A BILL

To amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to promote family unity, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “American Families 5       United Act”.

6       SEC. 2. RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.

7       Nothing in this Act shall be construed—

1           (1) to provide the Secretary of Homeland Secu-
 2           rity or the Attorney General with the ability to exer-
 3           cise the discretionary authority provided in this Act, 4           or by an amendment made by this Act, except on a 5           case-by-case basis; or

6           (2) to otherwise modify or limit the discre-
 7           tionary authority of the Secretary of Homeland Se-8           curity or the Attorney General under the immigra-9           tion laws (as defined in section 101(a)(17) of the 10          Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
 11          1101(a)(17))).

12 SEC. 3. DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO 13 FAMILY MEMBERS OF UNITED STATES CITI-
 14 ZENS.

15          (a) APPLICATIONS FOR RELIEF FROM REMOVAL.—
 16          Section 240(c)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act
 17          (8 U.S.C. 1229a(c)(4)) is amended by adding at the end 18          the following:

19                       “(D) JUDICIAL DISCRETION.—

20                       “(i) IN GENERAL.—In the case of an 21                       alien who is the spouse or child of a citizen 22                       of the United States, the Attorney General 23                       may subject to clause (ii)—

24                       “(I) terminate any removal pro-25                       ceedings against the alien;

1 “(II) decline to order the alien
2 removed from the United States;

3 “(III) grant the alien permission 4 to reapply for admission to the United 5 States; or

6 “(IV) subject to clause (iii),
7 waive the application of one or more
8 grounds of inadmissibility or deport-
9 ability in connection with any request 10 for relief from removal.

11 “(ii) LIMITATION ON DISCRETION.—

12 “(I) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney
13 General may exercise the discretion
14 described in clause (i) if the Attorney 15 General determines that removal of 16 the alien or the denial of a request for 17 relief from removal would result in 18 hardship to the alien’s United States
19 citizen spouse, parent, or child. There 20 shall be a presumption that family
21 separation constitutes hardship.

22 “(II) WIDOW AND SURVIVING
23 CHILD OF DECEASED UNITED STATES
24 CITIZEN.—In the case of the death of 25 a citizen of the United States, the At-

1           torney General may exercise discretion 2           described in clause (i) with respect to 3           an alien who was a child of such cit-
4           izen, or was the spouse of such citizen 5           and was not legally separated from 6           such citizen on the date of the citi-7           zen’s death, if—

8                     “(aa) the Attorney General 9                     determines that removal of the 10                    child or spouse or the denial of a 11                    requested benefit would result in 12                    hardship to the child or spouse; 13                    and 14                   “(bb) the child or spouse

15                    seeks relief requiring such discre-
16                    tion not later than two years
17                    after the date of the citizen’s 18                    death or demonstrates to the sat-
19                    isfaction of the Attorney General
20                    the existence of extraordinary cir-21                    cumstances that prevented the 22                    spouse or child from seeking re-23                    lief within such period.

1                   “(iii) EXCLUSIONS.—This subpara-2                   graph shall not apply to an alien whom the 3                   Attorney General determines—

4                   “(I) is inadmissible under—

5                   “(aa) paragraph (2) or (3) 6                   of section 212(a); or

7                   “(bb) subparagraph (A), 8                   (C), or (D) of section 212(a)(10); 9                   or

10                  “(II) is deportable under para-
 11                  graph (2), (4), or (6) of section
 12                  237(a).”.

13               (b) SECRETARY’S DISCRETION.—Section 212 of the 14               Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1182) is 15               amended—

16               (1) by redesignating the second subsection (t) 17               as subsection (u); and 18               (2) by adding at the end the following:

19               “(v) SECRETARY’S DISCRETION.—

20               “(1) IN GENERAL.—In the case of an alien who 21               is the spouse or child of a citizen of the United 22               States, the Secretary of Homeland Security may, 23               subject to paragraph (2)—

24               “(A) waive the application of one or more 25               grounds of inadmissibility or deportability in

1 connection with an application for an immigra-
2 tion benefit or request for relief from removal;

3 “(B) decline to issue a notice to appear or 4 other charging document requiring such an 5 alien to appear for removal proceedings;

6 “(C) decline to reinstate an order of re-7 moval under section 241(a)(5); or

8 “(D) grant such alien permission to re-9 apply for admission to the United States or any 10 other application for an immigration benefit.

11 “(2) LIMITATION ON DISCRETION.—

12 “(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of 13 Homeland Security may exercise discretion de-14 scribed in paragraph (1) if the Secretary deter-15 mines that removal of the alien or the denial of 16 a requested benefit would result in hardship to 17 the alien’s United States citizen spouse, parent, 18 or child. There shall be a presumption that 19 family separation constitutes hardship.

20 “(B) WIDOW AND ORPHAN OF DECEASED
21 UNITED STATES CITIZEN.—In the case of the 22 death of a citizen of the United States, the Sec-
23 retary of Homeland Security may exercise dis-
24 cretion described in paragraph (1) with respect 25 to an alien who was a child of such citizen, or

1           was the spouse of such citizen and was not le-2           gally separated from such citizen on the date of 3           the citizen's death, if—

4                   “(i) the Secretary determines that the 5                   denial of a requested benefit would result 6                   in hardship to the child or spouse; and 7                   “(ii) the child or spouse seeks relief 8                   requiring such discretion not later than 9                   two years after the date of the citizen's 10                  death or demonstrates to the satisfaction

11                  of the Secretary the existence of extraor-12                  dinary circumstances that prevented the 13                  spouse or child from seeking relief within 14                  such period.

15                  “(3) EXCLUSIONS.—This subsection shall not 16                  apply to an alien whom the Secretary determines—

17                   “(A) is inadmissible under—

18                           “(i) paragraph (2) or (3) of sub-19                           sections (a); or

20                           “(ii) subparagraphs (A), (C), or (D) 21                           of subsection (a)(10); or

22                   “(B) is deportable under paragraphs (2), 23                  (4), or (6) of section 237(a).”.

1 SEC. 4. MOTIONS TO REOPEN OR RECONSIDER.

2 (a) IN GENERAL.—A motion to reopen or reconsider
3 the denial of a petition or application or an order of re-4 moval for an alien may be granted if such petition, appli-5 cation, or order would have been adjudicated in favor of 6 the alien had this Act, or an amendment made by this 7 Act, been in effect at the time of such denial or order.

8 (b) FILING REQUIREMENT.—A motion under sub-9 section (a) shall be filed no later than the date that is 10 2 years after the date of the enactment of this Act, unless 11 the alien demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Secretary
12 of Homeland Security or Attorney General, as appro-13 priate, the existence of extraordinary circumstances that 14 prevented the alien from filing within such period.
