finding pursuant to an affirmative determination
9 under subparagraph (A) or (B) of subsection (f)(4).

10 “(2) REMEDIES CONSIDERED.—Remedies con-
11 sidered under paragraph (1) may include the fol-
12 lowing:

13 “(A) The application of the determination
14 described in paragraph (1) on a producer-spe-15 cific, exporter-specific, or importer-specific 16 basis, or some combination thereof, and, as the 17 administering authority determines appropriate, 18 the implementation of a certification require-19 ment under section 785.

20 “(B) The application of the determination
21 described in paragraph (1) on a countrywide
22 basis to all merchandise from a particular coun-
23 try, regardless of producer, exporter, or im-
24 porter of that merchandise, and, as the admin-25 istering authority determines appropriate, the

1 implementation of a certification requirement
2 under section 785.

3 “(3) EXEMPTION FOR MERCHANDISE UNDER 4 CERTIFICATION.—If a certification requirement
5 under section 785 is implemented under this sub-6 section and the importer or other party to which the 7 requirement is applied complies with that require-8 ment, antidumping and countervailing duties under 9 this title may not be applied to the merchandise 10 under certification.”.

11 (c) PUBLICATION IN THE FEDERAL REGISTER.—Sec-

14 “(4) CIRCUMVENTION INQUIRIES.—Whenever 15 the administering authority makes a determination 16 under section 781 whether to initiate a circumven-
17 tion inquiry or makes a preliminary or final deter-18 mination under subsection (f)(4) of that section, the 19 administering authority shall publish the facts and 20 conclusions supporting that determination and shall 21 publish notice of that determination in the Federal 22 Register.”.

23 (d) ADDING VERIFICATION RESPONSES IN CIR-
24 CUMVENTION INQUIRIES.—Section 782(i) of the Tariff
25 Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1677m(i)) is amended—

9 SEC. 302. REQUIREMENT OF PROVISION BY IMPORTER OF 10 CERTIFICATION BY IMPORTER OR OTHER
11 PARTY.

12 (a) IN GENERAL.—Subtitle D of title VII of the Tar-13 iff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1677 et seq.), as amended by 14 section 103(a), is further amended by adding at the end
15 the following:

16 “SEC. 785. REQUIREMENT FOR CERTIFICATION BY IM-
17 PORTER OR OTHER PARTY.

18 “(a) REQUIREMENT.—

19 “(1) IN GENERAL.—For imports of merchan-
20 dise into the customs territory of the United States,
21 the administering authority may require an importer
22 or other party—

23 “(A) to provide a certification described in 24 paragraph (2) at the time of entry or with the 25 entry summary;

1 “(B) to maintain that certification; or

2 “(C) to otherwise demonstrate compliance
3 with the requirements for that certification.

4 “(2) CERTIFICATION DESCRIBED.—A certifi-
5 cation described in this paragraph is a certification
6 by the importer of the merchandise or other party, 7 as required by the administering authority, including 8 a certification that—

9 “(A) the merchandise is not subject to an 10 antidumping or countervailing duty proceeding 11 under this title; and

12 “(B) the inputs used in production, trans-13 formation, or processing of the merchandise are 14 not subject to an antidumping or countervailing 15 duty under this title.

16 “(3) AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST.—A certifi-17 cation required by the administering authority under 21 der Protection (in this section referred to as the 22 ‘Commissioner’).

23 “(b) AUTHORITY TO SUSPEND LIQUIDATION, COL-
24 LECT CASH DEPOSITS AND ASSESS DUTIES.—

1           “(1) IN GENERAL.—If the administering au-

4           subsection (a) for merchandise imported into the 5           customs territory of the United States pursuant to 6           paragraph (1) of that subsection, and the importer 7           or other party does not provide that certification or 8           that certification contains any false, misleading, or 9           fraudulent statement or representation or any mate-10          rial omission, the administering authority shall in-11          struct the Commissioner—

12                   “(A) to suspend liquidation of the entry;

13                   “(B) to require that the importer or other

19           “(2) ASSESSMENT RATE.—If no rate of duty 20           for an entry is available at the time of assessment
21           under paragraph (1)(C), the administering authority 22           shall identify the applicable cash deposit rate to be 23           applied to the entry, with the applicable duty rate to
